The first written mention of ice cream in this country can be found in a letter from the 1700s, which admirably describes the ice cream and strawberry dessert a Maryland governor served at a dinner party.

Souvenir Tumblers

Q. I began collecting turn-of-the-century souvenir tumblers several years ago. I now have about three dozen pieces and wonder if they will ever increase in value. They seem to sell in the $10 to $25 range, the same as when I first began collecting. — Paula, Wheatridge, Colorado

A. Your pieces sound like examples of flashing. According to "Glass A to Z" by David Shotwell, this type of glass is achieved when a thin layer of glass usually colored is applied over one that is clear or lightly tinted. The process involves dipping the object into molten glass, a process quite different from that of making cased or overlay glass, which requires a thicker layer.

Most of the pieces I've seen are either amber or ruby color, and as you indicated, almost all have been souvenir pieces. In my personal collection, I have a small toothpick holder in ruby glass that has the inscription "From Cora and Clem ... World's Fair 1904." This is fairly typical. Since it is a World's Fair item, it might be worth a little more than many of the others I've seen in shop and at antiques malls.

Q. A number of years ago, my husband took me to London to celebrate our anniversary. During that trip, we saw "Miss Saigon" at the Theatre Royal Drury Lane. It was one of the most thrilling nights of my life. I would like to find one of the posters from that production. Can you help me? — Barbara, Rochester, New York

A. "Dress Circle" was the go-to shop for memorabilia concerning London theatrical productions. It closed in February 2013, but the company continues to do business online. I checked its website and found a "Miss Saigon" poster for about $12. Contact is info@dresscircle.com, and http://www.dresscircle.com.

Q. I have a 78-rpm recording of "In the Cool, Cool, Cool of the Evening" by Bing Crosby and the Andrews Sisters. Do I have a rarity? — Sue, Kileen, Texas

A. Not really. Your recording was issued by Decca in 1951, and even though it charted and peaked for 11 weeks, it is not considered scarce. In a good condition, it would probably sell for a dollar or two.

Write to Larry Cox in care of KFW5, P.O. Box 536475, Orlando, FL 32853-6475, or send e-mail to questions-forcox@aol.com. Due to the large volume of mail he receives, Mr. Cox cannot personally answer all reader questions, nor do appraisals. Do not send any materials requiring return mail.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

4. What instrument did Junior Walker play?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Now you play the loving woman, I'll play the faithful man, But just don't look too close into the palm of my hand, We stood at the altar, The gypsy swore our future was right."

Answers

1. Liquid Gold, a U.K. disco group, in 1980.

Strange BUT TRUE
 By Samantha Weaver

- It was Irish playwright George Bernard Shaw who made the following sage observation: "There is no sincerer love than the love of food."
- You might be surprised to learn that the fastest flying insect is the dragonfly; it's been clocked at speeds up to 35 mph.
- In Japan, a black cat crossing your path is considered to be good luck, not bad.
- If you have trouble getting along with your in-laws, you might dream of getting payback someday. A man named Charles Webb did just that — on a grand scale. While in high school, Webb dated a girl named Eve; Eve's mother, however, didn't think Webb was good enough for her daughter and did everything she could to keep them apart. The two eventually got married, and Webb wrote the novel "The Graduate" ... yes, the one that was turned into a movie starring Dustin Hoffman. The character of the drunken, promiscuous mother-in-law was based on the woman who'd tried to sabotage his relationship for years.
- When archaeologists discovered the tomb of King Tut, one of the objects they found inside was a bronze razor — and it was still sharp enough to use.
- Washington, D.C., has a lower marriage rate than any other major U.S. city.
- The breed of dog known as the Great Dane didn't come from Denmark; it's German in origin.
- President George Washington reportedly was terrified at the thought of being buried alive. He insisted that his burial not take place until at least three days after his death, just to make sure he was really deceased.
- The starling is the world's most common bird.

All About Ice Dams

Q. With all the snowfall last month, our house saw a lot of really long icicles form along the eaves. A neighbor said I need to make sure there are no ice dams on the roof, but I have no idea what to look for. — Harry in Worcester, Massachusetts walls, mildew and more.

Inspect your home's eaves as soon as possible — first from the ground, then standing on a ladder with a helper bracing it. Don't get up on the roof, just move the ladder around the house. If you don't feel confident about doing this, or the ice and snow on the roof seem unstable, don't get onto the ladder. Risking serious injury isn't worth saving a few dollars.

Don't try to hack away at an ice dam — not with your hand, an icepick, an ax or anything else. This post by StructureTech (<http://www.structuretech1.com/2013/02/how-to-remove-ice-dams/>) shows in pictures why that doesn't work.

You may have seen on the news a tip to fill pantyhose with calcium chloride (salt or ice melt) and toss them up onto the eaves. This may work, but effectiveness is iffy at best.

A. Icicles can be helpful in locating ice dams. Areas of the eaves where the icicles are longer and more thickly clustered indicate possible problem areas. You also can spot potential ice dams by looking for thicker buildup of ice or snow along the gutters and eaves.

Eliminating ice dams is important because they can cause serious damage to the roof. Water expands as it freezes, putting pressure on gutter joints and wedging into cracks between the shingles and eaves. If the ice dam gets through the eaves and encounters the warmer air inside your home's envelope, you've suddenly got a water leak and a whole lot more problems — damage to the ceiling and

If you have an extensive ice dam problem (more than one or two spots that you can treat with ice melt or salt) or notice damage, contact a roofing professional. If you detect a leak inside your home, contact a roofing professional and start mitigation measures to contain the water.

TIP: If your house was damaged in this winter's snowstorms, contact your insurance company immediately and check the website of your state's emergency management agency. You may be able to get assistance in making repairs.

Using this plant in medicinal treatments was once so popular that French pharmacists painted its image on their doorposts. American colonists treated whooping cough by wrapping blankets soaked with its essence around the ill. The plant can be found in abundance around river banks and watery ditches. LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) An unexpected spate of mixed signals could cause serious schedule setbacks. Best to focus on straightening everything out as soon as possible and get everyone back on track.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Disappointed about something that didn't go your way? Cheer up. Look at the reasons it happened, and you could find a valuable lesson about what to do (or not do!) the next time.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) It's a good time to do some reassessing of plans and goals — even how you considered redoing your bathroom. The point is to be open to change if change can improve things.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Take some time to learn who is the right person (or persons) to approach and discuss your ideas with for your new project. Also, reserve time to prepare for an upcoming family event.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Dealing with a demanding situation, as you recently did, could drain much of your own emotional reserves. Take time to relax and indulge yourself in some well-earned pampering.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The regal Lion might feel that she or he is above emotional displays. But showing your feelings can be liberating for you, and reassuring for someone who has been waiting for you to do so.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) An emotionally needy person might make more demands than you can cope with. Best to ask for some breathing space NOW, before resentment sets in and makes communication difficult.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Be aware that someone in the workplace could try to use a disagreement with a colleague against you. If so, be prepared to offer your side of the story with the facts to back you up.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) An unexpected challenge to a previous decision can be unsettling. But your reservoir of self-confidence — plus your loyal supporters — should help carry the day for you. Good luck.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) While the idea of making some sort of major move in the near future continues to interest you, don't overlook a new possibility that could be emerging closer to home.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Be careful not to base an upcoming decision on gossip or anything you might hear if it can't meet provable standards. That's true regardless of whom the source might be.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might still need to do some solid reassessing early in the week before you can close that sensitive situation. A new job-related opportunity could present itself later in the week.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are extraordinarily sensitive to people's feelings, and you're always ready to offer comfort if necessary.
