Alcohol Consumption Warnings

Due to increasing products liability litigation, American beer Brewers have accepted the FDA's suggestion that the following warning labels be placed immediately on all beer containers:

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may make you think you are whispering when you are not.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol is a major factor in dancing like an idiot.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may cause you to tell your friends over and over again that you love them.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may cause you to think you can sing.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may lead you to believe that ex-lovers are really dying for you to telephone them at four in the morning.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may make you think you can logically converse with members of the opposite sex without spitting.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may make you think you have mystical Kung Fu powers, resulting in you getting your rear-end kicked.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may cause you to roll over in the morning and see something really scary.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may create the illusion that you are tougher, smarter, faster and better looking than most people.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may lead you to believe you are invisible.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may lead you to think people are laughing WITH you.

WARNING: The consumption of alcohol may cause a disturbance in the time-space continuum, whereby gaps of time may seem to literally disappear.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was Danish scholar and critic Georg Brandes who made the following sage observation: "Poor is the power of the lead that becomes bullets compared to the power of the hot metal that becomes types."

* You doubtless know who Thomas Edison was -- the American inventor of such things as the light bulb, the phonograph and the motion-picture camera. You never learned that he was blind, though, did you? Of course you didn't -- he wasn't blind. However, even though he could see, historians say that when he was reading, he preferred Braille to printed text.

* Have you ever heard of a lipogram? It's a work of writing that deliberately leaves out one or more letters of the alphabet. For instance, in 1939 a man named Ernest Vincent Wright published a 50,000-word novel titled "Gadsby," in which the letter e was not used once -- the longest lipogram in English.

* Those who study such things say that the trunk of an African elephant has more than 60,000 muscles.

* You might be surprised to learn that the White House had a telephone installed before indoor plumbing was.

* I have some bad news for lovers of the snooze button: Experts say that you're better off not using it. Researchers have found that the last few minutes of sleep are more beneficial if they're uninterrupted, so it's better to go ahead and set your alarm for 10 minutes later to begin with.

* A study of prison inmates' medical files revealed this interesting tidbit: The higher the levels of testosterone in a male inmate, the younger that inmate was when he was first arrested.

***

Thought for the Day: "I learned compassion from being discriminated against. Everything bad that's ever happened to me has taught me compassion." -- Ellen DeGeneres

1. Back straight, knees bent, feet shoulder width apart.
2. Form a loose grip.
3. Keep your head down.
4. Avoid a quick back swing.
5. Stay out of the water.
6. Try not to hit anyone.
7. If you are taking too long, please let others go ahead of you.
8. Don't stand directly in front of others.
9. Quiet please ... while others are preparing to go.
10. Don't take extra strokes.

Well, done. Now flush the urinal, wash your hands, go outside, and tee off.

Burial Rites

An old man and woman were married for many years, even though they hated each other. Whenever there was a confrontation, yelling could be heard deep into the night. The old man would shout, "When I die, I will dig my way up and out of the grave and come back and haunt you for the rest of your life!"

Neighbors feared him. They believed he practiced magic, because of the many strange occurrences that took place in their neighborhood. The old man liked the fact that he was feared.

To everyone's relief, he died of a heart attack when he was 98. His wife had a closed casket at the wake. After the burial, she went straight to the local bar and began to party, as if there was no tomorrow.

Her neighbors, concerned for her safety, asked, "Aren't you afraid that he may indeed be able to dig his way out of the grave and haunt you for the rest of your life?"

The wife put down her drink and said, "Let him dig. I had him buried upside down, and you know men won't ask for directions."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You could have some problems with doubters who don't share your enthusiasm for that new project you're supporting. But use the facts to win them over to your side.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Someone is impressed by how you managed to get your case to the right people, despite attempts to keep you on the outside looking in. Expect to hear more about this.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Good for you -- your gift for seeing both sides of a dispute helps cool down a potentially explosive workplace situation. Some family-related tensions also begin to ease.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your determination to prove yourself is put to the test by midweek. Counting all the positive factors you have going for you will help you get over your self-doubt. Good luck.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Several co-workers are still determined to resist coming over to your side. But don't let that stop you from presenting your proposal to the people who count. Stay the course.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might prefer to be taken on faith and not have to prove yourself. But the truth is, you need to offer more facts if you hope to persuade people to accept what you say.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A family situation takes an unwelcome turn. While others might be looking around for answers, you'll soon sort it all out logically, and the matter will be resolved.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Someone might try to create doubt about your reliability for his or her own agenda. But your reputation and your colleagues' long-standing faith in you saves the day.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) An unexpected change of plans forces you to come up with an alternative by the end of the week. Look for colleagues to offer valuable suggestions.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Nothing upsets the Goat as much as broken promises. But before you vent your anger, consider that this could ultimately prove to be a blessing in disguise.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) An old workplace problem you thought you had solved for good resurfaces. But this time, co-workers will take a more active role in helping you deal with it.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Be careful not to be misled by a negative reaction to one of your more important projects. If you believe in it, then it has worth and is, therefore, worth staying with.

BORN THIS WEEK: Everyone appreciates your gift for finding beauty, even where it seems least likely to exist.

It's time to "unleash" your word power. Each of the eight words above contains the word "dog." Using the following hints, can you fetch them in five minutes?

1. Popular fast food.
2. To be stubborn; tenacious.
3. Shamefaced or guilty.
4. Type of air combat.
5. Type of golfing fairway.
6. At a disadvantage in a struggle.
7. Crude, humorous verse.
8. Trivial, pointless work.

CHAIN REACTION! Take the seven letters printed below our diagram and place them in the circles so that eight four-letter words can be read, top to bottom, along the connecting lines. All the words will begin with the letter in the top circle.

Answers: 1. Chilling; 2. Dogged; 3. Hangdog; 4. Dogfight; 5. Dogleg; 6. Underdog; 7. Doggerel; 8. Boondoggle.

Although it is hard to know with a certainty how many pets (companion animals) there are, it is generally believed that American households have: 88.3 million cats, 74.8 million dogs, 142 million freshwater fish, and 24.3 million smaller animals. The number of cats being kept as pets has surpassed the number of dogs; experts believe this is probably due to the fact that we work long hours and cats are believed to require less attention. Even though there are more cats in homes, dogs remain the most popular pet; it is thought that more households have more than one cat.

Hamsters are ranked as the third most popular pet. They were originally discovered in Syria and then shipped to laboratories all over the world in 1938. Many parents believe that hamsters are a good "starter pet" for their children.

The fourth most popular pet is fish, with goldfish being the most common one. The benefits of having an aquarium have long been touted. Sadly, many people do not provide large enough aquarium space.

Mice rank as the fifth most popular pet. These friendly creatures only live three years, and are like all other companion animals in that they have very specific physical needs.

Guinea pigs are close behind mice in popularity. In some countries, they are a meat source, but in the United States, they have a large following of human fans. They do not climb, do not bite, and have few health problems.

Birds are the seventh most popular, with parakeets and canaries being among the most common. Birds are beautiful and smart, but they can be noisy, messy, and expensive. The larger birds can live for 60-80 years. Snakes are the next most popular pet. They are considered to be lower maintenance than many other common companion animals.

Iguanas are gaining in popularity. With proper care, they can live up to 20 years.

The tenth most popular pet is the ferret. Ferrets are playful, extremely friendly, and can be litter-box trained. Every one of the ten most popular pets can be found in shelters, and it is always better to visit your local shelter when your family is considering a pet. ## A Healthy Family Lifestyle Study

Researchers at the University of Virginia invite all interested families of children ages 8 to 12 to join a healthy lifestyle study that is part of a team effort between Danville Parks and Recreation, Children's Healthcare Center and the University of Virginia. With a flip of a coin, you will be randomized into one of these programs: Family Connections or iChoose.

The purpose of the study is to compare two childhood obesity treatment programs to see which one is the best fit for your community. The study includes free health screenings, small group healthy living classes and telephone support calls. Families will receive $300 in gift cards for participating in the study. Primary Investigator: Dr. Jamie Zoellner (IRB #19748).

To learn more about the study and see if you qualify, please call Danielle Montague at 434.799.5150.

2nd Annual "Feed the Police"

Our good friends at GoDocs held their 2nd Annual "Feed the Police" event last week at the Danville Police Department. Here's an excerpt from their Facebook post about the event: "We got to serve the new Chief, lots of the officers, and administrative staff! This event was sponsored by GoDocs Healthcare Center, Kare Pharmacy & Compounding, Commonwealth Home Healthcare, and The Trophy & Sign Center! Danville Chick Fil A and Hall's Pastry gave us great discounts on food/dessert, allowing us to provide food for 100 Danville Police Officers and staff! The police department does so much without recognition or thanks, they deserve so much more, but our hope is that a good meal and a hug will warm their spirits. Thank you Danville Police Department for all you do for our community!"

Arkansas Governor Tours Workforce Programs in Danville

As part of his scheduled visits in Virginia on Tuesday, February 27, Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson toured Danville Community College's precision machining and welding facilities, led by DCC Director of Advanced Manufacturing Troy Simpson. As staples of DCC's workforce training options, these programs have received national attention thanks to their role in helping to create a workforce pipeline in support of economic development efforts in Danville, Pittsylvania County, and beyond. To learn more about these programs, visit www.machiningindanville.com.

Danville Utilities warns of bill payment scam

Danville Utilities is warning its customers about a payment scam involving a threat to disconnect service if payment of their utility bill is not made immediately. Businesses are the target.

In this scam, a business receives a phone call from an individual falsely claiming to be with the Danville Utilities Department. The individual is threatening to disconnect service if the business does not make immediate payment. The business is asked to provide a credit card number in order to make payment.

A business answering service alerted Danville Utilities today that they were receiving calls involving the threat to disconnect service.

Danville Utilities does not contact customers by phone and demand payment. Instead, customers who have delinquent accounts receive multiple notifications by letter from Danville Utilities over the course of several weeks prior to electric service disconnection – never just a single notification before disconnection.

Utility bill payment scams are not new. Guard against fraud. Never provide a Social Security number, credit card number or banking information to anyone requesting it unless you initiated the contact and know the identity of the person with whom you are speaking.

If you receive a call from someone you do not know and who is urging you to make a payment to Danville Utilities, capture the phone number and then hang up and contact Central Collections at 434-799-5125 or visit the Charles H. Harris Financial Service Center, which is located at 311 Memorial Drive.

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

VA Chief Shulkin's Excellent Adventure

I really hate when this happens: Someone you trust to do the right things turns out to possibly not be trustworthy after all. This is what has happened with Department of Veterans Affairs Secretary David Shulkin. The facts look bad. Shulkin was invited to London for a two-day meeting of officials from various countries to talk about veterans issues. Before going, he asked staff to put together a side trip to Denmark to speak with the Danes about Danish healthcare. Shulkin's wife traveled with him. Approval for paying her way was declined when it was determined that it wasn't in the government's best interest. Up stepped his chief of staff, who, after altering emails, claimed that Shulkin was to receive an award at the ambassador's place in Copenhagen. Therefore, by the rules, the wife's travel would be paid. Except there was no award. A VA employee, working with the wife on her wish list of things to see and do, played travel agent, on VA time. While in London, Shulkin and his wife attended Wimbledon using tickets given to them by an alleged friend of his wife. During the subsequent investigation interview, that "friend" could not remember Shulkin's wife's name. During the nine days they were away, only three-and-a-half days were spent in official meetings. Among a long list of unofficial activities, they visited palaces, took tours, zipped over to Sweden for dinner, went to Buckingham Palace, took a Thames River cruise and much more, apparently dragging security staff along the whole way. Changes in travel plans added $15,699 to airfare costs, but there was insufficient documentation to verify all of the other expenses, which totaled $122,000. Color me disappointed to have to suspect that Shulkin is no different from the rest of them.

"Mirror, Mirror"

It was among the most grotesque sights I have ever seen; to this day, my memory is scarred by it.

The day itself was utterly lovely. A slight breeze blew in off of the ocean, the seagulls were squawking contentedly, and my toes were in their favorite place: the white sand of the coast. And yet despite all of that, my eyes were fixed in horror at the repulsive vision parading down the shoreline in all of his pasty white glory, leering at the women on the beach as he sauntered by.

To say that the man was huge would be an understatement. Mind you, that in itself is not the problem; I am not judging his size, he may not have been able to help that. But what he certainly could have helped, in addition to his lecherous gazes, was his choice of attire, namely a woefully insufficient Speedo.

It honestly took me a moment to realize that he even had that much on. His aggressively shaking posterior was actively swallowing it more and more with every step he took, and seemed to be "gnom gnoming" as it ingested it, turning it into a nearly invisible man-thong. His belly had completely covered it in the front, at first glance he literally appeared completely naked. Mothers were actually shielding their children's eyes as he passed. Any man walking around that naked in front of women and little girls today and staring like he did would most assuredly be charged with sexual harassment.

And then someone murmured what everyone was thinking: "Did he not look in the mirror?"

That question still resonates with me to this day. In fact, I remember my own "did he not look in the mirror moment" from my teenage years. 80s style shorts, half shirt, tennis shoes, and those hideous knee-length socks with three red stripes on each one...

The girl I went to meet that night took one look at me and refused to be seen with me.

The apostle James, half brother of Jesus and author of the New Testament book that bears his name, had some thoughts on mirrors as well, specifically the mirror of God's word. In James 1:22-25 he said, "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass (a mirror): For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

James was dealing with people who look into the Bible, the mirror of God's word, see themselves in all of their flaws, and then walk away not making the necessary changes. The Bible, for the child of God, is designed to show us our flaws and help us make the necessary corrections. You see, being saved will get a person to heaven, but for making it through this life we also need something called sanctification. We need to be set apart from sin, to God. Verse twenty-five reminds us that it is the person who looks into the Bible, the "perfect law of liberty," and continues in it, that will end up being blessed. Simply reading it is not enough; we must continue in it, we must abide by what it says, we must make it our authoritative guide for life.

If we do, what kind of life will it produce? Verse twenty-seven answers that question. It says, "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

This verse describes the two aspects of pure religion, and they are not multiple choice. Pure religion, sanctification, consists both of service to others and purity from sin. In other words, a person who visits nursing homes and orphanages and feeds the homeless, and also gets drunk and curses and sleeps with someone to whom they are not married does not have pure religion. On the flip side, a person who never curses, never even drinks, is 100% faithful to his spouse, and yet never serves those in need also does not have pure religion.

Pure religion consists both of holy living and service. Religion is not salvation; but if you are saved, you should be looking into the mirror of God's word and becoming more and more religious, more and more service oriented, more and more set apart from sin, to God.

Take a look in the mirror: what do see?

FAVORITE RECIPES

CINNAMON ROLL CAKE

This made from scratch Cinnamon Roll Cake recipe is the taste of cinnamon buns in a fraction of the time! This cake is absolutely delicious.

Ingredients

- Cake:
3 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup sugar
4 tsp baking powder
1 1/2 cup milk
2 eggs
2 tsp vanilla
1/2 cup unsalted butter, melted

- Cinnamon Swirl Topping:
3/4 cup unsalted butter, very soft (almost melted)
1 cup light brown sugar
2 Tbsp all-purpose flour
2 Tbsp cinnamon

- Glaze:
2 cups powdered sugar
5 tbsp milk
2 tsp vanilla
Instructions

Whisk together the flour, salt, sugar, and baking powder.
Add in the milk, eggs (one at a time) and vanilla to the dry ingredients.
Slowly stir in melted butter and mix until just incorporated.
Pour into a well-greased 9x13 pan.
Mix topping ingredients together with a large spoon (3/4 cup butter softened, brown sugar, flour and cinnamon). Use clean hands if it makes it easier. Drop evenly over cake mixture (basically plopp spoonfuls on top).
Swirl the topping into the cake mixture with a knife going up and down the length of the pan.
Try not to go too deep into the cake with the swirls, but if you do, it will still taste great.
Bake at 350 for 30-35 minutes. Check at 30 and if a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean, it is done. It might take closer to 35 minutes, maybe even a bit longer depending on your oven and how deep you made the swirls.
Whisk ingredients together to make the glaze.
Top cake with the glaze by drizzling it over the cake while it's still slightly warm. Serve immediately for best taste but it's also great once cooled.
Enjoy!
