I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

Attention: Electrical Contractors and Electricians

In addition to all of the "BIG" work our men and women do every single day, the IBEW is further expanding its market into Light Commercial, Residential and Security Systems. We are also continually growing our market in Residential and Commercial Solar projects.

We are currently interviewing Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors and Qualified Unrepresented Electricians who are interested in the amazing opportunities the IBEW has to offer.

We offer Contractors: Light Commercial and Residential Rates, complete control over their own company, marketing, estimating, and relationship tools to help you grow and prosper, along with an inexhaustible supply of qualified manpower around the corner...or around the world. Best of all, Local 99 is funded by the membership, not by you! Let's start the conversation today. You will be amazed at what you've been missing!

We offer Electricians: An opportunity to become a part of the only organization that has been successfully protecting the health and safety of all electricians for 125 years. If a cutting edge education, safer work environments, and a respectful wage and benefit package focused on the needs of you and your family are important to you, then what are you waiting for? We believe that the best trained people, working for the most qualified contractors, offers a fantastic future for all. Best of all, we never make you leave your current employer to start the interview process with us!

Appointments are available 7 days a week, in our home or yours.
We look forward to hearing from you soon!

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Your Garden

Sow A Feast From Seeds At Home

(NAPS)—Growing vegetables and flowers at home can be rewarding and fun for the whole family. Whether you're a seasoned green thumb or a novice, sowing seeds directly into beds or containers is an easy way to create a bountiful garden, and many can be sown throughout the summer for harvesting into the fall.

"Everything you need to know can usually be found on the seed packet," says Chelsey Fields, a horticulturalist at W. Atlee Burpee & Co. "From what temperature it's safe to sow the seeds outdoors, to whether they need light to germinate, you won't have to guess how long they'll take to start sprouting, or how deeply the seeds should be sown."

Depending on the length of a region's growing season, good vegetable choices include beans, peas, zucchini, and root crops such as carrots, beets and radishes. Greens such as leaf lettuce, spinach, Swiss chard, and arugula are easy to grow outdoors from seed and mature quickly in any region nationwide.

Many Burpee seeds can be sown directly into the garden.

from sowing. A full salad and delicious herb dressing in two months' time!

Direct-sown vegetables will take a week or two to germinate, depending on the weather. "Sow seeds in straight rows to make it easier to identify weeds," advises Fields. "To determine the likely harvest date, check for 'days to maturity' on the seed packet. Direct-sown plants will require water; full sun (six to eight hours a day); rich, well-drained soil mixed with organic matter such as compost; appropriate amounts of nutrients, from compost and, if needed, fertilizer," she adds.

No garden is complete without colorful flowers. Encourage bees and butterflies to visit by sowing flower seeds directly into borders and containers on decks, patios and other small spaces. Numerous annual flowers can be direct sown from seed, and pollinators will enjoy visiting sunflowers, cosmos, zinnias and lupines, among others.

Burpee has supplied American home gardeners with the highest-quality seeds since 1876. All of Burpee's seeds are non-GMO. For more information, gardening ideas and "how-to" videos on direct-sown seeds, visit www.burpee.com or call (800) 888-1447.

LBJ Autograph invaluable.

Q. I have a signed photo of President Lyndon B. Johnson. Can you help me establish a value for it? — Conrad, McAllen, Texas

A. Authentic signatures of Lyndon Johnson are illusive, since many of his letters and photos were signed by auto-pen when he occupied the White House. Prices vary depending on desirability and historic value. A check of the Internet revealed dozens of specimens for sale, including a letter from 1969, $199; signed color photo, $195; signed index card, $500; and even an auto-pen signed 1964 Election Day postcard for $55. Other signatures were offered for as little as $20. You need the services of an established autograph dealer who can both authenticate and appraise your photo. ***

Q. What do you know about California Dresden dishes. — Suzi, Minneapolis

A. Each time I get a question about older china, I grab two books from my collection: Kovel's New Dictionary of Marks: Pottery & Porcelain 1850 to the Present, by Ralph and Terry Kovel. It is published by Crown and offers hundreds of company marks, making it fairly easy to identify various pieces. For more detailed information, there's nothing quite like Lehner's Encyclopedia of U.S. Marks on Pottery, Porcelain & Clay by Louis Lehner. With more than 8,000 marks, logos and symbols, this hefty book is

Q. I have just inherited a set of sterling flatware in the Pendant of Fruit pattern. I have been told the silverware is more than a century old and quite scarce. — Polly, Boston

A. According to "Warman's Sterling Silver Flatware: Value & Identification" by Phil Dries, your sterling set was manufactured by Lunt in 1939. Lunt silversmiths was established in 1901 in Greenfield, Mass., as Roger, Lunt & Bowlen Company. ***

Q. I have a Singer sewing machine that is the Model 15-30. It is in an oak cabinet that has been damaged by dampness. A neighbor has offered me $600 for it. Should I sell? — Bill, Indianapolis, Ind.

A. Take the money and run. According to several dealers I consulted, your machine is probably worth about $300, and perhaps even less with the cabinet damage you described.

To Be Frank Was to Be a Giant

Truly, there can be no professional sports without an announcer. It just doesn't work any other way.

Think about it ... when you were a kid, playing football or baseball down the street and ruining Mrs. Johnson's front yard, the voices you heard in your head weren't the kind that got you put away upstate for awhile ... they were the dulcet tones of the many maestros of the microphone!

To the untrained eye, sure, you were a 16-year-old string bean wearing sweat pants, but when you went up for the Nerf, you were like Lynn Swann, and when you ran unabated into the end-zone, you followed in the well-worn footsteps of Tony Dorsett or Walter Payton. That time you caught a 5-yard curl and proceeded to drag half of the little brothers on the block that you agreed to let play that "one time" 50 yards after the catch for a touchdown like Mark Bavaro? It would have been all for naught had you not been piping in the play-by-play to yourself ala Keith Jackson, Marv Albert, Gil Santos, Bill Grigsby, Hank Stram or Pat Summerall.

That was a different era, to be sure. It was a time when football coaches wore suits and fedoras on the sideline, a time when Michelob used to come in funky bottles emblazoned with gold and red ribbons and was considered a premium beer, a time when you didn't need a $66 billion search engine in order to figure out what channel the game was on, because there were only three channels. And on Monday night, you can bet that all the Mr. Johnson's of the world were watching Monday Night Football.

Frank Gifford was a star long before he was the tolerant All-American glamor boy in the booth, the guy who used to break the games down while preventing Howard Cosell from having a break down. Cosell was the sports announcer who could never be ignored, whose arrogance often transcended his greatness, particularly when he felt he had to do something beneath himself, like announce football with jocks like Don Meredith and Gifford.

But it was Frank who won everyone over. He was a trailblazer — the first guy to really transition into the booth after his Hall of Fame football career. And for all of Cosell's bluster, when it came time to break the news to the world that John Lennon had been killed, he froze, and he looked over to the guy seated at his right, the other guy in the gold blazer. The golden boy, Frank Gifford himself. MVP in 1956. Hall of Famer, triple threat.

And he said to the man with all the words, the man who never played the game, that it was just that: a game. "Got to do it," Gifford said.

So, what would Cosell say today upon learning of the passing of Francis Newton? They called him "Frank" because quite frankly, he was New York's first football star. The Yankees had the Babe and the Iron Horse. The Trolley Dodgers of Brooklyn had Jackie Robinson. The Jets had Joe Willie, and the Mets had the "Say Hey Kid." But for Big Blue, their first shining star was truly a Giant. Frank Gifford, the man who could kick, run and pass, passes from this vale of tears at age 84. He will be missed.

Condolences to Kathy Lee and family.

Mark Vasto is a veteran sportswriter who lives in New Jersey.

New DVDs Reviewed in This Column Will be Released the Week of August 31, 2015

True to what was great about the original, and more than able to rock in their own right.

Boulevard (R) — Nolan (Robin Williams) is a quiet man dealing with the passing of his parents and a gap between him and his wife (Kathy Baker). On late-night drives from the nursing home, Nolan is drawn to a young male prostitute. Williams gives a nuanced and restrained performance in this dower drama that's unfortunately weighed down with some cheesy dialog. While this is his last dramatic feature, Williams' final appearance is set to release in a sci-fi comedy with an ensemble of British comedians who can operate at his comic velocity.

Blythe Danner in "I'll See You in My Dreams"

PICKS OF THE WEEK

I'll See You in My Dreams (PG-13) — Carol (Blythe Danner, making an excellent turn as the lead of a film) is a retired teacher and vocalist, whose been living alone since her husband passed 20 years ago. She's trying to find her way without moving into the retirement community with her gal pals. She learns how to enjoy this new phase in her life through an unlikely friendship with her pool cleaner, Lloyd (Martin Starr). While that friendship helps her connect with a lost part of herself, Carol also is drawn into a romance with the handsome and age-appropriate Bill (Sam Elliot, whom you may recognize as the stoic cowboy from every movie ever). The script cleverly dodges cliches endemic to retirement-age dramas and lets Danner explore every part of her character. The movie as a whole has a great sense of pacing and balance between heavy and light moments, making it a strong film that's easy to watch.

Good Kill (R) — Thomas Egan (Ethan Hawke) is a veteran Air Force pilot, whose latest mission has him blowing up Taliban from an air-conditioned drone-control base in Las Vegas. As his targets erupt on video monitors, the seasoned soldier struggles to make sense of his role in this new kind of war. This struggle pushes him ever further from his vexed wife, Molly (January Jones of TV's "Mad Men"), and forces him to question his core beliefs about war.

Mad Max: Fury Road (R) — The Road Warrior rides again in this glorious spectacle of roaring machines and suicidal stunts. Tom Hardy stars as the titular lunatic hero, who starts the film caught in a white-knuckle chase with an army of crazed marauders hot on his dust-trail. Max's life is in the makeshift mechanical hand of the movie's real hero, Emperor Furiosa (an almost unrecognizable Charlize Theron, ruling the screen with a steel grip). Instead of going the usual reboot-route of giving us another origin story for an already-loved protagonist, this movie has the respect to start us off in the thick of the action and let the pieces of the story jostle into place along the ride — and it works. If we're going to get a glut of franchise films every year, may there be more like this one:

The Garden Bug
Coreopsis

Also known as "tickseed" or "tickweed," this perennial herb is native to almost all of North America. It does very well against drought and diseases, and fertilizing is not needed. It grows to about 12 inches tall, with bright yellow flowers that attract bees and butterflies all summer long. After the first hard frost, cut the plants down to soil level and cover with a 1-inch layer of mulch to protect the plant over the winter.

HOLLYWOOD
 by Tony Rizzo

The Weinstein Company
Kurt Russell

HOLLYWOOD — Television sent shock waves through the movie industry when it arrived in the 1950s. The movie studios fought back by making movies in Cinemascope, 3D and even Smell-O-Vision to give television audiences something they couldn't get at home. Now social media and electronic devices are taking movie and television viewers away, and the studios are fighting back with superheroes in 3D and on IMAX screens, giving viewers, once again, something they can't see on their TVs or devices.

Some producers are taking it a step further. The Peter Bogdanovich film "She's Funny That Way," starring Owen Wilson, Imogen Poots, Will Forte and Jennifer Aniston, had its premiere in theaters Aug. 14, followed by a video-on-demand release Aug. 21 and a DVD release set for Aug. 31. Director Quentin Tarantino makes a rare acting appearance in the film because of Bogdanovich, best known for directing "The Last Picture Show," "What's Up Doc?," "Paper Moon" and "The Mask." He wrote this film with former wife Louise Stratten (1988-2001), the sister of his murdered wife, former Playboy playmate Dorothy Stratten.

No longer will producers and actors be embarrassed because their latest projects go straight to video. The upcoming teen film "Mamaboy" (which may undergo a title change) is being produced as a straight-to-down-load release and not for theaters.

And speaking of Quentin Tarantino, his new film, "The Hateful 8" (opening Christmas Day), stars Channing Tatum, Samuel L. Jackson, Kurt Russell, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Tim Roth, Michael Madsen, Damian Bichir and Bruce Dern. The Western also will feature Lee Horsley, who was the star of "Nero Wolfe" (1981), "Matt Houston" (1982-85) and "Parade" (1998-01).

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
 (Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

Prayer to the HOLY GHOST
 You who made me see everything and showed me the way to reach my goal. You who gave me the Divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that is done to me and you who are in all instances of my life with me. I thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones.
 A person must pray this prayer 3 consecutive days without asking for favor. After third day favor will be granted, no matter how difficult it may be. Promise to publish this dialogue as soon as favor is granted. My prayers have been granted.

THE FACE BEHIND THE POISON PILL OF THE FIRE-RESCUE CONSOLIDATION!

GORMAN KIND OF HIDING... BUT THIS IS THE FACE !!!

What normally could be a good thing, has already been poisoned by a union contract that David Gorman negotiated and had this contract signed and approved by his corrupted friends on the board.

Do you wonder why Union President David Gorman is so excited, enthusiastic and motivated for the Consolidation idea???

WELL... per their union contract, NOT one fire administration position OR firefighter position can be eliminated in the event of a consolidation of all Fire Districts!

The FOUR Chief positions would NOT be consolidated into ONE chief position AND NO ONE CAN BE LAID OFF, throughout all unionized districts, Anthony etc.

However, good news is on its way!! It seems the federal judge has said "in a community with fire districts, and not a town wide fire department ONLY the taxpayers of that district can increase or decrease the taxes."

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This could be the time to try soothing whatever bad feelings might be lingering 'twixt and among colleagues, friends or family members. But be sure you do so without favoring any side.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) An idea is only an idea until you put that clever Bovine mind to work to develop it from concept to substance. This could lead to something rewarding, both emotionally and monetarily.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) The early part of the week could have some disconcerting moments, but approaching them with a calm, unruffled attitude goes a long way toward helping to get things nicely settled down.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Getting used to change continues to mark much of the week. But accepting what you have to do makes adapting that much easier. A welcome visitor could turn up sooner than expected.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Learning how to live with a decision is a challenge, but one you Leos and Leonas could really enjoy. You'll also be pleased to see your social life take that upsurge you've been hoping for.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Use your perceptive Virgo instinct to help you see the positive aspects of what, at first, appears to be a disappointment. You could find that it proves to be quite the contrary.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your ability to maintain a balance between sense and sentiment once again helps you sort through apparently conflicting choices and ultimately arrive at the right decision.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Before you seek the advice of colleagues about a potential career move, you might be better off getting counsel from someone who won't be affected by the choices you make.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) It can be a challenging week for some relationships if the normal give-and-take flow changes with one side doing most of the giving and the other the taking.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A new opportunity could bring with it much anticipation along with some anxiety. Take time to sort out your options as well as your emotional considerations.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Are you sure you have all the facts you need to let that matter move to another level? Don't be rushed into a decision unless and until you feel it's the right thing to do.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Pace yourself as you prepare to take on that more demanding project. Be careful not to let your energy reserves drain away. Take time to relax with people close to you.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have the ability to see both sides of a situation. You would do well as a counselor or a judge.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.
