I wasn't looking for a discount funeral. I was looking for an affordable one.

Most "discount funerals" mean less money, less service, less attention to detail, less of everything. An affordable funeral is a complete funeral based first on the needs of the family, then priced to fit within their budget.

Thanksgiving. Celebrated on the 4th Thursday in November in the United States. It's a day of giving thanks for the bounty of the preceding year. Giving thanks for what we have, the riches we've sown, and the achievements we've made. Some of us have more to be thankful for than others, but we can all find something on this Thanksgiving day. Whether it be a promotion, a new arrival, a new home, etc., be thankful for something. Take the time to ponder your bounty. For the family you have, or the friends you have, or the people who carried you through difficult times. Take care in finding your blessings. From all of us at Crystal Cleansers, and our friends at the REMINDER, have a wonderful Thanksgiving day, and bask in your bounty

Donna's Day Creative family fun

Make a Succulent Pumpkin Centerpiece

Pumpkins aren't just for Halloween. Available in green, white, blue-gray and various shades of orange, like the deeply ribbed Cinderella pumpkin, they make an eye-catching Thanksgiving Day centerpiece when you glue moss and living succulents on top.

Keep the succulents misted as they root into the moss, and enjoy an attractive creation in your home into the December holidays and beyond. When the pumpkin eventually begins to soften and age, toss it in the compost bin and pot the succulents indoors in soil in a flowerpot or outdoors in a frost-free garden bed.

Kids will enjoy making the centerpiece with you this week. Swirling the nontoxic sticky glue, handling the wiry moss and arranging the succulents and add-ins make for artful fun.

Here's what you'll need for one succulent pumpkin centerpiece:

- One clean pumpkin with a flat top surface and center indentation works best.
- Water-soluble white glue that dries clear, such as Mod Podge Matte finish
- Sphagnum moss available in garden centers or craft stores
- Several succulents. Use cuttings from your garden or purchase at garden centers
- Natural add-ons such as seedpods, acorns, tiny pinecones, eucalyptus

Here's the fun:

1. Set pumpkin on a newspaper-covered work surface. Remove stem with clippers, being careful not to cut into the pumpkin.

2. Drizzle glue around the top area of the pumpkin in swirls. Cover with the moss about 1/2-inch thick, pressing firmly in place. Let dry.

3. Remove roots and soil from the succulents from containers. Dip 1/4-inch stems into glue and poke into the moss. For balance, place a tall succulent for a focal point near the center and add remaining succulents and add-ons around it over the moss. (An adult may use a glue gun to affix the add-ons, if you prefer)

Care: Set the centerpiece on a trivet or tray. Mist succulents and moss weekly, making sure the pumpkin remains fresh and dry. The succulents will begin to root through the glue into the moss. Keep away from excessive heat, freezing temperatures and rain.

Extra idea: Make succulent pumpkin place cards for each place setting at the Thanksgiving table using single minis, such as the Munchkin pumpkin. Tuck a name card in each one and set at each plate. Guests may take it home to enjoy.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Victor was grateful that Nikki moved back home and that they were officially back together. Devon was shocked to find Hilary at the boathouse. Cane accused Joe of moving in on the newly single Lily. Billy and Phyllis joined forces to protect Jabot. Jack and Victoria were both suspicious of their newly formed alliance. Gwen was worried that the old Hilary would resurface and try to win Neil back. Sage leaned on Adam for support. An emotional Hilary told Devon that he was trying too hard and needed to back off. Adam and Nikki received some shocking information about Victor's past. Wait to See: Dylan backs Dr. Neville into a corner.

Prepare Your Pipes for a Winter Cold Snap

NewsUSA

(NU) - Winter has a certain amount of charm that comes with it - from sledding and outdoor ice skating to snowmen and brightly lit trees. But when icy weather hits, and your pipes are ill-prepared, it can mean a long (and costly) spring.

Here's what happens: When temperatures drop, trapped water in pipes can freeze. Since water expands when it freezes, it can cause the pipes to rupture. When the pipes thaw, that's when homeowners might come home to a flooded basement.

Instead of waiting before it's too late, now is the time to insulate your pipes before the cold weather returns. Do it in the comfort of warm weather at your leisure so you're not rushed when the cold weather arrives.

Insulate pipes

This action step performs double duty, keeping hot water pipes warm and protecting cold water pipes from freezing, which can lead to immediate energy returns. Homeowners with existing insulation should check it before the cold weather comes to town. If either the insulation or its tape looks cracked or crumbles to the touch, it should be replaced. If the pipes have either wire or tape heaters, homeowners should contact the pipe heater's manufacturer before attempting to insulate pipes.

Old Man Winter

As a homeowner, you most likely will not be needing your hose or sprinklers this winter season. To that end, drain and store your lawn and gardening supplies before the first freeze. Even well-insulated homes reach freezing temperatures if left unheated.

Are your pipes at risk of freezing?

Anti-leak technologies

Like any other industry, new technology is being developed to prevent water damage. One product, the FloLogic System, acts like a circuit breaker for the home plumbing system. The FloLogic system monitors a home's entire water flow from a single position on the water main. When the flow through the system's sensor exceeds a preset limit, the system shuts off the water and sounds an alarm at the keypad. If connected to a security system, FloLogic will notify the monitoring service. Shutting off the water prevents flooding, saving you from potentially costly repairs. Many insurers will also offer discounts to homeowners who use the FloLogic System.

If, however, a pipe is already frozen, homeowners should turn off the water, slowly thaw the pipe, then call a plumber to make necessary repairs.

For more information about the FloLogic System, and protecting your home from water damage, visit www.flologic.com or call 1-877-FloLogic.

Collecting
by Larry Cox

'Joy of Cooking'

Q. My mother collected cookbooks during the 1930s and '40s. She has the 1943 edition of "Joy of Cooking" by Irma S. Rombauer. I understand that this particular edition is quite collectible. A neighbor has offered me $25 for it. Should I sell or keep? — Lydia, Chesterfield, Missouri able. I have seen several copies of this edition sell in the $75-$150 range. Incidentally, this is my favorite cookbook and hardly a week goes by that I don't use it, and yes, it is the 1943 edition.

A. Your neighbor's offer sounds half-baked to me, and I'll explain why. "The Joy of Cooking" was originally published in 1931, compiled by Irma Rombauer and illustrated by her daughter, Marion. It was a rather straightforward collection of recipes with a German-American twist. This cookbook, simply put, is one of the most famous and significant cookbooks in American history. It has had more than a half-dozen editions and somehow, even after 84 years, has remained relevant.

Q. I have a Pez dispenser that I have had since 1983. It is "Little Orphan Annie." Is it worth keeping? — Drake, Davenport, Iowa

A. I found your Pez dispenser in several of my price guides, and they seem to agree that "Little Orphan Annie," which was issued in about 1982, is valued in the $120 to $180 range. A good reference is "Collector's Guide to Pez: Identification & Price Guide" by Shawn Peterson and published by Krause Books.

The 1943 edition is especially interesting. Irma began revising her cookbook in 1942, keeping in mind that American cooking had changed since the start of World War II. Ration cards and shortages were commonplace. Her 1943 edition even featured meat substitutes, using leftover foods and sugarless desserts. Her suggestions for wartime emergency soups are just as valid today as when they were featured more than 70 years ago. Although the first edition of "Joy of Cooking" can sell for several thousand dollars, the 1943 edition also is desirable.

Q. I have a Singer sewing machine that is one of the AH series. Can you tell me when it was manufactured? — Carol, Sun City West, Arizona

A. Your Singer was produced during a two-year period: 1947-48.

The IBEW is growing and you are invited!!
 Response to our recent advertisements has been terrific! We have welcomed some new contractors into our family and are continually interviewing new membership prospects.
 Our new contractors are not only looking for Qualified Electricians but also more Solar Electricians and Tele-Communication Technicians to staff upcoming projects.
 One of the greatest benefits of the Electrical Union is the ability for our members to retire with dignity. Retirement of our well seasoned members provides fantastic opportunities for Electricians of Foreman and General Foreman qualifications. If you are an un-represented "lead" electrician, then we should be talking about your future.
 We are also always looking for Quality Open Shop Electrical Contractors looking to grow with us. It does not matter if you have just 1 electrician or 1000, we have opportunities for everyone!
 The IBEW has been successfully training crews for our contractors since Edison and Tesla were young men. For 125 years our signatory contractors have come to the IBEW to hire the highest quality electricians in the industry. We continue today, working in a mutually beneficial partnership with our contractors to offer the best value in the industry to our valued customers.
Appointments made 7 days a week, in our home or yours!

Creamed Pearl Onions

A traditional Thanksgiving side dish that is great year-round.

- 2 baskets (10 ounces each) pearl onions
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 2 cups milk, warmed
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper
- Pinch ground nutmeg

1. In 10-inch skillet, heat 1 inch water to boiling over high heat. Add onions; heat to boiling. Reduce heat; cover and simmer until tender, 10 to 15 minutes. Drain.

2. When cool enough to handle, peel onions, leaving a little of root end attached to help onions hold their shape.

3. Meanwhile, prepare white sauce: In heavy 2-quart saucepan, melt butter over low heat. Add flour and cook, stirring, 1 minute. With wire whisk, gradually whisk in hot milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly with wooden spoon, until mixture has thickened and boils. Reduce heat and simmer, stirring frequently, 3 minutes. Stir in salt, pepper and nutmeg; remove from heat.

4. Return onions to skillet. Add sauce and cook, stirring, until heated through. Makes 10 servings.

• Each serving: About 87 calories, 5g total fat (3g saturated), 2g protein, 8g carbohydrate, 5g total fat (3g saturated), 16mg cholesterol, 121mg sodium.

Creamed Onions and Peas: Prepare as directed but add 1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas, thawed, to onions with sauce.

Holiday Hints

Four Tips To A Stress-Free And Organized Holiday Season

(NAPSA)—The holiday season is quickly approaching, and though it may be called the most wonderful time of the year, it can also be the most stressful. But with some advance planning and simple organization, you can be ready to enjoy a flawless, stress-free holiday season.

There are a number of holiday shortcuts that can create a personalized impact with just a home printer and a little creativity. And to make sure the season goes smoothly, HP Instant Ink is here to help save you time and money. With the HP Instant Ink service, your eligible printer tells HP when your printer is low on ink and Original HP Ink cartridges are delivered to your door before you run out, keeping one less item off your shopping and "to-do" lists. So where do you start?

1. Gift Wrapping: Print gift tags at home.
Your packages are wrapped right down to the bow, but you forgot the gift tags. Not to fear. Instead of running back to the store in the midst of the holiday rush, use your HP Instant Ink-eligible printer to create your own customizable gift tags. And if you run out of tags, just print some more!

2. Holiday Cards and Letters: Customize your family photos and holiday greetings by designing and printing at home.
This is yet another thing you can do from the comfort of your home. You can easily create and design your own customized photo cards and letters on your computer and then print for just pennies apiece. HP Instant Ink plans start as low as $2.99 a month for up to 50 printed pages, and because plans count printed pages and not the amount of ink used, you can print high-quality color photos or black-and-white documents, all for the same low cost.

3. Table Decorations: Add some flair to your table by printing out personalized place cards.
The tree is decorated and you've hung a wreath on the door, but the decorating doesn't have to stop there. Creating your own table place cards is a simple and easy project that can be done from your home printer to impress your dinner guests. While you're at it, consider creating customized labels to highlight the famous family recipes you prepare.

4. Holiday Cooking: Print out your grocery list, baking schedule and recipes.
During the hustle and bustle leading up to your holiday dinner, it is important to have a plan and stick to it. Mapping out your appetizers, entrées, drinks and desserts, and printing out recipes and ingredients lists, will save you return trips to the store.

The HP Instant Ink service works with a wide variety of new HP printers and includes everything you need to keep your printer working hard for you—including ink, shipping, and cartridge recycling.

From planning your holiday events to putting the finishing touches on your table, these simple solutions can save you time, money and headaches this holiday season.

To learn more or find a participating retailer, visit www.hp.com/go/newinstantink.

Getting printer ink delivered to your door can help make your holidays easier.

Holiday Hints

Sweet Scents Of Joy

(NAPSA)—This year, you can treat your sense of smell to the delights of the holiday season.

That's because the nostalgic scent of fresh-cut Christmas trees is found in ornaments that can be hung from tree boughs, tucked into wreaths and garland or discreetly hidden throughout the house.

Made of natural fibers sourced from sustainable resources and infused with pure fragrance, these ScentSicles offer a no-mess, no-flame, simple way to make artificial holiday greenery smell real, enhance the scent of a live tree or just add scent as a decoration to any room.

Fragrance-infused ornaments can bring the holidays to life with the scent of fresh-cut trees that could fool even a lumberjack.

They're available seasonally at many major retail stores and year-round at www.Amazon.com and www.ScentSicles.com.

Now, a visit to that site before December 31 can also add the scent of victory to your home. You can enter The World's Most Authentic Artificial Tree Sweepstakes. The grand prize is a stunningly realistic Balsam Hill tree, a supply of ScentSicles and $500. Five runners-up each win a ScentSicles supply and $100. Learn more at (866) 435-1832.

HOLIDAY HINTS

Time-saving Tips To Help You Enjoy The Holidays

(NAPSA)—As the holidays get closer, it can be easy to feel like there is too much to do and too little time. Fortunately, there is no need to panic.

The good news is that there are plenty of ways to make the holidays simple and stress free, cutting down on chaos and making more time for what matters most: family and friends. Now is the best time to utilize your Amana brand appliances to make the mixing, cooking, prepping and baking easy. Here are some tips:

Start with smart planning. Two weeks before guests arrive, look over your recipes and write out your menu to make shopping quick, organized and easy. Stock up the week prior to the main event and store produce in your refrigerator crisper to keep it fresh.

Make as much as you can ahead of time. A week before the main event, take a closer look at the menu. What can you make ahead of time? Prep deli meats and cheeses and make what you can of your appetizers and even side dishes. Set them on a serving platter and store in the refrigerator. All you have to do is unwrap and serve when your guests arrive.

Make good use of your microwave. With your side dishes already prepped, pop them in the microwave so they're ready to serve in seconds. Reheat as needed during your dinner and—of course—use your microwave when feasting on leftovers.

Prep the side dishes in advance so you can just pop them in the microwave and have them ready to serve in minutes.

Let the freezer be your friend. Whether you're hosting a big holiday dinner or bringing a dish to pass, if your schedule is hectic—fear not. Freeze cookies, dessert bars and breads. Thaw them out and you're good to go. Keep a few extra batches on hand in the freezer during the busy holiday season and never be left empty handed.

Clean as you go. Just like whistling, try cleaning up while you work. Keep dishes moving from the counter to the dishwasher so they're ready when you need them. It'll keep you from facing a mountain of cleanup at the end of the night.

With a head start on holiday planning, entertaining friends and family couldn't be any easier or more enjoyable. And that's really the whole point of the holidays.

A father may turn his back on his child, brothers and sisters may become inveterate enemies, husbands may desert their wives, wives their husbands. But a mother's love endures through all.
