The Lincoln Center for Family and Youth is a non-profit, human services, community based organization serving Montgomery County for the last 47 years. Our services include:

Community Counseling & Victim Services

In addition to working with the Office of Child and Youth providing life skills programs, TLC offers free, mobile therapy and related services to all Montgomery County residents who have been a victim of crime or abuse.

TLC Leadership Academy

TLC Leadership Academy is a Licensed Private Academic School serving students grades 7-12 who don't respond well to traditional teaching models and require extra behavioral, social, or mental health support. Our Transformational Education® model is student-centered and offers STEM project-based learning, leadership development, and character growth.

School Based Counseling

TLC serves Montgomery County School districts by providing trauma-informed counseling and mental health support to high-risk students. Our counselors collaborate with families, districts, and communities to provide additional resources tailored to the individual student.
