Apple Pizza Pie Dessert

There is nothing better than a slice of warm pie to put the finishing touch on a wonderful meal.

- 1 Pillsbury refrigerated unbaked 9-inch pie crust
- 1 (20-ounce) can Lucky Leaf No Sugar Added Apple Pie Filling
- 3/4 cup purchased graham cracker crumbs
- 1/2 cup Splenda Granular
- 1 1/2 teaspoons apple pie spice
- 2 tablespoons plus 2 teaspoons I Can't Believe It's Not Butter! Light Margarine
- 2 tablespoons chopped pecans

1. Heat oven to 425 F. Place pie crust in the center of a 12-inch pizza pan. Let sit at room temperature for 10 minutes. Gently press pie crust to fit pan. Bake for 7 minutes. Evenly spoon apple pie filling over crust.

2. In a medium bowl, combine graham cracker crumbs, Splenda, apple pie spice, and margarine. Mix gently with a pastry cutter or 2 forks to form soft crumbs. Gently stir in pecans. Sprinkle crumb mixture evenly over top of apple pie filling.

3. Bake for 10-12 minutes. Place pizza pan on a wire rack and let sit for 5 minutes. Cut into 12 wedges. Serves 12.

Open-Shop Electrical Contractors, Your Time is Now!

For the past several years IBEW Local 99 has been actively recruiting, testing and welcoming into our Local: Apprentices, Journeymen Wiremen, Tele-com Techs and Contractors.

That effort has been an amazing success. We now have a database of many unrepresented hard working men and women who will be coming in the Union. Many of these people currently work in parts of the industry that the IBEW has historically not been as prevalent in, such as Residential and Light commercial.

We are now looking to expand our recruitment of high quality and ethical open shop contractors that specialize in that type of work.

Discover the value IBEW can have for your company:

- You pay nothing to the Union to sign with us!
- Immediate access to indentured apprentices!
- 1-1000 qualified Men and Women available with a single phone call!
- IBEW quickly becoming the main source of manpower in the Northeast!
- Flexible rates for non-traditional work!
- Your partner in protecting the industry!
- The safest and most productive workforce in the industry!
- The undisputed best training facility and staff in the industry!
- Complete flexibility in Staffing!
- Access to General Contractors and Bidding Opportunities!
- Free Benefit Management!
- Contractor Training and Support!

We are looking for only the best in manpower and contractors. If you are a great contractor, we should be talking to you now. There are many very unsatisfied craftspeople looking for a better life who are available right now and ready to move to your company!

Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Start planning now for how sustainably your garden will function in the coming year. Will you use soaker hoses instead of sprinklers, or set up a rain barrel to collect rain water? How often will you water? Will you set up a rain gauge so that you don't water more often than is needed? Position watering devices to keep water from falling into storm gutters, walkways or into the street. Keep all outdoor faucets in good repair so as not to drip. Consider plants that use less water overall.

 THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Feb. 16, 1848, composer and pianist Frederic Chopin plays his final Paris concert. Chopin's musical goal had been to speak to the heart and soul of man. Upon his death, at his request, Chopin's sister was able to smuggle his heart in a jar back to Poland, where it was buried in a church.
- On Feb. 18, 1856, the American Party, also known as the "Know-Nothing Party," convenes in Philadelphia to nominate its first presidential candidate. The Know-Nothing movement began in the 1840s as a result of increasing immigration. When questioned by the press, members would reply that they knew nothing, hence the name.
- On Feb. 14, 1929, penicillin is discovered by Sir Alexander Fleming, a bacteriologist. Fleming left a plate of staphylococcus bacteria uncovered, and noticed that mold that had fallen on the culture had killed many of the bacteria.
- On Feb. 13, 1945, Allied firebombing raids begin against the German city of Dresden, reducing the city to rubble. The medieval city, renowned for its artistic and architectural treasures, had never been a site of war production or major industry.
- On Feb. 15, 1950, Walt Disney's animated feature "Cinderella," six years in the making, opens in theaters. "Cinderella" has been rereleased periodically to keep its popularity alive among new generations.
- On Feb. 17, 1966, Brian Wilson of the Beach Boys rolls tape on take one of "Good Vibrations." Six months, four studios and $50,000 later, he completed his 3 minute, 39 second symphony, pieced together from more than 90 hours of tape recorded during hundreds of sessions.
- On Feb. 12, 1999, the five-week impeachment trial of Bill Clinton resulting from his affair with 21-year-old intern Monica Lewinsky comes to an end. The Senate voted to acquit on both articles of impeachment: perjury and obstruction of justice.

It's Not War,
It's the Olympics

You can learn a lot — and argue a lot, too — watching the Olympic Games. Really, the Olympic Games are the greatest things that the world does in concert. Some would argue the World's Fair or World Cup, but taken in its entirety they cannot match the pageantry or the sheer spectacle the Games provide.

The World's Fair (next hosted by Dubai in 2020) ceased to be relevant at about the same time the ice-cream cone was invented, and a city chosen as a World Cup venue doesn't feel the impact either economically or psychologically that an Olympic host city experiences. The only time you see the world come together, all at once, holding the flag of their country and smiling is at the Olympic Games. The only other time the human race comes together en masse holding a flag, it's a war — and they're really there to shoot you.

And, unlike war, the cities aren't pillaged. Most cities use the Olympics as a springboard to civic improvements. They attract businesses, they build parks and entertainment districts, and they also get a bevy of sports facilities that they'd otherwise never think of building, such as a bobsled track or a cross-country track with a shooting range attached.

That track, by the way, is used for the Biathlon, a competition that strikes many people in America as being a bit weird. Curling, we already knew was weird, but it at least reminds us of shuffleboard. For many, the Biathlon is just too foreign a concept. At least in some parts of the country or, as I learned on a radio show I hosted, college campuses.

"The Biathlon is the most ridiculous sport there is," charged the liberal, tenured professor, aptly positioned to my left. "Skiing with guns. What's next? Hand grenades and ice dancing?" Having once dated a mountain girl, I reminded him that skiing and shooting were a perfect combination. I knew of hunters who cross-country skied while hunting grouse, for instance. There used to be a deer-hunting event in the Olympics, too. And there is little doubt that those in the biathlon are athletes.

"These are the best hunters in the world. If we lived near the ice cap, these are the guys you want to have with you — someone who can outlast their prey and take it down with one neatly placed bullet," I observed, rather astutely. Plus, I argued, target shooting was very sporting, and hunting was a great recreational pursuit.

"Well, I'm vegetarian," said the young student on the discussion panel. "Why would we need guns if we didn't kill animals?"

Well, duh ... to fight wars. Silly question.

Hints For Homeowners

When It's Time To Replace Your Water Heater

(NAPS)—The next time you find you have a too old or already broken water heater, these tools and advice from the U.S. EPA can help.

Water heaters typically last about 10 years. If your water heater is older than that, you could avoid a potentially costly and complicated emergency replacement by taking action now. In many places, utilities offer rebates on ENERGY STAR certified water heaters, up to as much as $600. With or without a rebate, choosing a model that's earned the government's ENERGY STAR label can pay you back in energy bill savings.

Water heaters are the second highest energy user in the home, costing a household of four up to $620 every year to run. Replacing your old, electric water heater with a heat pump water heater could put a significant dent in your energy costs. In fact, a family of four can save up to $3,500 in energy costs over the water heater's lifetime.

Pointers On Heat Pumps
 There are some installation considerations to keep in mind with heat pump water heaters, but if you already have an electric water heater, it could be an easy switch.

Will a Heat Pump Water Heater Work in My Home?
 In many homes, a heat pump water heater can be installed right where your current water heater sits. Heat pump water heaters need:

Access To Air: They pull in air from the surroundings to heat water and release cold air, so they need access to plenty of air.

The water heater location should have a room air temperature greater than 40° F year-round and space that's at least 100 square ft. (10 ft. x

Your house could give you more comfort at less cost if your water heater were upgraded.

10 ft.) or a smaller space that can be fitted with louvered doors or ducted.

Head Room: Heat pump water heaters are a few inches to a foot taller than conventional electric water heaters and require a certain ceiling height based on the size of the water heater—which is dependent on household size.

The water heater location should have at least a 6-ft.-high ceiling for a household of fewer than six or at least a 7-ft.-high ceiling for a household of six or more.

Water Drainage: Heat pump water heaters require proper drainage, since—like air conditioners—they dehumidify air and produce condensate that must be removed via a nearby floor drain, or another outlet using a small condensate pump.

The heater location should have access to one of the following:

- Floor drain
- Utility sink
- Sump pump
- Existing drain pipe
- Outside (only for locations that are above freezing all year round).

Kakiemon Plate

An auction catalog offered a "rare Kakiemon enameled porcelain plate" from the 18th century, but there was no further explanation of the age, history or design. What is the meaning of Kakiemon?

maker. Meissen (German), Chantilly and Mennecy (French), and Chelsea, Bow and Worcester (English) all made early collectible pieces. Collectors pay high prices for the 18th- and early 19th-century pieces.

A 9-inch Meissen plate made about 1740 with a tiger, bamboo and flower decoration sold at a Brunk auction for $6,500. The pattern is copied today on modern dishes. Collectors should not be confused. The new dishes are very different in shape and glaze; only the decoration is old.

Q. I'd like to know the value of a violin that is about 100 years old. The inscription inside reads "Copy of Antonius Stradivarius, made in Czechoslovakia." What is it worth?

A. Antonio Stradivari (1644-1737) made violins, violas, cellos and other stringed instruments at his workshop in Cremona, Italy. Fewer than 600 of the original Stradivarius violins still are in existence, and they sell for several million dollars each. Thousands of copies have been made and don't sell for high prices. Your violin was made after the creation of Czechoslovakia in 1918. Recently, a violin like yours that included the case sold for $57.

CURRENT PRICES
Trap, mole, Out O' Sight brand, black, cast iron, stamped, patented, Canada, 1930s, 8 by 5 inches, $55.
Cookbook, Fruitarian Recipes, for fruitarians and vegetarians, woman with tray, soft cover, 48 pgs., England, 1911, 10 by 4 inches, $120.
Lampshade, Coca-Cola, leaded glass, metal leaf edge, drum shape, slanted top, red, white and green, 1920s, 12 by 18 inches, $3,995.

TIP: To date a mesh purse, look at the bottom edge. If it is zigzagged or fringed, it dates from the 1920-1930 period.

This Meissen Kakiemon-style plate auctioned for $6,500. It was made about 1740 and has the crossed swords mark in blue.

Sakaida Kakiemon (1596-1666) was a potter who worked in Japan in the early 17th century. He and his family painted porcelain made in the town of Arita. Kakiemon wares were painted over the glaze using blue, red, green, yellow and black, and sometimes with gilding. The best work was done from 1680 to 1720. The ceramic was milky white with a smooth surface. Designs were asymmetrical and sparse, so there was a lot of white space as part of the design. Most patterns were based on flower arrangements, crooked tree branches, flowers like peonies or chrysanthemums, or flowering fruit trees. One famous pattern included quail.

The Kakiemon style was so popular, it was copied by many English and German factories, and 19th-century copies are very similar to early designs. A collector today may identify a plate as Kakiemon if it is in the style of the early pieces. But the description used by a museum also includes the name of the European live-in mistress Olive (Bella Heathcote). Marston and Elizabeth both are involved in research into dominance theory, and William becomes intrigued by Olive, a student who becomes his teaching assistant. The trio develop a romantic relationship that spans decades. It's fascinating and quite sexualized. But then, it IS about Wonder Woman, who by Elizabeth's description: "wears a burlesque outfit and all her friends in Harper's Bazaar are sorority girls who have spanking parties, and everybody fights Nazis and rides in an invisible plane." You better believe it.

COUCH THEATER DVD PREVIEW

BY AMY ANDERSON

Josh O'Connor, Alec Secareanu in "God's Own Country"

God's Own Country (R) — In a remote section of Yorkshire, Johnny (Josh O'Connor) toils at his family farm, tough hardscrabble work with his only escape being cheap assignations after a night of heavy drinking at the local pub. Into this life of desolation comes Gheorghe (Alec Secareanu), a Romanian migrant who will assist in lambing season. The heart wants what the heart wants, even in — or maybe especially in — adverse circumstances. The longing and loneliness and humanness of these two men are palpable and real. It's an exceptionally well-done love story from a first-time director (Francis Lee) and a breakout role for O'Connor.

Last Flag Flying (R) — Steve Carrell, Bryan Cranston and Laurence Fishburne head up this heartwarming story of three Vietnam veteran buddies — one Navy corpsman and two Marines — who reconvene in present day for a mission of love and friendship. Larry "Doc" Shepard (Carrell) gets the news that his son, a Marine, has been killed in Iraq. He enlists his friends Sal (Cranston), a rowdy bar owner, and Richard (Fishburne), former womanizer and troublemaker turned reverend, to help him bury his son. Doc decides against an Arlington funeral, opting instead to bring his son home to New Hampshire. Easier said than done. Along the way, director Richard Linklater paints a portrait of these heroes (of both generations) with equal measures of reminiscing and ribbing.

Boo! Two: A Madea Halloween (PG-13) — Madea (Tyler Perry) and her sassy gal pals Bam (Cassi Davis) and Hattie (Patrice Lovely) are back once again to come to the rescue of Brian's (also Tyler Perry) daughter Tiffany. They're joined by Uncle Joe (also Tyler Perry). Tiffany is off to another frat party on Halloween — when will she learn? — and this time, it's at a closed and presumably haunted summer camp. Listen. I'm a Tyler Perry fan, OK. I recognize the contributions of Madea to both the black community and comedy, but we need to stop this craziness right now. This movie views like somebody's cashing in on a tired franchise, because that's what it is.

Creamy Beer Cheese

Pretzels, cheese, beer ... sounds like the perfect snack for Super Bowl.

2 tablespoon butter
1/2 small onion, coarsely grated
1/4 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 cup whole milk
1 bottle (12 oz.) pale ale
4 ounces cream cheese, at room temp
1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon hot sauce (such as Tabasco)
1 pound sharp Cheddar cheese, coarsely grated
Soft pretzels and apples, for serving

1. Melt butter in large saucepan on medium, then add onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until tender, 4 to 5 minutes. Sprinkle flour on top and cook, stirring, 1 minute.
2. Whisk in milk, then beer, and simmer, stirring occasionally, until mixture has thickened, 5 to 7 minutes. Stir in cream cheese, mustard, Worcestershire sauce and hot sauce until melted and smooth.
3. Reduce heat to medium-low; add Cheddar in 3 additions, stirring until melted, before adding the next addition. Serve warm with pretzels and apples, if desired. Makes 4 cups (8 servings).
• Each serving: About 345 calories, 27g fat (16g saturated), 15g protein, 8g carbohydrates, 500mg sodium.

The Kitchen Diva!
by Angela Shelf Medearis

Halftime Means Snack Time

I must admit, I love watching football games. We traditionally watch the Super Bowl at our friends' home while sitting in the same comfortable recliners, and with the same results ... my favorite teams loses!

The cheering, jeering and excitement can create a hearty appetite, and no one wants to miss a minute of the game while grabbing something to eat. These super snacks can be prepared ahead of time and will satisfy the biggest football fans without taking the host or hostess away from the game.

While I might not pick a winning team, I'm always voted MVC (Most Valuable Chef) when halftime rolls around and these snacks are served!

BUFFALO CHICKEN DIP

1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened
1 cup cooked chicken breast
1/2 cup Buffalo wing sauce
1/2 cup ranch or blue cheese salad dressing
2 cups shredded Colby-Monterey Jack cheese
French bread baguette slices, celery ribs, carrot sticks or tortilla chips

1. Heat oven to 350 F. Spread cream cheese into an ungreased shallow 1 quart baking dish. Layer with chicken, wing sauce and salad dressing. Sprinkle with cheese.
2. Bake, covered with foil, 20-25 minutes or until cheese is melted. Serve with baguette slices, celery or carrot sticks, or tortilla chips. Makes about 2 cups.

SUPER BOWL MINI-FOOTBALL SANDWICHES

1 cup shredded cheddar and Monterey Jack cheese blend
1/3 cup pickled piquant peppers, such as peppadews, chopped
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 teaspoon yellow mustard
1 teaspoon ground black pepper
32 slices cocktail pumpernickel, sourdough, rye or whole-

grain bread squares
2 tablespoons unsalted butter, melted
8 ounces thinly sliced pastrami
16 bread and butter pickle slices (cut into 4-inch squares) white American cheese

1. Preheat the oven to 375 degrees F. Mix the shredded cheese, peppers, mayonnaise, mustard and pepper in a medium bowl.
2. Stack 4 slices of bread on a cutting board. Using a knife or 2 1/2-inch round cutter, trim the bread into football shapes, save the trimmings for another use. Continue with the remaining bread.
3. Lay the bread slices on a rimmed baking sheet and brush with the melted butter. Place in oven and toast until crisp, about 5 minutes.

chopped
2 cloves garlic, chopped
1 tablespoon chili powder
1/4 teaspoon ground chipotle chile
1 can (14 ounces) fire-roasted diced tomatoes
1 can (14 ounces) kidney beans, rinsed and drained
1 can (14 ounces) refried beans can (14 ounces) whole kernel corn
2/3 cup fine- to medium-ground cornmeal
2/3 cup all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 large egg
2/3 cup milk
2 serrano chiles, thinly sliced
Cilantro, for garnish

1. Heat oven to 400 F. In oven-safe 12-inch skillet, heat 1 tablespoon oil on medium. Add beef; cook 3 minutes or until browned, breaking up meat. With slotted spoon transfer beef to bowl; discard excess fat.
2. To same skillet, add onion and peppers; cook 7 minutes, stirring. Add garlic, chili powder and chipotle chile. Cook 2 minutes, stirring.
3. Return beef to skillet. Stir in tomatoes, beans, corn and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cook 3 minutes or until mixture is hot. Remove from heat.
4. Meanwhile, whisk cornmeal, flour, baking powder and 1/4 teaspoon salt. In separate bowl, whisk egg, milk and remaining 3 tablespoons oil; add to cornmeal, stirring to combine. Fold half of serrano chiles into batter. Pour over beef mixture, spreading to cover. Dot top with remaining serranos.
5. Transfer skillet to oven. Bake 25 minutes or until toothpick inserted into topping comes out clean. Let stand 10 minutes. Garnish with cilantro. Serves 6-8.

CHILI CORNBREAD BAKE

You can prepare this delicious combination of chili and cornbread ahead of time and keep it warm in the oven until you're ready to serve. Feel free to use a good-quality, packaged cornbread mix if you're pressed for time, and add in the serrano chiles as directed to the packaged mix.

1/4 cup vegetable oil
1 pound ground beef chuck (80/20 mix)
1 large onion, finely chopped
2 medium bell peppers, seeded,

Donna's Day

Creative family fun

Cream-Puff Hearts for Valentine's Day

Cream puffs look so fancy, but they are easy to make from scratch with your kids. Really! Give them a try for a special occasion such as Valentine's Day, Feb. 14. This heart-shaped version with a scoop of ice cream or whipped cream between the layers is a delicious treat for celebrating with your family.

CREAM-PUFF HEARTS (Makes 12)

- 1 cup water
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) unsalted butter
- Pinch of salt
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 4 large eggs
- Whipped cream or vanilla ice cream, for serving
- Strawberries or raspberries, for serving (optional)
- Chocolate sauce or confectioner's sugar, for serving

To prepare baking sheets:
Let your school-age child draw 12 3-by-3-inch heart shapes with a pencil on 2 sheets of parchment paper cut to fit 2 cookie sheets. Press hard enough as you draw so that you see the hearts on the reverse side. (If you need a pattern for drawing the hearts, cut out a heart from an index card, or simply use a similar-size cookie cutter.) Turn the parchment over and lay on cookie sheets.

To prepare dough:
An adult should heat the water with the butter and salt to a rolling boil in a saucepan. Stir in the flour over low heat until the mixture is smooth and forms a ball. Remove from heat and let stand 3 minutes. Place in a mixing bowl.
Let your child crack the eggs in a small bowl, then pour the contents

To bake:
In preheated 375 F oven. Bake for 25 minutes or until slightly puffed and golden. Remove from oven; cut a small slit in the sides to release steam and to cool.

To serve:
Slice each cream-puff heart crosswise. Spoon whipped cream or a small scoop of ice cream on the bottom half. Set top half over filling. Top with raspberries or sliced strawberries (cut vertically to make thin heart shapes), if you wish. Drizzle chocolate sauce on top or, for a lighter touch, let your preschooler use a strainer to dust with confectioner's sugar.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

Thanksgiving Novena to ST. JUDE

O Holy St. Jude Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ. Faithful intercessor of all who invoke this special patronage in time of need. To you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg you, to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and three Glory Be's. Publication must be promised. St. Jude pray for us and all who invoke your aid. Amen. This novena has never been known to fail. It helped me. Thank you St. Jude for answering my prayers.

• On Feb. 16, 1848, composer and pianist Frederic Chopin plays his final Paris concert. Chopin's musical goal had been to speak to the heart and soul of man. Upon his death, at his request, Chopin's sister was able to smuggle his heart in a jar back to Poland, where it was buried in a church.

• On Feb. 18, 1856, the American Party, also known as the "Know-Nothing Party," convenes in Philadelphia to nominate its first presidential candidate. The Know-Nothing movement began in the 1840s as a result of increasing immigration. When questioned by the press, members would reply that they knew nothing, hence the name.

• On Feb. 14, 1929, penicillin is discovered by Sir Alexander Fleming, a bacteriologist. Fleming left a plate of staphylococcus bacteria uncovered, and noticed that mold that had fallen on the culture had killed many of the bacteria.

• On Feb. 13, 1945, Allied firebombing raids begin against the German city of Dresden, reducing the city to rubble. The medieval city, renowned for its artistic and architectural treasures, had never been a site of war production or major industry.

• On Feb. 15, 1950, Walt Disney's animated feature "Cinderella," six years in the making, opens in theaters. "Cinderella" has been rereleased periodically to keep its popularity alive among new generations.

• On Feb. 17, 1966, Brian Wilson of the Beach Boys rolls tape on take one of "Good Vibrations." Six months, four studios and $50,000 later, he completed his 3 minute, 39 second symphony, pieced together from more than 90 hours of tape recorded during hundreds of sessions.

• On Feb. 12, 1999, the five-week impeachment trial of Bill Clinton resulting from his affair with 21-year-old intern Monica Lewinsky comes to an end. The Senate voted to acquit on both articles of impeachment: perjury and obstruction of justice.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) It could be risky to push for a project you believe in but others are wary of. Never mind. If you trust your facts, follow your courageous Aries heart and go with it.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your enthusiasm sparks renewed interest in a workplace project that once seemed headed for deletion. Support from supervisors helps you make all necessary changes.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A colleague might be a bit too contrary when your ideas are being discussed in the workplace. A demand for an explanation could produce some surprises all around.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Try to avoid distractions at a time when maintaining stability in a fluid situation is essential. There'll be time enough later for the Moon Child to enjoy some well-earned fun and games.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Stop wasting energy licking your wounded pride. Instead, put the lessons you learned from that upsetting experience to good use in an upcoming opportunity.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You love being busy. But try not to make more work for yourself than you need to. Get help so that you don't wind up tackling tasks that are better left to others.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your usually balanced way of assessing situations could be compromised by some so-called new facts. Check them out before making any shift in judgment.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might feel angry over an unexpected shift in attitude by someone you trusted. But this could soon turn in your favor as more surprising facts come out.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Love rules everywhere for all amorous Archers, single or attached. It's also a good time to restore friendships that might have frayed over the years.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) It's not always easy for the proud Goat to forgive past slights. But clearing the air could help establish a better climate for that important upcoming venture.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Good news: Your skillful handling of a recent matter has won admiration from someone who could be influential in any upcoming decisions involving you.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You continue to welcome new friends into the widening circle of people whom you hold dear. One of those newcomers might soon have something special to tell you.

BORN THIS WEEK: You love nature and inspire others to follow your example of concern for the planet's well-being.

Ham and Cheese Oven Sliders

These sliders are just made for your Super Bowl watch party.

- 4 tablespoons melted butter
- 20-24 soft slider rolls, split
- 8 ounces thinly sliced sharp Cheddar cheese
- 8 ounces dill pickle slices, drained and patted dry
- 2 plum tomatoes, seeded and very thinly sliced
- 8 ounces thinly sliced smoked ham
- 1 tablespoons dried onion flakes
- 2 teaspoons poppy seeds

1. Heat oven to 375 F. Brush bottom of 13-inch by 9-inch baking dish with half of melted butter. Line dish with bottoms of rolls.
2. Onto rolls in dish, layer Cheddar, pickle slices, tomatoes and then ham. Replace tops of rolls. Cover dish with foil; bake 20 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, combine dried onions and poppy seeds. Uncover dish. Brush tops of rolls with remaining butter. Sprinkle with dried-onion mixture. Bake 10 to 15 minutes or until deep golden brown on top. Makes 10 servings.
