Two nicely dressed ladies happened to start up a conversation during an endless wait in the Los Angeles airport.

The first lady was an arrogant Californian woman married to a wealthy man.

The second was a well-mannered, elderly woman from the South.

When the conversation centered on whether they had any children, the California woman started by saying, "When my first child was born, my husband built a beautiful mansion for me."

The lady from the South commented, "Well, bless your heart."

The first woman continued, "When my second child was born, my husband bought me a beautiful Mercedes-Benz".

Again, the lady from the South commented, "Well, bless your heart."

The first woman continued, "Then, when my third child was born, my husband bought me this exquisite diamond bracelet."

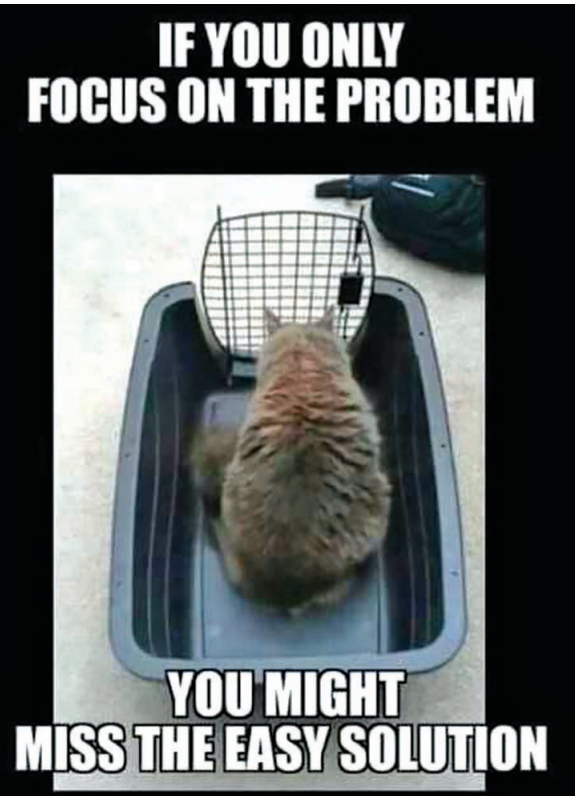

Yet again, the Southern lady commented, "Well, bless your heart."

The first woman then asked her companion, "What did your husband buy for you when you had your first child?"

"My husband sent me to Charm School," declared the Southern lady.

"Charm School?" the first woman said, amazed. "Oh, my God! What on earth for?"

The Southern lady responded, "Well for example, instead of saying, "Who gives a &^&^?" I learned to say, "Well, bless your heart."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) With your practical side dominant this week, it's a good time to reassess your finances to see what expenses you can cut. Aspects also favor mending fraying relationships.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your Bovine-inspired determination to follow matters through from beginning to end pays off in a big way. Enjoy a well-earned weekend of fun with a special someone.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Aspects favor re-establishing business relationships you might have neglected. A family member's request needs to be given more thought before you make a decision.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) While you might appreciate the avalanche of advice coming from others, keep in mind that the intuitive Moon Child is best served by listening to her or his own inner voice.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Lion's social life whirls at centrifugal speed this week as you go from function to function. Things slow by week's end, giving you a chance to catch up on your chores.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Don't let your stand on an issue cause a rift with a colleague. Insist on both of you taking time to reassess your positions while there's still room for compromise.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) An opportunity you'd been hoping for finally opens up. But read the fine print before you make a commitment, especially where a time factor might be involved.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your need to know what's going on behind the scenes leads you to make some bold moves. Be prepared with a full explanation of your actions if necessary.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A lot of details need tending to during the early part of the week. The pressure eases midweek, allowing you to get back to your major undertaking.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A friend asks you to act on their behalf in a dispute. Be careful. You might not have all the facts you need in order to make a fair assessment of the situation.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A new development might require you to cancel some of your plans. But you adapt easily, and by week's end, you could receive welcome “cheering-up” news.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your recent workplace accomplishments boost your self-confidence just as you're about to consider a potentially rewarding, although possibly risky, career move.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your love of the arts is equaled only by your strong sense of justice. People can depend on you to always try to do what's right.

Plan Now for Your Discount Getaway

Some of us are still shoveling snow, but soon it will be time for spring or summer vacation. The time to think about it is now, before all the slots are gone.
If you were injured in combat, Vacations for Warriors can hook you up with a whole vacation package. It uses donated money, hotel points, timeshares and more. Go online to www.vacationsforwarriors.org and scroll down for the eligibility qualifications and selection process. You'll need to fill out the application, but if you're chosen, you can have a great vacation. If in doubt, check the Gallery.
If you're a wounded warrior and can get yourself and your family to Orlando, Florida, the Wounded Warrior Family Support group will provide you six nights (free) at Bahama Bay Resort. You'll get passes to Sea World, LegoLand and more. Website photos show a pretty posh place, with pool, fitness, spa, salon, maid service, kids' game room and much more. There's a three- to four-month advance notice requirement, so don't delay. Go online to www.wwfs.org.
Veterans Holidays offers fancy condos for only $50 a night on a weekly basis ($349). Pick from 100 countries, and stay Space-A. To be eligible, sign up for a free membership at www.veteransholidays.com. Click on the menu and look through the options. For more perks, consider the premium membership, which gets you short-stay options, last-minute options and more. That upgraded membership will set you back $119 a year, however.
Check Military Cruise Deals (www.militarycruisedeals.com), owned by a military family, for vacation deals. They claim to beat prices offered by the big online travel sites.
For calming PTSD retreats, see Veterans Freedom Retreat (www.veteransfreedomretreat.org). For retreats for women, caregivers, kids, PTSD and more in Massachusetts, see Project New Hope, www.projectnewhopema.org.
Again, don't delay if you want to make plans.

The Chauffeur

A renowned philosopher was held in high regard by his chauffeur, who listened in awe at every speech while his boss would easily answer questions about morality and ethics.

Then one day the chauffeur approached the philosopher and asked if he was willing to switch roles for the evening's lecture. The philosopher agreed and, for a while, the chauffeur handled himself remarkably well. When it came time for questions from the guests, a woman in the back asked, "Is the epistemological view of the universe still valid in an existentialist world?"

"That is an extremely simple question," he responded. "So simple, in fact, that even my driver could answer that, which is exactly what he will do."

KOVELS® Antiques & Collecting

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Indian Toy Cradle

Many American Indian tribes almost lost their culture by the 1960s because of 19th- and early 20th-century U.S government rules. American Indians could be removed from their land, resettled on reservations and even have their children sent to special boarding schools to be taught a new way of life.

This is an Indian-style beaded cradle, but it holds a European doll. It was made about 1900 at an Indian boarding school and sold for $11,070.

The children were punished if they continued to practice their ceremonies or speak their native language. Children from the Potawatomi tribe went to either a boys' or girls' boarding school, where they learned English and a trade. The American Indian Religious Freedom Act passed in the 1970s led to the end of the boarding schools and the beginning of efforts to bring back the Indian culture.

A recent auction sold a toy Indian cradle decorated with beads and silver buttons, but holding a European porcelain-headed doll. It was made by Millie R. Hall, who lived at a Potawatomi boarding school in 1900, an important historic source for a handmade doll. It sold for $11,070.

Q: I'd like to know the value of a violin that is about 100 years old. The inscription inside reads "Copy of Antonius Stradivarius, made in Czechoslovakia." What is it worth?

A: Antonio Stradivari (1644-1737) made violins, violas, cellos and other stringed instruments at his workshop in Cremona, Italy. Fewer than 600 of the original Stradivarius violins still are in existence, and they sell for several million dollars each. Thousands of copies have been made and don't sell for high prices. Your violin was made after 1918, when Czechoslovakia was created. Recently, a violin like yours that included the case sold for $57.

Q: I have a brass tea set that has sat unused for many years. Should I polish it or leave the natural patina?

A: You should polish your brass tea set with a commercial brass polish. If it's heavily tarnished or corroded, take it to a professional. Some brass has been lacquered to prevent tarnish and should not be polished. Polishing damages the lacquer. If the lacquer is peeling, you should go to a professional restorer.

CURRENT PRICES

Button, animal rescue league, Boston, Mass., dog photo, tin lithograph, blue and gold, pinback, 1930s, 1-inch diameter, $25.

Musical instrument, temple drum, ritual, wood with yak skin, double leather, symbols, forged nails, Tibet, c. 1905, 7 x 23 inches, $450.

Button, plique-a-jour enamel glass, green and white, silver dome frame, mistletoe design, openwork, 1800s, 1 1/2-inch diameter, $2,525.

TIP: Nineteenth-century Indian blankets generally are not restored by museums. They are stabilized, mounted on a backing fabric to prevent further damage, and hung or framed. It is thought that even the dirt may be wanted in original state in the future.

PIEDMONT PETS

March 8, 2018
By Paulette Dean

The law in Virginia is very specific about what someone must do when they find a stray animal. 3.2-6551 requires that anyone who finds a companion animal and confines it to keep it safe must, within 48 hours, notify the public shelter in the locality where the animal was found.

The person who has found the animal must also provide the same adequate care that is required by owners.

We realize that it would be so tempting to keep a stray animal as your own, especially if the dog or cat is in good condition and is very cute. However, owners must be given the opportunity to find their lost pet. The finder is also not permitted to just give the animal to someone else. Both the keeping and the giving away of a stray animal could be considered theft, and dog theft is a felony in Virginia.

If you find a lost animal, the best thing to do is to take it to the local public shelter. That is where most owners searching for a lost pet would go to check for the beloved companion. The shelter will keep the animal the required stray time. During that stray period, the finder could still post pictures on social media to help spread the word that the animal has been found and is safely in the shelter. After the stray time is fulfilled, the animal becomes the property of the shelter and can be adopted. That way, even if an owner comes forward later, the adoption is still valid.

In 2017, 110 public shelters in Virginia received 139,429 animals. Of those, 24,230 were returned to the owners. Fifty private shelters during that same time received 47,544 animals and returned 584 to the owners. There were 231 home-based rescue groups who filed a report; they received 45,753 animals and only returned 134 to the owners.

If anyone finds a lost pet, the best thing to do is to take the animal to the public shelter. The animal can receive the needed help; if the owner has been abusive, the public shelter staff can also take care of that issue legally. If an owner does not come forward, a legal adoption can take place.

HOLLYWOOD

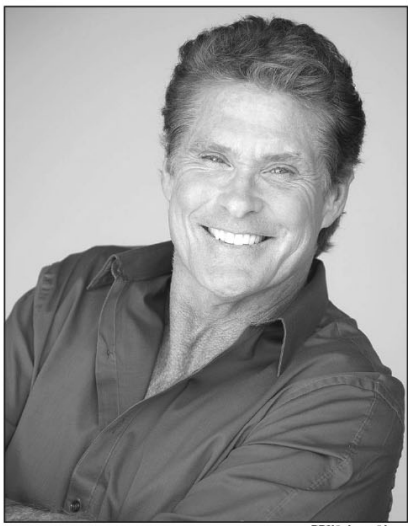

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Harrison Ford and Dr. Phil McGraw say they've come up with a pill they claim is better than Viagra for putting lead in a man's pencil. When Ford recently appeared on Dr. Phil's talk show, he told men how they can be as virile as Indiana Jones. Their pill is Vrdhigra, and they claim it's better than anything out there for erectile dysfunction. Harrison says it's a blend of horny goat, Korean ginseng, potency wood (that sounds like they're kidding!) and other Chinese herbs, but it's their patented TRTT technology that makes these ingredients 185 times greater, and even GQ magazine recommends it.

"Paddington 2" director Paul King is set to "reimagine" "Charlie & the Chocolate Factory." The original, "Willy Wonka" (1971), with Gene Wilder, cost $3 million but grossed only $4 million. It was remade as "Charlie & the Chocolate Factory" (2005), with Johnny Depp, which did better, costing $150 million and grossing $475 million. Also being "reimagined," by current "Shape of Water" director and Oscar-nominee Guillermo del Toro, is "The Cat in the Hat" (2003), which starred Mike Myers.

Bette Midler has completed her record-breaking Broadway run in "Hello Dolly" and now is shooting "The Tale of the Allergists Wife." Bette plays an upper-middle-class Westsider in the midst of a midlife crisis when her glamorous jet-setting friend, Sharon Stone, arrives to change her life forever.

Sorry to report the loss of my longtime friend and legendary Hollywood publicist Ron Scott. Among the people he discovered and helped make famous were David Hasselhoff, Richard Dean Anderson, John Stamos, Mario Lopez and Jason Bateman. He also launched the popular soap

"The Bold and the Beautiful," handling all 30 castmembers. Scott discovered the E Channel's "Hollywood Medium," Tyler Henry, and gave up all other clients to concentrate on him. As a result, Tyler is in his third season on E, has a bestselling book from Simon & Schuster and has been a sell-out at numerous Indian casinos.

Ron once arranged for a helicopter to lower a flying saucer atop the Capital Records building and have Ringo Starr step out for his "Goodnight Vienna" album. He's the last of the old-time publicity-stunt Hollywood publicists.

And speaking of David Hasselhoff, he'll star in the full-length sequel to the short "Kung Fury" (which he appeared in), with two-time Oscar-nominee Michael Fassbender. "Kung Fury" is the head of the ultimate police force and must travel through space and time to save his friends and defeat evil. These days with a sports car in orbit around the Sun, anything's possible!

City modifies policies for equal payment plan

Danville Utilities has put in place policy changes that will allow more residential and small general service commercial utility customers to enroll in the equal payment plan. The changes are effective immediately.

With the changes, which on Monday received the support of the Danville Utility Commission, customers no longer will be required to have a zero balance before they can enroll.

In addition, customers will be allowed to enroll even if they do not have a good payment record for their most recent six-month payment history.

“Customers in our service area opened their bills this winter and were shocked at just how much they owed,” City Manager Ken Larking said Tuesday. “The reactions were understandable. No one wants to see his or her utility bill increase. We want our customers to be aware that we offer an option with our equal payment plan, and the policy changes in place now will make that option available to more customers.”

The equal payment plan is a pre-authorized payment plan that makes it easier to budget household utility expenses. The plan allows customers to pay equal monthly amounts and avoid seasonal spikes such as the one they have experienced this winter when prolonged and severe cold in December and January led to sharply higher energy consumption for heating.

“With this plan, there is no more bill shock,” Larking said. “You avoid any seasonal spike in your bill, keeping your budget intact and your mind at ease.”

The monthly payment is determined by averaging a customer’s most recent 12-month bill history, including previous balance and applicable utility taxes. After the first year with the equal pay plan, the monthly amount will be re-calculated based on the customer’s most recent 12-month usage history.

Utilities Director Jason Grey said customers who use the equal payment plan continue to receive a monthly statement showing actual energy usage and charges, but pay only the fixed equal pay amount as shown on the statement.

For more information or to enroll, call the Danville Utilities’ customer service office at 434-799-5155.

In addition to the equal payment plan, Danville Utilities offers HomeSave, a rebate program that offers cash rebates to customers who purchase qualifying new energy efficient upgrades for their home.

After the purchase, customers can obtain the rebate by filling out the HomeSave application, then sending the application – along with required proof of purchase documentation – to Danville Utilities by mail, fax or email. A check will be mailed upon approval.

“Remember, the lowest cost kilowatt-hour is the one that is never used,” Grey said.

Rebates are offered on qualifying central air conditioners, heat pumps, HVAC tune-ups, attic insulation, wall insulation, floor insulation, crawlspace insulation, Energy star windows and smart thermostats.

For more details, visit www.danvillehomesave.com. In addition, a rebate program hotline is available. The phone number is 888-599-0450.

Danville Utilities provides natural gas, water, wastewater and telecommunications services in Danville and distributes electricity to approximately 42,000 customer locations in a 500-square-mile service territory covering Danville, the southern third of Pittsylvania County, and small portions of Henry and Halifax counties.

Mt. Hermon Event

On February 19th Joe Nicholson led an event with our littles along with other members of the Willing Servants Sunday School class of Mt. Hermon Baptist Church. Joe taught the children a lesson and helped them with a fun activity. There was a feast of spaghetti, salad, and deserts. The youth enjoyed basketball and relay racing games. During each event the Willing Servants never forget to sing Happy Birthday to any littles that may have celebrated a birthday in that month. For more information, please call Pat Daniel (434)792-3700 Ext. 234.

A Healthy Family Lifestyle Study

Researchers at the University of Virginia invite all interested families of children ages 8 to 12 to join a healthy lifestyle study that is part of a team effort between Danville Parks and Recreation, Children’s Healthcare Center and the University of Virginia. With a flip of a coin, you will be randomized into one of these programs: Family Connections or iChoose.

The purpose of the study is to compare two childhood obesity treatment programs to see which one is the best fit for your community. The study includes free health screenings, small group healthy living classes and telephone support calls. Families will receive $300 in gift cards for participating in the study. Primary Investigator: Dr. Jamie Zoellner (IRB #19748).

To learn more about the study and see if you qualify, please call Danielle Montague at 434.799.5150.

Danville Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Jabberwock 2018

DANVILLE, VA — Using the theme, “Abundant Blessings: Embracing Our Legacy,” the Danville Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. recently hosted a Jabberwock 2018 pageant, which included a gala evening of music, dance, and dramatic presentations. The event culminated with the crowning of Pittsylvania County teen Courtney Gore as “Miss Jabberwock.”

Gore, the daughter of Elizabeth Gore and niece of Curtis and Mary Gore of Dry Fork, also was named Miss Participation. She is a junior at Booker T. Washington SCORE Center in Reidsville, NC, and plans to attend Danville Community College and Winston Salem State University. Gore will major in computer programming.

First runner up was Gretna High School sophomore Jocelyn Lipford. She is the daughter of Sophia Lipford and Jamara Lipford. After high school, Lipford plans to further her education by majoring in psychology at the University of Florida or the University of Georgia.

Second runner up was Cue’Bion Jones, daughter of Monica Ballou and Gary Jones. She was also named Miss Fundraiser. Jones is a recent graduate of Langston Focus School and currently attends Danville Community College. Cue’Bion plans a career as a lawyer.

Other awards were given to:

- Trinity Green, daughter of Royce Green and a junior at Galileo High School. was named Miss Congeniality and Miss Above and Beyond. She plans to attend the University of Central Florida with the ultimate goal of becoming a pediatrician.
- JaMiya Guy, daughter of Angela Guy and a freshman at Chatham High School, was named Miss Creativity. After high school, Guy plans to attend Emory University with a goal of becoming a pediatrician.
- A’Nyeja Adams, daughter of Samuel and Karen Adams was awarded a Certificate of Participation. She is a senior at Dan River High School where she participates in track and field and is a fourth-year art student. Her art has been on exhibit in area galleries. She plans to attend Randolph College in fall 2018 on an art scholarship. Adams aspires to be a graphic artist.
- Armone’ Redd, daughter of LaTisha Royal and LaTron Redd, also was awarded a Certificate of Participation. She is a freshman at Chatham High School where she participates as a junior varsity cheerleader and as a member of the Senior Beta Club and the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. She aspires to study medicine at Georgia State University with the goal of becoming a pediatric dentist.

The Jabberwock participants have spent the last nine months engaged in activities that encourage growth in the areas of life skills, goal setting, health and wellness, and commitment to themselves, family, and the community. The word “Jabberwock”, copyrighted by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. was taken from Lewis Carroll’s tale, Alice’s Adventures in Wonderland. In the poem, “Jabberwocky,” it was customary for creatures throughout the kingdom to gather annually to present a gala pageant. First held in 1925 in Boston, the Jabberwock is a cultural and fundraising activity for local scholarships and other public service programs of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Covenant Reformed Baptist Church celebrates 10 years

On Sunday, March 4, Covenant Reformed Baptist Church celebrated 10 years of existence. The Danville area’s only “Reformed” church was founded on the first Sunday in March 2008 to be committed to the principles of the Protestant Reformation (which just celebrated its 500 anniversary last October 31), inter-racial and evangelistically active. The pastor, John B. Carpenter, Ph.D., marked the occasion by recalling how Covenant renovated the Providence gym, just 3.5 miles south of Danville, for use in its ministries. The church had a celebratory meal together after the service.

Guest Speaker Proposes Using Perceived Weaknesses as Strengths

Motivational speaker Nicole Conaway poses with Danville Community College’s student success coaches after delivering an impassioned presentation in Oliver Hall on Tuesday, February 27, which posed an unusual solution for facing life’s problems: “Transform your roadblocks and use them as stepping stones.” During the presentation, which is part of Conaway’s Learn, Live, Love to Be Different (L2BD) Tour, she asked the audience to write down their biggest obstacles to achievement on yellow pieces of paper. Conaway then read the obstacles aloud, which included body issues, laziness, challenges associated with living in a broken home, worries about raising children properly, sadness, and fear. “This unifies us,” she said. “Whenever you encounter these obstacles, now you know you are not alone.” Conaway encouraged the crowd to identify and remove negative figures from their lives: “If you are not surrounded by people who help build you up, then you need to cut ties from the people who bring you down and don’t want to see you succeed,” she urged. Pictured, from left, are Julie Owen, Emily Tobin, Nicole Conaway, Fredrick Betts, and Erin Schlauch. “Don’t Muzzle The Ox”

Both in person and online, I have quite often encountered an annoying sort of person with an unbiblical, illogical opinion that pastors should quite literally work full time for free. Mind you, I do not encounter this at all at my church; my people actually read and study their Bibles. Facebook is a hotbed of that sentiment, though, as are some other places and forums.

One of my members approached me recently about this topic. She had been confronted by a relative who spouted that opinion. She wisely asked him a few questions. “Who do you expect to sit with you in the hospital while you are having surgery? Who do you expect to do months of marriage counseling with you when your home is in trouble? Who do you expect to spend twenty or thirty hours a week studying and preparing for messages?”

There were some that I could have added, such as “who do you expect to interrupt his vacation and drive home to preach the funeral of a family member? Who do you expect to perform weddings, do baptisms, pursue those who start missing church, knock on doors to win souls, take phone calls from hurting people at all hours of the night, be in the church office available for all comers nearly every day of the week, and, in my personal case, physically build the church buildings, do all of the electrical work, all of the maintenance, all of the plumbing, and for the first eighteen years of the church until we got big enough to hire help do all of the cleaning on the inside and lawn work on the outside?”

Paul the apostle dealt effectively and thoroughly dealt with this foolish type of individual in the very first generation of the church. In 1 Corinthians chapter nine, he had encountered that exact type of mentality. In verses six through eleven he said, “Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working [a secular job]? Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal [monetary, fleshly] things?”

As I said above, I am truly, thoroughly blessed in this. I have rarely ever worked less than 60 hours a week, and my church treats me very well for so doing. I know, though, that many other ministers are not in quite that same situation.

My father-in-law preached a revival at a church that boasted of having more than a million dollars in the bank. Their full-time pastor, who worked himself to a frazzle, was paid at less than poverty level. He drove a thirty year old vehicle with bald tires. When my father-in-law got done raking the deacons over the coals for their dereliction of duty, they cancelled the rest of the meeting. In another meeting, the pastor asked to take the evangelist out to dinner after the service. The evangelist was tired, and said, “No thank you, I will just go back to the hotel.” The pastor, with tears welling up in his eyes, said, “Please, let me take you out. My wife and I have no groceries, and if I take you out, my wife and I will be allowed to have the church take care of our meal as well.”

For every ridiculous extreme on the utterly unbiblical “prosperity gospel” end of the spectrum, every Gulf Stream jet owning, Rolex wearing, Bentley driving, flock-fleeing charlatan, there are a multitude on the other utterly unbiblical end of the spectrum; ministers of churches who could afford to pay them well who are instead expected to be on call 24 hours a day, for free, while somehow also working full-time secular jobs to put food on the table.

Using Paul’s analogy, no farmer with any shred of decency would even treat a plow animal so poorly. If your church does, I say this without apology:

Shame on you.

Zooe Deschanel

Q:It seems like forever since I’ve seen a new “New Girl.” It hasn’t been canceled, has it? — Marianne K., via email

A:of “New Girl” — which stars Zooey Deschanel, Jake Johnson, Max Greenfield, Hannah Simone and Lamorne Morris — will return to FOX on Tuesday, April 10, at 9:30/8:30c with eight new episodes. The hourlong series finale will air May 15 at 9/8c.

Season seven takes place four years after we last saw the crew, with Jess and Nick returning from a European book tour and thinking about marriage. This is complicated by the fact that Jess accepts a job working for ex-boyfriend Russell Shiller, with Dermot Mulroney reprising his role. Other new developments: Cece and Schmidt have a 3-year-old daughter; Winston and Aly are married and expecting their first child; and Damon Wayans Jr., David Walton, Nelson Franklin, Sam Richardson, Jamie Lee Curtis and Rob Reiner all are set to return with guest appearances.

Q:I’ve really enjoyed watching the live musicals that different networks have put on throughout the years, such as “Grease,” “Hairspray” and “Dirty Dancing.” Can you tell me when or if someone will do another one? — Reggie D. in Massachusetts

A:Just in time for Easter Sunday is “Jesus Christ Superstar Live!” NBC will air this musical opus on April 1 (no fooling!), and the show will star R&B star John Legend as Jesus, singer-songwriter Sara Bareilles as Mary Magdalene and rock legend Alice Cooper as King Herod. “Superstar” composer Andrew Lloyd Webber and lyricist Tim Rice will executive produce, and Alex Rudzinski, who directed the Emmy Award-winning television version of “Grease,” will direct.

Q:I loved the actress who played Jackie Kennedy in “The Crown.” Can you tell me what else I can see her in? — Gina R., via email

A:South African film and television actress Jodi Balfour absolutely nailed her role as one of America’s most loved and iconic first ladies. She will star in the British crime thriller “Rellik” (which is “killer” spelled backward), premiering April 13 on Cinemax. The series, which also stars “Game of Thrones” alum Richard Dormer, chronicles the hunt for a serial killer, but in reverse — hence the backward title.

CORRECTION: This is when I admit I am human and actually make mistakes (!), but only once in a blue moon. A couple of weeks ago, I highlighted French-Canadian actress Evelyn Brochu and her new series on Ovation called “X Company.” The series is loosely based on a true story and centers on the recruits from Camp X, the real-life first-known spy agency, which worked covertly for Allied interests during World War II. Anyway, I stated that the show airs Wednesday nights on Ovation, and it actually airs Mondays at 10 p.m. ET. Please forgive the error, and be sure to watch this exciting new show.

Write to Cindy at King Features Weekly Service, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803; or e-mail her at letters@cindyelavsky.com.

By Samantha Weaver

* It was English theologian Edwin Abbott Abbott who made the following sage observation: "Men are divided in opinion as to the facts. And even granting the facts, they explain them in different ways."

* You may be surprised to learn that hot and cold running water has been around for thousands of years. Members of the upper class in ancient Egypt used copper tubing to pipe it into their homes.

* If you take a close look at New Hampshire's Constitution Bill of Rights, you'll find "the right of revolution" enshrined therein.

* GPS is a powerful tool that has changed the way we navigate the world. Of course, it's not without its problems. Take, for instance, the case of the 23-year-old Canadian woman driving through the Ontario town of Tobermory. She was a stranger there, so -- as most of us would -- she was using her GPS. Evidently, she was so intent on following the directions provided to her that she wasn't paying attention to where those directions were taking her -- that is, until she ended up in Georgian Bay. She made it to shore safely, but her car didn't.

* It seems that artist Leonardo da Vinci pioneered the paint-by-numbers style of art. He would sketch a piece, then number certain sections for his assistants to paint.

* Before the middle of the 18th century, it was not unusual for members of a play's audience to be seated onstage, just a few feet from the performance. If viewers thought an actor's performance was particularly bad, they might even try to bump the performer off the stage.

Thought for the Day: "It's splendid to be a great writer, to put men into the frying pan of your imagination and make them pop like chestnuts." -- Gustave Flaubert

FAVORITE RECIPES

CROCK POT CHEESY CHICKEN & POTATOES

Ingredients (Serves:6)

- 4-5 boneless chicken breasts (approx 1.25-2 lbs)
- 1 lb gold Yukon potatoes, cut into pieces
- 1-10 oz can of cream of chicken soup
- 1/3 cup chicken broth
- 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
- 1 TBSP Worcestershire sauce
- 1 cup raw baby carrots
- salt/pepper, to taste preference

Instructions

Place potatoes in bottom of crock pot. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, to your taste preference. Place chicken and carrots on top of potatoes. In a small bowl, whisk together soup and chicken broth until smooth. Cover and cook on low for 5-6 hours. Remove chicken, potatoes and carrots with a slotted spoon (leaving liquid in pot) and place in a serving dish. Turn crock pot on high and stir in cheddar cheese and Worcestershire sauce. Cook until cheese is completely melted and mixture is smooth (about 10-15 minutes) Spoon cheese sauce over chicken and potatoes before serving.

Spring garden prep

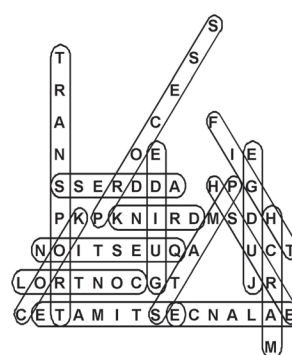

As day lengths increase, plants begin new growth. Repot rootbound plants, moving them to containers 2 inches larger in diameter than their current pot. Check for insect activity and apply controls as needed. Leggy plants may be pruned now. Summer and fall blooming perennials should be divided in spring.
