'Beyond the Turnouts' Photo Exhibit

There are those iconic photos of Letchworth State Park that everyone snaps and then there are those places just off the beaten path that capture the attention and imagination of seasoned photographers.

It's those places that are featured in a month-long exhibit at The Humphrey Nature Center in Letchworth State Park by local photographer Keith Walters. Entitled "Beyond the Turnouts," this first of its kind exhibition at the new center will feature over 25 Letchworth photographs on large metal displays. Taken by Mr. Walters over a year long process, the project was funded by Livingston Arts which administers the Genesee Valley Arts Grants, a Decentralization Program funded by the New York State Council on the Arts.

"Livingston Arts was thrilled to be able to provide funding to further Keith Walters' study of photography and give our community the opportunity to work with and see an exhibit of such a high caliber artist. His unique perspective of Letchworth State Park makes this project so exciting and we are so happy to be a part of it" noted Betsy Harris, Director of Livingston Arts.

Working closely with Letchworth State Park, Mr. Walter's has also hosted community photo walks through the park and offered photo advice along each excursion. "We are always eager to collaborate with photographers to showcase the beauty of Letchworth. Keith's program was unique, captured our attention and the exhibit gave us another opportunity to showcase the versatility of our new nature center," stated Roland Beck, Letchworth State Park General Manager.

"This project has provided me with an incredible opportunity to explore and share beautiful areas of the park from a different perspective. I'm very excited to share the results of my work over the last twelve months and consider myself very fortunate to have been given this amazing opportunity" stated Keith Walters.

"Beyond the Turnouts" opens with a reception on Friday, November 17th and then to the general public on November 18th. The exhibit will remain on display through December. The Humphrey Nature Center is open every day, except Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10 am until 5 pm. During this season, there is no gate entry fee in the park.

For further information call Letchworth State Park 585-493-3600 and for information about New York State Parks, please visit our website at www.parks.ny.gov.

The New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation oversees more than 250 parks, historic sites, recreational trails, golf courses, boat launches and more, which are visited by 69 million people annually. For more information on any of these recreation areas, call 518-474-0456 or visit www.parks.ny.gov, connect with us on Facebook, or follow on Instagram and Twitter.
