Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
 (Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks. BAF

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

• On Oct. 25, 1853, Paiute Indians attack U.S. Army Capt. John W. Gunnison and his party of 37 soldiers and railroad surveyors in Utah. Gunnison and seven other men were killed, but the survey party continued its work to find a route for a proposed transcontinental railroad.

• On Oct. 24, 1901, seeking fame, 63-year-old schoolteacher Annie Edson Taylor becomes the first person to plunge over Niagara Falls in a barrel. After a brief flurry of photo-ops and speaking engagements, Taylor's fame cooled, and she was unable to make the fortune she had sought.

• On Oct. 23, 1921, in France, an American officer selects the casket of an unidentified soldier to be honored among the 77,000 U.S. servicemen killed in World War I. The "Unknown Soldier" was buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

• On Oct. 22, 1965, President Lyndon Johnson signs the Highway Beautification Act, which attempts to limit billboards and other forms of outdoor advertising along America's interstates.

• On Oct. 20, 1973, Solicitor General Robert Bork dismisses Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox, whose investigation of the Watergate break-in revealed that the burglary was one of many possible abuses of power by the Nixon White House. Two days later, the House Judiciary Committee began to consider the possible impeachment of President Richard Nixon.

• On Oct. 21, 1988, "Mystic Pizza," a romantic comedy starring unknown actress Julia Roberts, opens in theaters. Roberts would skyrocket to international fame when she appeared in the 1990 blockbuster "Pretty Woman."

• On Oct. 19, 1991, a fire starts in the hills of Oakland, California, and within an hour, 800 buildings are ablaze. The firestorm would kill 25 people and destroy thousands of homes. Even though fires had ravaged the same area in 1970 and 1980, people continued to build homes there.

Collecting

by Larry Cox

“That’s Amore”
 Q. I have a mint 78-rpm recording of Dean Martin’s “That’s Amore.” Is it worth more than the $5 I paid for it? — Stan, Sun City, Arizona

A. Probably not. Your recording was issued by Capitol Records (Capitol 2589) and hit the charts in November 1953. The song was introduced in the movie “The Caddy.” It is not considered rare, and generally sells for $2 or $3 in good condition. Incidentally, the record charted for 22 weeks and quickly became a standard.

Q. I have inherited a vase that was crafted and signed by Susie Cooper, but I have not been able to find anything about her in any of my reference books. I wonder if the piece is worth keeping. — Betty, San Diego

A. Susie Cooper was a 20th-century ceramic designer who was first affiliated with A.E. Gray Pottery in Henley, England. Some of her very first pieces were made in 1922, but by 1930 she had formed a family pottery business with her brother-in-law, Jack Beeson. Within a decade she had become an important potter, and her pieces are quite collectible. For example, a vase might sell in the $200 to $450 range, and a punch bowl, $200. If you like your vase, it is worth keeping.

Q. I have a set of salt-and-pepper shakers that are marked “Desert Sands.” What do you know about this company? — Bill, Tulsa, Oklahoma

A. Not much. During the 1850s, a small pottery company was started in the Ozark Mountains of Missouri. During the 1920s, it moved to Las Vegas, where the name Desert Sands was adopted. In 1937, the plant relocated to Boulder City, Nevada, and eventually moved once again to Barstow, California, where it closed during the 1970s. Pieces were identified with stamps and paper labels. I would assume your salt-and-pepper set might be worth about $25.

Q. I have several thousand matchbook covers. How can I find out how much they are worth? — Niles, Palmetto, Florida

A. One of the better reference books is The Matchcover Collector’s Price Guide (2nd edition) by Bill Retskin, available at Amazon.com. You also might look into the Rathkamp Matchcover Society at www.matchcover.org.

Shape and Bake Colorful Leaf Tortilla Chips

In the spirit of fall, let a blaze of edible leaf-shaped chips fall on your platters for a tasty, healthy treat for parties, or for a quick and easy eye-catching after-school snack. Pop the colorful chips, designed by cookie cutters and made from your favorite tortillas and wraps, in the oven, or take the shortcut approach and use your microwave. Either way, the crispy and crunchy edible "leaves" will be a super family hit.

When you peruse the tortilla and wrap section of your grocery store, the choices for making your chips can be daunting. I grabbed the colorful varieties to mimic the look of changing leaves in our backyard. Whole-grain tomato basil wraps, spinach flour tortillas and sprouted grains tortillas were perfect for the project.

My family also likes corn tortillas for their taqueria-style flavor and texture, but the cookie cutters simply didn't cut through those as easily. For that variety, we used scissors and cut out geometric shapes and capital alphabet letters to spell "LEAF."

Whatever you choose, here's how to make this healthy, whimsical snack:

LEAF-SHAPED TORTILLA CHIPS

- 6-8 tortillas and wraps in a variety of flavors and colors, such as tomato basil, spinach, sprouted grains and corn
- Canola oil
- Salt
- Assorted metal cookie cutters

in leaf shapes
Kitchen scissors

1. Heat oven to 350 F.
2. Place a tortilla on a wooden cutting board, and cut into leaf shapes with metal cookie cutters. If using corn tortillas, use scissors to cut your own leaf designs and alphabet letters. You might cut letters to make a word such as "leaf," "fall," "Happy Halloween" or the name of your favorite sports team.
3. Set cutouts in a single layer on a cookie sheet covered with parchment paper or brushed with oil. Lightly brush shapes with oil and sprinkle with salt and other favorite seasonings.
4. Bake for 6 minutes. Rotate the baking sheet and bake until the chips are crisp, lightly golden and brown, about 3 minutes more. Serve with salsa and dips. Serves 4-6. Chips can be stored in an airtight container for up to three days.

Shortcut: Make a few chips quickly in your microwave. Cut a tortilla in shapes and set on a paper towel. Microwave on high for about 1 minute. Turn cutouts over and microwave for 15-30 seconds or until lightly brown and crisp, but not burnt. Keep watch, as microwaves vary. Sprinkle with salt or seasonings and serve.

Attention: Electrical Contractors and Electricians

In addition to all of the "BIG" work our men and women do every single day, the IBEW is further expanding its market into Light Commercial, Residential and Security Systems. We are also continually growing our market in Residential and Commercial Solar projects.

We are currently interviewing Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors and Qualified Unrepresented Electricians and Registered Apprentices who are interested in the amazing opportunities the IBEW has to offer.

We offer Contractors: Light Commercial and Residential Rates, complete control over their own company, marketing, estimating, and relationship tools to help you grow and prosper, along with an inexhaustible supply of qualified manpower around the corner...or around the world. Best of all, Local 99 is funded by the membership, not by you! Let's start the conversation today. You will be amazed at what you've been missing!

We offer Electricians: An opportunity to become a part of the only organization that has been successfully protecting the health and safety of all electricians for 125 years. If a cutting edge education, safer work environments, and a respectful wage and benefit package focused on the needs of you and your family are important to you, then what are you waiting for? We believe that the best trained people, working for the most qualified contractors, offers a fantastic future for all. Best of all, we never make you leave your current employer to start the interview process with us!

Appointments are available 7 days a week, in our home or yours.
We look forward to hearing from you soon!

Psoriasis Can Precede Psoriatic Arthritis

DEAR DR. ROACH: I am a 77-year-old male. I had to stop playing golf about two years ago due to joint pain. I had psoriasis from age 15 until I was 40. I am retired from the Navy and had to be hospitalized twice during my time in service due to my skin. Why it disappeared at age 40, I don't know. Is it possible that I could have psoriatic arthritis? One doctor I saw said that I had to have psoriasis in order to get it. I saw that you said that sometimes the arthritis shows up before the skin lesions. Can it show up after you have quit having the lesions? — Anon.

ANSWER: Indeed, psoriatic arthritis can show up years after psoriasis starts and when there are no skin lesions. Often, pits in the nails or other nail changes are seen in those with psoriatic arthritis.

However, having psoriasis doesn't protect you from other types of arthritis, such as osteoarthritis or rheumatoid arthritis. Since psoriatic arthritis is so destructive, you should see an expert, perhaps a rheumatologist.

The arthritis booklet discusses rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis and lupus. Readers can order a copy by writing: Dr. Roach — No. 301W, 628 Virginia Drive Orlando, FL 32803. Enclose a check or money order (no cash) for $4.75 U.S./$6 Canada with the recipient's printed name and address. Please allow four weeks for delivery.

DEAR DR. ROACH: Do varicose veins in the leg still return blood? Does circulation diminish if they are removed? Should the elderly avoid removal? What if a vena cava filter exists for a one-time DVT 25 years ago? — S.S.

ANSWER: Varicose veins are dilated veins. They are very common, especially as we get older, and they seem to run in families. They often come because of leaky valves inside the veins. A previous blood clot is a risk factor, and a filter may make varicose veins and clots somewhat more likely.

They do continue to function, returning blood. They should be treated conservatively, with leg elevation, exercise and compression, such as using pressure stockings. I seldom recommend more-aggressive therapy, but if they are symptomatic (pain, tightness, skin irritation) despite a good trial of conservative treatment, they can be treated with laser or radiofrequency ablation, by injecting medication into or around them, or by vein stripping. A vascular surgeon is the expert on these treatments.

DEAR DR. ROACH: I am a 63-year-old male who had a subarachnoid hemorrhage in 2008. The source of the bleed could not be found, and fortunately I came out of it in good shape, with no adverse effects. My doctor prescribed diclofenac [an NSAID] for joint and muscle pain, and it does help. Do you see a problem with this, considering that it thins the blood? — T.O.M.

ANSWER: Since the aneurism wasn't repaired, I would not recommend taking the NSAID unless your consulting neurosurgeon has specifically told you that it is safe to do so. I wouldn't be brave enough to prescribe it without that OK, even though there is some evidence saying it may be safe.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual letters, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu. To view and order health pamphlets, visit www.rbmanall.com, or write to Good Health, 628 Virginia Drive Orlando, FL 32803.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

 Molasses Jumbos

Big and boldly spiced, these softies are reminiscent of Grandma's gingerbread cutouts without the rolling and cutting.

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 1/2 teaspoons ground ginger
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/8 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup packed dark-brown sugar
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine (1 stick), softened
- 1/2 cup dark molasses
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 large egg

- Heat oven to 350 F.
- On waxed paper, combine flour, baking soda, ginger, spices and salt.
- In a large bowl, with mixer at medium speed, beat sugar and butter until creamy. Beat in molasses, vanilla and egg until blended. At low speed, beat in flour mixture just until combined, scraping bowl occasionally with rubber spatula.
- Drop dough by 1/4 cups, 3 inches apart, on ungreased large cookie sheet. Bake cookies 15 to 16 minutes or until edges are firm; cool on cookie sheet 2 minutes. Transfer cookies to wire rack to cool. Makes about 10 cookies.

• Each cookie: About 290 calories, 11g total fat (6g saturated), 3g protein, 47g carbohydrate, 1g fiber, 48mg cholesterol, 365mg sodium.

POP, ROCK & SOUL
TRIVIA
BY MICK HARPER

1. Who wrote and released "The Goodbye Girl"?
2. Name the singer who was born William Howard Ashton.
3. Who released "Homburg" and when?
4. What group released "Neon Rainbow" in 1967?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "When you were a child you were treated kind, But you were never brought up right, You were always spoiled with a thousand toys but still you cried all night."

Answers

1. David Gates, lead singer of Bread, in 1977. It was the theme song to the film of the same name, starring Richard Dreyfuss.
2. Billy J. Kramer. It was John Lennon's idea to add the middle initial, for Julian. Kramer allegedly hated it, not knowing it was the name of Lennon's son.
3. Procol Harum, in 1967. "Homburg" was the follow-up to "A Whiter Shade of Pale," with the same theme of resignation. It hit No. 1 in multiple countries but only reached No. 34 in the U.S.
4. The Box Tops.
5. "19th Nervous Breakdown," by the Rolling Stones, 1966. It climbed to No. 2 in both the U.S. and U.K. The original song was released in mono, and stereo can be found only in bootleg copies.

Good Housekeeping

Old-Fashioned Cocoa Cake

The perfect after-school or midnight snack, it's made with a blend of buttermilk and mayonnaise instead of butter in the batter.

- 2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 3/4 cup unsweetened cocoa
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
- 3/4 teaspoons salt
- 1 1/2 cups buttermilk
- 3/4 cups mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 2 large eggs

Rich Chocolate Frosting:

- 4 (1 ounce each) squares semi sweet chocolate
- 2 (1 ounce each) squares unsweetened chocolate
- 2 cups confectioners' sugar
- 3/4 cup (1 1/2 sticks) margarine, softened, substitute butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

1. Heat oven to 350 F. Grease 13-by-9-inch metal baking pan.
2. In large bowl, combine flour, sugar, cocoa, baking soda and salt.
3. In medium bowl, with wire whisk, mix buttermilk, mayonnaise, vanilla and eggs until almost smooth.
4. With spoon, stir buttermilk mixture into flour mixture until batter is smooth. Spoon into baking pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes until toothpick inserted in center of cake comes out clean. Cool cake in pan on wire rack.
5. Prepare Rich Chocolate Frosting: In small, heavy saucepan, melt chocolates over low heat. Remove pan from heat, cool chocolate to room temperature.
6. In large bowl, with mixer at low speed, beat confectioners' sugar, margarine or butter, softened, and vanilla extract until almost combined. Add melted, cooled chocolate. Increase speed to high and beat about 1 minute or until light and fluffy.
7. When cake is cool, spread with frosting. Makes 18 servings.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

The Hierarchy of Needs

This guy named Maslow posited a pretty-well-accepted theory that every human being has five basic needs. They need food and water and a house to live in, and they need love. Things like that.

In baseball, if there was a hierarchy, I'd say you would need a good manager, a staff pitching ace or a reliable stopper that can eat innings. You need a great contact hitter, and let's face it, you need a slugger because nobody wants to watch that Ty Cobb, drag-bunt stuff from the back row of an upper deck all summer long. And you need a closer. Someone to turn the ball over to at the end of the night.

But there is another theory about life, and it is called the seven stages of grief. There's shock, denial, anger, bargaining, guilt, depression and, in baseball, Jonathan Papelbon. And nowadays that is almost always followed by regret, a blown save and ejection.

Athletes who play adrenaline sports are going to be a little more on edge than most other types of people in the world. Take a guy like Papelbon (which, we've already discerned, will lead to certain regret). He doesn't play an adrenaline sport, right? So as a closer, he has to supply his own excitement. He walks out of a bullpen to Metallica's "For Whom the Bell Tolls" and then is expected to strike out the side.

But you really have to question this guy's sanity. The guy makes $13 million a year for throwing a piece of leather-covered twine, and he just can't keep it together. Statistically, he's one of the greatest of all-time ... the all-time leader in saves for both the Red Sox and Phillies, set records for most saves by rookie and all sorts of other statistics. He's won a ring (and his dog ate the game ball. Nice.)

But don't kid yourself ... to say Papelbon is on the downside of his career isn't a hard statement to make. He's losing velocity, but he's also clearly losing his mind. This guy, who has been fined tens of thousands of real American dollars for failing to throw a first pitch over the plate in a timely manner, got in the face of Bryce Harper after Harper didn't run out a fly ball. Then, he didn't just get in his face ... he tried to strangle the kid from the top step of the dugout.

I can't say that I've ever seen anything like that before. Well, that's not true ... there was the whole John Rocker era in the '90s. And there was Billy Martin and Reggie Jackson in the '70s, but at least they had the good sense not actually fight one another on TV. The last time I saw something like that was that "Star Wars" reboot where Anakin Skywalker thinks he can win the fight when Obi-Wan had the higher ground.

The only difference there was that Anakin's loss advanced the storyline. Papelbon's act — grabbing himself in Philly, grabbing Harper in Washington — is a tired one that nobody needs to see anymore.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

- It was 20th-century Swiss playwright and novelist Max Frisch who defined technology as "the knack of so arranging the world that we need not experience it."
- In the 1830s you could give someone a blizzard. Back then, of course, the word wasn't referring to a snow-storm; rather, that phrase meant to give someone a piece of one's mind.
- Men certainly aren't lacking in the self-confidence department. A survey found that 76 percent of men believe they are "somewhat" or "very attractive."
- Thanks to arrangements made by his very powerful family, Theophylactus of Tusculum became Pope Benedict IX in 1032, at the age of 20. It seems he wasn't suited to religious life, and he was accused of "many vile adulteries and murders." The Catholic Encyclopedia calls him "a disgrace to the Chair of Peter." After 12 years he was forced out of Rome, but he returned the following year, 1045, and ousted Pope Sylvester III. Later that same year, a pious priest named John Gratian offered Benedict a large sum of money to vacate the post, which he did, allowing Gratian to become Pope Gregory VI. Unsurprisingly, Benedict soon changed his mind, and with Sylvester III still claiming the papal seat, there were now three popes vying for supremacy. Finally, at the end of 1046, the Council of Sutri declared Benedict and Sylvester deposed, Gregory was encouraged to resign, and a German bishop was proclaimed Pope Clement II.
- Farmers in California are responsible for 95 percent of broccoli production in the United States. Now we know whom to blame.

What You Need to Know Before Buying a Stairlift

NewsUSA

(NU) - Regaining the freedom to move around your home may be as easy as installing a stairlift. If you, a friend or a family member has trouble with stairs but would like to stay in your current home, a stairlift may be the right solution.

Stairlifts are gaining popularity in the United States as the population ages. Many older adults continue to enjoy good health and want to remain in their homes, but find stairs to be a challenge.

Today's stairlifts, such as those manufactured and installed by Acorn Stairlift, do not require any structural changes to the home, and they do not damage the stairs or home decor. The stairlifts are designed for quiet, efficient operation, powered by two small 12-volt batteries under the seat or by regular house current.

Some top things to know when considering adding a stairlift to your home include:

- Stair style. Choosing the right stairlift for your stairs helps you get the most from the product. Acorn Stairlifts are available in designs specific to straight stairways, curved stairways and outdoor stairways such as front steps or patio steps. The modular style of Acorn Stairlifts allows for easy installation without structural changes to the home.

- Safety features. All models of Acorn Stairlifts include multiple safety features. The chair and built-in footrest typically fold up when not in use, allowing for easy passage on the stairs. The Acorn Stairlifts also feature sensors on the foot platform that will stop the lift when triggered. In addition, Acorn Stairlifts include remote control components to make it easy for family or others to operate. The stairlifts also include safety belts, lockable swivel seats and light touch controls for easy operation by individuals whose dexterity is limited.

- Support. Acorn Stairlift provides aftercare and support from trained service technicians who can address any problems with your stairlift. In addition, look for a company such as Acorn that offers a warranty that covers the motor and gearbox on the stairlift for as long as you own it, plus a one-year warranty from the installation date on all other parts.

Visit www.acornstairlifts.com for more details about finding the right stairlift for your home.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Some flashes of Aries ire might erupt as you confront an unusually bewildering situation. But you should be able to keep your temper under control as you work through it.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) That marriage "twixt the arts and practicality that Taureans excel at once again highlights your enjoyment of much of the week. However, you need to watch any sudden urge to splurge.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Even with all the plusses apparently outweighing the minuses, you still might want to defer an important decision to make sure you have all the facts you need.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) One or two problems might threaten to derail otherwise smoothly running situations at work or at home. But a few well-placed words should help get things back on track quickly.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) This could be a good time for all you Leos and Leonas in the spotlight to open your generous Lion's hearts and share the glory with those who helped you accomplish so much along the way.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might want to get advice from someone who's been there and knows these situations better than you do, before investing time or money (or both) in a questionable matter.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Be careful how you handle a workplace matter that seems out of place in the schedule you've prepared. Before you act, one way or another, find out who set it up and why.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your entertainment aspect is strong this week. Besides providing a wonderful break from everyday obligations, sharing fun times brings you closer to those you care for.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Having a weekend fun fest? Your friend or relative who's down in the emotional dumps could perk up if you find a way to include him or her in your plans.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) If you're in one of those "the Goat knows best" periods, you might want to ease up and try listening to what others have to say. You could learn something.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) That new challenge is getting closer, and you should be out there now showing facts and figures to potential allies to help persuade them to rally to your support. Good luck.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Getting a head start on holiday plans could help free up some time later to spend on other projects. Meanwhile, a colleague has some ideas that you might find worth discussing.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are always there for others, and sometimes you need to be reminded that you need to be there for yourself as well.

ANNUAL

PARTY

Friday, October 23rd
at 6:00pm Sharp

This is a FREE EVENT in the Community Center's upstairs hall for children up to 10 years old.

Begin the night walking our indoor Trick-Or-Treat Trail and making a spooky craft. Our first event will include a search for GHOSTLY GOODIES under the moonlit sky at approximately 6:00pm on the outside lawn. Participants MUST bring your own flashlight in order to be included in the search.

The night will continue with a

"HOT PUMPKIN GAME" (you know it as Hot Potato). The night will conclude with a Costume Parade where all participants can show off their silly, fun or creepy costume.

GHOULISH MUSIC, PIZZA AND DRINKS will be provided.

Test your costume for the first time and join us for a scary night of fun.

Cooling Off
With the heat of summer behind us, it's time to make way for fall migrants. To prepare, I make sure I have plenty of seed and nuts on hand to bring traveling birds into my yard, as well as my binoculars. You never know who might stop by for refueling.
