Prayer to the HOLY GHOST
You who made me see everything and showed me the way to reach my goal. You who gave me the Divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that is done to me and you who are in all instances of my life with me. I thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones.
A person must pray this prayer 3 consecutive days without asking for favor. After third day favor will be granted, no matter how difficult it may be. Promise to publish this dialogue as soon as favor is granted. My prayers have been granted.

Novena to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

A Sporting view by Mark Vasto

Time Waits for No One

It's a rare occasion in life when you get to witness the passing of a torch. Minutes dwindle for the basketball and hockey stars. The fabled quarterback gets handed a clipboard, and the slugger is told to get a first baseman's mitt. The former tennis champion packs them in for second-round matches that would otherwise have been ignored ... before exiting stage right.

Golf, however, is a little more subtle. At this year's Masters Tournament, the legendary Ben Crenshaw played his last competitive round. He had won the tournament twice — in 1984 and again in 1995 — the only majors he had ever won. Now 63, he decided this tournament, his 44th, would be his last. Crenshaw did not make the cut, and the Augusta National Golf Club, polite as ever, did not post the amiable Texan's score.

And while nostalgia always has its place — particularly at Augusta National, where names like Jones, Hogan and Snead still fall trippingly off the tongue, and a beer and a sandwich can be had for 1970s prices — the 2015 edition of the Masters was about the future of golf.

Heading into the Masters, most of the talk surrounded three names: Tiger Woods, Rory McIlroy and Phil Mickelson. A few might have been wondering if Bubba Watson could defend his green jacket, but mostly, McIlroy's quest for a "career grand slam" and Woods' promised comeback special were the dominant themes. And while everyone was discussing that, a 21-year-old out of Dallas, named Jordan Spieth teed off and led the Masters from start to finish, wire-to-wire, in one of the most dominant performances the sport had ever seen.

That Spieth's record-tying 18-under-par victory came at the Masters should probably come as no surprise. After all, he was streaking on his way into the tournament, and he was last year's runner-up. But he was a surprise. And he was the kind of surprise that everyone liked. Here was a clean-cut Catholic kid, competitive but not cocky, who ran a charitable trust for his autistic sister. His caddie is a former sixth-grade math teacher who, by happenstance, now has one of the best jobs on the circuit.

I never understood until this year's Masters why Jack Nicklaus would gripe how none of the players on today's tour would "go after" Tiger Woods. The breakthrough came courtesy of Phil Mickelson. While Woods was hacking through the pine straw after every overblown drive Sunday and getting outplayed by McIlroy, Mickelson was playing more aggressively than ever. His shots were imaginative, using every pitch and undulating roll of the green, anything he could do to gain a stroke on Spieth, who set the record for birdies on the course. Mickelson finished four strokes off the pace at 14 under, a score that any other year wins the tournament.

Any other year but this year. This year — and for many more years to come — you'll be reading about Spieth and McIlroy the way you used to read about Mickelson and Woods, Watson and Crenshaw, Nicklaus and Palmer. Clearly, it is their time. The wait is over.

St. Jude's Novena

May the sacred heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved, throughout the world now and forever.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the helpless, pray for us.

Say this prayer 9 times a day and by the 8th day your prayer will be answered. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. Thank you St. Jude for answering my prayers.

Botanical prints BY BRENDA WEAVER

Old gardening books are great sources for beautiful vintage illustrations of birds, insects, leaves, seeds, plants, flowers, trees, landscapes and other outdoor favorites. They make wonderful gifts when framed. Use them in scrapbooking or to make cards. Decoupage them onto clay pots, glass jars, old holiday ornaments, wooden plaques, metal surfaces or stretched canvases.

THIS IS A HAMMER

By Samantha Mazzotta

Airing Out the Indoors

Q. My grandmother constantly tells me my apartment is "stale" and that I need to air it out at least once a week. I have no idea what she's talking about ... opening windows, I guess? — Kaylie, via email

A. Well, yeah ... opening windows is the main component of airing out a house, but there are a number of reasons why older folks (and many younger ones) see it as an essential step in keeping a house healthy.

In the early 20th century, airing homes was considered a crucial health component, as it was believed that fresh air would reduce the incidence of flu and other serious illnesses. Modern research has found some validity in this: The exchange of air keeps mold from growing, while a change in temperature can make it tougher for bacteria to live on surfaces around the house. Letting in sunlight also can make it tougher for molds and bacteria to survive.

Most of all, though, airing does get rid of the stale smell your grandmother noticed, and makes your apartment an overall nicer place to live. Here are a few tips on getting the most out of airing:

- Get rid of piles: Boxes, clothes, papers and so on, particularly on windowsills and beside beds and furniture, collect dust and impede airflow.
- Open the windows on first waking up: This is a habit I noticed while visiting friends in Europe, and it makes a lot of sense. Once you're dressed and leaving for work, shut the windows again.
- Or, air your apartment once a week while you're cleaning: Winter and summer, open all the windows and doors, dust and vacuum thoroughly, and change or air bedding (turn down the bed covers for a couple of hours, and shake out the comforter).

Fiesta Ware
Q. I have a dinner set of Fiesta from the 1940s in various colors, including blue, yellow, green and orange. Do these pieces have any value? — David, Sun City, Arizona

A. Fiesta dinnerware is produced by the Homer Laughlin China Company in 14 colors, in addition to several special promotions from 1936 until 1972. The original colors were Cobalt Blue, Green, Ivory, Red, Turquoise and Yellow. During the 1950s, Chartreuse, Forest Green, Gray, Medium Green and Rose were added. Fiesta ware is quite collectible. To find out how much the pieces you have are worth, I suggest you invest in a good price guide. I especially like "Warman's Fiesta Ware: Identification & Price Guide" by Mark F. Moran (Krause Books). It is available at amazon.com or from the publisher, www.krause.com.

Q. Recently, I purchased a partial set of flatware in the Colfax pattern. It was made by the Durgin Silver Company. Will it be difficult to complete this set? — Barbara, Knoxville, TN

A. Your pattern was introduced in 1922. The company was started by William B. Durgin in Concord, New Hampshire, in 1853. It eventually became one of the largest flatware and hollowware manufacturers in the United States. Gorham purchased the firm in 1905, and production relocated to Providence, Rhode Island, in 1931. Will it be easy to complete your set? Nothing is impossible, but it could be expensive. The Silver Queen is a family-owned business that tracks down older sterling flatware patterns and might be able to help you. Contact is sales@silverqueen.com; and 800-262-3134.

Q. I have a teapot made by the Clifton Art Pottery studio of New Jersey. What can you tell me about this company? — Laura, Palm Beach, Florida

A. The Clifton Art Pottery company was started by Fred Tschirner and William A. Long in Newark, New Jersey. From 1905 until 1911, it made art pottery and then transitioned into tile. According to "Lehner's Encyclopedia of U.S. Marks on Pottery, Porcelain & Clay" by Lois Lehner, the company made two distinct types of pottery: Crystal Patina and Indian Ware. By 1914, the plant seemed to be devoted mainly to tile when the name was changed to the Clifton Porcelain Tile Company.

Prayer to the HOLY GHOST

You who made me see everything and showed me the way to reach my goal. You who gave me the Divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that is done to me and you who are in all instances of my life with me. I thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones.

A person must pray this prayer 3 consecutive days without asking for favor. After third day favor will be granted, no matter how difficult it may be. Promise to publish this dialogue as soon as favor is granted. My prayers have been granted.

Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Travel Tips
Elevate Your Next Road Trip By Seeking Out Added Value

(NAPSA)—For those looking to take an upscale road trip, but who want to get the most for their money, there are several tips and tricks to keep in mind when planning a getaway.

A beautifully designed car helps elevate your road trip.

Time Your Trip
 If your dates are flexible, try traveling to your selected destination during its off-season. Hotels often drop their rates to attract business when crowds thin out, and you can score a great deal while avoiding a tourist rush. Try a mountain destination before ski season is in full swing, or a famous site, such as the Grand Canyon, on a weekday during the school year.

Luxury partnerships can provide added value when traveling.

Take Advantage of Luxury Partnerships
 Luxury brands often partner to provide their customers with added value. To take your road trip up a notch from the moment you pull out of your driveway, a special edition Crafted Line of vehicles from Lexus comes equipped with a beautiful two-piece set of tailor-made Tumi luggage. The Lexus Crafted Line features an Ultra White exterior with Obsidian door handles, side mirrors and grille. Eye-catching seats, contrast stitching, headrests and door panels are either two-tone Black/Scarlet or Black/Cabernet. Models include IS 250 F SPORT, LS 460 F SPORT and GS 350 F SPORT in RWD and AWD; RX 350 AWD F SPORT; and ES 350.

you book in advance online. Hotels in areas such as Napa Valley or other wine country destinations may partner with nearby wineries to offer its guests exclusive deals on tastings and tours. For example, The Allison Inn & Spa in Oregon's Willamette Valley offers Lexus owners the chance to sample three distinctive local wines and receive a complimentary bottle of their favorite. The resort also has an on-site fleet of Lexus vehicles available for guests to drive, eliminating the need for a rental car.

The limited edition Tumi duffel bag set was specifically designed to match the vehicles for grille-to-trunk coordination. Lexus owners can find additional pieces of this original luggage set and other exclusive offers at LexusDrivers.com. A Meguiar's New Car Care Kit is also included as another extra bonus for Crafted Line owners.

Take the Scenic Route
 The great thing about road trips is that you can skip the crowded, expensive attractions and enjoy the view from the comfort of your car seat. And all passengers will be happy to spend more time taking in free, scenic sites along the way. Take advantage of natural wonders and roadside attractions—such as New York's scenic Finger Lakes region or kitschy Route 66 sites—when ever possible.

Search for Package Deals
 Regardless of when you travel, try to look for a hotel offering a package deal to capitalize on your travel investment. Many upscale hotels offer credit toward their on-site restaurants, bars or spas when

With these tips and tricks, and a little advance planning, you'll save time and money while elevating your road trip. Find out more at www.Lexus.com/craftedline.

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Alerting Struggling Homeowners To Mortgage Resources

(NAPSA)—There's good news for homeowners who are having a tough time making their mortgage payments. There is a free federal program that just may have the solution, even if you're not behind on your mortgage.

The program—Making Home Affordable, or MHA—launched in 2009 and is a critical part of the administration's strategy to help homeowners avoid foreclosure, stabilize the country's housing market and improve the nation's economy.

A Range Of Solutions

MHA offers a range of solutions, including lower monthly mortgage payments for struggling homeowners, as well as options for unemployed or underemployed homeowners and those who owe more than their homes are worth. To date, it has helped more than 1.5 million families nationwide.

Unfortunately, there is evidence that there is still a need for the program, which was recently extended through at least December 31, 2016. Nearly one in 17 homeowners has fallen behind on his or her mortgage. There is speculation that many of these homeowners may be unaware that MHA has expanded its options.

Increasing Awareness

In an effort to increase awareness of MHA's free resources and assistance for struggling homeowners, the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury), the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and the Ad Council have launched a new series of public service advertisements (PSAs) as part of their Foreclosure Prevention Assistance campaign.

Help Is Available

Said Treasury's Deputy Secretary Sarah Bloom Raskin, "This new PSA campaign is our latest effort to raise awareness of the free government resources available through Making Home Affordable to assist struggling homeowners in avoiding foreclosure."

"Although the housing market and economy are making a steady recovery, many struggling homeowners would still benefit from the one-on-one counseling services a HUD-approved housing agency can provide them," said Federal Housing Administration Commissioner Carol Galante. "We hope this effort to educate homeowners will lead to many more families using these free services and get-their finances to meet their mortgage payments. They know they need help but don't know where to find it," said Peggy Conlon, president and CEO of the Ad Council. "We hope the advertising will reach those in need, letting them know they don't have to face this problem alone and inspiring them to reach out for help."

With that in mind, Chicago-based advertising agency Schafer Condon Carter (SCC) created the new TV, print, radio, outdoor and digital PSAs pro bono, to strongly encourage homeowners not to give up hope and remind them that there are free resources available to help.

"This new campaign will broaden the reach of MHA and extend the message of its benefits to more Americans who are struggling every day to meet the financial demands of their mortgages," said David Selby, president and managing partner of SCC. "The advertising seeks to resonate with these homeowners by acknowledging the commitment they make to keep their homes while letting them know that there is additional help available."

The PSAs, which are available in English and Spanish, direct homeowners to call 888-995-HOPE (4673) to speak one on one with experts at HUD-approved housing counseling agencies about solutions based on each family's individual circumstances.

The hotline is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Additionally, the campaign drives homeowners to MakingHomeAffordable.gov for program eligi-

6TH ANNUAL HOLLY'S SPIRIT RUN

The 6th Annual Holly's Spirit Run - 5K Run/Walk & Kid's Fun Run will be held on May 9. This family-friendly event starts at Coventry High School, 40 Reservoir Road, Coventry, and is a fundraiser honoring the memory of a fallen soldier. Registration begins at 7AM, the Race begins at 9AM (8:30AM for wheelchairs). Holly was a sweet, kind & spirited soul and she joined the Marines after the events of September 11 because she wanted to do something for her country. Holly's life was cut short at the age of 21 when a suicide bomber struck her convoy in Fallujah on June 23, 2005. Holly was the first female Marine to lose her life during Operation Iraqi Freedom. Registration Fee for the 5K Run & Walk is $20 before May 7, $25 after that date and $5 for the Kid's Fun Run (registration available online at active.com). All proceeds benefit the Lance Cpl. Holly Charette Foundation. If you need more information, please call 392-3596.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) The Lamb is usually excited about taking on a new challenge. But if that's a touch of doubt you're feeling, maybe it's you telling yourself to go slow on this until you learn more about it.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Accepting new commitments when you haven't yet finished the batch on hand could be a bit rash. Better to ease up on the new ones until you get further along with your current lot.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Reward yourself for what's sure to be a dynamic week with a getaway to someplace wonderful, hopefully with a wonderful someone. You'll return refreshed and ready for what's ahead.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Some people might be anxious about your plans. So you need to take time to explain what you expect to do and how you expect to do it. And don't forget to ask for suggestions.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Dealing with an unfamiliar problem can be difficult. The wisest course you can take is to ask for advice from those who have been where you are and have come through it. Good luck.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Tackle a frustrating job problem by considering possibilities you might have ignored before. This reassures colleagues you're serious about finding a solution, even if it's not totally yours.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your balanced approach to life proves to be helpful this week when someone you care for needs your spiritual comfort, while someone else benefits from your tough-love practicality.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Once again, you're likely to be asked to keep a secret for someone. But do you really want to do so? Be honest with yourself and with your needs before you make any such commitment.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Taking a more direct approach from the more diplomatic one you've used before could make a difference in finally resolving a too-long-held disagreement. Try it.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Being asked for advice is flattering to the Sea Goat, who has a habit of saying the right thing. This time, expect someone to be especially impressed and to act on that sentiment.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) With a number of pressures easing, your project could be making a lot more progress than you expected by this time. That's great news. But don't let yourself be distracted; stay with it.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) An interesting challenge looms that could be exactly what you've been looking for. Discuss this with colleagues who could have much to contribute and who might want to join with you.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your heart is always open to offer loving concern for others. And they, in turn, reach out to complete the circle.
