HILL, SR., JOHNNY DAVID - 73, Lincoln County, TN. Funeral service, 1 p.m., January 27, 2018 at Higgins Funeral Home with James Strobe officiating. Burial in Riverview Memorial Gardens. Mr. Hill passed away January 23, 2018 in Mobile, AL. David was born and raised in Lincoln County, TN, where he lived most of his life. He attended school at Bellview and graduated from Blanche High School in 1962. Circumstances prohibited him from attending college, but he worked hard to ensure that his children had the opportunities he did not. David was a farmer and later a long-haul truck driver. He could build or fix anything he set his mind to. He loved rebuilding and operating heavy equipment and renovating houses. Projects too numerous to list will serve as a lasting testament to his talents. David cherished his memories of accompanying his son to the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico in 1979, when he kept the decommissioned school bus in which the group was traveling running to make the cross-country trip. He was happy to return to the Buffalo Bill Scout Camp in Wyoming with his grandson, Adam, in 2013, where once again he was called upon to repair the vehicle in which the group was traveling. David was also instrumental in assisting Adam in completing his Eagle Scout project. He was preceded in death by his parents, Leonard and Hazel Hill; and sister, Kathy Hill. IN SEARCH FOR TRUTH

Enduring Suffering & Hardship

Often, there are many things in our lives that tempt us to quit serving God. We think, "what's the use?"

Paul suffered beyond power such that he despaired life (2 Corinthians 1:3-10). Yes, we may face temptations beyond our power, but not beyond God's power. Paul says we should learn to trust in God. Also, read Romans 8:31-39. No suffering or hardship of any kind is able to separate us from God's love. We can defeat them all if we are on God's side. He promises we can endure, remain faithful, and receive eternal life despite our problems.
