Beer Brat Skewers
with Spicy Slaw

Bite-size bratwurst slices alternate with veggies in this kebab version of the Sheboygan, Wisconsin, classic, which is basted in a beer—brown sugar sauce.

- 4 tablespoons cider vinegar
- 3 tablespoons packed brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon packed brown sugar
- Salt
- Pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 1/2 head cabbage
- 1/2 cup beer
- 2 teaspoons lower-sodium soy sauce
- 2 medium onions
- 2 large red peppers
- 6 fully cooked bratwurst sausages

1. In large bowl, stir 3 tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon brown sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon crushed red pepper and 1/8 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper until sugar dissolves. Add cabbage; toss to coat. Let stand.

2. Prepare grill for direct grilling on medium-low.

3. In 3-quart saucepan, combine beer, soy sauce and remaining 3 tablespoons brown sugar, 1 tablespoon vinegar and 1/8 teaspoon crushed red pepper. Heat to boiling on medium-high, stirring. Reduce heat to maintain simmer and cook 15 minutes or until reduced to 1/3 cup, stirring often.

4. While sauce simmers, cut onions, peppers and sausages into 1-inch chunks; thread onto skewers. Grill 10-12 minutes or until onions are tender and grill marks appear on sausages, turning occasionally. Brush two-thirds of sauce all over skewers and grill 5 minutes or until sauce caramelizes, turning. Transfer to serving plates; brush with remaining sauce. Serve with slaw. Serves 4.

Hints For Homeowners

Decluttering Your Garage

(NAPSA)—There could be good news for many households: The garage can be so much more than a storage room where you hide your kid's soccer cleats, lawn mower and old yearbooks. With these five tips, you can make it as organized, functional and aesthetically pleasing as any room in your house.

1. For many, the garage is the primary entry and exit point to the home but it can also serve as a terrific storage space for emergency supplies. Check to make sure your home emergency kit is up to code—replace batteries in flashlights and replenish your canned food and medical supplies. You may not need them every day of the year, but it's better to be safe than sorry. Also, ensure that you have backup power sources available in the event of an outage—a home generator and backup battery for your garage door opener are proven solutions that will help maintain accessibility and functionality for your family, no matter the circumstance.

2. While reorganizing, take some time to check your garage door. Test the alignment by disconnecting the door from the opener; once it's disconnected, you should be able to lift the door easily with one hand. If the door is stuck or difficult to lift, you should call an authorized dealer for an inspection. Also, be mindful—if your garage door opener was installed prior to 1993, it's probably time to have it replaced, as it may not be equipped with the latest safety features, such as photo eyes.

3. When cleaning the garage, homeowners tend to think of horizontal space—clearing out boxes on the floor, moving gardening equipment and power tools over to the side—but freeing up vertical space can be just as important. Instead of piling containers on the floor, think about installing wall shelves to maximize space. If you want to clear up additional overhead for a larger car, a hanger for bikes or other large pieces of sporting equipment, consider replacing your overhead garage door opener with a wall-mount unit such as the LiftMaster 8500.

4. You've organized and upgraded your garage, but you're not done yet—you need to be sure your garage is a safe place

Collecting

by Larry Cox

Cracker Jack Prizes

Q. When I was a kid in the 1950s, Cracker Jack was one of my favorite snacks. I loved the prizes inside each box and have a cigar box full of ones I managed to save. Since I have some duplicates, I would like to find others who collect so I can swap for ones I don't already have. — Paul, Mercer Island, Washington

A. F.W. Rueckenheim introduced his popcorn confection during the 1893 Chicago World's Fair. It was an immediate hit. In 1912, prizes were added to each box, and since then more than 18 billion have been distributed. Almost anything associated with this popcorn, molasses and peanut product is collectible.

Some of the prizes have become extremely valuable. For example, a horse-drawn wagon trinket from the 1930s, $450; a nodding-head elephant, also from the same period, $500; magic game book, circa 1940s, $50; paper whistles, 1940s, $40; and a miniature grandfather clock, 1947, $100. Plastic toys from the 1950s generally sell in the $3 to $10 range.

I suggest you contact the Cracker Jack Collectors Association, a group formed in 1994. Dues are $20, which includes a subscription to "Prize Insider," a quarterly publication packed with information. Contact is c/o Linda Farris, 4908 N. Holborn Drive, Muncy, IN 47300.

Q. I have an opportunity to buy a Wheaties cereal box from 1977 featuring Bruce Jenner. The asking price is $300. Do you think this is a good deal? — Bob, Chesterfield, Missouri

A. Bruce Jenner became a major sports star after his decathlon triumph at the Montreal Olympics in 1977. He was featured on the Wheaties cereal box. Following his recent sexual reassignment surgery, interest in that cereal box has soared. The last time I checked eBay, it was selling in the $150 to $250 range. Is $300 a good deal? Only time will tell. Trust your gut. Also be aware that knock-offs are beginning to surface, fakes from Asia.

Q. I have a copy of Look magazine from Aug. 29, 1950, with Hopalong Cassidy on its cover. Is it worth keeping? — Bill, Gaithersburg, Maryland

A. Your edition of Look magazine sells in the $25 to $35 range. As with most collectibles, condition is extremely important.

The Garden Bug Resurrection fern BY BRENDA WEAVER

Drought will cause this common tree-dwelling plant to curl up its fronds, turn gray and appear dead. However, when just a little water is present, the fern will uncurl and reopen, restoring itself to a vivid green color within about 24 hours. Studies have shown they can lose up to 97% of their water and remain alive; most other plants would die after losing 8-12% of their water.

Shift Happens

The next time you see David Ortiz or Ryan Howard lose what would have been a sure base hit had there not been a concentration of seven guys with gloves milling about in the spot the ball went, know that what you are seeing is nothing new. Credit a guy they called "Old Shufflefoot" for the defensive shift, one time called "the Boudreau shift" after the creator, or "the Ted Williams shift," the guy it was invented for. The story goes that Lou Boudreau, the player-manager of the Cleveland Indians, decided to employ the shift during the second game of a double-header with the Red Sox. Williams, despite his reputation and self-assertion of being the greatest hitter of all time, was a one-trick pony at the plate in that he was a dead-pull hitter. The game previous he had pulled three homers to beat the Indians by a run, and Boudreau, who was considered one of the best hitters in the game, decided it might be a good ploy. Williams had an ego and nobody thought he would drop a bunt to the vacated field to his left. It's interesting that Boudreau's name should come up. He is a bit of a trivia answer. He was the last American League player-manager, and unlike Pete Rose, the last player-manager, he successfully guided Cleveland to its last championship and won a batting title and MVP to boot. He integrated the AL by starting Larry Doby, and did something way cool by signing Satchel Paige for a pennant chase. Along the way he handled the scorching grounder — barehanded it at face level after a bad hop, no less — that ended Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak. Even though the infield shift was used a time or two in the old days, there are few anecdotes pointing to the fact that it was used to the degree it is today, which, anecdotally speaking, is a lot. A lot, lot. Like, every game, a lot. Ty Cobb called Williams "stupid" for not bunting against the shift like he would. Today, former hitting stars like Don Mattingly are urging players to learn how to hit to all fields. In a recent op-ed, Hall of Famer Mike Schmidt pointed out that for many players, it's too late to change. This is ironic because, in the AL at least, the designated hitter rule has finally done what it was marketed to do in the first place, namely extend the careers of aging stars. Alex Rodriguez and Ortiz fit that bill perfectly. But defenders of the shift argue that it's something that will work itself out. Personally, I don't want to see Mark Teixeira or Ryan Howard bunt and run every game, and I don't want to explain to my kid why the third baseman is guarding the line — at first base. This is silly. The game only had one flaw, and it was fixed when they instituted the infield fly rule. We say that runners have to remain in the base paths, fielders should field their positions. Enough of this shift. Mark Vasto is a veteran sportswriter who lives in Kansas City.

Attention: Electrical Contractors and Electricians

In addition to all of the "BIG" work our men and women do every single day, the IBEW is further expanding its market into Light Commercial, Residential and Security Systems. We are also continually growing our market in Residential and Commercial Solar projects.

We are currently interviewing Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors and Qualified Unrepresented Electricians who are interested in the amazing opportunities the IBEW has to offer.

We offer Contractors: Light Commercial and Residential Rates, complete control over their own company, marketing, estimating, and relationship tools to help you grow and prosper, along with an inexhaustible supply of qualified manpower around the corner...or around the world. Best of all, Local 99 is funded by the membership, not by you! Let's start the conversation today. You will be amazed at what you've been missing!

We offer Electricians: An opportunity to become a part of the only organization that has been successfully protecting the health and safety of all electricians for 125 years. If a cutting edge education, safer work environments, and a respectful wage and benefit package focused on the needs of you and your family are important to you, then what are you waiting for? We believe that the best trained people, working for the most qualified contractors, offers a fantastic future for all. Best of all, we never make you leave your current employer to start the interview process with us!

Appointments are available 7 days a week, in our home or yours.
We look forward to hearing from you soon!

ROOFING

We Will Save You Money...
Guaranteed!!

4 Things You Need to Know When Hiring a Roofer:

1. We recommend to NEVER give a roofing contractor a deposit of any kind prior to job completion. Everyone knows someone burned by a contractor.
2. We recommend NEVER to do business with a roofing contractor that has been in business less than 10-15 years. 80% of roofers go out of business within the first 5 years and then your warranty is worthless.
3. We recommend NEVER to have your roof replaced by XXX Home Improvements, XXX Construction or any other name that does not include "Roofing". Most of these companies do not have proper roofing insurance.
4. We recommend to ALWAYS check with the Rhode Island Contractors Board @ www.crb.gov/ to check out the company and their track record.

FLASH BACK

POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA

BY MICK HARPER

- Who wrote and sang the theme song to the television show "Welcome Back, Kotter"?
- Name the band that released "Never Say Die" in 1978.
- In which song does Ray Charles speak the words, "Sing the song, children"?
- Which group wrote and released "It's Wonderful" in 1967?
- Name the song that contains this lyric: "An only child alone and wild, A cabinet maker's son, His hands were meant for different work And his heart was known to none."

Answers

- John Sebastian, formerly of the Lovin' Spoonful. The name of the show had to be changed from just "Kotter" because Sebastian couldn't find a rhyme for the name.
- Black Sabbath. It was their first charted single since 1970.
- "I Can't Stop Loving You," in 1962. Numerous others have covered the song, but Charles is the only one who took the song to the top of the charts.
- The Young Rascals on their "Once Upon a Dream" album.
- "Leader of the Band," by Dan Fogelberg in 1981. He wrote the song as a tribute to his musician father, who was still alive when the song came out. His father died the following year.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Making things more complicated than they need to be can be a problem for the typically orderly Lamb. Try to look for a less intricate way to accomplish the same goals.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Avoiding personal involvement in a troubling situation might be advisable at this time, especially since you probably don't have all the facts. The weekend brings a surprise.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A problem with a colleague you thought had been resolved could recur. However, this time you'll be able to rely on your record to get a quick resolution in your favor. Good luck.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Giving your self-esteem a boost could be a good idea for the Moon Child, who might feel a bit daunted by the week's occurrences. Just focus on all your positive accomplishments.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The "mane" attraction for the Lovable Lion this week is — what else? — love. New relationships move to new levels, while long-standing partnerships are strengthened.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A recent workplace problem will prove to be one of miscommunication, and once the matter is settled, you should have a better chance of getting your proposals approved.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Good news! After dealing pretty much in the dark with a matter that seemed to be taking forever to resolve, you should soon be seeing the light at the end of the tunnel.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A positive message should help lift that energy-draining sense of anxiety, and you should soon be able to deal with even the peskiest matter, whether at work or personal.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Try to control that heated Sagittarian temperament while dealing with what you believe to be an unfair matter. A cool approach is the best way to handle things.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Nursing hurt feelings could keep you from learning what went wrong. Ask your partner, a family member or a trusted friend to help you reassess your actions in the matter.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Nature is dominant this week. Try to spend time outdoors with someone special. An act of kindness in the past might be recalled by a person you believed was out of your life.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) An upcoming career decision could be based on how well you might be able to apply your artistic talents. Be sure to use the finest samples of your work to make a strong impression.

BORN THIS WEEK: Doing good things for others comes easily to you. You are considered a good friend, even by those you might hardly know.
