WINDHAM RIFLES are made in the old Bushmaster factory in Windham, Maine. Several years after Remington's owners bought Bushmaster and moved the machinery out of Maine and started manufacturing Bushmaster Rifles elsewhere, the old Maine plant was retooled with state of the art machinery and started making an outstanding MIL-SPEC AR Rifle that retailed for $1,080.00.

At the end of 2016, LARRY bought a bunch of these rifles and HOPED the AR MARKET would go up... IT DIDN'T.
