City recognizes the service of the Did You Know Foundation

By Linda Cranford

For the past thirty years, the Did You Know Foundation of Mississippi has upheld its commitment to keep the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. alive in the city of Laurel. Mayor Johnny Magee and the Laurel City Council signed a proclamation recognizing the continued service of the Foundation and encouraged the citizens of Laurel to take time to honor the life of King. On Tuesday morning, January 9, Magee presented the proclamation to several members of the Foundation.

“Our focus is on the young people of our community and keeping the ideology of Dr. King’s philosophy,” said Foundation Treasurer and Pastor Anne Clayton with Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church.

The Did You Know Foundation joined groups throughout America in celebrating the life and legacy of King and promoting this year’s theme “Non-Violence, Empowering to Make a Difference (If it’s going to be, it’s up to me).”

The proclamation on Tuesday kicked off several activities planned for the week leading up to the national holiday, which was observed on Monday, January 15 of this year. Activities included a MLK Parade through the City of Laurel, the annual talent/oratorical contest at Oak Park Elementary, the annual King Day Scholarship Fashion Show hosted by Model 101 Runway with Director Gina Logan, door art contest for grades K thru 3 only, poems or essays for grades 4 thru 12, MLK Musical Gospel Explosion at Church of Christian Unity hosted by Dennis Plummer with special guest Lillian Lilly of Mississippi Mass Choir, King Day Memorial Service at Christ’s Church, and a MLK Prayer Breakfast at the Cameron Center with Pastor Maurice McClendon serving as chairman followed by the “laying of the wreath” at the Jones County Courthouse with elected officials.

Laurel's Miranda Beard joins mission to build community center in Dominican Republic

Submitted

Miranda Beard, NSBA Immediate past president, was selected to participate in the January 2018 Lifetouch Memory Mission, an intensive volunteer effort to build a new community center and cafeteria in Rio Grande, Dominican Republic.

The Dominican Republic Lifetouch Memory Mission began in 2011 with the first floor of the Cecaini K-8 school and returning in 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Over the six years of construction, the volunteers finished the second floor of the school, built a two-story vocational school and a two-story K-8 school in Rio Grande. The 2018 Lifetouch Memory Mission will consist of 46 volunteers that include 29 educators and 16 Lifetouch employees from around the country. The volunteers will depart on January 15 and return on January 23.

Miranda Beard

About Lifetouch Memory Mission

Since the inception of the Lifetouch Memory Mission in 2000, Lifetouch employees have traveled to destinations around the world for a week of intensive volunteer service. Lifetouch hands have helped rebuild a village in war-ravaged Kosovo, repair homes in Appalachia, establish a children's center in Jamaica, and constructed a bridge in the land of the Navajo in Arizona.

Joined by school administrators and personnel from around the county, Lifetouch Missions have built thirteen schools across Haiti and the Dominican Republic. Memory Mission volunteers have also provided on-site assistance to victims of natural disasters throughout the United States, including Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans, floods in the Dakotas, fires in California, and tornadoes across the Midwest.

"Lifetouch brings more than muscle and hard work to each Memory Mission," said Jan Haeg, director of Lifetouch Memory Missions at Lifetouch. "It's also about learning new things and developing relationships. More than anything else, it is our mission to bring hope to the families we serve. The Missions are also a transformational experience for volunteers. Ask any past Memory Mission volunteer about their experience and they will tell you they got more out of it than they gave."

To learn more about the Lifetouch Memory Missions visit www.lifetouch-memorymission.com

Having good facilities for educational purposes is vitally important in areas like the Dominican Republic.

Lots of hard work is involved for Memory Missions volunteers in building the new structures.

Our hearts are full of gratitude when we say many thanks to family members, friends, and neighbors for all of the acts of kindness and sympathy: food, flowers, donations, cards, visits and kind words spoken to our family regarding the recent passing of a wonderful daughter, wife, mother, and sister, Tabitha Cunningham.

We want to express special appreciation to Brother Kenneth Smith, Brother Joseph Harris and Brother T. J. Stroo for their many words of comfort, and to Ellisville Funeral Home for their professional arrangements and caring service.

HYNSON VISITS HIS FORMER HOME, ST. JOHN'S DAY SCHOOL – Fifth and sixth grade students at St. John’s Day School were treated Thursday morning, January 11, to a visit from Mr. Bobby Hynson, who grew up in the house that is now the school. Hynson shared the history of the house and some of its hidden secrets with the students who enjoyed identifying the different rooms in the photos he shared. According to Hynson the house is 115 years and was built by George S. Gardner in 1903. One day in 1950, Hynson’s mother made the decision to donate their home as a place to start a new school. Hynson said he moved out of his home in May and started school that August in the same house. His room was the small milk room that the kids now walk through every day to go to lunch in the cafeteria. Bobby Hynson, bottom left, with St. John’s Day School fifth and sixth graders. # Laurel's Office Depot becomes the store of the future

By Linda Cranford

As you walk into the newly remodeled Office Depot in Laurel, one of the first things you will notice is how bright and open the store is. The entire floorplan has been revamped.

"This is our store of the future, and the only one in the state of Mississippi," exclaimed Office Depot Business Pro Ed Ludt, who is also the pastor of Errata Presbyterian Church. "It has a brighter more open concept with a stronger emphasis on technology. We wanted to make the store where when people came in they didn't feel lost. Everything has its place and everything is brightly lit. The aisles are wide and you can shop easily. I say come in and play. We've got our entire tech in the center here and it's fully accessible. People can type away, poke away, and point away all they want and there is always an associate nearby ready to help."

Ludt said they actually decreased the square footage of merchandise and focused on the products and services that were most commonly needed by the community based on customer feedback.

Ludt's position as Business Pro is also new and unique to the Laurel store and is only found in a limited number of stores throughout the country.

After five interviews and a month of training, Ludt became Laurel's first and only Business Pro who visits with entrepreneurs and business owners on a daily basis, helping them with their business needs. Ludt said Office Depot has recently shifted their emphasis from being retail oriented to re-emphasizing their mission to help businesses - especially small to medium size businesses.

"I'm an enabler, jack of all trades and master of none," said Ludt. "I help business owners tap into the many resources that Office Depot can offer them. To do the leg work and research that they need to get things in place that will help them enjoy and grow their business. I'm the person who works to take their headaches away."

As a Business Pro and a corporate employee, Ludt said he has more leverage than the average Office Depot associate and can offer more benefits to local businesses - the type of benefits a national company such as Office Depot can offer business owners in much larger cities including discounting powers and resources. "I can pick up the phone and get my customer things that other associates may not even know about. It's a real benefit to the community," said Ludt.

"We don't just sell paper and pens and the like," said Ludt. "Life is hard! It's not all about the products. It's about people, number one, and making things easier." Ludt said his mission is to help the business owner and entrepreneur do what they love and do best by offering the services that will help make their business run smoother. These services include marketing materials, payroll processing, point-of-sale solutions, business financing, credit card processing, hiring solutions, tech and services, specialty furniture, and space planning.

"Laurel's got a real treat if you ask me," exclaimed Ludt. "It's bringing a little bit of the future, the tomorrow of retail into Laurel, which is a real shot in the arm to our community."

When asked why Laurel, Ludt said Office Depot is very careful where they put Business Pros and that the corporate office through their research of the area has a very "optimistic and positive view of Laurel."

Ed Ludt is Laurel Office Depot's Business Pro, a position that is only offered at a limited number of Office Depots across the country.

Brianna Grey scored three goals in leading South Jones to a 5-1 victory over Laurel Thursday night in Ellisville. Isabella Hammond and Mary McCardle also scored solo goals in the key district win. Madison Diers had two assists for the winners. Laurel won the boys contest, 1-0, as Yair Munoz scored on an assist from Isaiah Gore with less than ten minutes to play on a break away.

The Laurel win knots the district in a three-way tie as Laurel, South Jones and West Jones are all 2-1 in division play. Laurel was scheduled to host South Jones Tuesday night at R.H. Watkins Stadium.

Upcoming Southern Miss baseball camps set at Pete Taylor Park

Submitted

The Southern Miss baseball program will feature a pair of upcoming baseball camps, including a Winter Showcase as well as the Kid's Spring Break camp.

The Winter Showcase Camp takes place Saturday, Jan. 20 at Pete Taylor Park/Hill Denson Field. The date has been moved back a week from its original one as inclement weather is expected in the area this Saturday. Registration for the camp begins at 11 a.m., that day with the camp starting at noon and run through the completion of the workout.

This camp is designed to allow current high school freshman through junior college sophomore (junior college freshman must be academic qualifier) baseball players the chance to learn the skills needed to compete at the next level while receiving instruction from current Southern Miss coaches, various junior college coaches and other four-year Institutions. The price is $155 per camper and the cost includes instruction, insurance, and a Southern Miss camp t-shirt. The itinerary will include instruction specific to each participant's defensive position, improving 60 times and hitting. Any pitcher will be allowed to also participate at their other position. The camp will be limited to the first 100 applicants and will take place at Pete Taylor Park/Hill Denson Field.

The Spring Break Kid's camp is open to all kids ages 6-13 and the four-day camp will run March 12-15 from 9 a.m. - noon each day. The camp is limited to the first 50 applicants and will cost $180. Each camper receives a complimentary t-shirt and insurance. In addition, each camper will receive a ticket for the March 16 Conference USA contest against UTSA and all will get a chance to be on the field with the Golden Eagles during the national anthem, prior to the 6 p.m., contest.

For more information, go online to SouthernMissBaseballCamps.com or contact Southern Miss assistant coach B.A. Vollmuth at 601-266-6542 or via email at bryan.vollmuth@eagles.usm.edu.

Sideline View: Saints' loss stuns fans

By Dale McKee

The New Orleans Saints lost a heartbreaker. No question, it will be remembered as one of the most gut wrenching losses in Saints history. The Saints battled back from a 17-0 deficit to take a 24-23 lead with 29 seconds left in the game only to suffer a 29-24 loss to the Minnesota Vikings on the final play of the game. The Saints had an exceptional season, and hopefully it will not be the last time we see Drew Brees lead them into the playoffs. The Vikings will now travel to Philadelphia in the NFC while the New England Patriots and underdog Jacksonville will battle for the AFC crown this weekend. The winners meet in Minnesota the first Sunday of February in the Super Bowl. A host city's team has never hosted a Super Bowl, but Minnesota could be the first in the Super Bowl's 52-year history.

I, like a lot of Saints fans, was totally stunned by the ending. Then, I thought of all the spectacular endings to sporting events, many of which have been memorialized by names that characterize their endings:

- *Immaculate Reception (Steelers-Raiders)
- *The Catch (49ers-Cowboys)
- *Hail Mary (Cowboys-Vikings)
- *Holy Roller (Raiders-Chargers)
- *Go Crazy Folks (St. Louis Cardinals)
- *I don't believe what I just saw (Dodgers-Athletics)
- *Run Lindsey Run (Georgia-Florida)
- *Kick Six (Alabama/Auburn)
- *Immaculate Deflection (MSU-Ole Miss)

I wonder if the Saints-Vikings game will earn its own moniker.

We have lost another great sports announcer in Keith Jackson over the weekend. He was the top college TV announcer for almost four decades. Jackson could have used his "Whoa Nelly" in the Vikings' win.

The Ole Miss Rebels (10-7, 3-2) pulled a big upset as they downed Florida, 78-72, this past weekend. Jones County Junior College transfer Bruce Stevens (Bay Springs) led the way with 22 points. The Rebels shot 60 percent from the floor in the second half. Ole Miss, who lost three overtime decisions in non-conference games, has won three home SEC games in downing South Carolina, MSU and the Gators.

The Mississippi State Bulldogs lost for the first time at Humphrey Coliseum this season as they fell, 76-68, to Auburn. The Bulldogs had won 12 straight games at home and for the second straight Saturday blew a double-digit first-half lead.

The Mississippi State Lady Bulldogs (19-0) jumped all over Ole Miss and Alabama last week. They have a big match-up with Tennessee next Sunday in Knoxville.

Switching to baseball, Ole Miss (32-25) and Mississippi State (40-27) are ranked number 11 by Perfect Game while State is at 25. State went to the Baton Rouge Super Regional last June while Ole Miss was not in the post-season for the first time since 2011. USM was mentioned in the poll as receiving votes. The Eagles will host Mississippi State for a three-game set in Hattiesburg beginning on February 16.

Odds & Ends

The Saints are 1-7 in road playoff games. The Saints-Vikings game was the first game in NFL history to end on a game winning-touchdown as time expired in the fourth quarter.

New Orleans Saints wide receiver Michael Thomas is the nephew of former USC and NFL player Keyshawn Johnson.

Former Jackson State great Robert Brazile is one of two senior finalists for consideration into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A seven-time pick as All-Pro for the Houston Oilers, he was also the 1975 NFL Rookie of the year and was named to the All-NFL 1970s Decade team.

The Jones County Junior College baseball team is ranked second nationally.

The Golden State Warriors scored 81 points in the first half of their 127-125 win over Toronto last weekend. The Warriors shot over 71 per cent in that opening half.
