Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Janet Jackson

Q. One of my all-time favorite actors is Sean Bean, and I saw that he is in a new TV series. I've looked all over but can't find it anywhere. Can you help? — Valerie D., via email

A. I think you are referring to "The Frankenstein Chronicles," which was developed for and aired on ITV in Great Britain. The series, which is set in 19th-century London, consists of six hour-long episodes, where Sean stars as Inspector John Marlott, who is searching for a murderer who leaves behind a trail of mutilated body parts that have been assembled into complete human forms.

A&E has picked up the series to air here in the States, although it has not yet released a premiere date. I'll keep you posted as this story develops, and remember, you can always read late-breaking news via my Twitter feed (twitter.com/Celebrity_Extra) or on my Facebook page (search "Celebrity Extra").

Q. I was sad that Nine Inch Nails weren't inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame last year. Will they get another chance? — Paul T., via Facebook

A. They will, indeed, get another chance to solidify their achievements in rock. NIN are among the 2016 nominees, along with Janet Jackson, Cheap Trick, Los Lobos, Steve Miller, Chicago, The Cars, Deep Purple, Chaka Khan, The J.B.'s, Chic, N.W.A., The Smiths, The Spinners and Yes. The inductees will be announced in December, with a ceremony to follow in April. As usual, HBO will televise the show at a later date.

Q. I saw a picture in a magazine of John Mellencamp with Christie Brinkley. I thought he was with Meg Ryan? — Judy F., via email

A. Meg and John were an item for more than three years, but they quietly split in August 2014. They reconciled in October 2014, but split up for good a few months later. Since September of this year, John has been seen stepping out with Christie, and the pair look to be in the first blush of new love — Christie is even more beautiful and radiant than usual, if that's even possible. They were both at the "Rock the Kasbah" premiere in late August, but the first time they were spotted out together was in September for dinner at The Bowery Hotel in New York City.

Q. Is the "Gilmore Girls" really coming back? College-age me really hopes you say yes to present-day me. — Dawn G., Owings Mills, Maryland

A. The much-loved and much-missed (if my Facebook feed is any indication) comedy/drama series has indeed been revived, and it will air on Netflix. The online streaming network has been a godsend to fans of canceled TV shows everywhere, bringing back "Arrested Development," "Longmire" and "The Killing," to name a few. And soon, fast-talking sarcasm lovers everywhere will get to see what the girls have been up to since 2007 with four 90-minute mini movies.

Now here's a tip!
by Jo Ann Derson

• "Here's a great way to organize in the shop: Use chalkboard paint on the outside of cabinet doors, and even drawer fronts. You can label the contents, or use the surface to jot down quick measurements if needed. Simple to erase when you make a change. I write down references for a project as I go, and it's easier to see than shuffling through scrap papers on my workbench." — A. in Montana

• Experts say to always crack your egg on a flat surface, rather than using the edge of a counter or bowl. More egg-tastic advice is to crack eggs into a small bowl instead of directly to ingredients. If you have a sneaky "bad egg" in your dozen, it's better to find out before you ruin your baking.

• Attention salad eaters: Got a thick dressing that's high in fat? Rinse lettuce before dressing your salad. Wet or moist lettuce traps less dressing. If your dressing is light, give salad greens an extra spin. Drier lettuce holds on to dressing, making lightly dressed salad more flavorful.

• Another great use for baking soda: Add a cup or two to your toilet bowl. Swish and let sit for 1-2 hours. Flush for odor control and shine.

• "I love to search for recipes online, and I have learned to pay attention to the comments section. You'll find a lot of explanation and frequently a tweak that many people have found successful. Comments have saved me from oversalting a recipe, as well as making necessary adjustments in temperature and cooking time. I have found complicated techniques broken down in a way that was helpful. It pays to check the comments out!" — W.G. in Missouri

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

Get SepticSmart To Save Money And Protect Water

(NAPS)—During SepticSmart Week, September 21–25, 2015, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is reminding homeowners of the importance of maintaining their septic systems.

Maintaining a septic system every three to five years can prevent homeowners from spending thousands of dollars on repairs or replacement.

Inspecting your system is not a do-it-yourself project for most. Putting an additive into your system will not detect or fix a malfunction. The best course of action is to go with a professional service provider every three to five years to inspect and pump your system.

In addition to regular maintenance, here are some other things you can do to ensure your system functions properly:

Think at the Sink: Avoid pouring fats, grease and solids down the drain. These substances can clog a system's pipes and drain field.

Don't Overload the Commode: Only put things in the drain or toilet that belong there. For example, coffee grounds, dental floss, disposable diapers and wipes, feminine hygiene products, cigarette butts and cat litter can all clog and potentially damage septic systems.

Don't Strain Your Drain: Be water efficient and stagger water use. Fix plumbing leaks and install WaterSense labeled products to save water, including faucet aerators, faucets, toilets and showerheads. Spread out laundry and dishwasher loads throughout the day—too much water at once can overload a system that hasn't been pumped recently.

Shield Your Field: Do not park or drive on a system's drain field, where the vehicle's weight could damage buried pipes or disrupt underground flow.

Aside from saving money, there's another reason to maintain your system. In many places, water is scarce these days, particularly in the West. With water in limited supply, we need to ensure what is there is safe.

Failing septic systems can contribute excess nutrients and pathogens to our water sources—lakes, rivers, groundwater—and can make the water unsafe. When your system functions properly, it protects you and those around you. If you get your drinking water from a well, this is critical.

since I have not talked with him and would not disturb him in any event.

The majority of the world believes that ultimately only God can judge you. Atheists and sports/celebrity fan/stalkers just judge you themselves, I suppose. My judgment on Lamar Odom is that he's a good man.

I often employ sarcasm in this column. Not today. Lamar Odom decided to take a portion of his wealth and go have a little fun after being tortured by the Kardashians and their despicable reality TV cartel for years. I try not to loathe people, but it's been a real test not to loathe the Kardashians. That he has survived this long is a testament to his strength.

This is for you guys out there: If your wife filed for divorce, broadcast it on international TV, and defamed and disparaged you along the way, would you be upset? Assuming you would be, and that you had a friend there to ask what it would take to get you happy again, what would you reply? Well, Lamar Odom's vision of nirvana was Kentucky Fried Chicken, T-bone steaks and women that he didn't have to fight ex-boyfriends over and who didn't feign interest for ratings on an obscure reality show that, sorry Kim and Khloe, nobody will ever care about or miss as soon as it's gone.

There still are women like Mary Tyler Moore in this world who people don't remember. The Kardashians may have "broken the Internet" but trust me ... they couldn't have broken onto the set of "That Girl" or even "Rhoda."

If you look down on Lamar Odom, leave him alone. He left sports, lost his spirit and survived. Who are you to judge? If you look up to Lamar Odom, extend your hand and help the man up. I certainly know which side I'm on.

Hints For Homeowners

Safety First: Protect Yourself During DIY Projects

(NAPS)—Reality TV shows, online webcasts and YouTube videos have encouraged many people to try the do-it-yourself (DIY) route when it comes to tackling less-complicated home renovations or fixes. Often, there are advantages to DIY projects, such as financial savings, learning new skills, environmental benefits and more.

Do-it-yourself projects can be fun and save you money, but remember, safety is no accident. Be prepared.

Sometimes, however, safety can seem an afterthought when it comes to DIY. Bear in mind, accidents can happen to anyone—whether you're cleaning the gutters, installing new floors or rearranging heavy furniture.

In fact, of the more than 50 million DIY home improvement projects that will take place this year, one in five of the participating homeowners will experience an injury, according to the Home Safety Council. These accidents can add up: The Healthcare Leadership Council found that without health insurance, the average cost to treat a broken leg is more than $10,000.

This can be a problem considering a recent survey of employees, commissioned by Aflac, found that 49 percent of employees have less than $1,000 on hand to pay for out-of-pocket medical expenses.

When participating in a DIY project, consider the following safety tips to help reduce your risk of becoming injured and facing medical bills you can't afford.

1. Always follow instructions.

Before starting any project, carefully read the instruction manual of any appliance or tool you'll be using.

2. Forgo fashion.

Always wear protective clothing, including safety goggles, gloves and a dust mask, when working with potentially hazardous materials. Avoid jewelry and loose clothing while using power tools.

3. Keep a first-aid kit handy.

Choose a first-aid kit that's easy to carry, latches securely and can be opened quickly.

4. Never leave a project unattended.

Never leave tools or materials unsupervised during a DIY project. Unattended power tools or a bucket of paint on your ladder can be a disaster in the making.

5. Know when to hire a pro.

Although you may save money with a DIY project, taking matters into your own hands may do more harm than good. Small jobs can be simple but many tasks are better left to the experts.

6. Add a layer of protection.

Consider adding a supplemental accident insurance plan to help you stay ahead of medical bills and out-of-pocket costs that can accumulate with an emergency. To learn more about the benefits of an accident insurance policy, visit www.aflac.com/accident.

Protecting yourself at all times is important, especially when the cost of an accident could put you in a deep financial hole. You can be safe—all while getting your hands dirty and tackling new projects.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Collecting
 by Larry Cox

“Mantiques”
Q. I attended an antique show in Atlanta recently and noticed a booth that featured “Mantiques.” Although I have an idea, what exactly are “mantiques.” —Betty, Augusta, Georgia

A. “Mantiques” are items that appeal primarily to men such as tools, hand-painted ties, sports equipment, jukeboxes, vintage fountain pens and watches, pin-ups, old pulp magazines, fishing lures and related gear, garage signage and militaria.

One of the better books written about this field of collecting is “Mantiques: A Manly Guide to Cool Stuff” by Eric Bradley and published by Krause Books. According to Bradley, there are five main reasons to collect: Mantiques are funky, unique and bitchin’; Mantique collectors like to go on adventures; People who collect mantiques are good company; People who sell mantiques are as strange and awesome as the things they sell; and Mantiques make you smart.

Q. My family owned several gas stations throughout the 1940 and ‘50s. I have two signs that I think might be valuable: a pump plate for “Bulko” gasoline, and a double-sided porcelain sign for Chevron gasoline. Am I right? —Carl, Wheaton, Illinois

A. Indeed. According to “Warman’s Gas Station Collectibles” by Mark F. Moran, your “Bulko” plate is worth the most. If in good condition, it could retail for as much as $3,500. Your Chevron sign is valued at $1,100. Gas station collectibles have become quite popular, and with the increased demand, prices have risen dramatically.

Q. I have six Jim Beam bottles and nine miniatures, all filled with liquor and sealed. Where can I sell them? —Freda, Albuquerque, New Mexico

A. You can’t as long as there is liquor in the bottles. It is illegal to sell liquor without the proper permits. My advice is to either empty out the containers and then sell them or, better yet, have a party.

Q. I have five Time magazines from 1958. I plan to sell them but have no idea of how much they might be worth. I am hoping to get about $50 each. —Mark, Clarksville, Tennessee

A. Although hope springs eternal, your magazines are probably worth about $10 each. That is, of course, assuming they are in good condition.

HOLLYWOOD
by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Gary Busey's recent behavior on "Dancing With the Stars" was deemed very odd by many, bordering on scary. His stints on "The Celebrity Apprentice 4 and 6" had us all believing he was a little off the beam due to that motorcycle accident that flung him headfirst into a wall, requiring his head to be wired to his neck with a cage around it to recover. The 71-year-old Oscar-nominated actor (for "The Buddy Holly Story" in 1978) went on to star in "Lethal Weapon" ('87), "Point Break" ('91), "The Firm" ('93) and 133 other films.

After being eliminated from "Dancing With the Stars" in his fourth week, Busey reported for work in Sacramento, California, on producer/writer Rick Kuebler's film "Mamaboy," in which Busey plays a baseball coach whose star player is hiding the real reason he's gained so much weight in his stomach area. Actors, fans and spectators were treated to a very amiable, willing and star-like Busey, who not only signed every autograph requested, but posed for every selfie as well. He also was heard dispensing sincere advice to young actors in the cast on how to make their way through the film and television industry. Cast and crew alike came away with the impression that his reputation for being unpredictable could well be an act that has served him well in promoting this part of his career.

Gary Busey

Jennifer Jason Leigh as Lady Bird Johnson, "Burn Notice" star Jeffrey Donovan as President John F. Kennedy, Kim Allen as Jackie Kennedy and Michael Stahl-David as Robert Kennedy. Doug McKeon, rarely seen since "On Golden Pond," in which he played opposite Henry Fonda, Katharine Hepburn and Jane Fonda, is playing LBJ's vice president, Hubert H. Humphrey. Filming has begun, and it is shooting in New Orleans; Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Dallas; and Washington. No release date yet.

When Rob Reiner stopped making us laugh as Meathead to Carroll O'Conner's Archie Bunker in "All in the Family," he continued to act but also turned to directing great movies such as "Stand by Me," "When Harry Met Sally," "Misery," "A Few Good Men" and "The American President," to name a few. He's currently shooting the bio-film "LBJ," about former President Lyndon Baines Johnson. He's cast Woody Harrelson as LBJ, Bridget Jones fans rejoice! Renee Zellweger and Colin Firth currently are shooting "Bridget Jones's Baby" and will be joined by "Grey's Anatomy" star Patrick Dempsey. Why do a third installment after 12 years? "Bridget Jones's Diary" earned $282 million in 2001, and "Bridget Jones: The Edge of Reason" (2004) earned $263 million. If you could make a baby that could earn a quarter of a billion dollars, wouldn't you?

Prayer to St. Anthony

Great Saint Anthony, friend of God, who had the happiness of receiving within your arms our blessed Lord in the form of a little Child, obtain for me of His goodness this favor that I desire from the bottom of my heart. You who were so gracious to poor sinners, do not look on my lack of merit, but consider the glory of God which will be exalted once more through thee, to the salvation of my soul and the granting of the petition that I now make with such earnestness. Amen.

E.A.H.

St. Jude's Novena

May the sacred heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved, throughout the world now and forever.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the helpless, pray for us.

Say this prayer 9 times a day and by the 8th day your prayer will be answered. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. Thank you St. Jude for answering my prayers.

C.C.

The Garden Bug

Drying gourds

- Clean gourds with soapy water and air dry; hang them in a dark area, making sure they do not touch, for about 6 months.
- Discard any that decay, shrivel or get soft. If mold appears, wipe it with a cloth dipped in bleach.
- When the gourds become light, solidly hard and you hear the seeds rattling inside when you shake them, they can be carved or painted.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A workplace change doesn't seem to have turned out quite as you'd hoped. Never mind: Just treat yourself to a healthy dollop of that Aries self-confidence, and you'll soon view things differently.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Some of the support you might have hoped for in a difficult situation might not be there. But you have the strength to rely on your own capabilities if you must. Good luck.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A disagreement with a longtime friend can be painful, but it also can be a learning lesson. Insist on a full and complete airing of views. You'll both come away the better for it.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A stalled relationship can be restarted with some give and take on both sides. And while it could take more time than you expect, don't rush it. Be patient, and let it happen naturally.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) An opportunity to move a long-stalled project from concept to construction might be opening up for the Big Cat. Meanwhile, be prepared to spend more time dealing with family matters.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Use your Virgo organizational skills to line up support to help you deal with a sticky workplace problem. A personal matter also might be helped with friendly intervention.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Trying to resolve a workplace problem with a longtime associate can be difficult. Consider bringing in an impartial third party to help you both reach a mutually acceptable solution.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) This is a good time to assess your current career situation. Consider whether you have a chance to move up where you are now, or if you should look elsewhere.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) With education being a dominant part of this week's aspect, one of the things you might want to think about is taking courses to enhance your career opportunities.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You might have a problem trying to stay focused on a matter you'd rather not deal with. But the sooner you do, the sooner it will be resolved and out of the way.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) An unforeseen complication creates a difficult problem. But things get resolved once you use your ability to turn negative situations into positive experiences.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The Pisces penchant for doing the right thing at the right time helps you deal with a particularly troublesome situation. Consider your best option, and act accordingly.

BORN THIS WEEK: Although you might sometimes seem rigid in your views, your love of justice makes you a trusted friend everyone can rely on.
