Open-Shop Electrical Contractors, Your Time is Now!

For the past several years IBEW Local 99 has been actively recruiting, testing and welcoming into our Local: Apprentices, Journeymen Wiremen, Tele-com Techs and Contractors.

That effort has been an amazing success. We now have a database of many unrepresented hard working men and women who will be coming in the Union. Many of these people currently work in parts of the industry that the IBEW has historically not been as prevalent in, such as Residential and Light commercial.

We are now looking to expand our recruitment of high quality and ethical open shop contractors that specialize in that type of work.

Discover the value IBEW can have for your company:

- You pay nothing to the Union to sign with us!
- Immediate access to indentured apprentices!
- 1-1000 qualified Men and Women available with a single phone call!
- IBEW quickly becoming the main source of manpower in the Northeast!
- Flexible rates for non-traditional work!
- Your partner in protecting the industry!
- The safest and most productive workforce in the industry!
- The undisputed best training facility and staff in the industry!
- Complete flexibility in Staffing!
- Access to General Contractors and Bidding Opportunities!
- Free Benefit Management!
- Contractor Training and Support!

We are looking for only the best in manpower and contractors. If you are a great contractor, we should be talking to you now. There are many very unsatisfied craftspeople looking for a better life who are available right now and ready to move to your company!

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. KD

THANK YOU ST. JUDE for prayers answered. BB.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

Cat Relationship Is All About Compromise

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: Why do cats do what they do? Why do they tear ornaments off the Christmas tree, knock glasses off the coffee table, attack our shoelaces and knead their claws into our sweater? Is there any way to get mine to stop doing, like, all of these things? Sign me — Frayed Sweater, and Nerves, in Toronto

DEAR FRAYED: After years and years of studying this conundrum, I can honestly say most cats won't respond to pleas, begging or even treats. Well, sometimes they'll respond to treats. But they'll go right back to doing what they enjoy most: destroying all that you love.

I'm being (slightly) sarcastic, of course. Having a cat means making a few compromises in your life, particularly in the interior-decorating department. It means being more careful about setting expensive glassware on the countertop. It means a Christmas tree whose bottom third remains undecorated, or adorned with unbreakable, pet-safe ornaments. It means patiently retying your shoelaces after your cat has pounced on them. It means buying a new sweater every fall, or keeping your favorite ones in a drawer to wear on special occasions only.

The tradeoff, however, is that you have a companion for many happy years. A cat kneading his or her claws on your sweater while curled up in your lap is an expression of contentment, an acknowledgment that you're family. You don't have to give up all the breakable things that you love in order to live with your cat, you just need to make a few concessions to keep both your cat and your glassware safe.

Send your pet care tips, questions or comments to ask@pawscorner.com.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

'Kilroy Was Here'

It took only a little over $160 to buy this "Kilroy was here" bank. The 5-inch-high plaster bank was painted red. The bottom had the words "To open, cut hole in bottom." It is a very rare souvenir of the Second World War.

affect prices, which range from about 25 cents to several thousand dollars. Most sell for under $1.

Some of the rarest and most valuable postcards were printed on gray, rough-surfaced stock during a paper shortage in 1916. They were sold to printers for commercial use and weren't available at the post office. Rough-surfaced postcards sold recently for over $1,700 to $2,400. The die was recut because the stamp didn't make a good impression on the rough surface. Postcards stamped with Die II have sold for $18,500. A stamp dealer might be able to tell you what your postcards are worth.

TIP: Antique-cut diamonds (old mine-cut) are being made today. They are very similar to old diamonds, but if used as replacements in old jewelry, the new ones will be brighter.

Sign up for our free weekly email, "Kovels' Comments." Terry Kovel writes about the latest news, tips, questions and her views of the market. If you register on our website, kovels.com, there is no charge.

Q: I have several old one-cent prepaid postcards that are unused. The "stamp" on the postcard is green and pictures Thomas Jefferson. Do these postcards have any value?

A: The postcards still can be used if you add enough stamps to equal the current postcard rate, which is 34 cents. However, they are worth more than face value to a collector. One-cent postcards were made from 1916 to 1952, except for two years during World War I when the rate was raised to two cents and for the years 1925 to 1928. The one-cent postcard was made on different cardstocks. Some are more valuable than others, and there are other differences that

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might be hurt by a colleague's harsh criticism. But don't let it shake your confidence in what you're trying to do. A more positive aspect starts to appear by week's end.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You're torn between your sensible self and the part of you that enjoys acquiring lovely things. Best advice: Wait for an end-of-month sale, and then buy something wonderful.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your artistic side has practical applications this week, such as redecorating your home or redesigning your personal stationery. Whatever you do, someone special will like it.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You could be drawn into a problem 'twixt friends or family members. Best bet: Ask the questions that go to the heart of the matter, then get them all together for a group hug.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) As much as you love being the center of attention, your big Lion's heart impels you to share the spotlight with a colleague who helped you with that well-praised project.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your eagerness to act on a challenge is wisely tempered early in the week by a lack of necessary information. Things begin to clear up during the weekend.

HALL FOR RENT: Coventry Men's Club available for Bachelor Parties, Weddings, Birthdays, Retirement Parties, Etc. Menu available. Call 385-3536 after 2PM for more information.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A relationship you'd hoped would keep going seems to be going nowhere. Close it out and move on to a brighter romantic aspect just beginning to manifest itself.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Things don't go completely as planned this week. But enjoy the surprises, even if you have to adjust your schedule. Some of them could be quite delightful.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Making choices is usually easy for straight-shooting Archers. But a new development could deflect your aim. Try to put off decisions until you know more.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) While part of you might prefer taking a more familiar path, let your more daring and — admit it — super-curious self see what the unexplored has to offer.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Those nasty types have slithered back under the rocks and present no more problems. Now's the time to move ahead on that promising new relationship.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A new offer could clear up that lingering money problem. Also, a more confident attitude on your part might well help get that personal situation back on track.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a way of turning chaos into order. You're also generous with your help for those who seek it.

Donna's Day Creative family fun
by Donna Erickson

with the gift. Through the years, she has seen how both the giver and receiver feel special when they capture the moment together.

When it comes time to say "thanks," she has no worries making sure the right card is with the right gift. "I have the evidence in my camera," she says. "I print out the photos and we mount them to simple cards with envelopes. As my daughters grow older, they can express a more detailed 'thanks,'" she adds.

Here are more saying "thank you" ideas:

—If your child received a holiday gift from someone who wasn't present, take a photo of your child enjoying building with the new blocks, dressing a new doll or shooting a puck with the new hockey stick. Print it, and mount it on a card with a personally written thank you.

—Email or text a short video of your child saying "thanks" and using the gift.

Help Kids Say 'Thanks' for Holiday Gifts

Gifts, meals, activities, memories. It's that time of the new year to share a big "thanks" to those who made the December holidays special for our families and kids. By doing so, we model to the youngest generation the habit of expressing appreciation to others. Hopefully they'll grow into the "saying thanks" habit without our prodding.

According to Amy Jaworsky, editor for the Hearst Corporation and mom of two school-age girls, 13 and 8: "Acknowledging someone's generosity is a reminder to ourselves of all we have to be grateful for. The more we realize how lucky we are, the more apt we are to want to deserve it by being better people." Good words for all, not just for kids.

Teaching her daughters to express thanks to others started on a practical level when her oldest, Presley, turned 4. "I was standing in the background at gift-opening time at her birthday party when the eager guests circled the birthday girl. It felt like a feeding frenzy," she says. "They closed in, and it moved fast. With all the excitement, Presley tore through the wrappings, so it was hard to get a complete list of who gave what."

That's when Amy came up with an idea the following year to ask gift-givers to stand with her daughter while she opened their present, so she could snap a photo of them as they posed —Encourage your children to draw a picture of the gift. If they aren't writing yet, let them dictate as you write their "thanks."

Good Housekeeping

Minty Pesto Pasta Salad

- 1 box corkscrew pasta
- 1/2 cups fresh mint leaves
- 1 box frozen peas
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 1/4 teaspoons salt
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 2 tablespoons water
- 3 cup shredded leftover chicken

Toasted pine nuts

1. Prepare pasta as package label directs. Meanwhile, in a food processor or blender, combine mint leaves, peas, Parmesan and salt; pulse until finely chopped. With motor running, pour in oil and water in a slow, steady stream until mixture is pureed and pesto is thick.
2. Drain pasta, reserving 1/2 cup cooking water. Return pasta to pot; add pesto and shredded chicken. Pour reserved pasta cooking water into the empty food processor or blender and swirl to loosen any remaining pesto; add to pasta mixture and toss to combine.
3. Transfer pasta to a serving bowl and sprinkle with toasted pine nuts and more Parmesan cheese, if you like. Makes 5 servings.

1. Which band released "Love Her Madly," and when?
2. Who was Boo in Lobo's debut single?
3. Why did the Starfires change their name to the Outsiders?
4. What was on the flip side of "We Can Work It Out"?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "I don't want our love to cause you so much pain. If this is how it's going to be, I'll walk away."

- Answers
1. The Doors, in 1971, as a single and on their "L.A. Woman" album a month later. The song was used in the film "Forrest Gump" in 1994.
 2. Boo was the dog ("Me and You and a Dog Named Boo"), depicted as a black and white sheepdog on the record cover.
 3. Rumor says it was because they left one recording label, headed by a family member, and went to another ... making them Outsiders.
 4. "Day Tripper," on a double A side single by the Beatles, in 1965.
 5. "Surrender to Me," by Ann Wilson and Robin Zander, in 1988. The song was used in the soundtrack for Mel Gibson's crime thriller film "Tequila Sunrise," also starring Michelle Pfeiffer.

Prepare For Safe Winter Driving— Top Questions Answered By The Tire Specialists

(NAPS)—While it's always a good time to make sure your vehicle is in good shape, it's particularly important when bad weather and the busy travel season occur.

Vehicle maintenance and preparedness are key for keeping you protected but it can be challenging to know where to start. To help, here are the answers to the most common winter driving questions that people ask.

Q: What's the most important thing to keep in mind when it comes to winter driving?

A: Make sure that you allow extra time and slow down. Whether you're cornering, stopping, accelerating or driving on a straightaway, reducing speed is the key to safe winter driving. Tires have a big effect on what the car can do. Tires are your car's only point of contact with the road, and they influence how much control you have while driving. Before you're on the road, make sure you have properly inflated tires and adequate tread depth to help your tires do their job—grip the road and stop safely.

Q: How can drivers prepare for winter road trips?

A: Plan ahead and winterize your vehicle. Take your car in for routine maintenance, including checking your tires. Before you get on the road, check the department of transportation's website for road conditions. Listen to the radio for announcements about accidents, road closures and travel advisories. Also, let someone know your route in case an accident occurs, and you get stuck in an area with no cell service.

Q: What type of tires should I get for my vehicle, snow tires or all-weather tires? What's the difference?

A: The decision between studded and winter tires comes down to personal needs based on your commute and driving habits. Winter traction tires are specifically designed to provide the extra grip, braking and handling you'll need to confidently drive on slush and packed snow. Studded tires offer additional traction in more treacherous winter driving conditions, such as ice. Chains can be important, too—and are sometimes required—for traction when you're traveling in the mountains or on icy roads. It is always recommended that you talk to a tire expert to help you make the best decision based on your need.

Proper maintenance is important before you hit the road in rough weather.

Q: What should I have in my car in case of an accident?

A: A winter accident could leave you stuck on the side of the road in cold, wet weather. Packing your car with a few essentials will help keep you safe and ready for any unexpected detours. Store snacks, water bottles, an ice scraper, flares, chains, a flashlight, blankets and a roadside safety kit in your trunk. And always carry a cell phone. Many Les Schwab stores also offer emergency roadside assistance—if your vehicle breaks down, especially due to tire- or wheel-related issues, they'll do everything they can to help get you back on the road.

The tire experts at Les Schwab Tire Centers can help ensure your vehicle is winter ready. Before you hit the road, they'll check your tires' air pressure and tread depth and do a visual alignment to ensure the tires are wearing evenly. They'll also check your brakes, shocks and battery, all free as part of their pre-trip safety check. They have a full inventory of winter traction and studded tires, chains and other devices to meet your needs. To find a store nearby, visit www.leschwab.com/about/store-locator. Safe travels.

 THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Jan. 18, 1778, English explorer Captain James Cook becomes the first European to discover the Hawaiian Islands when he sails past the island of Oahu. Two days later, he landed at Waimea on the island of Kauai and named the island chain the Sandwich Islands, in honor of the earl of Sandwich.

• On Jan. 21, 1855, John Moses Browning, sometimes called the "father of modern firearms," is born in Ogden, Utah. When he was 24 years old, Browning received his first patent, for a rifle that Winchester manufactured as its Single Shot Model 1885. The rifle is still made today.

• On Jan. 16, 1919, the 18th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, prohibiting the sale of alcohol, is ratified and becomes the law. It failed to prevent the distribution of alcoholic beverages, however, and led to the rise of organized crime in America.

• On Jan. 15, 1936, Edsel Ford, the son of auto industry pioneer Henry Ford, forms a philanthropic organization called the Ford Foundation with a donation of $25,000. The foundation was established in part as a legal way for the Ford family to avoid inheritance taxes.

• On Jan. 17, 1953, a prototype Chevrolet Corvette sports car makes its debut at General Motors' Motorama auto show. The Corvette was named for a fast type of naval warship.

• On Jan. 19, 1977, President Gerald Ford pardons Iva Toguri, one of the "Tokyo Rose" Japanese women who broadcast Axis propaganda over the radio to Allied troops during World War II. Toguri was a U.S. citizen who was trapped in Japan when war broke out.

• On Jan. 20, 1987, British negotiator Terry Waite is captured by Shiite Muslims in Beirut while attempting to win freedom for Western hostages. He was not released for more than four years.

"Over the Counter"

by Bill Marcotte, Proprietor

Time marches on. And don't we all know that. My grandmother always told me that, and she was right. I have a group of friends that date back to high school, and some from grammar school. We get together each year around Christmas time, if possible. Some of us still live in RI, and some have moved south. Our topic of conversation was always about what we have done in the past year, and who has kids and grandchildren. We talk of our travels, and how far we've been since last year. Always a fun time, and we get to catch up on everything. Well, this year I realized how time had marched on. We had the occasion to get together on Christmas night. They all arrived at my house ready for a glass of wine. By the end of the night we all knew who has high blood pressure, who has had knee replacement surgery. Who's hip feels fantastic since replacement. Who's children are parents and teachers, etc., and who has a parent in a nursing home. We compared pills and scars and had a great time. I think we finally became our mothers and fathers. Time has marched on, and here we sit, in the place we thought we'd never get to! But, we all agreed we are all happy with where we are, and what we have become. Time marched on, and so did we.

We here at Crystal Cleansers wish you all a very Happy New Year, and enjoy your time to the best of your ability. It goes faster than you think.

Prayer to St. Jude
 Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
 (Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.
