The Answer is in Your Hands

I heard an interesting story about an old man. According to legend, he could answer any question asked of him correctly. Two young boys heard of his wisdom and thought they could fool him, so they caught a small bird and went to his home. One of the boys held his hands out covering the tiny bird and asked the old man if the bird was dead or alive. Without hesitation, the old man replied, "Son, if I were to say that the bird is alive, you would close your hands and crush the bird to death. If I were to say the bird is dead, you would open your hands, and it would fly away. You see, you hold the answer in your own hands." Your hands are capable of whatever goal you are looking to achieve. However, the trick is learning to use them to your advantage.

"DEAR PARENTS"

We would like to remind you that magic words such as hello, please, you're welcome, I'm sorry, and thank you, all begin to be learned at home

It's also at home that children learn to be honest, to be on time, diligent, show friends their sympathy, as well as show utmost respect for their elders and all teachers.

Home is where they learn to be clean, not talk with their mouths full, and how/where to properly dispose of garbage.

Home is also where they learn to be organized, to take good care of their belongings, and that it's not ok to touch others.

Here at school, on the other hand, we teach language, math, history, geography, physics, sciences, and physical education. We only reinforce the education that children receive at home from their parents.

3. Bake 33 to 38 minutes or until toothpick comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes. Remove cakes from pans to cooling racks; remove waxed paper. Cool completely, about 40 minutes.
4. In medium bowl, stir together 2 cups of the coconut, the sugar and sour cream. Spoon 2 cups of the mixture into large bowl; stir in whipped topping, coconut extract and 1 cup of the remaining coconut. Set aside.
5. Cut each cake horizontally to make 2 layers. Spread one-third (about 2/3 cup) of the coconut-sour cream mixture without whipped topping on cut side of 1 layer. Repeat layers twice. Top with remaining layer, cut side down.
6. Frost top and side of cake with reserved coconut-whipped topping mixture. Press remaining coconut into top and side of cake. Cover; refrigerate 8 hours before serving.

Technically if you don't cut a cake and just eat the whole thing with a fork you still only had one piece.

Laughs and Lifts

A group of friends from the First Baptist Church wanted to get together on a regular basis, socialize, and play games. The lady of the house was to prepare the meal.

When it came time for Al and Janet to be the hosts, Janet wanted to outdo all the others. She decided to have mushroom-smothered steak. But mushrooms are expensive. She then told her husband, "No mushrooms. They are too expensive."

He said, "Why don't you go down in the pasture and pick some of those mushrooms? There's plenty in the creek bed."

She said, "No, some wild mushrooms are poison."

He said, "Well, I see wild animals eating them and they're OK." So Janet decided to give it a try. She picked a bunch, washed, sliced, and diced them for her smothered steak.

Then she went out on the back porch and gave Ol' Spot (the yard dog) a double handful. Ol' Spot ate every bite. All morning long, Janet watched Ol' Spot and the wild mushrooms didn't seem to affect him, so she decided to use them.

The meal was a great success, and Janet even hired a helper lady from town to help her serve. After everyone had finished, they relaxed, socialized, and played '42' and dominoes. About then, the helper lady came in and whispered in Janet's ear.

She said, "Mrs. Williams, Ol' Spot is dead."

Janet went into hysterics.

After she finally calmed down, she called the doctor and told him what had happened.

The doctor said, "That's bad, but I think we can take care of it. I will call for an ambulance and I will be there as quickly as possible.

We'll give everyone enemas and we will pump out everyone's stomach.

Everything will be fine. Just keep them calm.."

Soon they could hear the siren as the ambulance was coming down the road.

The EMTs and the doctor had their suitcases, syringes, and a stomach pump.

One by one, they took each person into the bathroom, gave them an enema, and pumped out their stomach.

After the last one was finished, the doctor came out and said, "I think everything will be fine now," and he left. They were all looking pretty weak sitting around the living room and about this time the helper lady came in and whispered to Janet, "You know, that fella that run over Ol' Spot never even stopped."

There's Something I Can't Figure Out

At the Henry Street Hebrew School, Goldplate, the new teacher, finished the day's lesson. It was now time for the usual question period.

"Mr. Goldplate," announced little Joey, "there's something I can't figure out."

"What is that Joey?" asked Goldplate.

"Well according to the Bible, the Children of Israel crossed the Red Sea, right?"

"Right."

"And the Children of Israel beat up the Philistines, right?"

"Er--right."

"And the Children of Israel built the Temple, right?"

"Again you are right."

"And the Children of Israel fought the Egyptians, and the Children of Israel fought the Romans, and the Children of Israel were always doing something important, right?"

"All that is right, too," agreed Goldplate. "So what is your question?"

"What I want to know is this," demanded Joey. "What were all the grownups doing?"

COLD CHILI

Are you eating right now? Then don't read this joke now.

A man enters a cafe and sits down. He notices that the special of the day is cold chili. When the waitress comes to take his order, he says, "I'll take the cold chili."

"I'm sorry, the gentleman next to you got the last bowl," says the waitress.

"Oh, I'll just have coffee, then."

After a while the man notices that the guy next to him who got the last bowl of cold chili is finishing a rather large meal and the chili bowl is still full.

He asks, "Are you going to eat that?"

The other man replies, "No."

"Would you sell it to me?"

"You can have it for free if you want it."

So the man takes the bowl of chili and begins to eat it. When he gets about half way through the bowl, he notices a dead mouse in the bowl and pukes the chili back into the bowl.

The other man says sympathetically, "That's about as far as I got, too."

Hospital Board Chair Named Statewide Trustee of the Year

Larry Ezell, chairman of the board of trustees of Dale Medical Center, was recently honored by the Alabama Hospital Association as its 2018 Trustee of the Year. The award is given annually to one individual who has provided outstanding leadership for his or her local hospital.

“Serving as a hospital board member takes an inordinate amount of time and dedication,” said Donald E. Williamson, M.D., president of the Alabama Hospital Association. “The man we honored this year is truly amazing as he has served as a hospital trustee for 32 years. And, he didn’t just attend the meetings. For much of that time he served as an officer and is currently the board chairman.”

Ezell had a successful 50-year banking career and is also active in a number of other community organizations including serving on the county board of education, chairman of the county’s soil and water conservation board on the board of the local bank and a member of the Ozark Rotary Club.

“We are so fortunate to have someone like Mr. Ezell leading our board,” said Vernon Johnson, Dale Medical Center CEO. “He, along with our other board members, have ensured our hospital continues to grow with the needs of the community. In fact, he was instrumental in the acquisition of the land we used to build our state-of-the-art surgery center. His dedication and his business acumen have been invaluable to this hospital.”

The Alabama Hospital Association, based in Montgomery, is a statewide trade organization that represents more than 100 hospitals and numerous other health care providers by offering membership services designed to enhance the provision of health care in Alabama.

GOD LOVES YOU SO MUCH

Wallace Kennedy, Jr.

In my meditation time, I think of the awesomeness of God's love, which I know I have done nothing to deserve. Sometimes tears fill my eyes just to think about God's immeasurable, unconditional love that never changes, but overflows my heart. When I am lonely, feeling despair, He comforts me. When I am sick He heals me. When I am confused, not knowing which way to go, He orders my steps. When I do not know exactly what to say, He puts words in my mouth in which I should speak. Jeremiah 31:3 says: The LORD appeared to us in the past, saying: "I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with unfailing lovingkindness.

There is nothing we or anyone else can do to change the love God has towards us. Paul said: "For I am persuaded that neither death nor life nor angels nor principalities nor things present nor things to come nor powers nor height nor depth nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8-38-39

Love involves self-sacrifice, trust, and faith in an unseen but ever-present God. Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, and it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, Always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Love isn't just about finding someone who will make us happy. Love is about finding someone we are willing to lay down our lives for, just as Jesus laid down His life for us. John 3:16.

Whoever You Love Most In This World God Loves You More!

Be encouraged my Wire-Grass friends, and remember: It's not so much about what we do in this world, but availing ourselves to God; that His love may be seen through us. We are love in demonstration. He loves you so much, now show the world by the life you live.

Hands On Experience

We have heard it said "God is Love". That statement in all of the power that it has, does nothing for any of us unless we experience it. Hands on Experience is something that can never be replaced. It is knowledge or skill that someone gets from doing something rather than just reading about it or seeing it being done. I love watching and even reading but I love "doing" more. There is nothing more satisfying than to experience God's Love. Jesus knew the love of His Father. Jesus knew even on the cross the absence of His father's love. The Bible says "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" For a moment Jesus experienced the separation of the father's love. Sin is the only separation. Jesus gained an experience that without that moment He would have not experienced, because He was perfect. John 15; 9 As the Father has loved Me, so have I loved you. Remain in My love. 10 If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love.

A Scripture that is taught in most all evangelical denominations is one that even if you know nothing else about the bible you could quote it by heart is John 3; 16. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Jesus knew that some things could not be learned by just reading about his love or quoting scriptures about his love but he knew that somethings were better felt than telt. Again, nothing can replace the hands on experience. In the book of 1 John 3; 16 is says..... By this we know what love is: Jesus laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers. Also in John 15; 12.... This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. 13 Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

How can we do this without climbing up on a cruel cross as Jesus did (Not that you would even be a sufficient sacrifice). Matthew 5:16 In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. Paul said it best "I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me." No greater love can you experience, than to have Hands on Experience!!

My girlfriend left a note on the fridge saying, "It's not working. I can't take it anymore. I am going to my mothers."

I opened the fridge. The light came on, everything was cold.

I can't figure out what she's talking about?

I'm wearing the smile you gave me.

Little Emily was at her first wedding and gaped at the entire ceremony. When it was over, she asked her mother, "Why did the lady change her mind?" Her mother asked, "What do you mean?" "Well, she went down the aisle with one man and came back with another one."

A young hiker is traveling thru a heavily wooded area and comes upon a Monastery full of friars and monks. He knocks on the door for directions, however is invited inside for "Fish and Chips" for lunch. After lunch he exclaimed that this was the most delicious fish and chips he had ever eaten. Seeing a chef emerge from the kitchen, he raced over and said, "Are you the Fish Friar? To which the reply was, "No, I am the Chip Monk."
