Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
 (Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

Q. Have you heard anything about the movie "Dark Places," which was scheduled to be released in June? I read the book by Gillian Flynn, which was terrific, and I saw that it was going to be made into a major motion picture with Charlize Theron and Corey Stoll. Do you know when will it be released? — Kathleen O., via email

A. I, too, loved the Gillian Flynn book and, like you, was excited to see the film. It was released in August in select theaters, and via DirecTV and video on demand. It never quite got wide release and just kind of faded into the background. Along with that, critics and audiences alike weren't too kind to it, although I wouldn't mind seeing it to judge for myself. If you want to watch it now, you can stream it on Amazon and other instant-video outlets, or you can wait until Oct. 6 to buy it on DVD or Blu-ray.

most devoted fans with limited backstage footage. However, in the second season, the eight-episode series will turn its focus directly on the band, giving fans unprecedented access to the entire NKOTB experience. Cameras will be placed inside each band member's cabin, as well as backstage to capture their real interactions, banter and private moments.

Q. What happened to the TV show "Mr. Robinson." It was very funny, but just disappeared. I really liked it. — Mary B., via email

A. The NBC sitcom, which starred Craig Robinson ("The Office") as a middle-school teacher and part-time musician, was canceled in September after airing its six episodes. It was generally derided by both critics and audiences, and never quite got the lift-off it hoped for. The show also featured Peri Gilpin ("Frasier"), Spencer Grammer (who is Kelsey Grammer's real-life daughter), Ben Koldyke, Brandon T. Jackson and Amanda Stenberg.

SEWING PROJECT TO HELP FOSTER KIDS IN RI

Organizers of The Sewing Project to Help Foster Kids are looking for volunteers to sew kid-friendly pillowcase bags for foster children. When a child is taken from a home that has been deemed unsafe by DCYF (Dept. of Children, Youth & Families), the child may take only a small amount of toys, clothes, and personal belongings. Many times, DCYF workers just don't have enough suitcases to use, so when a child arrives at a Crisis Center, Group Home or Foster Home, many times they arrive with literally 1 or 2 large black trash bags full of personal items. Let's change that! This is an ongoing project. Work at your own pace. For more information, contact Hollie at 385-9876 or holliegal@verizon.net

• Here's a tip for you waist-watchers out there: Wait until Halloween Day to buy the candy. That way the in-house sweets won't be haunting you throughout October. — JoAnn

• Update window treatments to compensate for dropping temperatures. Trade your sheers for sturdy, draft-blocking panels.

• Now's the time to install weather-stripping or caulk for fall and winter. To find drafts, try this trick: Light a taper candle and run it very slowly along the cracks of your windows. When you see the flame flicker, that's where you have a draft leak.

• Want to save money and be a good environmental servant? Get with the times — the old times, that is. Buy second-hand items and have household items repaired instead of throwing them out. Good-quality clothes can be sold or donated to charity shops; furniture and household items also can be sold or donated, or repurposed into new rooms.

• To keep sauces from splattering and dirtying the inside of your microwave, cover the food with a damp paper towel or a coffee filter. — E.C. in Utah

• Now you can have your tea and clean something too. Teabags can be used to clean woodwork. Rub the wood softly with a damp bag.

Decked Out With Style

Three Easy Steps to Creating the Outdoor Space of Your Dreams

(NAPS)—There's no better time than now to make the most out of your outdoor living space before the cool months arrive. Creating an outdoor haven is easier to achieve than you think thanks to a few expert tips. These simple steps will not only extend the life of your deck, but also make it the talk of the neighborhood for the rest of the summer and beyond.

Prepare your deck for good times ahead.

1. Deck-spiration: Before tackling the transformation, think about how you plan to utilize your outdoor living space. Will you be mostly cooking, dining and entertaining al fresco? Or will your deck be a haven to unwind and relax? Maybe it will be a combination of both? No matter what you dream up, it's best to pull references from magazines, DIY blogs, or even Pinterest to help guide your inspiration process.

your deck is in direct sunlight, consider blocking the blazing rays by creating a shady oasis with an all-weather fabric umbrella or sunshade in a fun, stylish pattern.

2. Time to Beautify: Tough weather elements such as direct sunlight, rain, snow and everyday wear can dull the appearance and integrity of your deck. One of the best ways to liven up your outdoor space is with a fresh coat of beautiful, color-rich exterior wood stain. When choosing your wood stain or sealant, consider a product that also includes waterproofing and UV damage protection benefits like Thompson's WaterSeal's new Penetrating Timber Oil. This premium product nourishes and beautifies with a unique triple blend of fast-absorbing oils designed to provide coverage with just one coat.

Lastly, dress up the stairs or entryway of your deck by lining the edges with wood planters in various sizes filled with flowers, fresh herbs or other garden fare in vibrant colors and textures to add visual interest. HGTV/DIY Network star Jeff Wilson recommends sealing planter boxes with Thompson's WaterSeal Waterproofing Wood Protector—Clear Aerosol to help maintain wood's natural color and protect your pieces from water damage.

3. Deck-orate & Enjoy: Once the stain or sealant has been applied, it's time to furnish and personalize your deck with accessories that are functional and design friendly. Select comfortable and eye-catching amenities that are dual purpose, such as wicker pieces or end tables that can double as pull-up seating. Accent pillows are an easy way to add a pop of color and personality to an otherwise neutral space. If

Comfort and visual appeal are equal partners with decorating; you're more likely to spend time outdoors if you can relax, entertain and dine in style. No matter what outdoor activities appeal to you most, the Thompson's WaterSeal website is a great place to start for inspirational ideas and product application tips to make the most of your outdoor living space this summer and for years to come.

Thompson's WaterSeal Penetrating Timber Oil and Thompson's WaterSeal Waterproofing Wood Protector—Clear Aerosol are sold nationwide at The Home Depot.

Thompson's WaterSeal Penetrating Timber Oil is available in five colors: Natural, Pecan, Walnut, Redwood and Teak.

CELEBRATING OVER 60 YEARS

SERVING ALL OF RHODE ISLAND

 by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Ready for a reboot of the Robert Wagner/Stephanie Powers series "Hart to Hart"? The series ran from 1979-'84, followed by eight TV movies from 1993-'96. Jonathan and Jennifer Hart were a wealthy couple who became amateur detectives. In NBC's reboot, Jonathan Hart will be a by-the-book lawyer whose partner is a free-spirited investigator ... Dan Hartman. NBC had success with the gay-themed comedy "Will and Grace," but didn't fare as well with "The New Normal." You can catch the original "Hart to Hart" on Cozi TV (check your local listings).

David Hasselhoff

Brolin and Tom Hiddleston all return for two planned sequels, "The Avengers: Infinity War," Part 1 (due in 2018) and Part 2 (in 2019). Filming begins sometime in 2016.

Watch out for "Fast & Furious" 8, 9 and 10. For "Furious 8," Dwayne Johnson and Jason Stratham definitely are returning, and Cody Walker very likely will step into the shoes of his late brother, Paul Walker. The first seven films cost $759 million to make and grossed close to $4 billion.

And speaking of Dwayne Johnson, he and Zac Efron are talking a reboot of "Baywatch." David Hasselhoff — who starred in the first season of the show, acquired the rights and became producer when NBC canceled it — will be in it as well. He recently co-produced and played himself in "Killing Hasselhoff," with Justin Bieber, Ken Jeong, Hulk Hogan and Jon Lovitz. Not bad for someone who started his career as a guy named "Snapper" on "The Young and the Restless" and argued with his talking car on "Knight Rider!"

Collecting
by Larry Cox

Barbie Dolls

Q. I have what I think is one of the first Barbie dolls manufactured. Whom can I contact to find out more about it? — Leslie, Flagstaff, Arizona

A. The Barbie doll was introduced in 1958 when Ruth Handler, wife of the co-founder of Mattel, decided that a fashion doll with an expensive wardrobe would be a fantastic idea. It was, and Barbie quickly became one of America's most popular dolls. Although Barbie has changed with the times, many collectors are interested in the earlier products. Scott Gram is a certified appraiser and a member of the International Society of Appraisers. He is an expert who is quite knowledgeable about Barbies. His contact is sdgram@qwest.net and 602-705-2503.

Q. I have sent you two self-addressed, stamped envelopes with questions. I have not gotten answers and wonder if the cost of my stamps was a waste of money. — Betty, Springfield, Oregon

A. Yes, it was. I get a lot of questions, and all the ones that I answer appear in this column. If I provided personal answers, there would be no column. It's that simple. I pick the questions that I think would be of most interest to my readers. As I recall, you asked about the value of books, a question I have answered frequently in this column.

Q. I have a rare vintage Shawnee piggy cookie jar. It is "Smiley." Could you please tell me what it is worth? — Norma, Sun City West, Arizona

A. There were several models and versions of this cookie jar, and I'm not certain which one you have. The "Smiley" cookie jar was popular during the 1940s, and I found several on eBay in the $50 to $150 range. Its value depends on several factors, including condition and version.

Q. I have quite a collection of fishing lures, and I am curious about both values and rarity. Is there a good reference book you can recommend? — Steve, Orlando, Fla.

A. "Classic Fishing Lures" by Russell E. Lewis (Krause Publications) is one of the better ones available. It features 1,500 color illustrations, current prices and the history of most major lure makes.

Write to Larry Cox in care of KFWS, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803, or send e-mail to questionsforcox@aol.com. Due to the large volume of mail he receives, Mr. Cox cannot personally answer all reader questions, nor does he do appraisals. Do not send any materials requiring return mail.

Atlanta Falcons linebacker. The only thing that saved me was my ineptitude: I couldn't figure out how to shut off the flash on my Minolta, and I was crouched over about to smash it with a rock.

If you think the NFL comes off as violent on TV and that those hits look hard from your couch, believe me when I tell you that when Keith Brooking's cleats clear your windpipe by a scant millimeter and a bunch of Indianapolis Colts come flying over your supine legs in wave after wave, you either have an epiphany or you're not paying attention. (Or, as was my case, you have a Minolta and you didn't get the shot.)

I don't think these guys believe that God or the Procession of Saints are up there with x's and o's, sending in plays. Or maybe some of them do. But why do some people get so offended by that? Why is it OK that we can celebrate the greatest trash talkers, but we can't let a guy show a little humility and respect? These guys are straight-up gladiators of the modern day, and they're playing for your enjoyment — thumbs up, thumbs down.

If the guy points up to heaven after a touchdown or a home run, that's not showing anybody up, and it's not endorsing whatever it is you think organized religion did or didn't do throughout history. If it's what that guy needs to get back to the huddle or, in the case of Joba Chamberlain, the Major Leagues, I am all for it because image isn't everything — no matter what Minolta said.

*Pat's is the King of Steaks, but if you are going to get that worked up about who makes a better tasty cheese steak, there's something really the matter with you. Geno's is great, too. But then, who am I to judge?

• On Oct. 17, 1931, gangster Al Capone is sentenced to 11 years in prison, signaling the downfall of one of the most notorious criminals of the 1920s and '30s. FBI agent Eliot Ness and his men routinely broke up Capone's bootlegging businesses, but it was tax-evasion charges that finally stuck.

• On Oct. 12, 1940, cowboy-movie star Tom Mix is killed when he loses control of his speeding Cord Phaeton convertible and rolls into a dry wash in Arizona. Mix was hit in the back of the head by a heavy aluminum suitcase, killing him almost instantly.

• On Oct. 13, 1957, American movie audiences are treated to the science-fiction thriller "The Amazing Colossal Man." Other films of the Cold War nuclear-weapon culture included "Them!" (1954) and "The Beast from 20,000 Fathoms" (1953).

1. Where is MacArthur Park, from the song written by Jimmy Webb?
2. Name the artist who released "Young World," and give the year.
3. What time is the train in BTO's song "Takin' Care of Business"?
4. Name the group that recorded "Knock Three Times."
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Accused and tried and told to hang, I was nowhere in sight when the church bells rang, Never was the kind to do as I was told."

Answers

1. Los Angeles where Webb used to meet his girlfriend. He claims all the visuals in the song were true, even the cake being left out in the rain.
2. Ricky Nelson, in 1962.
3. 8:15. Songwriter Randy Bachman said he wrote it about a music technician's trip into the city every morning.
4. Tony Orlando and Dawn, in 1970. At the time Orlando was working for a rival record label, and he had to record the song on the sly so it wouldn't find out.
5. "Ride Like the Wind," by Christopher Cross, 1979. The song, which Cross said he wrote while on drugs on the way to Austin, Texas, is about a condemned man fleeing, hoping to reach the Mexico border.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your moodier side might emerge this week. But the dark period should pass in time for the party-loving Lamb to go on a happy gambol with some very special people this weekend.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Yet again, you show your skill at being able to indulge in your love of the arts this week while still taking care of practical matters, including some still-unfinished business matters.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A potential change might appear to be what you've been looking for. In any event, consider both the negative as well as the positive possibilities before making any sort of decision.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Relationships continue to dominate your aspect this week on a mostly positive level, with just a few problem areas you can smooth over. Also, try to be flexible about travel plans.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You love being on center stage, and while you absolutely purr at the sound of all that praise, be careful not to take on too many commitments at the expense of time spent with loved ones.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might feel that you need to get involved in a matter concerning a friend or relative. But while the issues appear to be cut and dried, they might not be. Get more facts before you act.

GREAT DEAL! GREAT DEAL! Sons of the American Legion Post #2, 2 Legion Way, West Warwick, will run their Monthly STEAK FRY on Friday, October 9, at the Post Home at 7PM. A 1 LB. RIB EYE with all the fixin's for ONLY $15. Kindly call the Post Home at 821-9855 and reserve your tickets. Guests are invited to attend. Thanks!

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A suggestion about a policy change could create heated reactions. Keep your mind open and resist joining in with naysayers unless they can show a real basis for their position.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) While potential career changes warrant your interest, don't ignore current job responsibilities. A personal relationship also can benefit from more of your attention.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Don't guess at what the facts might be if you hope to make the best decision possible. The wisest course is to ask direct questions and act on the answers you get.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your efforts involving that pesky problem should soon show positive signs of being resolved. This would allow you to shift some of your focus in another direction.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) While you enjoy well-deserved praise for getting a difficult job done, there's no time to relax. A new challenge looms. Expect more support from a once-strong critic.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might still have explaining to do about your decision, but support grows as you continue to make your case. You also might want to start making plans for the upcoming holidays.

BORN THIS WEEK: You insist on making decisions based on facts, not on popular opinions. Have you considered a career in science?

 Look for the Green Scorpion
405 Nooseneck Hill Rd. (Rt. 3), Exeter, RI 02822

I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.
