Water Dog Isn't a Fan of Snow
DEAR PAW'S CORNER: Do different types of dogs handle cold weather differently? My big Lab mix "Gertie" hates going out in the cold, even though she's a good-sized dog (maybe a little too much, if you know what I mean). A few days ago on a morning walk in near-zero degree temperatures, we met two of Gertie's neighborhood buddies, both small dogs. They were having a great time with their owner, romping around in the snow, while Gertie was whimpering the whole time we were out. How can I get her to deal with the cold better? —Paul in Burlington, Massachusetts

DEAR PAUL: Even though bigger dogs tend to do better in cold weather, every pup is an individual and has its own preferences. Gertie is clearly not a fan of cold weather, while her neighbors love being out in it and playing in the snow. That said, she shouldn't just stay inside all the time, and you're not taking her outside for very long. Try placing Gertie in a doggie sweater and booties anytime the temperature drops below 40 F. Take her for the usual walk — no more and no less — and give her lots of praise before and after going outside. She may do much better with the sweater, even if she doesn't really need it. If Gertie still doesn't handle cold weather well, minimize her time in it. She still needs to get in some active time or she'll gain more weight. Maybe she'd have fun spending a day or two each week at a doggie daycare that includes lots of time running and playing with other dogs in a common space. Easy Pasta Bolognese

At its most basic, Bolognese means "meat sauce." Although some recipes call for hours of cook time, we've boiled it down to 40 minutes flat. The result? A rich tomato-based sauce spiked with heavy cream that's fantastic on any long pasta.

- 1 medium carrot
- 1 clove garlic
- 1 can whole plum tomatoes
- 3 tablespoons olive oil
- Kosher salt and pepper
- 1 pound pasta
- 1 stalk celery
- 1 onion
- 3/4 pound lean ground beef
- 1/2 cup dry white wine
- 1/4 cup heavy cream
- 1/2 cup fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh oregano

1. Pulse the carrot and garlic in a food processor until the garlic is finely chopped. Add the tomatoes and their juices, 2 tablespoons oil and 1/4 teaspoon each salt and pepper, and pulse until finely chopped.

2. Transfer the tomato mixture to a medium saucepan and simmer until thickened, 20 to 25 minutes.

3. Meanwhile, cook the pasta according to package directions. Drain and return to pot.

4. While the pasta is cooking, heat the remaining tablespoon of oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add celery and onion, and cook, stirring occasionally, until tender, 6 to 8 minutes. Add the beef and cook, breaking it up with a spoon, until no longer pink, about 4 minutes. Add wine and bring to a simmer.

5. Stir the tomato sauce and cream into the meat mixture and simmer until thickened, about 3 minutes. Stir in the parsley and oregano. Toss the pasta with the sauce. Serves 6.

TIP: Make the sauce omitting cream and herbs. Refrigerate for up to 5 days or freeze for up to 3 months. If frozen, thaw overnight in refrigerator. Reheat in a saucepan over medium heat. Stir in cream and simmer for 3 minutes, then stir in herbs.

1. Who sang the theme song to "The Man with the Golden Gun"?
2. Madam Ruth, the gypsy with the gold-capped tooth, appeared in what song?
3. The top song in 1977 spent 10 weeks at the top of the charts, and won a Grammy. Name the song and its female singer.
4. In which song is "Don't look, Ethel!" heard three times?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "If I'm laden at all I'm laden with sadness, That everyone's heart isn't filled with the gladness of love for one another."

Answers

1. The theme for 1974's ninth James Bond flick was sung by Scottish artist Lulu. She wasn't first choice. Elton John and Cat Stevens were at the top of the list.
2. "Love Potion No. 9," by the Clovers (1959) and the Searchers (1964). The Clovers' version was used in "American Graffiti."
3. "You Light Up My Life," by Debby Boone.
4. "The Streak," by Ray Stevens in 1974.
5. "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," by the Hollies in 1969 and Neil Diamond a year later. The title has many likely origins, one of which is the slogan for Boys Town orphanage, founded by Father Edward Flanagan in 1917.

Spicy Garlic-Chili Oil With Pasta

A trip to your pantry is all you need to whip up this Italian staple that's as basic as can be — with just four ingredients — but alight with flavor. Once plated, jazz it up with grated Parmesan if you like.

- 1 pound pasta
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 6 cloves garlic
- 1 red chili

1. Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain pasta and return it to the pot.

2. Meanwhile, heat the oil in a large skillet over medium-low heat. Add the garlic and cook, stirring occasionally, until beginning to turn golden brown, 3 to 4 minutes. Add the chili and cook, stirring, until the garlic is golden brown and the chili is just tender, 1 minute more. Toss with the pasta. Serves 6.

The Garden Bug

In soils with too much "pore" space, such as sandy soils, water drains through too quickly and cannot be used by plants. In dense, silt or clay soils, all the "pore" space fills with water, and plant roots and soil organisms suffocate. The best soils have both small and large "pore" spaces. Adding organic matter is the best way to improve the architecture of your soil, as it holds water so that plants can use it when they need it. - Brenda Weaver Source: www.planetnatural.com

Donna's Day Creative family fun

by Donna Erickson

Celebrate Chinese New Year with a Bang

When it comes to demystifying Chinese cooking, my friend Katie Chin, daughter of restaurateur Leean Chin, knows what it takes to bring tasty recipes into American homes. As a chef, cookbook author and television personality, Katie believes in spreading the word about how truly delicious Chinese cuisine can be, starting with sharing culinary traditions with her 9-year-old twins.

"Chinese New Year is coming up on Feb. 16," she reminds me. "Firecracker shrimp is a tasty and whimsical appetizer to kick off the celebration in our home in Southern California. My sous-chef kids mix the dipping sauce and roll up the 'firecrackers,' revealing shrimp tails and carrot strips for 'fuses.' As we prep, I'll tell them about their grandmother's memories of growing up in China, and how firecrackers (believed to ward off evil spirits) lit up the sky on New Year's Day."

Roll up her firecracker shrimp for an appetizer that explodes with flavor in every bite. Adapted from her cookbook "Katie Chin's Everyday Chinese Cookbook: 101 Delicious Recipes from My Mother's Kitchen." Find more recipes at www.chefkatiechin.com.

- Place carrot slices in a small bowl. Sprinkle with 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt. Sprinkle shrimp with remaining garlic salt. Set aside.
- Cut each spring roll wrapper into thirds to make 12 long strips.
- Brush the top third of each strip with egg. Lay one shrimp at the bottom of the strip. Set a carrot slice on top of the shrimp. Tightly roll, letting the egg seal it together at the end. (The tail of the shrimp and the carrot should protrude from one end to resemble a firecracker.) Repeat with remaining wrappers.
- In a large wok or deep skillet, heat 2-3 inches of oil to 350 F. Fry the shrimp rolls 5 or 6 at a time until golden brown, about 2 minutes, turning 2 to 3 times. Transfer to a cooling rack lined with paper towels.

- Serve hot, with dipping sauce. Serves 6 as an appetizer.

DIPPING SAUCE

4 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons Sriracha chili sauce

- In a small bowl, mix the mayonnaise and Sriracha together.

*Find spring roll wrappers in the freezer section of Asian markets. You may substitute with egg roll wrappers from the produce section of grocery stores.

Hints For Homeowners
 Bomb Cyclone Preparedness:

Four Easy Steps To Help Prevent Water-Pipe Damage
 (NAPS)—The unusually cold temperatures that the country is currently experiencing will cause all kinds of chaos, including frozen water pipes. If the pipes burst as a result of the cold, this can be a major nightmare—but something that can be prevented with the proper precautions.

For climates that rarely see extremely cold temperatures like what we're currently experiencing with the 'bomb cyclone' weather system, water pipes are particularly vulnerable to freezing due to a lack of insulation around the pipes.

Prevent Problems
 Here are a few tips from Johns Manville to help prevent frozen water pipes:

1. If you know temperatures are going to be extremely cold, keep thermostats high and open cabinet doors under sinks that are located on outside walls.
2. Leave water dripping on all faucets, for two-handle faucets, have hot AND cold water dripping.
3. Wrap exposed water pipes with insulation.
4. Add insulation to walls to help keep the hidden pipes protected as well.

"Adding insulation to exposed water pipes is one of the easiest DIY home-improvement projects to do," says Tommy Knappich, VP and General Manager of Building Insulation at Johns Manville. "If you take further preventative measure in the future, adding wall insulation is not a difficult task and will help protect those pipes that are not exposed, and keep your home more comfortable in all types of weather."

How To Tell
 How will you know if your pipes have frozen? You'll turn the faucet on and nothing will happen. This is the best-case scenario because it can be easily remedied. What you don't want to happen is for the pipes to burst as a result of being frozen.

A Sporting View by Mark Vasto

Philly Fanatic

One of the best parts of not being a Philadelphia sports fan is that you get to watch Philadelphia sports fans from a neutral vantage point... something many Philly sports fans are trained at spotting and keying in on.

Take Frank, for instance. I work with Frank. The Eagles had beaten Minnesota badly a few days before. When Frank saw me, he stood in front of me and said, "Sooo ... what do you think?"

I had no earthy idea what he was talking about. His manner of dress? Did he get a new haircut or handbag? What?

"The Iggles!" he said with a special type of smile. It was the smile of hope and pride and trepidation all mixed together in one facial expression at once. For a half-century, Frank had rooted for the Eagles. Week after week, he dissected the previous game and upcoming contest in ways the most practiced and studied football analyst from the NFL Network or ESPN could never do. Now they were on the cusp.

"I think that the Eagles better not keep it close in the fourth quarter," I started to say. Then I caught the look in his eyes. It was the kind of look a kid gives you when he finds a stray puppy and asks if he can keep it, pleeeeeease. Seeing this, I quickly added that I thought the Eagles had the superior defensive line and better running game, two necessary ingredients in order to beat a pass-perfect offense featuring the likes of Tom Brady and the Patriots.

One of the guys that works with Frank exclaimed to me that, get this, Frank was going down to Florida with another Eagles fan so he could watch the game on the beach. Not that there was anything wrong with that, it just seemed a little odd. Some Philadelphians behave like a bunch of crabs in a pot — whenever one of them tries to leave, they get clawed back into the boil.

Frank again smiled with wide eyes. "Do you think they'll have the parade on Tuesday, so I can get back in time to be there?" Yes, I surmised that the Eagles would need to wait at least one day and let the city call up a battalion or regiment of anti-riot police.

"Aha! So you think we're gonna win!" A pause then a meek, "Right?"

There was plenty the Eagles did right during Super Bowl LII, but there was plenty to nitpick too. For example:

Chris Collinsworth announced the game as if he was in a locked room with a bunch of Patriot terrorists that had guns trained on him. Did Dodge really think Martin Luther King's anti-consumerism speech was a great vehicle to sell vehicles? (Apparently so.) And did anyone ever stop to ask Bill Belichick why he felt it necessary to wear that ridiculous cut-sleeved sweatshirt, that he was a Super Bowl coach and not an itinerate hobo who just got fired off the line of a bad roadside diner?

Does any of it matter anyway to the city of broken lamp posts and Crisco? No, it does not. For Philadelphia — the Eagles in particular — proved everyone wrong by doing what was right on game day. They never gave up, and now we'll never stop hearing about Nick Foles. Right, Frank?

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting

Washington Doll

While Valentine's Day is always Feb. 14, President's Day can be any one of seven dates, the third Monday in February closest to the 20th. In 1885 George Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, was made a national holiday. But in 1971, Congress decided that instead of celebrating the real birthdays of President Washington and President Abraham Lincoln (Feb. 12), there would be a Monday celebration for both. Why Monday? To give everyone a three-day weekend away from work. Feb. 20 was chosen because it was between the two real birthdays.

This 1880s George Washington doll is made of painted cloth. The face and clothing are familiar, and he really did have blue eyes. It recently sold for $3,080.

Q.I'd like information about my great-grandmother's full set of beautiful dishes and serving bowls given to her as a wedding gift in 1876. They are marked "LS & S Carlsbad Austria."

A.This mark was used about 1895 to 1917 by Lewis Straus & Sons, importers located in New York City. Carlsbad was part of Austria until after World War I, when it became part of Czechoslovakia. Today the town is called Karlovy Vary and is part of the Czech Republic. Several factories in Austria, Bavaria and Germany used "Carlsbad" in their mark. Many pieces were exported to the United States in the late 1800s and early 1900s. Sets of china are hard to sell, but you can enjoy the dishes for their sentimental value.

CURRENT PRICES
 Fortune Telling Cards, tarot, gold edges, text and images, The Nile, US Playing Card Co., box, 52-card deck, c. 1900, 4 x 3 inches, $145.
 Bronze doorknocker, Abraham Lincoln, profile, slavery abolished speech text, round, ring striker, 1915, 3 1/2 x 3 inches, $300.
 Powder jar, orange milk glass with purple iris, hinged lid with brass band, interior beveled mirror, Wave Crest, 1800s, 4 x 6 inches, $500.

TIP: When polishing the metal hardware on old chests of drawers, slide a piece of stiff paper under the brass plate. This will protect the wood near the brass.

Prayer to St. Jude
 Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen. Special thanks and gratitude in your honor for my favor.

Be Car Care Aware

Six Ways You Could Be Killing Your Car

(NAPS)—Owning a car can be a dream or a nightmare depending on how well you take care of your vehicle. Here are six things that many motorists do that can harm their cars and their wallets.

1. Ignoring the check engine light. Ignoring an illuminated check engine light can result in serious engine trouble and costly repairs. At the very least, this warning light could alert you to an engine problem that is negatively impacting fuel economy.
2. Failing to change fluids and filters. Many fluids are required for operating and protecting vehicle systems and components. Checking fluid levels regularly, along with the filters, helps ensure that your vehicle runs dependably and extends its vehicle life.
3. Neglecting your tires. Your vehicle's tires should be checked frequently for inflation and tread depth. Underinflated tires can wear out more quickly and need to be replaced sooner, plus they can negatively affect safety, gas mileage and performance.
4. Not following a service schedule. Because many car parts and components wear out or become damaged over time, vehicles need to be routinely serviced to perform optimally. Routine inspections and timely repairs will help keep your car running efficiently and help you avoid more expensive repairs down the road.
5. Keeping a dirty car. Allowing your car to go too long without a wash leads to buildup of damaging chemicals and dirt, increases the potential for rust from road salt and interferes with proper visibility needed for safe driving.
6. Being a severe driver. Whether it's stop-and-go traffic, extreme weather, rough roads or heavy loads, it can sometimes be difficult to limit severe driving conditions. However, you can drive smart and improve fuel economy by observing the speed limit; avoiding aggressive driving, including quick starts and stops; not hauling unnecessary items; and keeping your vehicle properly tuned.

"Because auto care isn't always a top priority for car owners, they might not realize they are doing things that adversely affect the performance, safety and value of their car," said Rich White, executive director of the nonprofit Car Care Council. "Routine maintenance can go a long way toward saving money, avoiding headaches and protecting your vehicle investment."

The Car Care Council is the source of information for the "Be Car Care Aware" consumer education campaign promoting the benefits of regular vehicle care, maintenance and repair to consumers. For the latest car care news, visit the Council's online media room at <http://media.carcare.org>. To order a free copy of the popular "Car Care Guide," visit the Council's consumer education website at www.carcare.org.

Bowlful of Comfort on a Chilly Day

Many kids dislike soft vegetables, the kind usually found in stew. If you're having trouble getting your children to eat stew, try this saucy beef recipe — adapted from the wonderful cookbook "Real Food for Healthy Kids: 200-Plus Easy, Wholesome Recipes" by Tracey Seaman and Tanya Wenman Steel. Tracey's teenage daughter said, "This is the only stew I really like, because it doesn't have any mushy vegetables. I like my carrots crisp."

This rendition is made without carrots or potatoes so you can serve it — with its thick, rich gravy — over a mash of potatoes and parsnips, or a mound of fluffy rice. Add a side dish of crisp vegetables, or a salad, and serve it with some hot, crusty French bread, and you've got a meal that will please the pickiest eater.

If you're fortunate enough to have leftovers, you can stretch out the servings and transform your stew into French Dip sandwiches. Shred any remaining cubes of stew beef and re-heat the meat and any leftover sauce in the microwave for 2 to 3 minutes until warm. Pour the sauce into a separate serving dish. Sprinkle some shredded Parmesan cheese on a whole-wheat hamburger bun or hot-dog bun, or a sliced hoagie roll. Place the bread on a cookie sheet under a broiler or in a toaster oven until the cheese starts to melt. Pile the shredded beef on the bread and add a few dill pickles or slices of purple onion, if desired. You can serve the remaining sauce on the side for dipping, "au jus" style.

This recipe is perfect for a crockpot or for slow-cooking in a roasting pan in the oven. It also freezes well and can last for up to six months. This saucy beef stew is a bowlful of comfort on a cold day, or it makes a hearty sandwich for supper on a warm one.

SAUCY BEEF STEW

If you're planning to prepare this stew in a slow cooker, follow steps one and two and then place the meat and the sauce in a crockpot, add the fresh or dried rosemary and thyme, cover and cook on low for 7 hours or until tender. Remove the sprigs of fresh herbs (if used), and season to taste before serving.

- 1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- 5 pounds lean beef chuck, cut into 1- to 2-inch cubes
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 3 extra-large onions, finely diced
- 5 garlic cloves, smashed and peeled

- 1/2 cup unbleached all-purpose flour
- 1 quart low-sodium beef broth
- 2 cups filtered water
- 2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
- 1 tablespoon tomato paste
- 2 sprigs each fresh rosemary and thyme (or 1 teaspoon each dried)

1. Heat 1 tablespoon of the oil in a 6-to 8-quart heavy Dutch oven over medium heat. Add a third of the beef, season lightly with salt and pepper, and cook, turning infrequently, until browned, about 8 minutes. Transfer to a plate and repeat with oil and the remaining beef and more salt in two batches.

2. Add the last tablespoon of oil, and the onions and garlic to the pot; cook, stirring occasionally, until softened, about 6 minutes. Sprinkle the flour on top and cook, stirring constantly until thick and lightly browned, about 2 minutes. Whisk in the broth, water, vinegar and tomato paste. Bring mixture to a boil.

3. Return meat to the pan, add rosemary and thyme, and return to a boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat to medium-low, cover and simmer gently, stirring occasionally, for 1 1/2 hours.

4. Uncover pot and continue simmering for up to 30 minutes more, until the meat is nicely tender but still holds its shape. Remove the sprigs and season to taste before serving. Makes about 3 quarts.

1. The theme for 1974's ninth James Bond flick was sung by Scottish artist Lulu. She wasn't first choice. Elton John and Cat Stevens were at the top of the list.
2. "Love Potion No. 9," by the Clovers (1959) and the Searchers (1964). The Clovers' version was used in "American Graffiti."
3. "You Light Up My Life," by Debby Boone.
4. "The Streak," by Ray Stevens in 1974.
5. "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," by the Hollies in 1969 and Neil Diamond a year later. The title has many likely origins, one of which is the slogan for Boys Town orphanage, founded by Father Edward Flanagan in 1917.

Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Congratulations, Lamb. The end of the month brings good news in the workplace, thanks to all the efforts you've made to get your projects off the ground and running.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Don't let yourself be cowed into thinking you're not up to the challenge you've taken on. Keep reinforcing your self-confidence, and no one and nothing can stop you.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Positive responses to a recent workplace move should give you added assurance that you're on the right track. Celebrate the good news with family and/or friends.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) There's still a little emotional fuzziness you have to work through before you can feel really certain about your recent decisions. But you're on the right track. Stay with it.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You're tempted by an offer that seems close to what you've been looking for. But before you pounce on it, see if you can coax out some added perks to sweeten the deal.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your efforts to settle a volatile situation should prove successful. Now could be a good time to analyze what might have created the problem in the first place.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A once-close associate re-emerges with news that could cause you to reconsider a recent decision. But don't make a move before consulting a trusted adviser.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might feel pressured to reveal a colleague's secret. But you can rely on your strong Scorpion sense of rectitude to help you continue to do the right thing.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) That pesky situation is still creating problems. But you are moving ahead with it, and soon it should be successfully resolved in your favor.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A spate of indecision leaves you susceptible to doubt. But you'll soon regain your emotional sure-footedness and be back leading the way, as usual.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Love rules the week with romances favored for single Aquarians looking for partners. Cupid also targets renewed commitment for wedded Water Bearers.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A surge of creativity keeps you happily busy through the week. But leave some quiet time to share with loved ones. Some long-awaited news finally comes through.

BORN THIS WEEK: People rely on you whenever they need someone they can trust to be caring, considerate and also discreet.

Moments in time
THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Feb. 27, 1776, Commander Richard Caswell leads 1,000 Patriot troops in the successful Battle of Moores Creek over 1,600 British Loyalists. It was the first American victory in the first organized campaign of the Revolutionary War.

• On Feb. 28, 1784, John Wesley charts the first Methodist Church in the United States. Although he was an Anglican, Wesley saw the need to provide church structure for his followers after the Anglican Church abandoned its American believers.

• On March 3, 1863, during the Civil War, Congress passes a conscription act that produces the first wartime draft of U.S. citizens. The act called for registration of all males between the ages of 20 and 45. Exemptions from the draft could be bought for $300.

• On March 2, 1944, a train stops for more than 30 minutes in a tunnel near Salerno, Italy, and more than 500 people on board suffocate and die. The locomotives were burning low-grade coal substitutes, which produced an excess of odorless and toxic carbon monoxide, asphyxiating the passengers.

• On March 4, 1952, Ernest Hemingway completes his short novel "The Old Man and the Sea," telling his publisher it was the best writing he'd ever done. The critics agreed: The book won the Pulitzer Prize and became one of his bestselling works.

• On March 1, 1961, President John Kennedy issues an executive order establishing the Peace Corps. Although many in Congress and the U.S. public, were skeptical about the program's costs and the effectiveness, thousands of young Americans flocked to serve in dozens of nations.

• On Feb. 26, 1993, a bomb explodes in the parking garage beneath the World Trade Center in New York City. Six people died and 1,000 were injured by the powerful blast. The FBI discovered that the bombers were not terrorists but jewel thieves.

FUND RAISER FOR
Tina Lavalley, US ARMY RETIRED
WHO IS PARTICIPATING IN THE 32ND NATIONAL DISABLED VETERANS GAMES
in SNOWMASS, COLORADO

Tina served eleven years, ten months, and twenty-five days in the United States Army. While on active duty on June 5, 1999, she suffered a traumatic brain injury and multiple level back injuries which left her wheelchair bound. She deals with painful sporadic and rigid muscles and has anxiety, PTSD, and seizures she controls with medication taken every three hours. Tina's VA doctor recommended sports rehabilitation last year. It turned out to be the best thing for her. She can now ski with a mono-ski. It is freeing. She has regained confidence and self-worth again.
