Donna's Day Creative family fun

by Donna Erickson

Family-Friendly Minnesota Hotdish

Here's our tasty, family-friendly version of a "Minnesota Hotdish." Hotdish, you say? If the term is new to you, think "casserole," which is really the same thing — a baked main-dish combo of vegetables, meat and rice or potatoes, all mixed together with a cream sauce or canned soup.

This satisfying recipe melds tradition and taste in every bite with the nutty flavor of wild rice and the crunch of the water chestnuts. While our family hasn't entered this favorite in one our Minnesota "hotdish competitions," I can assure you it's a winner with family and friends.

For scheduling convenience, the prep work can be done ahead, if you wish. Assemble the recipe with your kids in a casserole baking dish, cover and refrigerate overnight. It will be ready to pop in the oven the next day for dinner. While it bakes, slice up hearty crusty bread, toss salad greens with fresh orange slices and a vinaigrette, and you're all set for a delicious warm-you-up cozy winter meal.

WILD RICE CHICKEN CASSEROLE

- 1 (10½ ounce) can cream of chicken soup
- 1 (10½ ounce) can cream of mushroom soup
- ¾ cup mayonnaise
- 1½ cups cooked wild rice
- 1½ cups cooked long grain white rice
- 4 cups cut-up cooked chicken
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1 cup diced red pepper (substitute green bell pepper)
- 1 cup chopped green onions
- 1 (8-ounce) can water chestnuts, drained and loosely chopped
- 1/3 cup slivered almonds, lightly toasted
- Chopped fresh parsley (optional)

1. Heat oven to 350 F.
2. In a large bowl, combine soups and mayonnaise. Stir in cooked wild and white rice, chicken, celery, red pepper, green onions and water chestnuts.
3. Transfer into a 9-by-13-inch baking dish. Bake, uncovered, 50-55 minutes until bubbly.
4. Remove from oven and sprinkle toasted almonds and fresh parsley on top. Serve piping hot. Serves 6-8.

TIP: Six-ounce boxes of combined long grain and wild rice to yield three cups of cooked rice for this recipe are available in many grocery stores.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

Prayer to St. Jude
Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Feb. 11, 1858, in France, Marie-Bernarde Soubirous, a 14-year-old peasant girl, first claims to have seen the Virgin Mary. The 18 apparitions occurred in a grotto of a rock promontory near Lourdes.
- On Feb. 7, 1914, the silent film "Kid Auto Races at Venice" premieres featuring the actor Charlie Chaplin in his first screen appearance as the "Little Tramp."
- On Feb. 9, 1942, the Normandie, the first major liner to cross the Atlantic in less than four days, burns and sinks in New York Harbor during its conversion to an Allied troop transport. A welder set fire to life preservers, and by early the next morning the ship lay smoking and capsized in the harbor.
- On Feb. 6, 1952, King George VI of Great Britain and Northern Ireland dies. Princess Elizabeth, the oldest of his two daughters, was crowned Queen Elizabeth II on June 2, 1953, at age 27. Today, Elizabeth has reigned for almost 65 years.
- On Feb. 8, 1978, a classic "Nor'easter" storm that brought a severe blizzard to New England finally subsides. The blizzard, the worst to hit New England since 1888, was blamed for 56 deaths and dumped 55 inches of snow in some areas.
- On Feb. 5, 1988, in Miami, Panama military strongman Gen. Manuel Noriega is indicted for drug smuggling and assisting Colombia's Medellin drug cartel in trafficking cocaine to America. Noriega was found guilty in his 1991 trial and sentenced to 40 years in prison. He later was imprisoned in France and Panama, where he died in 2017.
- On Feb. 10, 1996, world chess champion Garry Kasparov loses the first game of a six-game match against Deep Blue, an IBM computer. Man ultimately defeated machine, however, as Kasparov bested Deep Blue in the match with three wins and two ties and took home the $400,000 prize.

HOME MAINTENANCE
Repairing Cracked Walls

(NAPSA)—There are easy ways to repair the cracks that can form in a home's plaster and drywall. In fact, the typical repair project requires only a few hours to complete using inexpensive materials.

Try these tips for patching small to medium-sized cracks in plaster and drywall. They come from experts at United States Gypsum Company, a leading manufacturer of gypsum board and plaster products.

- Prep The Area—For plaster walls, begin by pushing against the crack to determine how soft the surrounding wall area is. Remove any loose material with a screwdriver and then clean the area with a slightly dampened paintbrush or sponge.
- Gather Your Materials—You'll need a utility knife; two dry-wall knives—one that's four to six inches wide and one that's eight to 10 inches wide; paper joint tape for wider cracks; a ready-mixed or powdered joint compound product such as SHEETROCK® Brand Lightweight Setting-Type Joint Compound (EASY SAND™); safety goggles and a dust mask; and either a fine, 150-grade sandpaper or a sponge.
- First Coat—Fine to small drywall and plaster cracks require only one application of joint compound, while deeper cracks require two or more coats of compound. Using the four- to six-inch-wide putty knife, apply a generous amount of joint compound over the crack. Angle the knife to force compound into the crack and then smooth it out. Let the compound dry completely before sanding or applying additional coats (for deeper cracks).
- Reinforce—Deeper or wider cracks need to be reinforced with paper joint tape. Apply a thin coat of compound over the crack. Then embed a strip of paper joint tape into the compound to bridge the crack. Draw a knife firmly over the crack to tightly embed the tape. Let the coat dry completely.

- More Compound—Apply a coat of joint compound over the tape to level the repair. Then apply a generous amount of compound with a drywall knife and smooth and feather the compound out along the edges of the repaired area. Let the repair harden and apply another coat of compound, if necessary.
- Finish—Smooth the surface once the wall is completely dry. Lightly smooth the edges of the repaired area with fine sandpaper or a damp sponge. Prime the patched area with a high-quality primer or a flat wall paint. Wait until the primer dries completely before applying a new coat of paint.

To obtain a free step-by-step guide detailing how to install, finish and repair drywall, contact United States Gypsum Company, 125 S. Franklin St., Chicago, IL 60606-4678, call (800) USG-4YOU or visit www.usg.com and request installation guide J371.

Cracked plaster or drywall can be easy to repair.

Attention Renters: How Much is Your Stuff Worth?

(NAPSA)—Renting an apartment or house can be a relatively carefree way to enjoy the freedom of having your own place, without some of the stresses that may accompany home ownership—such as landscaping or the costs associated with making repairs.

But whether you rent or own, the need exists to protect your personal property. According to recent census information, many renters are not aware of this—considering that only one-third of renters in the U.S. have renter's insurance to help protect the many valuable possessions they own.

There are a few misconceptions that may explain why renters don't have insurance coverage for their stuff.

Misconception 1: "The landlord has insurance to cover my stuff."
 Reality: While your landlord may have insurance—it doesn't protect your belongings. Typically, a landlord's insurance provides protection for the building and its common areas. What you keep in your place, from the clothes you wear to the furniture you relax on, even the electronics you own, is your financial responsibility.

Misconception 2: "I don't have that much in my place."
 Reality: Renters rarely have a sense for the cumulative value of their belongings. And while the sofa you rest on may be a hand-me-down and the clothes you wear last year's fashions, the cost to replace it all if it were damaged or destroyed could break your budget. Remember, your stuff isn't any less valuable because you rent.

Misconception 3: "Renter's insurance will not fit within my budget."
 Reality: For a relatively low daily cost, you could be insuring your personal property. And your policy may also provide financial protection for you if someone is injured at your place.

If you are still unsure about purchasing renter's insurance, consider where you would stay if your place were damaged or destroyed by a fire. While your friend's sofa or parent's house might work for a couple of nights, over the longer term you may need to stay at a hotel or temporary residence until your house or apartment is restored. Most renter's insurance policies will help provide coverage for additional living expenses until your place is livable again.

To be savvy beyond the lease signing, consider renter's insurance. For more information on renter's insurance and the coverage it provides, visit www.allstate.com.

INTS FOR HOMEOWNERS
Choosing A Safe Contractor
(NAPSA)—Working with the right handyman may not only help you get your home improvement job done faster, it could help keep your family safe as well. "Aside from family and friends, the people invited into our homes most often are the people we hire to work around the house. So it is imperative that homeowners take measures to ensure they only invite reputable, respected contractors into their homes," says Keith Hahn, chief operating officer of Handyman Connection, a national network of home improvement and repair contractors. Hahn offers these simple guidelines to help homeowners protect themselves when hiring outside vendors to perform work within the home:
1. Insist that contractors provide written estimates on company letterhead.
2. Ask contractors to provide written guarantees.
3. Find someone else if a contractor insists on cash payment.
4. Ask yourself: Are the contractor's licenses and registrations valid?
5. Ask yourself: Did the contractor offer you a legitimate business card?
6. Ask for proof of third-party property and injury insurance.
7. Are the contractor and any related trades persons bonded?
8. Check to see if the contractor is registered with the Better Business Bureau.
9. Ask for proof of membership in local Home Builders Associations or Chambers of Commerce.
10. How long has the contractor been in business and can he/she provide references from previous customers?
While taking these steps still might not completely protect your family, Hahn stresses that prevention is the best policy and encourages homeowners to heed his advice any time an outside contractor is hired for work on or around the home. "Asking a contractor the right types of questions will let you know if that contractor is on the level," says Hahn. "It may end up costing you more than hiring someone off the street for a few simple repairs, but in the long run, homeowners will more than make up for the minimal cost in terms of safety and peace-of-mind, not to mention the quality of the work performed."
For more information, call 1-800-466-5530 or visit www.handymanconnection.com.

1. What do The Average White Band, Bay City Rollers and Simple Minds have in common?
2. Name the 1927 song that Elvis Presley released in 1960 that went to No. 1 for six weeks.
3. How long was the single "Yesterday Once More"?
4. What instrument did Marv Tarplin play, and in which group?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "So long boy, you can take my place, got my papers, I've got my pay, So pack my bags and I'll be on my way ..."

Answers
1. They all originated in Scotland. The country has produced a long list of excellent bands that often are mistaken as being from England.
2. "Are You Lonesome Tonight," released after his military service was completed. The recording company didn't really like it and thought it would go nowhere.
3. Very long. The 1973 "song" by Richard Carpenter and John Bettis was actually eight 1960s tunes all strung together, taking up one whole side of an album.
4. He played guitar with Smokey Robinson and the Miracles.
5. "Yellow River," by Christie, in 1970. Although the song was released during the Vietnam War, songwriter Jeff Christie has said it's about a soldier going home at the end of the Civil War.

(NAPSA)—A Web site launched by the Union of Concerned Scientists may help people decide if a hybrid vehicle is for them, and if so, which vehicle to choose. Called hybridcenter.org, it features a buyer's guide that offers personalized information on hybrids, as well as an "Under the Hood" section with information on topics ranging from hybrid technology, to ways to get the hybrid you want sooner. The site also monitors hybrid manufacturer claims for truthfulness. Source:www.hybridcenter.org.

The Web site AutoTrader.com now features a Power Search tool that consumers can use to shop by body style and color preference or to compare new, used and Certified Pre-Owned vehicles. More than half of the Web site's visitors aren't set on the make and model of vehicle they want. The new tool is a flexible, quick and integrated way to help them collect information and make intelligent buying decisions.

Protecting Our Environment

Recycling: It's as Easy as 1-2-3

(NAPSA)—Here for a change, is good news about our environment. Recycling is becoming more than just a trend, it's proving to be a hot topic of conversation as more people realize just how important it is. While there is still much to do, education and outreach efforts have resulted in signs of progress.

Approximately 80 percent of Americans have access to some kind of plastics recycling program. Additionally, data has shown that nearly half of all people in the U.S. are now served by curbside collection programs. These programs along with drop-off and buy-back centers play a key role in diverting waste from landfills.

So, how can you do your part? Waste Management, Inc. one of the nation's largest recyclers and the largest waste collector in North America, offers some tips to help you "Think Green."

Consider this, the average American uses 650 lbs. of paper per year. Using recycled paper can make a difference. One ton of recycled paper saves 17 trees, 7,000 gallons of water and prevents 60 lbs of air pollutants.

Need more convincing? Every ton of recycled newspaper saves 4100 kWh or enough energy to power a television for 31 hours.

When it comes to doing your part, just remember this simple equation: reduce, reuse and recycle. You can reduce the amount of waste you create by among other things, reusing boxes, donating old magazines to local causes and turning empty jars into containers for leftover food.

Holidays offer many opportunities to do your part. Consider using your fine china at holiday gatherings instead of paper plates and don't forget to add your holiday meal scraps to the compost heap. Use gift bags instead of wrapping paper. They can be used again and they help keep paper out of the waste stream. Last but not least, think ahead about recycling your Christmas tree. Consider turning it into landscaping mulch or compost. If that's not an option, then find out where you can drop it off.

Each of us can do our part. Let the three "R's"—reduce, reuse and recycle—be your guide during the holidays and all year round.

Now here's a tip! by Jo Ann Derson

• Keep makeup brushes in tip-top shape: Wash with a good brush cleaner weekly, and store upright in a jar (bristles up). Don't toss them in a box, bag or drawer with your makeup! They may pick up unwanted pigments and the facial bacteria can compromise makeup!

• If your dryer is taking a long time to run its cycle and the clothes STILL aren't dry, check your lint trap. Follow the hose all the way to the end, and be sure to check the grate that is in place where the hose exits an exterior wall. Lint can build up here, making it hard for heat and steam to escape. It's also a fire hazard.

• "In our house, we use nail polish to distinguish whose plastic leftover containers are whose. My roommate and I both bought the same set (a good deal!), and we painted a little X on the bottom and on the top of the lids in contrasting colors. So I only use the red dot ones, and she uses the dark blue."—M.T. in Florida

• "I purchased a couple glass-cleaning cloths that were nice and big. I used my sewing machine to sew the edges together and make a little sack. It stores my reading glasses, and I can keep them clean and not scratched up."—R.E. in Missouri

• "I wanted to use my staple gun to attach a cord along a board for a craft project. I taped a craft stick to the bottom so that the staple would not go in all the way, leaving an allowance for the cord. I just used extra-long staples. It worked great and turned out very secure, and I didn't have to worry about a staple slicing up an electrical cord!"—F.D. in Texas

Attention Renters: How Much is Your Stuff Worth?

(NAPSA)—Renting an apartment or house can be a relatively carefree way to enjoy the freedom of having your own place, without some of the stresses that may accompany home ownership—such as landscaping or the costs associated with making repairs.

But whether you rent or own, the need exists to protect your personal property. According to recent census information, many renters are not aware of this—considering that only one-third of renters in the U.S. have renter's insurance to help protect the many valuable possessions they own.

There are a few misconceptions that may explain why renters don't have insurance coverage for their stuff.

Reality: While your landlord may have insurance—it doesn't protect your belongings. Typically, a landlord's insurance provides protection for the building and its common areas. What you keep in your place, from the clothes you wear to the furniture you relax on, even the electronics you own, is your financial responsibility.

Misconception 2: "I don't have that much in my place."

Reality: Renters rarely have a sense for the cumulative value of their belongings. And while the sofa you rest on may be a hand-me-down and the clothes you wear last year's fashions, the cost to replace it all if it were damaged or destroyed could break your budget. Remember, your stuff isn't any less valuable because you rent.

Misconception 3: "Renter's insurance will not fit within my budget."

Reality: For a relatively low daily cost, you could be insuring your personal property. And your policy may also provide financial protection for you if someone is injured at your place.

If you are still unsure about purchasing renter's insurance, consider where you would stay if your place were damaged or destroyed by a fire. While your friend's sofa or parent's house might work for a couple of nights, over the longer term you may need to stay at a hotel or temporary residence until your house or apartment is restored. Most renter's insurance policies will help provide coverage for additional living expenses until your place is livable again.

To be savvy beyond the lease signing, consider renter's insurance. For more information on renter's insurance and the coverage it provides, visit www.allstate.com.

I'm living on this positive mind frame where I'm only attracting positive things. I'm controlling my energy, I'm eating right, I'm meditating, I'm in the gym, I'm doing all this stuff I'm supposed to be doing. I'm past that young, immature way of thinking. I just want to be great.

PREMIUM SEASONED HARDWOOD ... $250/cord

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might feel bolder as each new success falls into place. But caution is still advised through the end of the week. Until then, a step-by-step approach is best.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) That cooperation you request could come at too high a price. Since few can beat the Bovine at being clever and resourceful, why not see what you can do on your own?

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Aspects favor a quieter time spent getting closer to the people who are especially important to you. There's always much more to learn and appreciate about each other.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The concerned Crab will act to resolve workplace misunderstandings before they get out of hand and cause more-serious problems. Co-workers rally to support your efforts.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) What the Big Cat might see as a disturbing act of disloyalty might just be a failure of communication on both sides. Take time for mediation rather than confrontation.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Be more patient with those who seem unwilling to accept your version of what's right. The fact is, there's a lot more to learn on all sides of this issue.

Natural ability is important, but you can go far without it if you have the focus, drive, desire and positive attitude.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) It should be easier to assess the facts you'll need to make an important decision. But don't commit if you still have doubts. There could be more you need to know.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your excitement level remains high as you continue working on the new project. Expect some setbacks. But on the whole, all will move pretty much on schedule.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) It might be wise to be more prudent with expenses right now. But your financial situation should soon clear up, and you could be back shopping, happily as ever.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You might prefer sticking with your current schedule. But some newly emerging information could persuade you to consider a change. Keep an open mind.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You might want to reject a suggested change. But it could be wise to go with the flow, at least for a while. You can always return to your first plan if you like.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You're bolstered by both the practical and poetic sides of your nature as you maneuver through some unsettled emotional situations. Things ease up by week's end.

BORN THIS WEEK: People reach out to your generosity and wisdom, and consider you a treasured and trusted friend.
