HOLY SPIRIT, You who solve all problems. You light all roads so that I can obtain my goals. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life, you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you even and in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. Say for three days. After 3 days the favor requested will be granted even if it appears difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after favor is granted without mentioning favor. Thank you Holy Spirit.

Making Family Life More Fun

Planning The Perfect Family Reunion

(NAPSA)—If you are like most people in America, you've probably been to a family reunion.

According to a recent survey by the global independent research company Ipsos, 63 percent of respondents have been to a family reunion, with 29 percent attending a reunion in the past two years.

How We Reunion

- The average length of a family reunion trip is five days and includes eight adults and four children.
- Families' most cherished reunion memories are simply made of "spending time together" (81 percent), followed by group meals (60 percent). In fact, more than half of respondents also said "cooking great food" is the best way to impress the family.
- The top ways to offend family members are "drinking too much" (28 percent), followed closely by "paying too much attention to your phone or tablet" (26 percent) and "being a cheapskate" (15 percent).

One-third of travelers selected a vacation rental as the ideal accommodation for a family reunion. Vacation rentals are generally twice the space at half the cost of a hotel room, and offer vital amenities for families to spend time, cook, eat, play and make lasting memories together all under the same roof.

How To Plan a Reunion

The survey reveals more than half of reunion-goers begin to plan for their family's event six to 12 months in advance. Therefore, Edith Wagner, editor of Reunions magazine and www.reunionsmag.com, says it's never too soon to start organizing your family reunion and offers these five tips to get started:

1. Don't do it alone. Survey the family's skills and talents, and ask for volunteers. Recruit good cooks to cater a picnic, ask teens to set up and maintain web and Facebook pages and ask a financial whiz to be your treasurer.
2. Set a date and stick to it. Check with others to see if there are any calendar conflicts, such as weddings, graduations and trips. Send a save-the-date message as soon as it is set and do not change the date under any circumstances.

3. Location, location, location. Like all things in life, location can make or break a reunion. Any spot where families can go on vacation is also suitable for family reunions, as long as there is space to house the attendees. HomeAway.com offers a "sleeps" sort function where you can select the number of people to accommodate, which can help with trip planning.

4. Make it affordable. When it comes to family reunions, planners need to take into account the ages, abilities, resources and life stages of attendees. Make your choices with all income levels in mind so that the reunion is affordable for everyone.

5. Plan something for everyone...but don't overplan. Know your reunion members and their interests to plan activities that will involve all ages and passions. For example, if golf is important—as it is to 20 percent of reunions—make sure it is on the agenda. That said, remember to include time to just sit, talk, reminisce and be together.

News For Older Americans

Prepare For Long-Term Care

(NAPSA)—As Americans live longer, the prospect of becoming a caregiver or needing one is an undeniable reality. In fact, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services estimates that 70 percent of adults 65 or older will require some form of long-term care ("LTC"). Despite the clear need, the majority of Americans have not taken proactive steps to address care for themselves or their loved ones—but you don't have to be among them.

It's a good idea for a family to plan for long-term care.

Findings from Northwestern Mutual's 2014 Long-Term Care Study revealed that even though three-quarters of individuals agreed that planning is important as longevity increases, just a fraction have spoken to family members about their wishes or discussed their own preferences. Of those who have considered LTC planning, the majority expect to rely on personal savings, which may be unrealistic, as a private room in a U.S. assisted living facility or nursing home can average $38,000 and $90,000 per year, respectively, according to data from Northwestern Mutual's Cost of Long-Term Care Study. Moreover, since AARP research indicates that 87 percent of Americans rely on unpaid or informal caregivers, it is not surprising that more than half of future caregivers in Northwestern Mutual's Long-Term Care Study believe that caregiving will affect their budgets and retirement savings.

dren and elderly relatives, are sacrificing family time and career opportunities while in their professional prime."

The good news is that it is possible to take control of your potential long-term care needs and help ensure clarity for the future in the event of an unexpected illness or condition. To protect income and assets and mitigate the stress and uncertainty that accompany difficult long-term care events, Sperka suggests the following:

• Recognize that you have options. While it is optimal to get a jump start on long-term care planning, there are a range of considerations at various life stages that can be integrated into your financial security planning.

• Have a candid conversation. Long-term care is a challenging topic but understanding your family member's wishes and expectations for care as well as communicating your own is the key to building a sound retirement plan.

• Talk to a financial professional. Do not underestimate the value of expert guidance in navigating complex scenarios and tailoring a strategy that will align with your individual goals, needs and resources.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On March 25, 1774, the British Parliament passes the Boston Port Act, closing the port and demanding that the city's residents pay for the nearly $1 million (in today's dollars) worth of tea dumped into Boston Harbor during the Boston Tea Party of Dec. 16, 1773.

• On March 22, 1894, the first championship ice hockey series for Lord Stanley's Cup is played in Montreal, Canada. Since 1962, only one trophy has been used, making the Stanley Cup the only trophy in major sports that is not reproduced each year.

• On March 19, 1931, in an attempt to lift the state out of the hard times of the Great Depression and stem the drop in population, the Nevada legislature votes to legalize gambling. A year later it legalized divorce.

• On March 24, 1958, Elvis Presley is inducted into the U.S. Army. He had registered for the draft in 1953, but received an education deferment (and missed the end of the Korean War). Later he received another deferment because he was filming the movie "King Creole."

• On March 20, 1965, President Lyndon Johnson notifies Alabama's Gov. George Wallace that he will call up the Alabama National Guard to supervise a planned civil-rights march to protest voting discrimination against Selma's black population.

• On March 21, 1980, President Jimmy Carter informs a group of American athletes that, in response to the December 1979 Soviet incursion into Afghanistan, the United States will boycott the 1980 Olympics in Moscow. It is the only time the U.S. has boycotted the Olympics.

• On March 23, 1999, bestselling author Thomas Harris delivers his 600-page manuscript for his new novel, "Hannibal," to Delacorte press, more than 10 years after he had promised the book. It was his third novel featuring serial killer and cannibal Hannibal Lecter.

Pioneer Hand Mirror

Recycling and reusing is nothing new. Our ancestors had glass, metal and ceramic pieces that were imported, expensive and scarce. So when something broke, it was repaired or saved to be reused. A primitive hand mirror with recycled glass was sold at a Skinner auction in 2016. It was one of many wooden items in a large collection, and prices were high for the one-of-a-kind "make-dos." The mirror, one of nine early mirrors in the auction, had a narrow 12-inch piece of wood for a frame and handle. An irregular piece of a broken mirror less than

The frugal pioneer of the 18th century reused any valuable broken items. This is a hand mirror made from a piece of broken mirror and a piece of wood probably left over from a building project. It sold for $1,700.

3 inches wide was set into the wood. It probably was used by the owner to see his or her face at a time when mirrors were not found in most houses. The end of the handle has a notch, which probably was used to wedge the mirror on a chair back or counter in an upright position. The 18th-century mirror, made in Massachusetts, sold for $1,700.

Q. My mother used to have perfume on her dresser. I have an empty bottle. Is it worth anything?

A. Prince Georges Matchabelli immigrated to the United States from Russia in 1921 with his wife Norina. She was an actress who used the stage name Maria Carmi. They opened an antiques store in New York City and he also made perfume for friends. He started the Prince Matchabelli Perfume Co. in 1926. Norina designed the crown-shape bottle. The first bottles were porcelain, later glass, made in Germany. Georges died in 1935 and the company was sold several times. It became part of Parfums de Coeur in 1993. They kept the crown as the bottle stopper. The bottle price depends on size, condition including label, and if there is perfume in it. It could be worth $50 to $550.

The Right Contractor:
 Key To Successful Paving Project

(NAPSA)—Concrete paver patios, walkways, driveways and pool decks, as well as outdoor fire pits and kitchens, can improve your family's quality of life now and enhance your home's curb appeal when the time comes to sell.

Choosing the right contractor, however, can make or break your project. Interlocking concrete pavement systems are best built by professional contractors specializing in segmental pavement construction. Their training and experience, accompanied by the right equipment and materials, enable them to complete high-quality jobs quickly and safely.

How To Find A Quality Contractor
 The Interlocking Concrete Pavement Institute (ICPI) is the trade association representing the concrete paver industry in the U.S. and Canada. ICPI member contractors support installation best practices. In addition, many ICPI member contractors employ ICPI Certified Concrete Paver Installers. These installers have participated in a training course, passed an examination, learned best installation practices, and documented their concrete paver installation work experience. Certified Installers are required to renew their certification every two years by continuing their education in concrete paver installation. The certification program is designed to help homeowners choose contractors who have Certified Installers on their staff and are committed to:

- Providing qualified project references
- Using best installation practices
- Creating value for clients.

Homeowners can find these contractors on the free Contractor Member Search Engine at www.concretepavers.org. A search engine on that website can verify the installer's certification status.

What To Ask
 To further ensure a quality installation, homeowners should ask contractors 10 questions:

Having pavers put in by a Certified Installer is a big step in the right direction for your home.

1. How long have you been installing pavers?
  2. Do you have ICPI Certified Installers?
  3. What percentage of your total business consists of installing concrete pavers?
  4. Do you have references from recent and past concrete paver projects?
  5. Do you have a portfolio of photos and letters about previous projects?
  6. Can you provide proof of liability insurance and Workers' Compensation insurance? (Homeowners should check their homeowners insurance policy for coverage of the contractor while on the property.)
  7. Will you install the job per ICPI guidelines?
  8. Will you provide a written, itemized proposal outlining the scope of work and terms of payment? It should include start and completion dates (weather permitting), demolition and excavation, base and paving materials, thickness and installation, plus taxes.
  9. Do you guarantee the work for at least a year and will you return to inspect and make any needed adjustments?
  10. Do you belong to the ICPI, Better Business Bureau or other associations?
- Learn More
 Homeowners and contractors interested in learning more about ICPI Certification should visit the Education & Certification section of www.concretepavers.org.

Four Steps Toward Getting Your Mower Set For The Season

(NAPSA)—April is National Lawn Care Month. It's a great time to celebrate the beginning of warmer weather and the beauty of your outdoor landscape. And what better way to observe National Lawn Care Month than by getting your lawn mower ready for the season?

A tune up is much easier than you might suspect and a great way to ensure that your lawn mower is ready to perform all spring and summer. To help out, Briggs & Stratton has put together a handy infographic to guide you through a 4-step Mower Tune Up.

Still unsure? Briggs & Stratton has videos to show you how to tune up your riding mower at <http://bit.ly/ridingmowertuneup> and your push mower at <http://bit.ly/pushmowertuneup>.

4-STEP MOWER TUNE UP

1. Change the mower oil
2. Replace the spark plug
3. Clean or replace the air filter
4. Treat your fuel

HOW TO REPLACE THE SPARK PLUG

- i. Disconnect the spark plug lead and clean area around it.
- ii. Remove the old spark plug using a socket wrench.
- iii. Install your new plug, then attach the spark plug lead. CAUTION: DO NOT OVER TIGHTEN

HOW TO CLEAN OR REPLACE YOUR AIR FILTER

- i. Determine what type you have (paper or foam).
- ii. Check operator's manual to determine if air filter pre-cleaner is required. Follow manual instructions to complete.

FILL YOUR CAN, TREAT YOUR FUEL

Gas can go stale in as little as 30 days, add a fuel treatment and stabilizer to keep the gas fresh and protect your engine.

HOW TO CHANGE THE MOWER OIL

- i. Lay down newspapers.
- ii. Disconnect spark plug wire and secure away from plug.
- iii. Clean the oil fill cap, dipstick tube or drain plug with a cloth.

DRAIN THE OIL

- i. For fill cap or dipstick tube: tilt mower so air filter or spark plug is up top and pour oil into pan.
- ii. Drain plug: Put mower on circular blocks or another stable area to ensure plug and let oil drain into pan.
- iii. Add new oil to dipstick's fill line. CAUTION: DO NOT OVERFILL. Then recycle old oil properly.

Homeowners Plan To Save By Making Their Homes More Energy Efficient

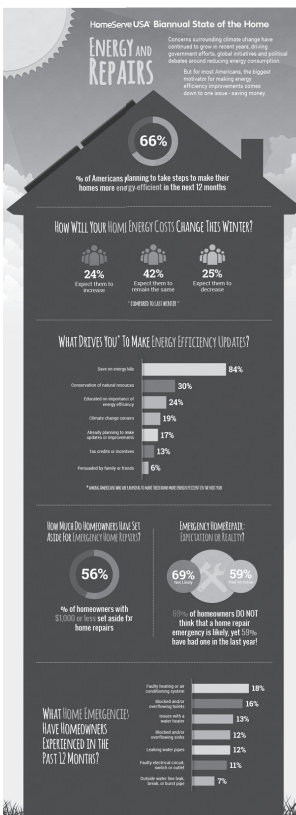

(NAPSA)—According to a recent Harris Poll, two out of three Americans plan to make their home more energy efficient in the next year. For 84 percent of them, the biggest motivator is the money they hope to save.

Further Findings
• Warm welcome. The survey also found that more than two in five Americans expected their winter home energy costs to stay the same compared to last winter, while a quarter expected costs to decrease. One reason may be that warmer global temperatures and a significant decrease in natural gas and oil prices have led Americans to be less concerned about heating costs.

• Emergency fund fail. The survey also found that 23 percent of homeowners have no savings set aside to cover the cost of an emergency home repair. Of those homeowners who do have money set aside, 43 percent have $1,000 or less. This can be cause for concern, considering the disparity between reality and expectations of homeowners on matters of emergency home repairs. Sixty-nine percent of homeowners thought it unlikely they would experience a major home repair emergency in the next 12 months—but more than half reported having experienced one in the last 12 months.

Expert Advice
“We find that many homeowners are still unaware that certain repairs aren’t covered by basic homeowner’s insurance, which leaves them susceptible to the high costs of emergency home repairs they never expected and often can’t afford,” explained Tom Rusin, CEO of HomeServe USA.

Fortunately, HomeServe provides affordable, reliable solutions for homeowners to help them avoid absorbing extra expenses. HomeServe protects homeowners against the expense and inconvenience of water, sewer, electrical, HVAC and other home emergencies by providing affordable coverage and quality local service.

Experts advise homeowners to be more prepared for emergency repairs; survey shows lack of preparedness.
The HomeServe Biannual State of the Home Survey is a report on the financial effect of home repairs and energy use facing American homeowners.

Top Three Auto Repair Red Flags

(NAPSA)—Finding an auto repair shop you can trust can be a challenge. Here are three warning signs to watch for on your next trip to the mechanic.

- While no one likes to be overcharged, beware of estimates that are well under market rate. This can be a sign the mechanic is using low-quality or even used parts. Some mechanics use low-ball estimates to lure you in for additional repairs that they will tack on later.

RepairPal.com provides drivers with referrals to certified mechanics who do quality work at fair prices with no hidden fees.

RepairPal also provides car owners with a tool that brings transparency to repair costs—the RepairPrice Estimator. Cited as a resource by Consumer Reports, AOL Autos and Cars.com, this patented calculator generates fair price quotes based on the user's automobile, location, and the service requested. All mechanics in the RepairPal Certified shop network honor these estimates to give consumers peace of mind that they'll never be overcharged.

Just For Fun: What Mayonnaise Reveals About You

(NAPSA)—Here's a tip for your next picnic: Don't hold the mayonnaise. In addition to having a great taste, this popular condiment is a health-friendly product you can bring to just about any event.

What Your Favorite Spread Says About You

More food for thought: Mayonnaise may even reveal something about your personality. A survey conducted by Synovate reveals some interesting facts about mayonnaise devotees.

For instance:

• Half of respondents who named mayonnaise as their favorite condiment are less likely to be competitive, athletic or risk takers, while the other half rated themselves as the most ambitious of all condiment devotees.

• Mayonnaise buffs are also equally split between being social butterflies and leisure lovers.

• 25 percent of those surveyed used mayonnaise more often than any other condiment.

• Overall, mayonnaise devotees represent a wide range of interesting people who enjoy adding its great flavor to foods like salads, sandwiches and more.

They may be glad to know that with so many varieties available, mayonnaise can be part of a well-balanced diet, meeting anyone's dietary needs, according to the experts at the Association for Dressings & Sauces, an international trade association representing mayonnaise, salad dressing, and condiment sauce manufacturers and suppliers to this industry.

Dietary Guidelines

The 2010 Dietary Guidelines for Americans recommends increased use of oils to replace solid fats, where possible. Mayonnaise was highlighted as a food that contains oil. Mayonnaise is made with healthy oils such as soybean, canola and olive. In addition, mayonnaise is free of trans fat.

***
Peanut butter is a good source of protein, vitamin E, magnesium and niacin. It's recommended to choose a natural variety with no hydrogenated or partially hydrogenated oils. Smart Balance® Rich Roast peanut butters are a good choice.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) With your practical side dominant this week, it's a good time to reassess your finances to see what expenses you can cut. Aspects also favor mending fraying relationships.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your Bovine-inspired determination to follow matters through from beginning to end pays off in a big way. Enjoy a well-earned weekend of fun with a special someone.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Aspects favor re-establishing business relationships you might have neglected. A family member's request needs to be given more thought before you make a decision.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) While you might appreciate the avalanche of advice coming from others, keep in mind that the intuitive Moon Child is best served by listening to her or his own inner voice.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Lion's social life whirls at centrifugal speed this week as you go from function to function. Things slow by week's end, giving you a chance to catch up on your chores.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Don't let your stand on an issue cause a rift with a colleague. Insist on both of you taking time to reassess your positions while there's still room for compromise.
