RODES, WILLIAM DOUGLAS "DOUG" - 93, Fayetteville, TN. Funeral service, 10 a.m., Saturday, November 25, 2017 at Higgins Funeral Home with Buddy and Dee Edwards and Aubrey and Raina Generose officiating. Burial in Old Orchard Cemetery. Mr. Rodes passed away November 19, 2017 at Bailey Manor. Doug Rodes was born at the Dysart home place in Richmond, Bedford County, TN. His parents were the late James Elbert and Eva Dysart Rodes. About a year later, the family moved to Nashville, TN where his father was a farm manager for three years. The family then moved back to the Rodes Farm on the Petersburg-Richmond Road in Marshall County. The home there had been built in 1916 by William Clay Rodes (grandfather of Doug). Doug grew up on the farm and lived there until he entered the Navy in August 1943. His parents had welcomed two more boys in the meantime. Tragedy struck the family in 1941 when their mother died suddenly. The boys' father managed to keep the family together by hiring a housekeeper that lived in the home and took care of Doug and his younger brothers. Doug volunteered for the Navy rather than waiting to be drafted. He thought it might give him a better opportunity to learn a trade while in the Navy. It meant going ahead into the service, thus missing his senior year of high school. His intentions were to go to a trade school in the Navy and earn sufficient credits for completing high school. This is why Doug's high school diploma consists of a 3 x 5 card signed by Mr. Earnest Baulch stating he had completed high school. After three years in the Navy serving as an electrician aboard an LST (Landing Ship Tanks) in both the Atlantic and the Pacific fleets, Doug returned home. At Morgan, Doug met and courted a very special girl. The two kept in touch while Doug was in the Navy. Lolaine Meeker (Lainey) went to the University of Tennessee when she finished high school and then joined her parents and sister who had moved back to Iowa. One of the first tasks after Doug returned home was to arrange a trip to Iowa to see Lainey and hopefully

My Dad, My Angel

Your battle is now over,
no more tears flowing down your cheek,
no more pain, no more suffering and you are no longer weak.

I still do not understand why you had to go,
but I am proud to say you are my Dad,
The greatest man I've ever known.

You were always there for me,
until the day you closed your eyes and had to say goodbye.
Now you are my angel, so spread your wings out wide.
Please wrap them around me whenever you see me cry.

Our time together was memorable and God took you way too fast.
But the most precious thing to me was you being there for my first breath and me being there for your last.

Love & miss you! Tina Biles Longest 10 years of my life

Thank You

I would like to thank each and everyone for the many cards and visits, but most of all for your prayers. I was in a horrific car crash on I-65 this past June. If it had not been for your many prayers, I do not know what the outcome would have been. Again, thank you and please continue to keep me in your prayers.
