THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL

Knowing about Ivy and Thomas's night together, Liam interrupted Wyatt's rant regarding his girlfriend's loyalty towards him. Bill and Katie debated who they thought were the correct matches for Liam and Wyatt. Ivy was embarrassed when Liam admitted that he knew about her cheating. Quinn surprised Thomas by offering to conspire with him. Ivy was left to do damage control after Steffy was able to tell Wyatt the truth before she could. A heartbroken Wyatt asked Ivy what it was about him that drove her into Thomas's arms. Quinn and Thomas's scheming was interrupted by a minor crisis in the Forrester showroom. Wait to See: Someone overhears a confession.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Kayla and Steve acted on their attraction while trapped in a supply closet together. Victor forced Brady to choose between Theresa and Titan. Daniel wasn't thrilled by Fynn's continued flirtation with Nicole. Gabi and Paul embarked on new job opportunities. Hope interrogated Claudia about who was behind Bo's kidnapping. Shawn bid farewell to a heartbroken Belle. Fearing for her life, Abigail made a desperate appeal to Ben. Meanwhile, Chad was on the verge of making a daring rescue, with Lani and JJ not far behind. Hope played a dangerous game by tracking down Dr. Malcolm. Belle got sucked into Sami's mess. Caroline had a disturbing vision about Victor. Wait to See: Brady gives up everything for Theresa.

GENERAL HOSPITAL

forward with Morgan. Nina had big plans for Crimson. Maxie was caught off guard by Dillon's announcement. Sabrina turned to Felix for help on how to cover up her lie. Carlos overheard something he shouldn't have. Ava got a little too inquisitive for her own good. Andre gave Anna an ultimatum. Maxie urged Lulu to "go big or go home." Elizabeth's happiness was short-lived after receiving a distressing call from Nikolas. Mac was at Anna's side during her time of need. Wait to See: Hayden tells Nikolas about her life before coming to Port Charles.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Joe made a move on Lily. Nick urged Abby to focus on planning her wedding and not get involved in the Newman-Abbott feud. Cane told Paul and Christine about some evidence that proved he wasn't trying to extort money from Devon. Chelsea asked Adam if he was working with Victor to destroy Jabot. Adam denied being in cahoots with his father, but Chelsea was reluctant to trust Victor. Billy told Victoria that her father would get what he deserved. Later, Victoria asked Nikki how she was able to endure being in such a volatile relationship with Victor. Noah vowed to do whatever it took to reunite Marisa with her daughter. Wait to See: Ashley puts all her cards on the table with Victor.

A Prayer of Belief

Dear Heart of Jesus:
 In the past, I have asked for many favors. This time, I ask you this very special one. Take it Dear heart of Jesus and place it within your own broken heart, where your father sees it. Then, in your merciful eyes, it will become your favor, not mine.
 Say this prayer for 3 days, promise publication and your favor will be granted no matter how impossible. A special Thanksgiving, dear Jesus, for always being there for me.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.
 Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

Lori Loughlin

Q. With all the news of "Fuller House" being in production, it got me to wondering what else Lori Loughlin has going on. What happened to her Western series? — Tina Y., via email

A. The lovely and talented 51-year-old actress does indeed co-star — with Jack Wagner, Erin Krakow and Daniel Lissing — in a third season of "When Calls the Heart," a family Western drama that was developed by Michael Landon Jr. and airs on the Hallmark Channel. The third season kicks off Saturday, Dec. 26, with a two-hour movie, with the season itself beginning in February. In the meantime, you can catch up with seasons one and two via Amazon and Netflix, and on DVD at local retail stores.

Q. I was intrigued by the new FX series "The Bastard Executioner," especially Stephen Moyer and Katey Segal. Can you tell me if it'll be back for another season? — Deena G., via email

A. Creator and showrunner Kurt Sutter made the announcement in November that the numbers to continue the series, which also starred Lee Jones, didn't add up. He revealed: "The numbers just didn't sustain the cost of the show, quite frankly. It's all math at the end of the day. We couldn't establish that core audience that allows you to figure out your advertising paradigm and whether or not the show is affordable."

Q. I have heard no word about whether there will be a sequel to the Daniel Craig/Rooney Mara version of "The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo." Will there be a second and third movie to follow the books? — Patrick J., Fresno, California

A. "The Hollywood Reporter" broke the news that the David Fincher-directed version of the hit Swedish film series (as well as the original book series) is kaput. However, Sony is looking to restart the series, but will base it on the recently released fourth book, "The Girl in the Spider's Web," which was written by David Lagercrantz. He continues the series created by the late Stieg Larsson, who wrote the original "Tattoo" trilogy and died of a heart attack in 2004. Neither Daniel, Rooney nor David is attached to this film reboot. Alicia Vikander is being eyed for the lead role, and Steven Knight ("World War Z") will pen the script.

According to the book-jacket summary, the story goes: "Late one night, (Mikael) Blomkvist receives a phone call from a source claiming to have information vital to the United States. The source has been in contact with a young female superhacker — a hacker resembling someone Blomkvist knows all too well. The implications are staggering. Blomkvist, in desperate need of a scoop for 'Millennium,' turns to (Lisbeth) Salander for help. She, as usual, has her own agenda. The secret they are both chasing is at the center of a tangled web of spies, cybercriminals and governments around the world, and someone is prepared to kill to protect it."

Response to our recent advertisements has been terrific! We have welcomed some new contractors into our family and are continually interviewing new membership prospects.

Our new contractors are not only looking for Qualified Electricians but also more Solar Electricians and Tele-Communication Technicians to staff upcoming projects.

One of the greatest benefits of the Electrical Union is the ability for our members to retire with dignity. Retirement of our well seasoned members provides fantastic opportunities for Electricians of Foreman and General Foreman qualifications. If you are an un-represented "lead" electrician, then we should be talking about your future.

We are also always looking for Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors looking to grow with us. It does not matter if you have just 1 electrician or 1000, we have opportunities for everyone!

The IBEW has been successfully training crews for our contractors since Edison and Tesla were young men. ## Making Life Simpler

Hot Tips On Preparing An Engine For The Cold

(NAPS)—If you have a classic car, a boat or any other small engine you are putting into storage for the winter, you can do yourself a big favor by preparing it properly now to save yourself some major headaches down the road. Here are hints on how:

Warm weather tools and toys can be protected from the cold.

Outdoor Power Equipment

Before storing your lawn mower, weed wacker and any other small-engine machinery, it's a good idea to:

- Clean and sharpen the blades.
- Check the belts for wear and tear, cracks and stretching.

Be aware of when you bought the fuel as today's ethanol-blended gasoline can start going bad in as few as 30 days. The fresher the fuel, the better.

• Add a high-quality, non-alcohol-based fuel stabilizer, such as STA-BIL® Storage, to your fuel can before filling it with fresh fuel. This will protect the equipment from corrosion and ethanol issues and help it start right up again after up to two years in storage. It can also clean the fuel system, clearing out gum and varnish that can build up over time.

Caring For A Classic Car

• Clean it inside and out. After washing and drying the car, add a coat of wax to all painted and chrome surfaces and apply a protectant like 303® Aerospace Protectant to all vinyl, plastic, leather and rubber surfaces to protect from the elements.

• Replace engine oil. Old oil contains contaminants, including acid and moisture, which will pit bearings and other engine parts. First, run the engine briefly to warm the oil, as more old oil and contaminants will come off.

• Lube up joints and bearings. Grease bearings on the wheels, the steering components and suspension.

• Stabilize fuel. Fuel can cause gum and varnish buildup while in storage, resulting in hard starting, poor performance and reduced engine life. To remove water, clean carburetors and fuel injectors, and keep fuel fresh, protecting the engine from gum, varnish, rust and corrosion, add STA-BIL Storage to fresh fuel.

• Fill the radiator with the correct mix of coolant and water.

• Remove the battery, clean off the terminals with water and baking soda, then rinse them with distilled water. Store the battery in a cool dry place off the ground and attach a trickle charge.

• Cover and store your car in a safe, climate-controlled, dry location that has limited or no light exposure. To reduce moisture and odors, place open boxes of baking soda inside the car and trunk. Keep critters at bay with a plastic bag over the air intake inlet and exhaust pipes.

Keeping A Boat Shipshape

• Start with the exterior and work inward. Thoroughly rinse all residue and dirt from the boat. Then use a surface cleaner like 303® Multi-Surface Cleaner on the upholstery, countertops, bathrooms and more.

• Leave your gas tank 95 percent full of fresh fuel and use a fuel stabilizer such as STA-BIL 360® Marine, which emits a vapor that protects above and below the fuel line while keeping your engine running cleaner. Then run the engine for a few minutes to make sure the fuel stabilizer gets into the carburetor and injectors.

• Use a fogger to coat the inside of the engine and prevent corrosion.

• Make sure your battery is properly charged.

• Cover the boat and propeller to keep out the elements.

Vince Lombardi on Winning

With high-school football seasons coming to an end and the college championships and NFL playoffs mere weeks away, it occurred to me that something was missing from today's game in general: the compass.

For all of you coaches out there, it's probably been a long time since you've heard the immortal words of Vince Lombardi. Maybe some of you never heard or read them at all. Let's rectify that once and for all. Here's something you can clip out and put on your bulletin boards and locker-room walls: Vince Lombardi on winning. You're welcome.

— "Winning is not a sometime thing; it's an all-the-time thing. You don't win once in a while; you don't do things right once in a while; you do them right all of the time. Winning is a habit. Unfortunately, so is losing.

— "There is no room for second place. There is only one place in my game, and that's first place. I have finished second twice in my time at Green Bay, and I don't ever want to finish second again. There is a second-place bowl game, but it is a game for losers played by losers. It is and always has been an American zeal to be first in anything we do, and to win, and to win, and to win.

— "Every time a football player goes to ply his trade he's got to play from the ground up — from the soles of his feet right up to his head. Every inch of him has to play. Some guys play with their heads. That's OK. You've got to be smart to be No. 1 in any business. But more importantly, you've got to play with your heart, with every fiber of your body. If you're lucky enough to find a guy with a lot of head and a lot of heart, he's never going to come off the field second.

— "Running a football team is no different than running any other kind of organization — an army, a political party or a business. The principles are the same. The object is to win — to beat the other guy. Maybe that sounds hard or cruel. I don't think it is.

— "It is a reality of life that men are competitive, and the most competitive games draw the most competitive men. That's why they are there - to compete. The object is to win fairly, squarely, by the rules — but to win.

— "And in truth, I've never known a man worth his salt who in the long run, deep down in his heart, didn't appreciate the grind, the discipline. There is something in good men that really yearns for discipline and the harsh reality of head-to-head combat.

— "I don't say these things because I believe in the 'brute' nature of men or that men must be brutalized to be combative. I believe in God, and I believe in human decency. But I firmly believe that any man's finest hour — his greatest fulfillment to all he holds dear — is that moment when he has worked his heart out in a good cause and lies exhausted on the field of battle — victorious."

The Aztecs called these plants cueltaxochitl. The sap within the stems was used to control fevers, and the bracts—its petal-like, red leaves—were used to make a reddish dye. Montezuma, the last of the Aztec kings, would have the plants brought into what is now Mexico City by caravans, as poinsettias could not be grown there due to the city's high altitude.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Ryan Gosling will join Harrison Ford in "Blade Runner 2." Based on the book "Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep?" by Philip K. Dick (published in 1968), it was the first of three books. "Blade Runner 2" is based on "Blade Runner: The Edge of Human" by K.W. Jeter (1995), leaving the third book, "Replicant Night," for another sequel. Gosling, a busy first-time father (with Eva Mendez), has the comedy-drama "The Big Short," with Christian Bale, Steve Carell and Brad Pitt (also producing), due Dec. 23, and "The Nice Guys," with Russell Crowe, Kim Basinger and Matt Bomer, coming out May 20.

While waiting for the script of "World War Z 2," Brad Pitt is staying in the war-movie mode, filming "War Machine," with Anthony Michael Hall and Topher Grace. But don't look for it in theaters, because Netflix paid $60 million to own it. "World War Z 2" is set for a June 2017 release.

Scott Eastwood, son of Clint, has three films in post-production. The $50 million biographical-political thriller "Snowden" stars Joseph Gordon-Levitt as Edward Snowden, who leaked classified information, along with Shailene Woodley, Melissa Leo, Zachary Quinto and Nicolas Cage. It opens May 13. Up next is the superhero film "Suicide Squad," with Will Smith, Jared Leto and Viola Davis, due Aug. 5, followed by the thriller "Overdrive," with hot English actor Freddie Thorp and Ana De Armas, who will first be seen with Robert De Niro in "Hands of Stone."

Jennifer Aniston is joining Robert De Niro, who plays a Don Rickles-style insult comic, in "The Comedian," written by Comedy Central roast master Jeffrey Ross. De Niro also will be Zac Efron's "Dirty Grandpa," with Dermot Mulroney and Julianne Hough, out in January. Last year's Best Actor Oscar winner, Eddie Redmayne ("The Theory of Everything"), is getting Oscar buzz for his current film, "The Danish Girl," in which he transitions into womanhood ala Caitlyn Jenner. Eddie already is shooting the fantasy film "Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them," with Colin Farrell, Jon Voight and Ron Perlman. He plays an eccentric, introverted wizard.

Scott Eastwood

David Hasselhoff is no more! His last movie was the musical-horror film "Alleluia!" with Paul Sorvino, which got good reviews and is being released at Christmas on DVD and Blu-Ray. As for Hasselhoff, he admitted, "I've wanted to drop the 'Hassel' from my life for years." So when the Australian telecommunications company Amaysim approached him with a campaign for its phone — "It takes the hassel out of your life" — he said, "Why not? My friends call me The Hoff anyway!" Hasselhoff had a ring to it, though. People usually change their first name to a nickname; they don't change their surname except through marriage. What's next... commercials for Hoff-y hot dogs?

Commemorative Plate

Q. I recently purchased a plate with an image of a ship with "Remember the Maine" across the top. I paid $15 for it at an Atlanta flea market and think I got quite a bargain. I am enclosing a picture. It looks like new. — Barbara, Savannah, Georgia

A. I looked at the picture you sent me and your statement that it looks like new kept bouncing around in my head. In my opinion, you bought a reproduction. I base this opinion on two things: The piece does, indeed, look like new, and the price you paid was too good to be true. Many commemorative plates are being reproduced by the evil elves in China. For example, in the area where I live the market is being flooded with cobalt Shirley Temple mugs — all fakes. My advice is do your homework before making a purchase and when a price seems to be too low to be real, alas, it generally is.

Q. My uncle recently died in the Napa area of California. He had an incredible vintage wine collection. My sister and I have decided to dispose of the collection, which includes more than 1,000 bottles. Can you help us? — Stephen, Coral Gables, Florida

Holiday Dining With Diabetes

Holiday dining and celebrations are a culinary challenge for most Americans, especially those with diet-related illnesses. While I'm not a diabetic, my family medical history provides a cautionary tale. The American Diabetes Association estimates that 52 percent of Americans either have diabetes or are pre-diabetic. This means millions of people have diabetes and don't know it.

Because so many Americans — including my husband, mother, father, youngest sister and many other family members and friends — are diabetics, I decided to collect 150 of my favorite, healthy recipes and create "The Kitchen Diva's Diabetic Cookbook: 150 Healthy, Delicious Recipes for Diabetics and Those Who Dine with Them." It addresses the health and dietary needs of pre-diabetics, juvenile diabetes, Type 1 and Type 2 diabetics, women with gestational diabetes (related to pregnancy) and those with diabetic-related complications, along with anyone seeking to embrace a healthier diet and lifestyle.

Diabetes symptoms vary depending on how high your blood sugar is elevated. Some people, especially those with prediabetes or Type 2 diabetes, may not experience symptoms initially. In Type 1 diabetes, however, symptoms tend to come on quickly and be more severe. Some of the signs of Type 1 and Type 2 diabetes are increased thirst, frequent urination, extreme hunger, unexplained weight loss, presence in the urine of ketones (a byproduct of the breakdown of muscle and fat that happens when there's not enough insulin), fatigue, blurred vision, slow-healing sores, mild high blood pressure and frequent infections, such as gum or skin infections and vaginal or bladder infections.

Throughout "The Kitchen Diva's Diabetic Cookbook," I've prepared recipes suitable for the dietary needs of a diabetic but also satisfying for non-diabetics. I use these recipes when entertaining family and friends, including this one for Crispy Roasted Chicken. It's easy and delicious, and provides a healthy meal for diabetics and those who dine with them during the holidays and every day!

CRISPY ROASTED CHICKEN

This is one of my family's favorite chicken dishes. I usually prepare it for Sunday dinner after church and for holiday celebrations. Sprinkling the skin with baking powder helps draw out the moisture, so the skin gets crackling crisp in the oven.

- 1 (5 1/2 to 6 pounds) or 5 pounds breast, drumsticks and thigh parts
- 1/2 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 2 tablespoons garlic powder
- 2 tablespoons poultry seasoning
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 1 small onion, halved
- 1 lemon, halved
- 8 sprigs rosemary
- 4 cloves garlic cloves, smashed

2 teaspoons minced fresh thyme
 Cooking oil spray

1. Remove the neck and giblets and any pieces of fat inside of the bird. Rinse the bird with cold water inside and out. Remove any excess fat and leftover pin feathers. Pat the chicken dry with paper towels. Sprinkle the chicken skin (breast side only) with the baking powder. Place the chicken on a roasting rack in a large baking pan and let it air-dry in the refrigerator for 30 minutes. Pat dry with more paper towels.

2. Spray a large baking pan with cooking oil spray. Rub the olive oil all over the chicken. Turn the chicken breast side up, twist the wing tips and tuck them behind the bird. Sprinkle chicken inside and out with the garlic powder, poultry seasoning, salt and pepper. Rub the spices inside and out of the bird, or if using parts, on both sides. Stuff the cavity with the onion, lemon, rosemary, garlic and thyme, or place aromatics under the chicken parts

3. Heat oven to 425 F. Place the chicken in the upper half of the oven and cook, uncovered, for 15 minutes to brown and crisp the skin. Lower the oven temperature to 350 F. Spray the chicken with the cooking oil spray. Roast the chicken for an additional 35 to 40 minutes, or until juices run clear when a thigh is pierced with a knife, or an instant-read thermometer inserted in the thigh and not touching bone registers 165 F.

4. Remove chicken from oven and allow to rest, uncovered, for at least 10 minutes before carving. Do not cover the meat, because it will steam and soften the crispy skin. Makes 10 servings.

Trulia Survey Finds What's In America's Dream Home

(NAPS)—For 71 percent of Americans, homeownership is part of their personal American Dream. So what does this dream home look like? Where is it located and what amenities do people dream of most? A recent survey conducted by real estate website Trulia made some intriguing discoveries.

First Comes Marriage, Then Comes Baby and House

The vast majority of millennial renters, aged 18 to 34, plan to buy a home one day—more than any other generation. Most, however, are not ready to buy a house. This generation of first-timers was hit hard during the recession and their ability to find jobs, move out of their parents' homes and eventually become homeowners is a key part of a healthy housing market. Only 36 percent are currently saving up to buy a home in the next five years. Most have their eyes on a new car. Nevertheless, 87 percent believe they'll be able to buy their dream home one day.

the other hand, want single-story ranch homes that are more accessible.

Only 6 percent of millennials would prefer a high-rise penthouse and only 4 percent dream of converted lofts.

Americans Dream of Suburbs

Most Americans—especially boomers and Gen Xers—wanted to live in the countryside and suburbs rather than a major city. For millennials, a short commute to work and a great school district were far more important than the actual location.

Dream Home Amenities

Americans love to entertain and eat. The top dream home features a backyard deck, open floor plan or balcony with a view. Food-related amenities such as a gourmet kitchen or vegetable garden were also popular.

Millennials, compared to any other generation, want it all. Given the option, 18- to 34-year-olds, would like all the latest and greatest amenities in their dream home—especially a balcony with a view.

However, Generation X, 35-54-year-olds, wanted a backyard deck most and would prefer a swimming pool over a vegetable garden.

Baby boomers want a backyard deck, open floor plan, gourmet kitchen and vegetable garden.

Whatever kind of home you're dreaming about, you can discover new homes for sale across the country, get tips on how to buy and sell, or find a real estate agent from Trulia, the all-in-one real estate site at www.trulia.com.

Americans Aren't Dreaming of McMansions or Tiny Homes

So what does the American dream home look like? Well, it really depends on how old you are.

In general, Americans aren't big fans of McMansions or tiny homes. In fact, 44 percent want a home between 1,401 and 2,600 square feet. However, as people get older, their dream home gets smaller.

Millennials and Gen Xers gravitate toward modern houses, which often have newer amenities and technologies. Baby boomers, on

O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. 12' CHRISTMAS TREE, all ornaments & lights, $85. Mechanical Santa & Mrs. Claus, still in boxes. $65. Call 825-6887.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) At this time you might want to resist that otherwise admirable Aries penchant for getting to the heart of a matter quickly. Keep in mind that a delicate situation calls for patience.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your aspects favor more diplomacy and fewer direct confrontations when dealing with a relationship problem. Avoiding hurt feelings can help in your search for the truth.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Positive aspects are strong this week. Although you might still have to deal with some problems caused by a recent period of turmoil, you are making progress, and that's what counts.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A family matter could benefit from your counsel. But don't come into it unless invited, and don't stay if you feel uneasy. Just remember to reassure one and all that you'll be there for them.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) As the truth about an ongoing situation emerges, you could find that you were right to defer judgment before you had all the facts. Now would be a good time to move on to other matters.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your plans to take control of a personal situation because you feel you are best qualified could create resentment. Best to hear what everyone else involved in the matter has to say about it.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Uncovering some surprising background facts about that ongoing personal matter could make you reconsider the extent of your involvement. A neutral family member offers advice.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Religious or spiritual themes start to dominate your aspect this week. This can serve as a counterweight to the mounting effects of the season's growing commercialization.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Taking on that recent challenge impressed a lot of important decision-makers. Meanwhile, proceed with your holiday plans, and don't forget to include you-know-who in them.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Disagreeing with an opinion you can't accept could be dicey, and your motives might be questioned. Best to wait to mount a challenge until you have support for your position.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Getting involved in helping others in this increasingly hectic period not only makes the generous Aquarian feel good, but you could also gain a more substantive benefit from your actions.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The Piscean way of thinking clearly and objectively helps you resolve a complex situation without creating any ill will. Don't be surprised if your counsel is requested on another matter.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a way of persuading people to look at the positive possibilities that make up any choices they might face.
