Cotton Was King Signing

FLORENCE— Florence/Lauderdale Tourism will host a special presentation and book signing by author Rickey Butch Walker on Saturday, November 18 in conjunction with the release of his latest book, Cotton Was King. The free event will take place at 1pm at the Florence/Lauderdale Tourism Visitor Center in McFarland Park.

Cotton Was King was originally started by Dr. William L. McDonald who authored many books on local history, served on numerous historical boards, and was the Florence City Historian for many years. He was also a dedicated Methodist minister for over thirty years. After McDonald's death in 2009, Bluewater Publications worked with the McDonald family to have Walker finish the work.

Walker showcases the important role that cotton played in history, especially for those Native Americans who first explored and used the area now known as Lauderdale County, Alabama before white settlers arrived. Walker also presents accounts of Native American Chief Doublehead and Chief George Colbert and the government corruption that preceded the Indian Removal. Other sections of the book deal with early white settlements that depended on slavery, Lauderdale County plantations, and pre-Civil War holdings.

In The Country...

include vendors and artists, hayrides and tours of historic LaGrange Cemetery. For more details on becoming an arts and crafts vendor or demonstrator, contact Lenz at louiselenz9324@gmail.com.

According to Susann Hamlin, president and CEO of Colbert County Tourism and Convention Bureau, Christmas in the Country provides a glimpse of what holiday celebrations were like 150 ago.

The historical buildings at the park will be decorated to resemble an old-time Christmas. Some of the Christmas trees that will be on display will be decorated as early settlers would have trimmed theirs, by using bird's nests and other natural materials.

There will be plenty of cakes, pies, cookies and other treats at the ever-popular Christmas in the Country Bake Sale.

Christmas in the Country is a popular place for making Christmas card photos with Santa, and both Santa and Mrs. Claus will attend the celebration.

Students from throughout north Alabama will attend the first day of the event. Lenz feels it's important for children to learn about pioneer Christmas celebrations.

LaGrange College was Alabama's first chartered college and the forerunner of the University of North Alabama. It was burned by Union forces during the Civil War. LaGrange College Site Park is located off Alabama 157 just eight miles southeast of Muscle Shoals.

If skies are clear, the observatory at the park will be open for star gazing after dusk on Friday, Nov. 17. If skies are clear, the mountain top park will be a great place to view the Leonid meteor shower that night.

For more details about the festival, call Colbert County Tourism at 256-383-0783.

Good Company...

The free holiday meal of turkey, dressing, green beans, and mashed potatoes with all the trimmings will be served to individuals, families, or anyone who is in need, struggling, or alone, and to college students who couldn't make it home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Last year over 400 people were served and this year organizers hope to reach 500. AHU Entertainment owner and international rap artist Geoffrey,

"GMANE" Robinson, a Shoals native will again partner with Sweetwater 227, Season's Restaurant, and local supporters to help ensure that everyone in the Shoals has an opportunity to eat a good meal in the company of others this Thanksgiving.

Those in need of transportation or who want to volunteer or to donation are encouraged to call Kym Robinson at 256-810-8426 for more information.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

Q My wife had a car wreck in September. The man who caused the wreck's insurance company wants to record her over the phone telling them about what happened, should she do it?
David, Florence, AL

A The short answer is NO. While you are obligated to cooperate with your own insurance company and give your own insurance company a statement, this does NOT require you to give a recorded statement to the other driver's insurance company. In fact, you should never give a recorded statement until you have consulted with an experienced personal injury lawyer. Insurance companies' claims adjusters are professional negotiators with extensive experience. They are well trained to ask questions in a manner designed to hurt your claim. Insurance adjusters are trained to save money for the insurance companies. If they can do that by making fault questionable or by establishing that your medical claims are unfounded or unrelated, they may avoid having to pay for the full extent of your injuries.

Usually the insurance adjuster taking the statement is not the insurance adjuster who handles the property damage and the adjuster that handles the property damage claim is not the one that handles the personal injury claim. The one who wants you to talk can be charming. The one who wants to pay you as little as possible won't be.

I also don't believe that these questions really can be answered accurately after an accident. Yet we all know that any inaccuracy will be used by the insurance company to make it appear as if you were lying. The problem is that the impressions left in memory after a sudden accident aren't accurate. There is no substitute for going to the scene with an attorney and foot looking at skid marks, scuff marks and debris left on the pavement as well as having a look at the distances involved. Only after you know the facts should you attempt to state the facts.

Buckle up, drive safely and as always your referrals are appreciated! 256-764-0112

I WAS RECENTLY IN AN ONLINE DEBATE with some very intelligent people. They were insisting their phone was listening to them even when they weren't using it. They claimed that they were having a conversation about an obscure movie. Shortly afterwards, they opened an app on their phone and the obscure movie was being suggested in an ad.

Fisher

Another individual was growing his first beard and was shopping for shaving supplies. He happened to be pointing his phone towards his shopping cart when he dropped in a few shaving supplies. Shortly afterwards, he opened his phone and was presented with an ad for Dollar Shave Club. It was obvious to him that his phone took a picture of the items in his shopping cart without his permission.

EVERY STEP YOU TAKE I'LL BE WATCHING YOU

by "The Computer Skeptic"

Were these incredible coincidences or are our phones spying on us? The short story is that, yeah, these were coincidences.

These kinds of coincidences are a phenomenon known as "frequency illusion." This illusion is where a thing that has recently come to one's attention suddenly seems to appear with improbable frequency shortly afterwards. The bearded guy never noticed the shaving kit ads on his phone until he decided to grow a beard. This also explains why everyone is driving the same car as you now that you have a shiny new car.

After this point, confirmation bias kicks in. Confirmation bias happens when, for example, you were thinking of a family member you haven't thought about in a while then, out of the blue, they call you. You then think you have some sort of supernatural connection with the universe that doesn't really exist. It's just that you remember ("confirm") these one-in-a-million coincidences but forgot all the other times you thought about your family member but they didn't call.

I see these accusations mostly aimed at Google or Facebook where people are absolutely convinced they are being spied upon. The primary reason I disregard these kinds of things is the fact that this kind of privacy invasion is quite illegal. A company caught doing this would immediately face the wrath of an outraged public as well as Congressional investigations which would be really bad for business. Facebook is simply not going to risk losing billions of dollars just to sell you a can of shaving cream.

Additionally, it is not really even possible for Facebook or Google to use the microphone in the ways that people are claiming. A technical explanation of why that can't happen is beyond your and my attention span but suffice it to say that Google and Facebook can't use your camera or microphone until you request it. If an app is found to violate this permission policy, they are immediately removed from circulation.

Test it for yourself. Start talking about something really obscure that you never would search or even show interest in like garden gnomes or adult diapers and see what happens.

BUT -- and this is a big butt (hah, get it?) -- your phone CAN spy on you in ways you may not realize. We will talk about that in my next exciting installment!

A WARM FLOOR THIS WINTER
 We love the tile floors in our house, but last winter the floors were really cold for our stocking feet. We bought some area rugs, but that didn't completely solve the problem. Then I had the idea of putting some foam carpet pad under the rugs. Problem solved!

GARAGE STORAGE
 Every garage has some long, thin items that are hard to store. Here's an idea that worked for me. We had some leftover rain gutter. I attached a couple of lengths to the studs. One is for some wood trim molding. The other is for the wands of my pressure washer.

WARDROBE MALFUNCTION
 One day I was looking in my closet and realized that I had a wardrobe malfunction. It wasn't the kind that's embarrassing. Instead, it was the kind that hits your wallet. I had four dresses that were only good for very special occasions. I had worn the one I liked best five or six times. I only wore the others once or twice! I recalled reading about the girl who makes her purchase decisions based on how much it would cost each time she wore something. I know that an evening dress is going to cost more than a frequently worn blouse, but I probably didn't need to have four in my closet!

Horse Liniment Eases Arthritis Pain

OCALA, FL -- An ingredient derived from hot peppers that decreases inflammation in racehorse's legs, is now recognized as safe and effective for human use.

The ingredient has been formulated into a product called ARTH-Rx® and is a breakthrough in the treatment of painful disorders ranging from minor aches and pains to more serious conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism and tendonitis. Some have also reported incredible relief from the pain associated with fibromyalgia.

Although the mechanism by which ARTH-Rx works to relieve pain is not totally clear, scientists suggest that pain is Relieved because the active ingredient in ARTH-Rx intercepts the messenger substance that sends pain signals to the brain.

Available in a convenient roll-on applicator without a prescription. Supplies are sometimes limited. © 2017 HCD

Limitations?

STAN DEAN

I read a story some time back about the famed actress of yesteryear, Helen Hayes. What I am about to share with you impressed me as much about her character as her acting ability.

In Ms. Hayes' early days her producer told her if she were only four inches taller she could become one of the greatest actresses of her time. Determined to reach for the stars she said, "I decided to lick my size." She then allowed herself to be tortured by having her body pulled and stretched repeatedly for a period of time, but all to no avail.

The actress remained the same in stature, although she did develop perfect posture. Recounting the experience she said, "I became the tallest five-foot woman in the world. And my refusal to be limited by my limitations enabled me to play Mary of Scotland, one of the tallest queens in history!"

Refusing to be limited by limitations is an attitude commendable of anyone. Too often we let the world in which we live define the image of the "perfect" person. As a result, a lot of people go around thinking they are too tall, too short, too fat, too skinny, not pretty enough, not smart enough, not rich enough, too young, too old, ad nauseam. Sure, we all have some limitations, but we need not let them rob us of the joy of living.

I am a strong believer in the adage, "God don't make junk!" The grammar is wrong, but the message is right. We are all created in His image and He values us for what we are—not for traits by which the world might value us (cf. 1 Samuel 16:7).

Paul also understood this truth due to his own physical struggle which he referred to as "a thorn in the flesh" (2 Corinthians 12:7f). And even though he prayed that it might be removed, to do so was not in God's plan. But Paul certainly did not let it limit him from serving the Lord with all his heart—and my, what a blessing he was to the Church!

What do you perceive to be your limitations? And once more, we all have them. The key is whether we control them—or let them control us!

So, let me conclude by saying, regardless of who you are or what you have, your life can be filled with joy! You can be a blessing to others! And, you can be a glory to God! Not because you have no limitations, but by your refusal to be limited by them.

Making Grave Mistakes, Literally

Matthew 22:29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. Error is multiplied greatly when coupled with unbelief. Every time one picks up a King James Bible, the truth is staring them in the face. The simplicity of that book is beyond explanation. The reason for anyone not entering heaven is simply unbelief. Scholars and teachers and speakers and preachers changed words and phrases trying to over-simplify an already simple seventh grade English book. How hard is this to understand:

- Romans 3:23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
- Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.
- Romans 5:8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
- Hebrews 2:9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
- Acts 4:12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.
- Hebrews 9:27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:
- 2 Thessalonians 2:12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
- 2 Thessalonians 2:13 But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:
- Romans 10:13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Which part of sin, death, hell, lake of fire, gift, belief, saved and salvation don't you understand? Revelation 21:8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Why is it you don't know whether or not you are saved? Simply put, you don't believe the scriptures above. I mean when you hit the grave, then you will know what a grave mistake you have made, literally. UNBELIEF!

Commentary

Search For Safety In The Worship

Discussing politics immediately after an unstable individual kills multiple people at a school, office building, concert, or a church building is unfortunate. So is having those unstable individuals loose on society.

We all know that Devin Kelley killed at least 26 people at First Baptist Church in Sutherland Springs, Texas last Sunday morning. Several of the victims were still in critical condition as we went to press with this week's issue.

It's not the first church shooting in the United States, but it is by far the most deadly.

In September of this year in Antioch, Tennessee one was killed and seven were wounded at Burnette Chapel Church of Christ. A few others include 2007 Colorado Springs where five were killed at New Life Church; In 2009 in Wichita, Kansas one person was killed at Reformation Lutheran Church; In 2015 in Charleston, SC nine were killed and one was wounded at Emmanuel AME.

Politics over gun control is the issue. Ironically, the killer was actually stopped by two armed area residents outside the church.

Kelley was only able to purchase his guns because the U.S. Air Force didn't report his unusually violent past and dishonorable discharge to the FBI as it was required to do by the Pentagon. Therefore, his 2012 domestic

Paranoia Reasonable

Editor:

Donna Brazile, the former interim head of the Democratic National Committee, talks about the mysterious murder of DNC data staffer, Seth Rich, in her upcoming book. Some say he was murdered because he leaked internal DNC emails to WikiLeaks. Brazile felt her own life was in danger.

According to the Washington Post, "Brazile shut the blinds to her office window so snipers could not see her. She also installed surveillance cameras in her home and fretted over whether the Russians had bugged her DNC executive suite with listening devices." Brazile is described as being paranoid. However, when you consider all the mysterious deaths of those connected to the Clinton administration, it is reasonable for anyone exposing a Clinton to be wary.

Find Joy in The Giver

Editor:

In this life we are participants in sucking in air, pumping blood, washing, working, eating, sleeping, and acquiring. All hell is about to break loose in the acquiring section because it's Christmas.

Christmas is the one holiday that saves most of the world's economy on purpose, third world countries excluded.

Because individuals fail to read and to learn the Word of God, they end up believing man's false ideas.

Those of us lucky enough to live in America and other progressive countries are media-driven. We get to participate in a media-driven standard of living. Sadly, I know few who are content.

Joy can only be purchased, but only for a temporary thrill. For the observer, there are things that can't be bought, like love, time spent with family, and good health.

When I look at pictures of my daughter who is battling blindness, I know what she is going through. I know what it's like NOT to be able to see, and so does she. We know the price we have had to pay, but it's priceless. The battle continues.

Thankfully, God has used my losses to transform me from being an obtainer to an observer. My conclusion is that the things which are obtained are not that important. The things that will always remain important are those things given to you when you were created.

Celestial Thoughts

She is one of our local teachers to whom we entrust our children every day. She has traffic duty in the morning outside the school where my youngest attends. She does it with such grace, enthusiasm, and with a smile that lights up the town.

I dare say there are a lot of us who are not morning people, so it can be difficult to see the bright side of things at 7:30am. However, there she is, smiling, waving cars forward, greeting students, and blessing people as they start their day.

Many of the parents wave to her and mouth the words, "Good morning," as they sail through the line. She gives a special wave and returns the silent words, "Good morning!" through rolled up windows. I've been meaning to tell her how much I appreciate her, so I stopped for just a moment to thank her for her bright spirit. I told her that she didn't realize it, but she blesses my morning with her sweet smile. I gave her a little treat and a card of thanks. Even encouragers need encouragement.

God bless you with many more "Good mornings," Ms. N. Thank you for all you do for our children.

Dawn

"They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise the Lord."

Armed ...

violence conviction wasn't noted in the National Criminal Information Center database. Consequently, the properly performed background check brought up nothing and he was able to purchase the guns he wanted.

The snowflakes of society who insist on gun-free zones are inviting trouble. Issues rarely transpire when prospective assailants know others will be armed. Peace reigns where law-abiding citizens are permitted to carry responsibly.

Ten years ago few would have ever considered having a gun on church grounds for any reason. It was unnecessary and therefore seemed almost sacrilegious.

Should churches be more mindful of this type of situation and be more willing to have armed, trained people at services?

We're not talking about uniformed guards with sunglasses and rifle scopes. Just members who may be ushers or rotate on a security detail to keep a watchful eye on cars in the parking lot.

Some Christians might say, "We should put our trust in God. He will protect us." That is a good philosophy to have. However, it is not now and never has been an end all, be all.

Early settlers never left a child alone outside with wild animals just yards away assuming God would watch over them. They were not blindly stupid.

The generations before us used to leave doors unlocked and windows open at night as well. That was when most everyone had honor and could be trusted. Most of us know that too many in this generation have no integrity, so we are no longer that trusting.

God can and often does protect us in ways we may not even realize. However, he also gave us brains to reason and assess and a responsibility to protect our family and His family. We are even challenged to demonstrate that love by giving our life for another if need be.

You may be uncomfortable with there being any gun around you or in any building you are in. I can appreciate that.

However, let's not fool ourselves. In our house by ourselves is about the only place we can make that choice.

Whether we realize it or not, there are licensed gun owners armed in just about every building or at any event we go to. That includes restaurants, stores, stadiums, parks, and local churches. That has been the case for many years and they actually act as protection for YOU, the law abiding citizen.

Having to discuss the issue of armed people providing protection at local services is unfortunate.

So is now having to worry about needing protection from lunatics while at those church services.

WHEN IS A DOOR NOT A DOOR? Connect the dots and find out.

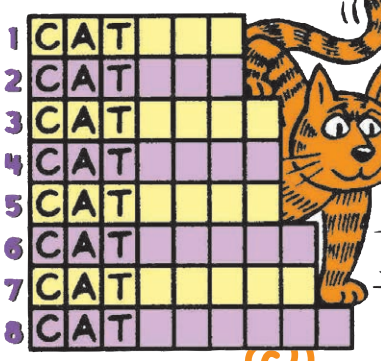

A "PICKY" PROBLEM! Here's a neat little wager. Place 16 toothpicks on the table, forming five squares as shown in fig. 1. Challenge your friends to move two of them to new positions so that you will have only four equal squares.

THE CAT'S "MEOW" PUZZLE

You'll be sitting in the "catbird's seat" if you finish this one. To the left is a stack of eight words, each of which begins with the word "cat." Using the following hints, see if you can catch them in less than five minutes

1. An easily remembered tune.
2. A short rest.
3. A tomato favorite. (Var.)
4. A disapproving whistle.
5. Found at big parties.
6. Found in swamps.
7. Great for moving heavy objects.
8. A well-known slogan.

FIND THE SEVEN WORDS PUZZLE! In the word square at the right, we've removed six of the letters to spell out the word "PLANET." Can you replace these letters in the squares so that you will have four 3-letter words across and three 4-letter words down? Time limit: 60 seconds.

"Sell all that you have and follow me," Jesus said, "Because your life will be required of you."

We like to pretend that we are invincible. We are not. We are vulnerable to our Creator, our environment, and temptations both good and bad. Our temptations define us. When you become an observer, you will see that material things are not that important unless you use them to help yourself become a better person and help others in need.

"The poor are with you always," He said. Yet, He gave no caution on being poor.

Most things in life are not that important. If we let it, the quest to obtain will distract us and divert our attention from the Giver.

This Christmas I invite you to look to the Giver and find joy in love expressed to one another.

No Tax Stunts Over Here

Editor:

Will the city of Florence ever get the message not to mess with the tax situation? It doesn't seem likely.

First, they try their best to embarrass all the hoteliers into going along with a 5% increase in the lodging tax. That one doesn't fly, so they propose 3%. That also falls flat on its face.

Next, they want to hit up all the citizens and unsuspecting visitors with a 1¢ sales tax increase. That one gets the axe chop.

Ever since Mayor Steve Holt has been in charge, things are not going very well. Strange as it may seem, it looks like the ones who voted Mickey Haddock out now wish they had voted for him.

BETTER MICROWAVE POPCORN

There is nothing I like better on a cold winter weekend than to binge watch a favorite TV series! Besides my favorite blanket, I must have a bowl of popcorn to go with it. Instead of buying microwave popcorn bags, I make my own. I buy a jar of my favorite brand of popcorn. It's a little more expensive, but it is still cheaper than the microwave stuff. I add a little oil to a bowl. After swishing the kernels around in the oil, I set the microwave on high for five minutes. When it gets to only a few pops per minute, I stop. After adding some salt and butter, I'm ready to start watching my favorite shows!

PREPPING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

I'm a realtor and one mistake I often see is people spending money doing the wrong things to get their house ready for sale. Before you spend any serious money, ask a realtor how to get the biggest bang for your budget. We can tell you what buyers want. This could keep you from making an expensive mistake!

MAKING THE MOST OF A PAY RAISE

If you want to make the most of a pay raise, put part of it away in your IRA or 401k retirement account. If you don't, it's too easy to just let that extra money disappear! Last year, I got a 2% raise and I'm still out of money by my next paycheck. This year, I'm getting 3% and half of it is going into my IRA. I'll probably still be out of money by payday, but at least I'll get to see my IRA grow!

BITE SIZE PIECES

We were overwhelmed when we first thought about trying to repay our $13k balance on four different credit cards. Then we remembered that old story about how to eat an elephant one bite at a time. Therefore, we set a goal of reducing it by $1k. When we did that, we celebrated with a picnic and decided that we could do it again. So far, we've cut $4k from the total. We still have a long way to go, but by taking it in $1k pieces, we believe we can do it.

GHOSTLY MAKE-UP

If you want that strange skin color for your Halloween costume, try this. Add a couple of drops of green food coloring to a light shade of base make-up and mix them together. Apply it to any exposed skin. You'll make a realistic witch, vampire, or alien!

Fame honoree, Walt Aldridge. The massive success of this release propelled the group into recognition in the world of country music, bringing them other honors such as hosting the CMA Awards, two CMA Award nominations, and over 500,000 records sold for their hit song. This was also followed by dozens of nationally televised performances and appearances at large festivals around the country.

"I'm very excited to host this unveiling for the group. They've had a very interesting career, and will undoubtedly have some great stories to tell at this event," said Dixie Griffin, manager of the Hall of Fame.

After brief introductory remarks and the unveiling, members and associates of the group will have an opportunity to share stories and memories about the band. This will be followed by a Q&A. The opening remarks will begin at 2:30pm, and the Q&A is expected to be over at 4:30pm. This event will

by DAVE RAMSEY

MARRIED OR SINGLE, BUDGETING IS THE KEY

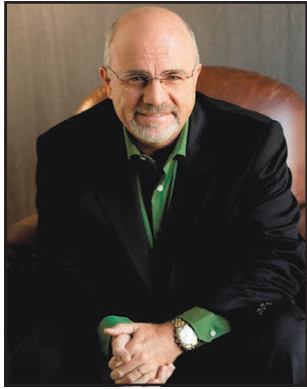

Dear Dave,
Do you have any tips for how single people can stay on track with their finances?
Deb

Dear Deb,
The first thing I'd suggest is the same advice I give to married couples, and that is to spend less than you make, and live on a written, monthly budget. Sit down at the end of each month and write down — on paper — all your expenses and income for the upcoming month. Give every dollar a job, then spend everything on paper before the month begins.

When you think about it, budgeting isn't that difficult. All it takes is a little time and a few basic math skills. Some expenses, like your mortgage payment or rent, will be the same. If you have a car payment, it should remain constant, as well. Things like utilities and groceries may fluctuate a little based on the time of year, but you can formulate pretty accurate estimates by looking at past months.

Another thing I would recommend is finding a mature, trustworthy friend or family member to act as an accountability partner. This person should also be good with money, and your relationship should be strong enough that they're not afraid to call you out if you start behaving irresponsibly with your cash.

Sit down, just the two of you, once a month and talk about your finances. You can even go over your income and budget line by line if it helps. The point in this scenario is to get support from someone who cares about you, and is willing to be there — and help hold you accountable — for the financial decisions you're making.

—Dave

USED CAR WARRANTIES

Dear Dave,
What is your opinion of used car warranties?
Anonymous

Dear Anonymous,
I'm not a fan of extended warranties in general, and I especially dislike used car warranties. In my mind, they're bad because they're expensive and — on average — of little benefit to the buyer.

Did you know, in many cases, only about 12 percent of what you pay for used car warranties goes to cover the cost of repairs? That means around 88 percent goes toward profit, overhead, and commissions. In fact, some used car dealers make more money from the sale of extended warranties than they do on the sale of actual cars.

The best way to cover yourself is to buy smart and self-insure. Save up an emergency fund of three to six months of expenses, and stay away from stuff like used car warranties!

I sure am glad I live where I do, because our mayor and others in city government don't pull these stunts or have constant write-ups in the local daily paper.

Service a Noble Undertaking

Dear Editor:

Fear of God has almost disappeared in America. Time is the new god to many. To unbelievers, it is time which gets the credit for everything God Almighty created. They are totally ignorant of God and His Eternal Word.

Fiction has displaced reality in the name of science. We hear a meteorologist say "we are scientists, we know!" Or we see a bearded prospector on TV, look at his find and say, "this is so and so million years old." Then there were the two scientists who claimed they discovered the first fossil, an object which they claimed is about 300 miles long in the center of the Earth.

Did scientists asked where all the matter to cover the fossil came from, to form the rest of the earth, which is almost 8,000 miles in diameter? Doubt it! In their minds they do believe this earth was formed by layers and layers of rock, and they have assigned a certain age to some layers.

To this day, so-called scientists are out there looking for the oldest fossil to date or to elevate their ego. They do not know that "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction." Truth, Knowledge, and Wisdom is in God's Word, not Man.

Because individuals fail to read and to learn the Word of God, they end up believing man's false ideas. Eventually, they end up in Hell and later the Lake of Fire for eternity. That lake of fire is Satan's future home for eternity, and he wants your company.

No one should ever want to go to that place. The obvious way to prevent going there is to study God's Word, the Holy Bible, and by hearing His word. While you seek God, his Holy Spirit will convict you of your sins. This should lead to your repentance, and acceptance of Jesus, and His enduring love. God knows and loves each one of us. Service to God is not slavery, but a noble undertaking.

"Medicare Advantage Plans - Part 3"

A Medicare Advantage Plan (MA) is a type of Medicare health plan offered by a private insurance company that contracts with Medicare to provide you with all your Part A and Part B benefits. There are six things to consider when choosing a MA plan. We discussed three of those things last week; the premium, copays and coinsurance of the plan. This week we will talk about deductibles, provider networks and drug formularies.

A deductible is the amount you are required to pay for your health care services before your health insurance begins to pay. Most MA plans do not have a deductible on services as long as you receive the services from an in network provider. If you receive the services from an out of network provider you may have to meet a deductible before the plan pays or you may not have coverage at all depending on the type of plan you have.

The provider network of the plan is a list of doctors or health care facilities that have agreed to accept the plan. If you are considering a MA plan for the first time you will want to verify with your agent that any doctor or facility you may want to visit is in your plan's network. If you are already in a MA plan you will want to verify with your doctor that they will accept the plan in 2018.

AMA plan's drug formulary is a list of drugs that are covered by the plan. This will include the tiers and copays of the drugs and any deductible you may have to meet on the prescriptions you are taking. Don't overlook the formulary of the plan because MA plans do not cover every prescription drug that is manufactured.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-648-5710), stop by our office at 885 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com. Alabama Health Guidance is an independent insurance agency and is not affiliated with Medicare or any other government agency.

FINDING TIME TO COOK FROM SCRATCH

There are no coupons for milk, butter, cheese, flour, bread, and cooking basics unless there is a brand name that wants you to try something new. There are no coupons for produce. Therefore, for frugal families that cook from scratch, it is hard to find a coupon to use. For the average folks who do use name brand products, you will do a lot of work to save a few dollars if you try to coupon.

Instead, this is what I do. I cook from scratch. I use store brands when the flavor or health is not affected. I found that cooking, freezing, and storing my own food saved more money than the coupons.

Get a cookbook from the library for free and start saving money. Write down the recipes that work for you. The more you make them the faster it will become. It will become like second nature eventually. I have a friend that bakes bread daily with her morning coffee. It seems like work to me. To her, it's frugal and it's exercise. Plus, it gets everyone toast for breakfast and a sandwich for lunch. Every family is unique, but I have learned the hard way that coupons don't work the same for folks who are frugal.

THE SUBSCRIBER CLUB TANGO

I joined one of those monthly razor clubs. Getting deliveries every other month, I still had too many. Once I had a good back stock of razors, I cancelled my subscription. I figure I can always subscribe again when I run low. I also use cheap conditioner instead of shaving cream.

Soap Opera Preview

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL Bill met with the demolition crew and concocted a plan to turn the Spectra building into rubble by day's end. Liam encouraged the Spectra employees to stage a sit-in at the site. Shirley called Sally out on her feelings for Liam and reminded her that he was married. Unsuccessful in his attempted negotiations, Bill decided to put some fear into his opponents. Steffy warned Sally to stay away from her man. Saul and Darlita had a big Halloween surprise for Sally. Wait to See: A clandestine couple fears the ramifications of their relationship.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES
Rafe and Hope caught on to an evil plot. Steve received some devastating news about Kayla. Paul confided to John that he feared he was losing Sonny. Justin, Adrienne and Lucas arrived in Memphis. Sami refused to back down in her search for Will. Eli bonded with Gabi and Arianna. John, Marlena and Sami came face-to-face with someone from their past. Adrienne finally got a chance to explain the truth to Lucas. Eve learned about Will and wondered if Paige could be alive as well. Kate felt pressured to find the person who was sabotaging the DiMera empire. Wait to See: Chad offers Abigail a job.

GENERAL HOSPITAL
Patient Six longed to be near Sam's side. Dante grew increasingly suspicious. Valentin reassured Nina. Andre was very upset. Carly received a major surprise. Jason worried about Danny. Nathan was reluctant to carry on the charade. Dante filled Micheal in on what he'd missed. Franco turned his attention to Liz. Patient Six took advantage of a bad situation. Finn kept up the ruse. Valentin ran into an old acquaintance. Cassandra wanted to know more about Anna. Jason turned to Curtis for help. Wait to See: Dr. Klein gets a bit of luck.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS
Nick was annoyed when Faith coaxed him into spending Halloween at Crimson Lights with Sharon. Cane desperately tried to convey his sincerity to his children, but Mattie in particular refused his peace offering. Victor offered to buy Brash & Sassy, but Victoria declined his offer. She later made a pitch to Devon and Neil for another loan but was turned down. Victor told Nick that he bought out his liquor distributor and would be raising prices. Wait to See: A night to remember for the Newman family ends in disaster.

WOMAN VS. DEBT

If you are having trouble keeping spending under control, you should stay out of stores unless you NEED something and cut back on TV because more ads mean more temptation. Make saving money and paying off debt a game of you against debt. Set up a budget, read, and study to learn how to win and be debt free.

TURKEY TIME

Many people take advantage of cheap turkeys in November and December, but I take it a step further. I have my butcher cut them in half. Then I freeze them. I've found that half a turkey is just about the same size as most roasting chickens. It is perfect for my family of four! With the after-holiday sales, I always get a great deal!

POWER OF ATTORNEY WARNING

Just because you have a power of attorney doesn't mean that your end-of-life planning is complete. Generally, a power of attorney is only good while you are still alive. After you die, it cannot be used to access any of your accounts. Therefore, you need to make sure that your executor or personal representative has a copy of your will, proving he/she can act for you. This can be critical for paying final expenses. If the will is stuck in a bank safe box, your executor will need to get legal approval for the bank to allow them to access the box. This is true even if your personal representative has a key.

6 MONTH FINANCIAL REVIEW

My wife and I do a quarterly financial review. We list all of our assets and debts to figure out how much we actually own. Hopefully, that number increases every three months. If it doesn't increase, we look to see why. Sometimes we need to watch our spending or take other corrective action. Twice a year, we take a look at our legal papers to make sure everything is up to date. Usually we don't have to do anything, but it doesn't cost anything to check. Plus, it gives us peace of mind to know that we have our finances under control.

Nick

DRASTIC COST CUTTING

My boyfriend and I can't find a place to live within our budget. Rents in the Frisco area are crazy high. Since I work from home online and he's a mechanic, we're looking at lower cost places to live. We figure we can live anywhere we like! There are places in Missouri or Illinois where $1,000 a month rents a whole house. Here it gets us a studio! If we stay here, our credit card balances are going to keep going up. Therefore, we're scraping out while we can still scrape up first, last, and a deposit.

Knight's Corner by Jerry Knight

Remembering 50 Years Ago

The high school football playoffs are underway and in a few weeks, seven teams will be crowned state champions in their classifications. This year is the 50th anniversary of the first-ever 3A state football championship. The game featured two teams from the Shoals area that were the state's best that year. December 1, 1967.

The game had everything. Russellville ranked No 1 and Colbert County ranked No 2. Each team sported undefeated 10-0-1 records. Ironically, the tie on their record was a regular season matchup between the two fierce rivals that ended in a 20-20 slugfest. Braly Stadium in Florence was the sight of the game where an overflow crowd of 7,000 fans jammed into the stadium to see who would be declared state champions.

Russellville had reached the championship game by soundly defeating Cherokee County 20-6 in the semifinals while the Indians squeaked by Pisgah 20-19 in their semifinal matchup. The game featured two legendary Hall of Fame coaches in Colbert County's C.T. Manley and Russellville's Bill Doty plus more star players than you could shake a stick at.

The Golden Tigers

explosive offense featured quarterback Lanny Norris, Jeff Fuller, one of the state's top scorers and speed demon Terry Pounders, who had rushed for 232 yards against Cherokee County. The Indians defense, who had held Pisgah to minus 11 yards in the semifinals featured Dan, Roy and William McCormack and Jimmy Isbell.

Isbell put the Indians on top in the second quarter on a 5-yard end around touchdown run. Later, Jeff Fuller scored on a fourth down run to tie the game 6-6 at halftime. Midway of the third quarter, Russellville's Terry Pounders, dropped back to receive a Colbert County punt. The overflow crowd held their breath as the 140-pound speedster hauled in the punt at his own 30-yard line, sprinted to his right, then all of a sudden changed gears and headed straight up the center of the field and ran 70 yards for a touchdown into Russellville football history.

There have been many great battles between these two football powerhouses, but the 1967 3A State Football Championship game was truly a classic.
