Two priests die at the same time and meet St. Peter at the Pearly Gates. St. Peter says, "I'd like to get you guys in now but our computers are down. You'll have to go back to Earth for about a week, but you can't go back as humans. What'll it be?"

The first priest says, "I've always wanted to be an eagle, soaring above the Rocky Mountains."

"So be it," says St. Peter, and off flies the first priest.

The second priest mulls this over for a moment and asks, "Will you be keeping track of us, St. Peter?"

"No, I told you the computer is down. There's no way we can keep track of what you are doing. This week's a freebie."

"In that case," says the second priest, "I've always wanted to be a stud."

"So be it," says St. Peter, and the second priest disappears.

A week goes by, the computer is fixed and the Lord tells St. Peter to recall the two priests.

"Will you have trouble locating them?" He asks.

"The first one should be easy," says St. Peter. "He's somewhere over the Rocky Mountains, flying with the eagles. But the second one could prove to be more difficult."

"Why?" asks the Lord.

"Because he's on a snow tire somewhere in Alaska."

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was English novelist Eric Arthur Blair -- better known by his pen name, George Orwell -- who made the following sage observation: "During times of universal deceit, telling the truth becomes a revolutionary act."

* While his wife, Abigail, was ill, President John Adams stayed with her for seven months at their home in Boston -- that's the longest any president has been away from the capital.

* Are you a cacographer? You may not be, but if you spend any time at all online you've certainly run across a few. A cacographer is someone who can't quite grasp the rules of spelling.

* This might be a good time for a reminder of an obscure New Orleans law: In that city, it is illegal to curse at a firefighter while he or she is engaged in official duties.

* It was in 1943 that Thomas Watson, who was then the chairman of International Business Machines (better known now as IBM), made the following public statement: "I think there is a world market for maybe five computers."

* The English word "velvet" comes from a Latin term that means "shaggy hair."

* You might already know that actor Mel Gibson grew up in Australia, but you might not know how he ended up there. He was actually born in New York, where he lived with his parents. The Vietnam War was going on, though, and his parents were afraid Mel would be drafted. After winning on "Jeopardy," they used the money to move to Australia.

Thought for the Day: "The simplest questions are the most profound. Where were you born? Where is your home? Where are you going? What are you doing? Think about these once in a while and watch your answers change." -- Richard Bach

Two nicely dressed ladies happened to start up a conversation during an endless wait in the Los Angeles airport.

The first lady was an arrogant Californian woman married to a wealthy man.

The second was a well-mannered, elderly woman from the South.

When the conversation centered on whether they had any children, the California woman started by saying, "When my first child was born, my husband built a beautiful mansion for me."

The lady from the South commented, "Well, bless your heart."

The first woman continued, "When my second child was born, my husband bought me a beautiful Mercedes-Benz".

Again, the lady from the South commented, "Well, bless your heart."

The first woman continued, "Then, when my third child was born, my husband bought me this exquisite diamond bracelet."

Yet again, the Southern lady commented, "Well, bless your heart."

The first woman then asked her companion, "What did your husband buy for you when you had your first child?"

"My husband sent me to Charm School," declared the Southern lady.

"Charm School?" the first woman said, amazed. "Oh, my God! What on earth for?"

The Southern lady responded, "Well for example, instead of saying, "Who gives a &^&^?" I learned to say, "Well, bless your heart."

Plane Reservations

Recently, I called to make reservations on a small charter plane that departs from our equally small airport.

I knew that I would be flying in a very small plane, so I was not surprised when the clerk said, "The plane is very full with baggage and passengers."

Then she asked, "How much do you weigh, sir?"

Not thinking clearly I answered, "With or without clothes?"

"Well," said the clerk, "how do you intend to travel?"

The Right Card

A little boy had been pawing over a stationer's stock of greeting cards for some time when a clerk asked, "Just what is it you're looking for? A birthday greeting, message to a sick friend, anniversary or a congratulations to your mom and dad?"

The boy shook his head and answered, "Got any like a blank report card?"

Good moms let you lick the beaters..
Great moms turn them off first.

A blonde and a redhead have a ranch. They have just lost their bull. The women need to buy another, but only have $500. The redhead tells the blonde, "I will go to the market and see if I can find one for under that amount. If I can, I will send you a telegram." She goes to the market and finds one for $499. Having only one dollar left, she goes to the telegraph office and finds out that it costs one dollar per word. She is stumped on how to tell the blonde to bring the truck and trailer. Finally, she tells the telegraph operator to send the word "comfortable." Skeptical, the operator asks, "How will she know to come with the trailer from just that word?" The redhead replies, "She's a blonde so she reads slow: 'Come for ta bull!'"

PIEDMONT PETS
 February 22, 2018
 By Paulette Dean

Rabies is a public health issue. According to the CDC, the vaccines to prevent rabies in humans have been available for more than 100 years. Most human deaths from rabies happen in countries with poor public health resources and limited access to preventive treatment. According to the AVMA, about 59,000 people are killed worldwide each year. At the beginning of the 20th century (the early 1900s), there were about 100 rabies-related human deaths in the United States. By the 1990s, modern-day vaccinations decreased that number to one or two per year in the United States.

The CDC also reports that's before 1960, the majority of all rabid animal cases were domestic animals. Now, more than 90% of all rabid animal cases occur in wildlife.

The law in Virginia is quite specific. 3.2-6521 in the Code requires "the owner or custodian of all dogs and cats four months of age and older" to have a veterinarian provide the rabies vaccination. Generally, the first one lasts one year and subsequent vaccinations last three years.

Rabies is almost always fatal, so matters related to it are considered to be very serious by animal shelters, animal control officers, and public health professionals. It is spread through the saliva of a rabies-infected animal. When a dog or cat are received at the shelter for a bite quarantine, they are held for a 10-day quarantine period. If they become sick during that time, we immediately contact the health department and

996 South Boston Rd.,
 Danville, VA 24540
 Phone: (434) 799-0843

follow their instructions. In most cases, the animal will be euthanized and sent for rabies testing. The rabies test cannot be performed on a live animal.

Rabies affects only mammals. The first symptoms in a dog or cat may include, fever, vomiting, lethargy, and lack of appetite. Symptoms progress to weakness, paralysis, seizures, breathing difficulty, difficulty swallowing, increased salivation, and abnormal aggression.

We urge everyone to keep the rabies vaccinations current in all their dogs and cats. The best way to protect the human and pet population against rabies is to vaccinate all dogs and cats against it and restrict exposure to wild animals by keeping both dogs and cats safely confined. Your veterinarian is your best source for any answer to your questions. Do not forget to contact your large animal veterinarian for questions about your livestock.

'The Chair'

Danish modern chairs were offered in stores in the U.S. in the early 1950s. The Scandinavian designs were inspired by earlier furniture: the 18th-century English chair, a Chinese Ming dynasty chair, a Japanese director's chair. Many of the modern chairs were made of hand-carved curved wooden pieces joined with dovetails to make a comfortable back, arms, seat and sides. Teak, oak, rosewood and light-colored woods were used with fabric, leather or caned seats.

"The Chair," a famous and comfortable chair, sold for $610. It is one of the 200 designs for chairs created by Hans Wegner of Denmark.

Hans Wegner of Denmark created his most famous chair in 1949. It is now known as "The Chair." It was made and sold by Hansen/Knoll company for many years. "The Chairs" were chosen for John F. Kennedy and Richard Nixon in the first-ever televised presidential debate in 1960. One of "The Chairs," made in about 1969 and featuring a leather seat, the Knoll label and Hansen stamps, sold in 2016 for $610. Later versions of this iconic chair are available in shops and shows today.

Q. Should I loan a number of my antiques for a fundraising event? They want me to set up my exhibit and leave it for two weeks, but I am concerned about security and other problems. What should I worry about? None of the pieces are extremely valuable, but they are among my favorites, and some are family heirlooms.

A. There is always a risk when you exhibit your collection. The exhibit should be in a secure building with a 24-hour security guard or electronic system. Security usually is good during a show, but during setup and after show hours there are people who can get into the room. Before you pack, take pictures and list every item with your estimated value for insurance purposes. Never advertise the value of your collections.

Make sure there is a barrier between the exhibit and the public, perhaps shelves behind a large table, or a locked cabinet. Don't exhibit posters or prints in a sunny window. Make sure the pieces are not remounted or altered. Decide before the show how the collection will be packed and returned.

A non-profit show may be run by people with no idea of the cost of old things. We loan pieces to teach the public about the past and the joys of collecting, but we had a sundrenched poster fade to unreadable, a clever advertising sign stolen and a figurine come back missing a hand.

Danville Art League Spring Exhibition Call to Artists and Reception

The Danville Art League (DAL) is holding its 31th annual spring juried exhibition, "It's Springtime", at the American National Bank & Trust Company in Danville, Virginia, a long-time supporter of DAL. The show looks forward to the freshness and beauty of spring; it is a time of new beginnings and ideas which the artist can express in so many ways. Submitted works, however, are not limited to springtime themes. Expect to see an exciting variety of interpretations on the theme as well as innovative and traditional work in oil and acrylic paintings, watercolors, photography, digital art, mixed media, graphite and charcoal drawings. Amateurs and professionals are welcome to enter. The dates to submit art are Friday, March 23 at American National Bank, 628 Main Street, Danville from 4:00-6:00 and Saturday, March 24, from 9:30-11:30, with the opening reception on Sunday, March 25, from 2:00-4:00, when the winners will be announced, and cash prizes awarded. The event and reception are hosted by American National Bank. This year's judge is Michael D. Fels, a practicing mixed-media artist and acting chair of the Department of Art and Art History at Elon University and well known in the art world both in the US and internationally. For more information and a show prospectus, stop in at AMNB, 628 Main St. Danville, the Danville Museum of Fine Arts & History or contact Jim Jennings, 434-489-1179, email jennings64@gmail.com.

Drake Lynskey, #3 on the Saints team, gets a good luck kiss from his little sister Jami before the teams' championship game held at GW High School. His good luck charm must have helped, as Drake is also pictured here holding his teams' trophy! Great job, Saints! Pictured in the green jersey is Drake's brother Dylan, getting ready to play with his team, The Jets, at Dan Daniels! Smith of Providence, N.C., nieces, Hilary Monk, Blairs, Va., LoriLee Davis, Danville, Va. and Molly Smith, Providence, N.C. Also, Archie and Yvonne Monk, Bristol, Va., Roger and Carol Monk, Richlands, Va. and family of the late Ralph Edward Monk, Tazewell, Va.

Also Jacob and Haylie Doss who will always treasure memories of Doug's adoring grandfatherly presence.

Visitation will be Monday, February 19, at 1:00 p.m. at Swicegood Funeral Home. A celebration of his life will follow at 2:00 p.m.

Peace to all, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Monk family.

Carlton C. Carter

Carlton Conway Carter, 93, of Danville, passed away Friday, Feb. 16, after a brief illness.

He was the light of his family's life, and was friends with everyone he ever met, "whether they liked it or not." He worked as a Nabisco salesman for 42 years; therefore his children were never without cookies. In his retirement, he entertained himself and others by making music on his mandolin. He was a devoted choir member and trustee of Rivermont Baptist Church. He was a 32nd degree Mason for 60 years, a member of the Danville Elks Club, a former leader of the Dan River Retirees Chorus, a member of the advisory committee of Roman Eagle Nursing Home, and a member of the Dan River Bluegrass Association.

The youngest of 11 children, he was born Sept. 28, 1924 to John Coleman Carter and Nellie Kate Williams Carter of the Mount Cross community in Pittsylvania County.

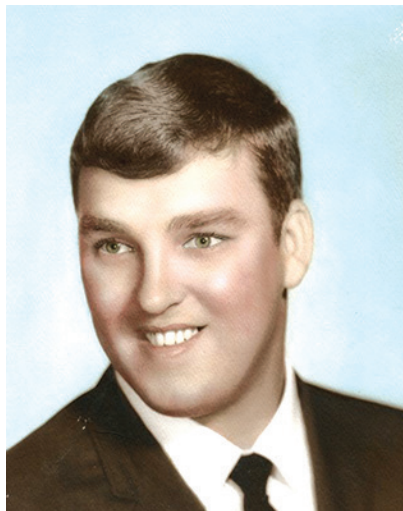

His beloved wife of 65 years, Mary Augusta Giles Carter, predeceased him in 2014.

He is survived by his brother, Harry Wooding Carter, of Houston, Texas; his brother-in-law, Dr. Richard Dixon Giles (Linda) of Lynchburg; his children, Katherine Elizabeth Carter Calos of Richmond, Connie Carter Scott (Randy) of Greensboro, N.C., and Carlton Giles Carter of Danville; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Rivermont Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Tuesday, February 20, 2018. Interment will follow at Mountain View Cemetery. Visitation will be Monday, February 19, 2018 at 6:30 p.m. until 8 p.m. at Swicegood Funeral Home.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Carter family.

Jack Lee Scism

Mr. Jack Lee Scism, age 78, of 45 Laurel Ave., Danville, VA, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, February 19, 2018 at his residence.

He was born on July 29, 1939, in Danville, VA, to the late Jessie Austin Scism and Agnes Tillery Scism.

Before his retirement, Mr. Scism worked as a radio announcer at WAKG. He was a veteran of the United States Air Force.

Jack was a loving caregiver for his mother for many years, until her passing. He enjoyed playing golf and was a great competitor, until his disability prevented him from playing.

He is survived by his brothers, Don Scism and wife, Nancy and Danny Scism and wife, Vickie, all of Danville, VA; niece, Kristina Sekula; and nephew, Jacob Scism.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Scism was predeceased by his niece, Julie Scism.

Are You Missing Out on These Benefits?

I love it when crooks get caught. A Department of Veterans Affairs employee (former Air Force) in Maryland sent himself a pile of the cash he was in charge of, specifically $21,000 of special payments disability money that he wired to his own account. Then he sent a former Air Force friend (who was in a financial bind) $46,000 in hardship-benefits cash that she hadn't applied for. She then kicked back $13,000 to him using Walmart money transfers.

Of course they got caught.

Here are some of the many legitimate benefits for veterans in need:

* Medical care at VA facilities. This can either be free or low cost.

* Education. Go to college, get a vocational or technical degree, sign up for an apprenticeship, do work-study, take the SAT tests, be reimbursed for licenses and certifications, and much more.

* Counseling. Whether it's group, individual or for the family, the Vet Centers can help you. For PTSD, sexual assault, transitioning to civilian life or any other stressor, there's help.

* Aid and Attendance, also called Long-Term Care.

These benefits cover assisted living, nursing homes and even money for a spouse (or family member) who acts as a caregiver. This benefit is for wartime veterans who qualify for a pension.

* Loan help to buy a home. Get a mortgage with no money down if you qualify, and help if you're turned down. The VA guarantees a portion of the loan, and protection under the Service Members Civil Relief Act.

* Small business loans. With your veteran-owned business you'll have the opportunity to bid on VA contracts.

There are other lesser-known benefits for veterans: Free tax preparation, GI Bill transfer of credits to a spouse or dependent, money for certification for vocational training programs and life insurance. Find the whole list at www.va.gov/opa/persona/index.asp.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your soft-hearted self is drawn to a tempting offer. But your hard-headed half isn't so sure. Best advice: Do it only after every detail is checked out to your liking.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your inventive mind should help you find a way to get around an apparently impassable barrier and make yourself heard.

Your efforts get you noticed by the right people. GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You're enjoying this creative period. But by midweek, you'll need to emphasize your more pragmatic talents as you consider a risky but potentially lucrative move.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) An unexpected rejection could turn into something positive if you pocket your pride and ask for advice on how you can make changes that will make the difference.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your Lion's heart gives you the courage to push for answers to a job-related situation. Stay with it. You'll soon find more believers coming out the ranks of the doubters.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your curiosity pays off this week as you push past the gossip to find the facts. What you ultimately discover could lead you to make some changes in your plans.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A new sense of enthusiasm helps get you out of on-the-job doldrums and back into a productive phase. Family matters also benefit from your more positive attitude.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A bit of nostalgia is fine. But don't stay back in the past too long or you might miss seeing the signpost up ahead pointing the way to a new opportunity.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) If you feel you need to take more time to study a situation before making a decision, do so. Don't let anyone push you into acting until you're ready.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) As the Great Advice Giver, the Goat really shines this week as family and friends seek your wisdom. Someone especially close to you might make a surprising request.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Spiritual concerns dominate part of the week before more worldly matters demand your attention. An old promise resurfaces with some surprises attached.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You're in a highly productive period and are eager to finish all the projects you've taken on. But don't let yourself get swamped. Take a breather now and again.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for learning new things quickly and applying your knowledge to best advantage where needed.

THE BEST HUSBAND'S DELIGHT CASSEROLE

Lasagna meets beef stroganoff in this recipe. This casserole's claim to fame is in it's name because it really is a Husband's Delight!

Ingredients
 1 lb. hamburger meat, browned and drained
 24 oz. jar of spaghetti sauce, any flavor
 1 envelope of dry and zesty spaghetti sauce mix
 12 oz. package of medium egg noodles, cooked
 16 oz. carton of sour cream
 8 oz. bag of shredded Cheddar Cheese
 8 oz. bag of shredded Mozzarella Cheese
 1/2 cup of shredded Parmesan Cheese
 1 tsp. garlic salt

Instructions
 Preheat oven to 350 degrees and grease a 9x13 inch casserole dish.
 Mix the jar of spaghetti with the envelope of dry spaghetti sauce and 1 tsp. of garlic salt. Combine it with the browned hamburger meat.
 Take the cooked noodles and spread them onto the casserole dish.
 Spread about 1/3 of the meat mixture on top of the noodles.
 Spread about 1/3 of the sour cream on top of the meat.
 Sprinkle half of the Cheddar Cheese and half of the Mozzarella Cheese on top of the sour cream.
 Continue this layering process and end it with the cheese. Sprinkle some Parmesan Cheese on the top.
 Bake for 30 minutes and serve.
