Thank You

Northwestern College and campaign co-chairs Jill Plum and Brandon Woudstra are honored to thank our Business, Industry & Professional Partners for their generous support and involvement in our 2016-2017 Northwestern annual fund drive.

Northwestern College employs 300 faculty and staff serving over 1,200 students. The college contributes over $74M to the local economy annually, but there is an even greater impact: alumni who have chosen to stay and call the Siouxland area home, further strengthening it. We rely on area businesses to serve not only the college but also our employees, students, alumni, friends, and many visiting students and families. We often hear from our guests how much they enjoyed visiting this area and its welcoming communities.

The following area businesses participated in the Northwestern Business, Industry & Professional Drive that launched in May 2017. These businesses are our neighbors and the backbone of the region. They have made a conscious choice to support the college and its mission through their annual gift, and we are thankful for their partnership. We share this list as a small way Northwestern College can publically show our gratitude for their support as we live, work, and grow together as neighbors and as a community.

May God bless you and your business in 2018 and beyond. Thank you for investing in the Christian higher education of our students.
