Q. Please, please, please tell me it isn't true that ABC Family has canceled "Chasing Life"! That's my favorite show on television today, and it always makes me count my blessings. — Layla F. in Georgia

A. I'm sorry to have to tell you, but the tear-jerking season-two finale that aired last month was indeed the series finale. ABC Family decided not to renew the one-hour drama, which centered on 24-year-old April, played by Italia Ricci, a journalist trying to work her way up the ladder at a Boston newspaper while balancing her career and family. Just as things start to come together for her, she gets the devastating news that she has leukemia.

The series finale saw April take her best friend, Beth, and love interest, Dominic, to Italy, where she reveals to them she is not eligible for the clinical trials for her cancer treatment and has decided not to pursue a bone-marrow transplant. She just wants to live out her days in peace. She tells Beth: "It's not giving up because I've already won. I could die happy here."

Q. Is it true that Richie Sambora and Heather Locklear are back together? I saw pictures of them online frolicking on a beach together. — Nina H., via email

A. The former Bon Jovi guitarist and his gorgeous yet down-to-Earth ex-wife have not gotten back together. They are one of those rare Hollywood ex-couples who others could learn a lesson from: They have remained good friends since splitting up eight years ago, and they take the co-parenting of daughter Ava very seriously. Recently photos of Richie, Heather and Ava surfaced of the trio having fun in the sun and sand in Bora Bora, where the friendly exes were treating their daughter to a family vacation before she goes off to college.

Q. Can you tell me what Aaron Eckhart has been up to lately? — Rita C., via email

A. The handsome and versatile actor is currently shooting Clint Eastwood's latest film, "Sully," which chronicles the January 2009 real-life events where Capt. Chelsey "Sully" Sullenberger safely landed his aircraft on the Hudson River after a flock of geese knocked out both engines. Aaron plays first officer and co-pilot Jeff Skiles opposite Tom Hanks' Sully. The film is based on Sullenberger's 2009 autobiography "Highest Duty: My Search for What Really Matters." The film just started shooting, and as of this writing, a premiere date had not been set.

Q. Did they cancel "Person of Interest"? I'm getting nervous because I haven't been able to find it on CBS's fall schedule. — Paul T., via email

A. CBS did renew the crime drama for a fifth season — a 13-episode order of the series will premiere mid-season. Although CBS hasn't yet made its final decision, show runners are approaching this season as if it could be the final one, as executive producer Jonathan Nolan revealed during this summer's Comic-Con.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

Donna's Day Creative family fun

by Donna Erickson

Send-Off Party for Trick-or-Treaters

"Oh, you guys are the Halloween family!" is the typical comment Farrells hears when they meet someone new to their block. "It's quite a distinction," says Margo, client director for a marketing-research firm and mom of 8-year-old Arianna, 5-year-old Luke and 2-year-old Colette.

Now in its Fourth Halloween season, Margo and her husband, Brad, are making their list for a Costco run to pick up hot dogs, buns, condiments and apple cider for their popular front-yard "pre-trick-or-treat party" that neighbors of all ages consider an annual tradition.

"It's an easy way to bring our community together to get to know one another better, have a good time and get some sustenance — even if it's just a hot dog — before kids and their parents scatter to go trick-or-treating. We always know the party has an end time, and cleanup is a snap," she adds with a smile.

The party brings out creativity, too. Last year the Farrells added a competitive element, challenging masqueraders to score some costume design points (and bragging rights) from the family panel of judges for funniest, scariest and most original costumes.

There's still time to bring the spirit of your community alive with a simple outdoor pre-trick-or-treat party. Talk up the idea with neighbors, and plan the event now. Send out invitations via email, or deliver simple flyers if email addresses aren't available.

Here is the basic format Margo uses:

"Friends and neighbors, it's that time of year again!

Please join us for some pre-trick-or-treating fun in our front yard on October 31.

We'll have grills set up, and plenty of hot dogs and hot apple cider.

Our street will be closed from 5:00 onward so that the kids can run around a bit more safely.

We'll also continue with a little friendly competition to encourage you to break out those costumes! Trophies will be awarded in the following categories:

- Funniest costume
  - Scariest costume
  - Most original costume
- Date: October 31
 Time: 5-7 p.m.
 Location: (Your address)
 No RSVP, and no need to bring anything other than you and your fabulous costume!
 We hope to see you!
 (Your family name)"

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

"Over the Counter"

by Bill Marcotte, Proprietor

Changes. Sometimes they are subtle, sometimes not. Sometimes good, and sometimes not. Today's change is the one at the corner of Sandy Bottom Road, and Main Street. Two old homes and a very large tree are now gone, and replaced by a parking lot. My old friend Janice Gendron Fisher owned, one, and the other by her cousin Sue Boulton. Sad to see them go, but it was time and there was a buyer. Enter another friend, Merrill Anderson. He owns and operates, Merrill Motors on the same corner. He saw a chance to make the corner more visible, and to make my two friends very happy by purchasing the homes. I'm sure it was tough to see them go, as these ladies grew up there. But, in the hands of Merrill, they will be pleased with the outcome of the property. A stickler for neatness and order, Merrill runs a fine operation at Merrill Motors. From car sales and financing, to car detailing, he is the man! The change is good, and all parties involved are happy. I look forward to seeing the finished product Merrill has in store. I'm sure it will be nice. From all of us at Crystal to two fine ladies, and my good friend Merrill, we wish the best to all.

The Buckeyes Have It

It's the fifth week of the season, and the Ohio State Buckeyes find themselves in a situation they're not familiar with: They're in danger of losing.

To the Hoosiers, no less.

Ezekiel Elliott, running back for the scarlet and gray, has the answer. He runs for 274 yards on 23 carries, including touchdown runs of 55, 65 and 75 yards, before watching from the sideline as Indiana tries in vain to answer back.

Moments later, the Buckeyes run off the field, fingers pointing to the sky. They came onto the field ranked No. 1 in the nation and they ran off the field in the same position. It's nothing new to the Buckeyes. In fact, they've run off the field No. 1 as often as any team in the nation, and by the time you read this, more times than any other program in history.

This week finds the Buckeyes on top of The Associated Press Top 25 Poll for the 101st time, tied with Oklahoma for the best ever.

Yes, there are other polls. There's the Coaches Poll. The Coaches Poll is nothing but a council of sanctimonious former bench riders who call in plays until they don't. CNN somehow matters in their equation, so I'm already thinking it's suspect. Like I really care if Wolf Blitzer thinks Ball State is displaying game control and might crack the top 20 this week if they try.

But I'd take the Coaches Poll over the alternative, that BCS Computer

Robot Poll. Computer polls are the definite worst. It's not that I'm against technology. I am, but it's not that ... it's just that I have scars. It seems like yesterday ... the Nut Swamp Elementary Science Fair. There I was, a can of baking soda in hand, about to drop it into a glass of orange food-colored 7Up strategically hidden within a mound of clay made up to look like a mountain. It was to be a volcano, a glorious volcano. The teachers came over. It was to be my moment of triumph ... but no.

They stop next to my table and start to study Brad Mascott's display instead. Brad had a shoebox laid on its side, with the top converted into a keyboard. There was a slot cut on top of the box. "It's a computer," he announced. "Ohhhh!" said the teachers. They gave him the Best in Show. I cried foul. "He doesn't even have FOOD COLORING! OR BAKING SODA!" But it was no use. Times had changed at Nut Swamp. Technology — in this case, an empty Reebok box — was here to stay. The volcano era was over.

Anyway, those polls are jokes. If you want a poll you can argue over, you need to leave it to the expert non-experts. Leave it to the AP Poll. An old-fashioned poll, comprised of 65 full-time sportswriters and broadcasters who drove to the game in a forest-green GMC truck while smoking Swisher Sweets. Those are the guys you want picking a champion, believe me.

And that's the poll that says Ohio State has been the best, for the longest ... or at least since the FDR administration. Say what you want about THE Ohio State University ... just make sure you talk about them like the winners they most often are. Who can argue the facts?

Mark Vasto is a veteran sportswriter who lives in New Jersey.

Hints For Homeowners

Eight Ways To Increase The Value Of Your Home

(NAPS)—Making your home more attractive to prospective buyers can be easier and less expensive than many realize—if you heed these eight suggestions from the real estate listings experts at Trulia:

- 1. Look to your landscaping. Just a few hundred dollars on grass seed or replacement sod, new flowers, bushes or trees, a weekend and a little effort can improve a house's curb appeal.
- 2. Help your home clean up nicely. Give the exterior a thorough scrubdown, including screens, windows and gutters. Pressure wash the walks and driveway. Inside, steam clean the carpets, wash or wax laminate, hardwood or linoleum, and clean the grout on tile walls and floors.
- 3. Give the trim a treat. Paint just the trim and front door, two items that buyers' eyes are naturally drawn to when driving by your places.
- 4. Change the caulk around the plumbing fixtures. Over time, caulk, the silicone that protects surfaces from water seepage, can discolor, tear or degrade. Stripping this material out and replacing it with a fresh bead of silicone can improve both bathrooms and kitchens.
- 5. Be clever: declutter. A house full of furniture, clothing, collections, exercise equipment and memorabilia can look much smaller than its actual size. Have a garage sale, rent a storage unit, or start making trips to the landfill to whittle down your home's contents.

- 6. Fix the small things. Replace burnt-out lightbulbs, fix holes in doors or walls, grease squeaky cabinets or doors, fix leaks and change the air filters.
- 7. Update lighting fixtures. It's a bright idea that doesn't have to cost a fortune. Just change a few, especially if they look dated. See if the exterior garage lights, bathroom lights or bedroom lights in particular are good candidates for a change.
- 8. Refresh your kitchen and bath. Consumer Reports estimates you can increase your home's value by as much as 7 percent by renovating these rooms. Choose a neutral palette to increase the appeal to as many tastes as possible.

Collecting by Larry Cox

String Holder

Q. I have a Shirley Temple string holder. It is painted chalkware and has been in my family since the 1930s. A neighbor has offered me $200 for it, and my big question is whether I should take the money or keep the Temple item. — Kathy, Austin, Texas

A. Take the money and run. According to "Kovels' Antiques and Collectibles Price Guide" by Ralph and Terry Kovel and published by Black Dog and Leventhal press, your string holder is worth about $60.

Q. My late husband bought me some Holly Hobbie limited edition statues during the 1980s. He also purchased a statue from the Crosa Collection. I am wondering if these have any value. — Marie, Orange City, Florida

A. The best way to determine the values of limited editions such as the items you have is to monitor eBay. That site is in reality an international auction site and should be helpful in establishing current values. Most limited editions are difficult to sell in today's market.

Q. I have an issue of The San Antonio Light newspaper announcing the end of World War II. It appears to be complete and is in fairly good condition. What is it worth? — Steve, Alamo Heights, Texas

A. Although your newspaper is historic and interesting, it is not all that valuable. If it is complete and in better-than-average condition, it probably would sell in the $15-$25 range. For a second opinion, you might contact an established dealer and expert, Timothy Hughes, P.O. Box 3636, Williamsport, PA 17701. Check out his website at www.rarenewspapers.com. Incidentally, The San Antonio Light was a William Randolph Hearst publication, and it no longer exists.

Q. I have about a dozen storybooks that I received as a child during the 1950s. I have been tempted to toss them but wonder if they might have value. — Bethany, Metairie, Louisiana

A. There are several reference books that might be helpful. A favorite of mine is "Warman's Children's Books: Identification & Price Guide" by Steve Santi and published by Krause Books. Although the edition I have is several years old, I think it still reflects the current market.

How To Choose The Right High-Efficiency Furnace For You

(NAPS)—The next time you're looking to buy a furnace, you can make a smart and informed decision if you consider the following:

- Your contractor: Choose a contractor you can trust—one who is knowledgeable, dependable, licensed and located close enough to provide prompt service. Ask friends and family about their experiences and check out ratings on online sites.
- Efficiency: Annual fuel utilization efficiency (AFUE) measures the percentage of energy consumed by the furnace that actually heats your house. The higher the AFUE, the more efficient the furnace and the greater the amount of heat delivered for your money. When shopping for a high-efficiency furnace, choose one with an AFUE of 90 percent or higher.
- ENERGY STAR: ENERGY STAR recognition means products meet strict energy efficiency guidelines set by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Different gas furnace efficiency requirements and labels are used for different regions of the country. Certified gas furnaces in the southern half of the U.S., where homes require less heat, are labeled with a unique "U.S. South" ENERGY STAR logo and are up to 12 percent more efficient than standard models. Certified gas furnaces in the northern half of the U.S. are labeled with the standard ENERGY STAR logo. These furnaces are up to 16 percent more energy efficient than baseline models.
- Modulating furnaces: By modulating the gas valve (similar to turning up the burner on a gas stove) and varying the speed of the indoor fan, modulating furnaces respond to the outdoor weather to keep your home warm, comfortable and quiet. As a result, they use less energy when the heating demand on your home is low. Some modulating furnaces, including the Coleman Echelon modulating variable-speed furnace from Johnson Controls, are rated up to 98 percent AFUE and are equipped with an additional efficiency feature—an electronically commutated motor (ECM). An ECM offers nearly continuous, gradual fan speed operation for fewer stops and starts. This makes the furnace quieter while still providing great efficiency.

- Sizing: Before settling on a furnace, be sure your contractor does a load calculation to determine the appropriate furnace capacity. A furnace that is too big for the space will turn on more frequently and waste fuel. One that is too small will not generate enough heat.
- Thermostat: It makes sense to pair your high-efficiency furnace with a programmable thermostat that allows you to monitor and adjust settings according to your unique heating needs. Look into your options.

Premium high-efficiency furnaces offer unique high-tech solutions to reduce energy use and increase comfort. Knowing the options available to you as you choose a new furnace can help you make an informed decision. To learn more about high-efficiency furnaces, visit www.colemanac.com, www.youtube.com/ColemanHomeComfort and follow @ColemanHVAC on Twitter or call (877) 874-7378.

Look for the Department of Energy's Energy Star logo when buying home appliances such as a furnace to find the most efficient.

The Garden Bug

Monotropa uniflora (also known as the ghost plant, Indian pipe, or corpse plant) grows in dark, dense forests and is rarely seen. Unlike most plants, it contains no chlorophyll. Instead of generating energy from the sun, it is parasitic to certain fungi growing among tree roots. It blooms from early summer to early autumn, often a few days after rainfall; the stems bear only a single flower.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Is this the beginning of the end of “The View”? For the past 20 years we’ve had to endure the revolving door of hosts. When we lost Rosie O’Donnell (twice), the wonderful Rosie Perez and Barbara Walters, it took some getting used to. When Barbara and Bill Getty produced the show it was top notch. Then ABC pushed both Walters and Getty out and brought in new producer Dick Wolff. He revamped the show with new, young and relatively unknown co-hosts, but still, many viewers tuned in because of Whoopi Goldberg.

ABC/Yolanda Perez

When ABC announced the return of original cast member Joy Behar, who left in 2013 to headline her own cable talk show (which failed), no one said what was offered her to return. When Dick Wolff was replaced as producer by Candi Carter, one of the first things she did was to change the “Hot Topics” briefing meeting from 9 a.m. to 8:30 a.m., thus excluding Whoopi, who is not contractually due at the studio until 9 a.m. And a new clause in Whoopi’s contract kept her from moderating the live Friday shows (which insiders say Joy Behar will be doing). Insiders also insist that Whoopi will be gone when the cast returns from Christmas break unless people start letting ABC know that if Whoopi goes, so does her loyal following who watch her every day. If Joy takes her seat and Sherri Shepherd fills Joy’s seat it will no longer be “The View,” it will be out of view, as far as many are concerned!

Elle Fanning stars with Ben Affleck (who also produces, writes and directs), Sienna Miller and Zoe Saldana in “Live by Night,” slated for 2017. Fanning also stars in “About Ray,” in which she plays transgender teenager Ray (formally Ramona), who is pursuing her true identity. The drama also stars Naomi Watts as her mother and Susan Sarandon as her lesbian grandmother. This will be like watching Caitlyn Jenner in reverse!

• "Apply petroleum jelly to the panes of your windows before painting the trim. This works better than masking tape in many ways. It is easily removed, and even large paint flecks come right off." — P.S. in Illinois

• For easy-cleanup pancakes, use a turkey baster to "squirt" the batter in the griddle or skillet. No drips, and it usually results in a pretty good circle, too!

• When you are able to pick up extra meat at a great price, you want to be sure that while it's frozen, it maintains its best taste. Use this tip to vacuum seal your meat without any special equipment! Add meat pieces to a plastic, zipper-top bag. Fill a large pot several inches deep with water. Seal all but an inch or so of the bag. As you lower the bag into the water (zipper top up) the air will escape through the unsealed portion. When no air remains, seal the bag and then remove from the water.

• "Have you tried this single-serving blender hack using a mason jar? Most standard-size blender blades can be screwed on to a pint Mason jar. If you're one of the lucky ones, you can make single servings of smoothies to blend and go." — T.U. in South Carolina

• Baby have diaper rash? One of the best remedies is "air time" — that is, letting baby go without a diaper for a bit. Another simple soother is a baking soda bath. Try adding 2-4 tablespoons of baking soda to Junior's bathwater.

• After you've cooked your chicken whole, remove the meat and throw the bones and remaining carcass in the slow cooker with 3-4 cups of water. Let it cook on low for several hours for a spectacularly flavorful broth.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might be growing impatient with a situation that seems to resist efforts to resolve it. But staying with it raises the odds that you'll find a way to a successful resolution.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Travel and kinship are strong in the Bovine's aspect this week. This would be a good time to combine the two and take a trip to see family members for a pre-holiday get-together.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A colleague could make a request you're not comfortable with. If so, say so. Better to disappoint someone by sticking with your principles than disappoint yourself if you don't.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The Moon Child's ability to adapt to life's ebbs and flows helps you deal with the changes that you might confront at work or at home, or both. Things settle down by the week's end.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's a good week for Leos and Leonas to get some long-outstanding business matters resolved. Then go ahead and plan a fun-filled family getaway weekend with the mate and the cubs.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A possible workplace change seems promising. If you decide to look into it, try not to form an opinion on just a small part of the picture. Wait for the full image to develop.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A newcomer helps keep things moving. There might be some bumpy moments along the way, but at least you're heading in the right direction. You win praise for your choices.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You could be pleasantly surprised by how a decision about one thing opens up an unexpected new option. Also, assistance on a project could come from a surprising source.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) With more information to work with, you might now be able to start the process that could lead to a major change. Reserve the weekend for family and friends.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) This could be a good time to begin gathering information that will help you turn that long-held idea into something substantive. A personal matter might need extra attention.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) That new challenge might carry some surprises. But you should be able to handle them using what you already know. That new supporter should be there to lend assistance.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Someone might be trying to disguise his or her true motives. But the perceptive and perspicacious Pisces should have little or no problem finding the truth in all that foggy rhetoric.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can always rely on your people skills to help you find solutions to problems others often give up on.

Identifying Marks
With fall migration underway, learning how to identify birds can be helpful. Questions you can ask yourself are: Does the bird have wing bars like an American goldfinch? Does it have a black cap like the gray catbird? Does it have a specific patch of color like a rose-breasted grosbeak?
