THE FUTURE IS OPEN January 18 & 19 at 5:30pm At Washington Square Park, Northwest Corner PROTOTYPE presents a new public performance by Norwegian artist and composer Tori Wrånes, starting in Washington Square Park's Northwest Corner. The best way to describe Wrånes's work may be Choreography with sound, be it solo or with multiple performers, like singers on bikes (YES NIX, Performa 13), musicians in a chairlift, or cows with 12 toned scaled bells. (TRACK of HORNS, Transart 15 in the alps of Italy). THE FUTURE IS OPEN responds critically to the recent White House directive to the Center for Disease Control to cease using words such as transgender, vulnerable, entitlement, diversity, transgender, fetus, evidence-based, and science-based. Featuring Wrånes solo vocalizations, a group of five performers, and a dreamlike arrangement of additional body parts and prosthetics, THE FUTURE IS OPEN proposes fluid, ever-transforming identities and a few fresh small breaths for a new year. Out of Bounds 2018 is organized by PROTOTYPE Associate Producer Raul Zbengheci. All performances will take place in New York public sites and will be free and open to the public. This work was made possible, in part, by the Franklin Furnace Fund supported by The SHS Foundation, public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the City Council, and general operating support from the New York State Council on the Arts.

OPEN LAB AT THROGGS NECK LIBRARY

As you know, daily interactions become more digital each day. The use of computers, smart phones and tablets has grown exponentially. It is during times like these where we can turn to our local libraries for much needed support and education. On Monday, January 22nd at 10 A.M. Throggs Neck Library is hosting an open lab for adults over 50 years of age who wish to learn how to write e-mails, learn basic computer functions and how to use social media. You are encouraged to bring any questions you have with regard to technology. Participants will be sure to receive one-on-one assistance. This session is first come, first served. Throggs Neck Library is located at 3025 Cross Bronx Expressway, Bronx, NY 10465 and can be reached by telephone at (718) 792-2612.

HOMEOWNERS' NIGHT AT THE BRONX BOROUGH DEPARTMENT OF BUILDINGS

While Bronx Community Board #10 is always your resource when navigating city agencies, it is always encouraged to visit a particular city agency during its public forums. If you are a homeowner interested in learning more about what permits are required to perform work on your property or if you have a question on zoning and the NYC Buildings Code, you can visit the Bronx Borough Department of Buildings each Tuesday from 4.P.M to 7 P.M. at 1932 Arthur Avenue, Bronx, NY 10457 for "Homeowners' Night." At this forum, you have the ability to meet directly with and receive the input of NYC DOB licensed plan examiners. No appointment is necessary. The Bronx Borough Department of Buildings can be reached at (718) 960-4700 for more information.

YOUTH MEMBERSHIP ON COMMUNITY BOARDS

Our Bronx Borough President, Ruben Diaz, Jr., has admirably called on all Bronx Community Boards to reach out and connect with young people in our respective communities. As a 25-year-old District Manager, I join him in this endeavor to do my part to have young people get involved with the workings of community government as they, too, are stakeholders and have valued input. If you or someone knows of a 16 or 17 year old interested in community development and wants to apply to Bronx Community Board #10 or Bronx Community Board #11, please have them contact me at (718) 892-1161 for an application or if they simply need more information. Interested individuals can find the application online at bronxboropres.nyc.gov/community-boards/.
