Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

The IBEW is growing and you are invited!!

Response to our recent advertisements has been terrific! We have welcomed some new contractors into our family and are continually interviewing new membership prospects.

Our new contractors are not only looking for Qualified Electricians but also more Solar Electricians and Tele-Communication Technicians to staff upcoming projects.

One of the greatest benefits of the Electrical Union is the ability for our members to retire with dignity. Retirement of our well seasoned members provides fantastic opportunities for Electricians of Foreman and General Foreman qualifications. If you are an un-represented "lead" electrician, then we should be talking about your future.

We are also always looking for Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors looking to grow with us. It does not matter if you have just 1 electrician or 1000, we have opportunities for everyone!

The IBEW has been successfully training crews for our contractors since Edison and Tesla were young men. For 125 years our signatory contractors have come to the IBEW to hire the highest quality electricians in the industry. We continue today, working in a mutually beneficial partnership with our contractors to offer the best value in the industry to our valued customers.

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Random Acts of Kindness...

On Saturday, November 28, 2015, I ordered a pizza from Dave's Market. When I went to Dave's to pick it up, I felt sick and couldn't go in the store. I waited a few minutes and saw the cart boy coming to get the carts, he was about 17 or so. It was about 2:30 in the afternoon and raining so hard out. I put my window down and asked him if I gave him the money and my name would he be able to get it for me. He never hesitated and said "no problem". He returned with a nice smile and continued with his work. It was so refreshing to have a very polite teenager with good respect and manners. Everyone in Dave's Market will always go beyond their time to help everyone. They are a great team.

Thank You!
 Diann

Hints For Home Buyers

Three Questions For First Timers To Consider

(NAPS)—If you or someone you care about is like many renters, you may be wondering if the time to buy a home is now.

According to the experts at the National Association of Realtors (NAR), the answer may be “yes.” Interest rates remain low and job growth is holding steady, leading to the strongest year of existing-home sales since 2007.

While renting is a short-term decision and usually involves signing a yearlong lease, homeowners typically stay in their home around eight to 10 years before selling. That’s why, when determining what you want in your first home, it’s important to think about how your life may be different at least five years from now.

What To Ask

Consider these three questions if you’re taking the exciting leap to homeownership:

1. What can you afford?
 Analyze your financial situation. Have all current debt obligations—credit cards, student loans—been repaid on time? Find out what you’re qualified to borrow by visiting a lender and getting a preapproval.

2. Do you want a walkable community or leafy suburb?
 A recent survey by NAR and Portland State University found that 79 percent of participants place importance on being within easy walking distance of places. Having lots of dining and shopping options outside your door is popular but often comes with trade-offs. Consider this: If kids are in your short-term future, you might prefer a large single-family home with a yard to a similarly priced but smaller town house or condo.

3. Would you prefer shiny and customized or a resale with more character?
 Buying new or used may come down to your wallet. The most recent median price for newly built homes was $292,700, compared to $228,700 for existing homes, according to NAR. A new home comes with such perks as being move-in ready and giving you the option of customizing the interior. On the other hand, an existing home may have architectural charm and original hardwood flooring but you may have to compromise on some features when buying a resale.

Once you’ve made your decision, to ensure a smoother buying experience, find a Realtor with expertise working with clients in your desired area. You’ll get invaluable insight on local market conditions and have a guiding hand through the complex process of closing on your first home.

John Wooden on Success

Recently we shared Vince Lombardi's famous "What it takes to be No. 1" speech in this space. Knowing bulletin boards and locker-room walls like I do, I'm betting you have enough space up there for another guy's take on the subject of winning: John Wooden.

What does it take to have to back-to-back seasons without a loss and win 10 championships in 12 years? Well, for one thing, it took a guy like John Wooden. As a child his father gave him seven rules to live by that he would later distill down into three main rules that his players must follow in order to play for him:

1. Don't be late.
2. Don't curse.
3. Don't criticize your teammates.

At the heart of Wooden's philosophy is one word: respect. His three rules were about respecting the program, the coach (him) and each other. Whereas Lombardi makes the case that winning is always better and it is something that each individual must strive for at all times — fairly, but brutally if need be — Wooden's famous "10 rules for success" state that if you do the right things all the time, you will end up winning most of the time.

But the "Wizard of Westwood" would go on to write an even more expansive set of "suggestions" that incorporated both his father's and his own set of rules. Following these rules, he promised, might lead to success if put to use. He was wrong: They led to unprecedented success.

John Wooden's Sets Of Suggestions:

1. Be a gentleman at all times.
2. Be a team player always.
3. Be on time whenever time is involved.
4. Be a good student in all subjects — not just basketball.
5. Be enthusiastic, industrious, dependable, loyal and cooperative.
6. Be in the best possible condition — physically, mentally and morally.
7. Earn the right to be proud and confident.
8. Keep emotions under control without losing fight or aggressiveness.
9. Work constantly to improve without becoming satisfied.
10. Acquire peace of mind by becoming the best that you are capable of becoming.

1. Never criticize, nag or razz a teammate.
2. Never miss or be late for any class or appointment.
3. Never be selfish, jealous, envious or egotistical.
4. Never expect favors.
5. Never waste time.
6. Never alibi or make excuse.
7. Never require repeated criticism for the same mistake.
8. Never lose faith or patience.
9. Never grandstand, loaf, sulk or boast.
10. Never have reason to be sorry afterward.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)
 Although taking advice isn't always easy for the headstrong Sheep, you might want to consider what someone you respect says about an upcoming decision.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)
 A new offer is tempting, but don't be bullied into a quick decision. Rely on your keen Bovine business sense to alert you to anything that might be questionable.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)
 Your Gemini Twin nature rallies to help you deal with this week's hectic schedules, both in your personal and professional lives. One caution: Watch your diet.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)
 Avoid rushing to make up for time lost on a stalled workplace operation. Best to set up a schedule and pace yourself. Welcome the help of colleagues.

LEO (July 23 to August 22)
 Despite those glittering holiday distractions you love so well, be sure to keep your feline senses set on high to alert you to anything that might require fast action.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22)
 Making an effort to restore fraying relationships proves to be more successful than you dared hope. The holidays also bring new friends into your life.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22)
 Private and professional matters compete for your attention. Be honest in your assessment of which should get more of it, and for how long.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21)
 A seemingly endless list of must-do tasks is best handled by tackling them one by one, and taking energy-restoring timeouts between each job.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21)
 A vexing relationship seems destined to deteriorate no matter what each side tries to do. A third party's advice just might prove helpful.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19)
 Reach out to ease any tensions caused by home or workplace pressures before they threaten the relationship-building progress you've made.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18)
 You often go out of your way to show kindness to others. So, don't be surprised if other people want to do something nice for you this week.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20)
 People in your life respect your Piscean wisdom, so don't hesitate to speak up about a matter that you feel isn't being handled quite the way it should be.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your personal warmth helps you make friendships, and your sense of fair play helps you keep them.
