INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS - PROVIDENCE, RI
IBEW LOCAL 99

Open-Shop Electrical Contractors, Your Time is Now!

For the past several years IBEW Local 99 has been actively recruiting, testing and welcoming into our Local: Apprentices, Journeymen Wiremen, Tele-com Techs and Contractors.

That effort has been an amazing success. We now have a database of many unrepresented hard working men and women who will be coming in the Union. Many of these people currently work in parts of the industry that the IBEW has historically not been as prevalent in, such as Residential and Light commercial.

We are now looking to expand our recruitment of high quality and ethical open shop contractors that specialize in that type of work.

Discover the value IBEW can have for your company:

- You pay nothing to the Union to sign with us!
- Immediate access to indentured apprentices!
- 1-1000 qualified Men and Women available with a single phone call!
- IBEW quickly becoming the main source of manpower in the Northeast!
- Flexible rates for non-traditional work!
- Your partner in protecting the industry!
- The safest and most productive workforce in the industry!
- The undisputed best training facility and staff in the industry!
- Complete flexibility in Staffing!
- Access to General Contractors and Bidding Opportunities!
- Free Benefit Management!
- Contractor Training and Support!

We are looking for only the best in manpower and contractors. If you are a great contractor, we should be talking to you now. There are many very unsatisfied craftspeople looking for a better life who are available right now and ready to move to your company!

1. Christopher Cross, in 1983, after the death of a college student who was hit by a bullet. But the song became popular when it was associated with a couple in the soap opera "General Hospital," Luke and Laura, after she'd been missing for months.
2. Dionne Warwick (temporarily adding the "e" to her last name) and the Spinners, in 1974. It was her first chart topper.
3. The Temptations, in 1971. The song about backstabbing friends became a hit later that year when it was re-recorded by co-writer Norman Whitfield's trio the Undisputed Truth.
4. Jimmy Dean, in 1962. The song tells of John F. Kennedy and the crew of Patrol Torpedo boat 109 in 1943.
5. "I Don't Want to Miss a Thing," by Aerosmith in 1998, was the group's first No. 1. It went global, topping the charts around the world, and was used in the film "Armageddon."

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Jan. 5, 1643, in the first record of a legal divorce in the American colonies, Anne Clarke of the Massachusetts Bay Colony is granted a divorce after being deserted by her husband, Denis Clarke.

- On Jan. 2, 1811, Timothy Pickering, a Federalist from Massachusetts, becomes the first senator to be censured. Pickering was accused of violating congressional law by publicly revealing secret documents communicated by the president to the Senate.

- On Jan. 1, 1863, a farmer named Daniel Freeman submits the first claim under the new Homestead Act for a property in Nebraska. The act legalized the long-standing practice of squatting on the vast federal landholdings in the West.

- On Jan. 6, 1925, at New York's Madison Square Garden, Finnish long-distance runner Paavo Nurmi makes his first American appearance. He would run a total of 55 races before returning home, losing only his last race, a half-mile sprint. Some newspapers speculated that Nurmi had lost only out of politeness to his hosts.

- On Jan. 7, 1947, "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" becomes the No. 1 song on the U.S. pop charts. The story of Rudolph began in 1939, when retailer Montgomery Ward created a holiday book to give away to children. Johnny Marks later used the story to write the song, which sold more than 2 million units in its first year alone.

- On Jan. 4, 1974, President Richard Nixon refuses to hand over tape recordings and documents that had been subpoenaed by the Senate Watergate Committee. Nixon would resign from office in disgrace eight months later.

- On Jan. 3, 1990, Panama's Gen. Manuel Antonio Noriega surrenders to U.S. military troops to face charges of drug trafficking. In 1992, the former dictator was convicted of drug trafficking, money laundering and racketeering, and sentenced to 40 years in prison.

Salome's Stars

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Emotions rule at the start of the week, affecting your perception about a decision. Best advice: Avoid commitments until that good Libran sense kicks back in.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A longtime friendship could take a romantic turn early in the new year. While this pleases your passionate side, your logical self might want to go slow.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Someone might make a surprising disclosure about a trusted friend or workplace colleague. Stay cool and reserve judgment until you get more facts.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You might think you've found what you've been looking for. But appearances can be deceiving. Don't act on your discovery until you know more about it.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You're no doubt anxious for that confusing situation to be cleared up. But don't press for a quick resolution or you might overlook some vital facts.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Now that your holiday distractions are easing, you need to apply yourself to getting those unfinished tasks done so you can begin a new project with a clean slate.

BORN THIS WEEK: People respect both your wisdom and your deep sense of loyalty and compassion.

Tips for snow removal

- Remove heavy snowfall from plant beds. Some snow does offer protection and moisture, but too much weight can damage wintering plants and leave behind too much standing water as it melts.
- Avoid heaping roadside snow onto planting areas; it's most likely full of road salt, which is damaging to roots and foliage.
- When snow accumulates on trees and bushes, remove it gently. Don't bang on the branches, as they may snap and break. - Brenda Weaver

St. Jude's Novena

May the sacred heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved, throughout the world now and forever.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the helpless, pray for us.

Say this prayer 9 times a day and by the 8th day your prayer will be answered. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. Thank you St. Jude for answering my prayers.

Making Family Life Better

Eight Clever Kitchen Tricks For The Generations

(NAPSA)—If yours is among the 5.1 million families that the U.S. Census Bureau says live in multigeneration homes, there are eight tasteful ideas that can help you make your kitchen better for everyone.

Whether your parents, your adult children or both are moving in with you, these may make the living easier on everyone:

- Go big or go small: Put in a kitchenette with a microwave, fridge and sink near an easily accessible bedroom or go for a large gourmet kitchen with a kitchen island if there will be more people eating at different times of the day.
- Allow for wide aisles so many people—including those with a walker or a rolling baby chair—can use the room without getting in each other's way.
- Consider a second dishwasher, stove or refrigerator.
- The height of convenience: Vary counter thickness and height and go for multilevel divided sinks to make lifting pots and pans easier.
- Lower the cooking surfaces, too, so seeing inside pots can be simpler.
- Swing time: Pull-out shelves give you easy access for under-cabinet storage without a lot of bending, stooping and digging around.
- Rise to the occasion: Integrated toe-kick ladders that hide under cabinets can help everyone reach the high shelves with less stretching and more safety.
- Here's a bright idea: Older eyes often need more light, so improve visibility inside drawers with integrated LED drawer lighting.
- Don't get a handle on the cabinets. Sleek, handleless design makes cabinets easier to open.
- Keep it down. Replace cabinets with drawers below countertops and place microwaves under the counter.

Many families are finding that with a little effort at accommodation, two, three or more generations can live happily together under one roof—and using one kitchen.

- Smart sinks. If several people will be cooking different meals at the same time, multiple sinks might be in order.
- If there's just one sink, consider single-lever faucets that are easier to turn on and off and to control the temperature, even for someone with arthritis. Similarly, a magnetic pullout for a chef faucet—a unique feature of the Blanco Culina—is easier to use than a standard hook. The magnet, not a hook, holds the faucet in place until it's time to use it again.
- Kitchen sinks with integrated accessories, such as those in the Blanco One collection, keep tools convenient so you don't have to search for them, plus they save space. In-sink caddies can hold knives, utensils and cleaning tools inside the sink to save counter space and provide greater convenience. Cutting boards and colanders integrated with the sink can make food preparation more convenient.
- If someone in the household uses a wheelchair or is likely to someday, you can have a kneehole put in under the sink with an inclined board to cover the plumbing.
- More clever ways to improve your kitchen can come from the experts at Blanco, known for innovation, design and functionality.
