All I Need to Know About Life I Learned from the Easter Bunny

Don't put all of your eggs in one basket.

Walk softly and carry a big carrot.

Everyone needs a friend who is all ears.

There's no such thing as too much candy.

All work and no play can make you a basket case.

A cute little tail attracts a lot of attention.

Everyone is entitled to a bad hare day.

Let happy thoughts multiply like rabbits.

Some body parts should be floppy.

Keep your paws off other people's jellybeans.

The grass is always greener in someone else's basket.

To show your true colors you have to come out of your shell.

The best things in life are still sweet and gooey!

A Reason to Rejoice

As we celebrate the miracle of our Savior's resurrection, we'd like to share with you our sincere best wishes for a joyous and blessed Easter season. May the power of His love and sacrifice bring peace, joy and contentment to you and yours.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Be less rigid when handling a relationship problem. You might believe you're in the right, but try to open your mind to the possibilities of facts you're currently not aware of.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Leos and Leonas run at a hectic pace throughout much of the week. But by the weekend, the Lions' Dens become a purrrfect place for you Fine Felines to relax in.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Change is favored early in the week. This should make it easier for you to reassess your plans for handling a troubling professional relationship. Good luck.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A suggestion from a colleague could give your professional project that long-needed boost. Meanwhile, someone close to you still needs your emotional support.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Before complying with a colleague's request, check to see that the action benefits all, not just one person's agenda. Continue firming up those travel plans.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your social life is on the upswing, and the only problem is deciding which invitations to accept. Enjoy yourself before settling down for some serious work next week.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) With your creative aspects on high, you might want to restart your work on that novel or painting you put aside. Your efforts will bring a surge in your self-esteem.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) While you're generous with others, be sure you're not overlooking your own needs. Take time to assess your situation and make adjustments where necessary.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Being applauded for your achievement is great. But watch out that you don't start acting like a star. It could lose you valuable support with your next project.

1. Songwriter Bob Montgomery penned "Misty Blue" for which artist?
2. What '60s artist performed in a robe and turban, driving around in a hearse with velvet curtains?
3. Who released "Kiss an Angel Good Mornin'," and when?
4. "State of Shock" was a duet between which two artists?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "You took advantage of my trust in you when I was so far away, I saw you holding lots of other guys."

Answers

1. He wrote it for Brenda Lee, who said no thanks. Wilma Burgess cut the song instead, releasing it in 1966. It peaked at No. 4 on the country charts.
2. Sam the Sham, of the Pharaohs. The group had hits with "Li'l Red Riding Hood" (which begins with a wolf howl) and "Wooly Bully."
3. Charley Pride, in 1971. Within a year, the song was covered by two other country artists: George Jones and Conway Twitty.
4. Michael Jackson and Mick Jagger, in 1984. Jagger filled in for Freddie Mercury, who wasn't available.
5. "I Can See for Miles," by The Who in 1967. The song came together in pieces: Vocals were done in New York, backing tracks in London and mastering in Los Angeles.

Three blondes died and are at the pearly gates of Heaven. St. Peter tells them that they can enter the gates if they can answer one simple question.

St. Peter asks the first blonde, "What is Easter?" The blonde replies, "Oh, that's easy! It's the holiday in November when everyone gets together, eats turkey, and are thankful..."

"Wrong!" replies St. Peter, and proceeds to ask the second blonde the same question, "What is Easter?"

The second blonde replies, "Easter is the holiday in December when we put up a nice tree, exchange presents, and celebrate the birth of Jesus."

St. Peter looks at the second blonde, shakes his head in disgust, tells her she's wrong, and then peers over his glasses at the third blonde and asks, "What is Easter?"

The third blonde smiles confidently and looks St. Peter in the eyes, "I know what Easter is."

"Oh?" says St. Peter, incredulously.

"Easter is the Christian holiday that coincides with the Jewish celebration of Passover. Jesus and his disciples were eating at the last supper and Jesus was later deceived and turned over to the Romans by one of his disciples. The Romans took him to be crucified and he was stabbed in the side, made to wear a crown of thorns, and was hung on a cross with nails through his hands. He was buried in a nearby cave which was sealed off by a large boulder."

St. Peter smiles broadly with delight.

The third blonde continues, "Every year the boulder is moved aside so that Jesus can come out... and, if he sees his shadow, there will be six more weeks of winter."

Each year we receive rabbits and ducks that had been given as surprises in Easter baskets. However, we once again emphasize, as we do every year, that live ducks, chicks, and rabbits are not the appropriate gifts to give children.

Young children oftentimes do not understand how fragile these little creatures are. In an attempt to play or give affection, children can injure or kill the delicate babies. Also, many of these animals may carry parasites. Salmonella is a real danger to children, and can be transmitted from chicken or ducks to humans.

Baby animals are often acquired on impulse at Easter, without consideration of a lifelong commitment. Rabbits, chickens, and ducks have an average lifespan of 8-10 years. The longest recorded lifespan of a chicken was 34 years!

These animals have specific physical and behavioral needs that a caring, responsible owner would want to fulfill. A special diet and a carefully controlled environment are necessary for the well-being of the Easter pet.

Pet bunnies especially are being bred in increasing numbers by "rabbit mills" and breeders for the lucrative pet industry. They are marketed as easy, low-maintenance pets who will sit quietly on a child's lap, when in reality they are complex animals with unique traits and needs.

The novelty of the cute bunnies, chicks, and ducklings wears off and animal shelters and humane organizations begin receiving these unwanted Easter surprises when people determine they are not willing to take on the responsibility of a full-grown pet.

Worse, many of these animals are merely dumped in the woods and parks where they are easy prey for other animals and cruel people.

We urge everyone to help make Easter a humane holiday by buying only toy or candy animals!

Floral Platter

Spring brings flowers, and lately designers are using more floral prints than usual for fabrics and designs. But a picture of a plant as a decoration on dinnerware is an old idea going back to at least the 1600s. In 1761, an Encyclopedia of Danish Flowers (Flora Danica) was commissioned by King Frederik V of Denmark. Thousands of hand-colored illustrations from engraved copper plates were made that accurately showed the wild flowers and plants. It was not completed until 1874, but some of the drawings were used to decorate a banquet service in 1790.

This 20th-century Flora Danica porcelain platter is 18 1/2 inches by 14 1/4 inches. It features a tall, yellow mullein flower. The dish is fully marked on the bottom with factory marks and the impressed number 3520. It sold for $984 in a Skinner Inc. auction in Massachusetts.

The first Flora Danica dinner set of 1,802 pieces was made for King Christian VII to give as a gift to Empress Catherine II of Russia. It is said it was to make up for not helping the Russians in their war with Sweden. Catherine the Great died before the set was finished, so it stayed in Denmark. The remaining 1,530 pieces belong to Queen Margrethe II, and some have been used for special occasions.

You can still buy new dishes from the Royal Copenhagen factory or old ones at antiques shops and auctions. It is said to be the only 18th-century set that is still being made. Each piece has a single plant pictured as the decoration. Dishes can be ordered with the preferred plant.

A Flora Danica platter recently sold for almost $1,000. It was decorated with "Verbasum Thapsiforme Beuspidatum Shad." We call it a mullein or velvet plant. The tall yellow flowers are used in herbal medicine. Today there are more than 300 varieties of mullein, and more are being propagated to get more flowers, shorter flower stalks and other changes. If you own a Flora Danica piece, be very careful. Even a tiny chip in the notched edge can lower the price by half or more.

Q. I bought a Belleek creamer and sugar bowl decorated with a yellow ribbon and bow back in the 1960s. The marks has a circle "R" over a harp and the words "Belleek, Ireland" and "Deanta in Eirinn, Reg. No. 0857." The sugar bowl has a green mark and the creamer a black mark. Why are the marks different colors?

A. The black mark with the words Deanta in Eirinn was used from 1926 to 1946. The green mark that is the same, except for the color, was used from 1946 to 1955. A sugar and creamer pair usually have the same marks since they were bought at the same time. Belleek made some patterns for many years, and you may have a replacement for a broken piece.

TIP: Your cellphone's camera is a magnifying glass. Focus on the marking you want to read and go in for a close-up. It is great for ceramics or prints, but a little difficult for metal because of glare. No need for a ruler and a magnifier anymore. Now you can go to a show with a dollar bill (a 6-inch ruler) and a phone.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Danville Area

On Tuesday, March 20th Ben David Jewelers hosted "A Day of Happiness" at their location of Danville, VA. Our "littles" were able to describe what happiness means to them on paper that was displayed on a wall for the public to view. They were also given the opportunity to try on Rolex watches and given special gifts. There was food and a lot of fun!

On Monday, March 19th The Willing Servants Sunday School Class of Mt. Hermon Baptist Church hosted a Spring event. Our littles played games, "shot hoops", and enjoyed a pizza dinner followed by cupcakes for dessert. Joe taught the youth about the "True Meaning of Easter" and the willing servants never forget to sing Happy Birthday to any littles that may have celebrated a birthday in that month. This event ended by the kids receiving a special goody bag.

On Saturday, March 10th Big Brothers Big Sisters of Danville Area held their Annual Bowl For Kids' Sake at Riverside Lanes. There was various teams from corporations of Danville/Pittsylvania Co. along with fraternities, sororities, and unions. The Men's Fellowship from the Ascension Lutheran Church and the Men's Division from the Cherrystone Baptist Church assisted our "littles" with their bowling game. There was food, fun, a photo booth, and door prizes. Special thanks to Mayor John Gilstrap, Sherriff Mike Mondul, and Chief Scott Booth for their participation.

Bobby Wayne Mitchell, Sr.

Mr. Mitchell was born on February 23, 1943, in Chatham, VA, a son of the late William W. Mitchell, Sr. and Nannie Keatts Mitchell. He was a member of the PGA Tour where he played all over the world. Mr. Mitchell was also a member of the Senior PGA Tour and the Danville Golf Club. He won several tournaments including the 1971 Cleveland Open, the 1972 Tournament of Champions and he finished second in the 1972 Masters. Mr. Mitchell enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. Mr. Mitchell taught golf in Finland for 25 years, after his tour playing days. He was married to Dorothy Hancock Mitchell who survives of the residence and was of the Baptist faith and walks with his savior Jesus Christ today.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his sons, Bobby Mitchell, Jr. and Kenneth Alan Mitchell (Ginny); step-grandchildren, Scott L. Wyatt, Kimberly P. Emerson, and Justin D. Vaughan; granddaughter, Amanda K. Mitchell; sister, Betty Wallace of Hampton, VA; two brothers, William W. Mitchell, Jr. and Ricky L. Mitchell both of Danville, VA; and many nieces, nephews and close friends.

A memorial service will be conducted on Friday, March 23, 2018 at 3:00 PM at Swicegood Funeral Home with Reverend Wayne Wallace officiating. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers the family request memorial donations be made to State Line Baptist Church, 651 Holland Rd, Danville, VA 24541, or to another church or charity of your choice.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Mitchell family.

The Garden Bug Spring planting

Deciding when to plant can be tricky; each region of the country is different, and even within a region there may be wide fluctuations due to factors like altitude and terrain. The average date of the last spring frost and recommended times to put out summer plants like tomatoes and corn in the lower 48 states are given in this chart.

Region	Average Last Freeze	Plant Summer Garden
Gulf Coast	February 1 - March 1	March 1 - April 1
Southeast	March 1 - April 1	March 15 - April 15
Midwest	April 1 - May 1	April 7 - May 7
North	May 1 - June 1	May 15 - June 15

"Neither Foolish In April, Nor Any Other Time"

I am writing this ten days in advance of Easter, Resurrection Morning, partly because I wish to try my hand at prophecy for a few moments.

Actually, given the utterly predictable nature of the Twittersverse and most other online forums, calling a sure-thing, slam dunk a "prophecy" is probably a stretch. I am referring to the fact that, since Easter Sunday just so happens to fall on April Fool's Day this year, the banal, utterly inevitable drivel and memes that are sure to arise will undoubtedly speak of how "fitting and appropriate" it is that April Fools day and Easter coincide. "Surely," the 280 character grammar assassin will opine, "no April Fools jokes are even needed since those foolish Christians will spend their day worshipping their non-existent Jesus on the day of his never happened resurrection."

I wish I could bring myself to be angry; but all I really feel is pity.

That Jesus did in fact exist is known and acknowledged by a near total unanimity of all competent scholars, even those who deny that he was God, and even go so far as to deny that there is a God. Agnostic Bart Ehrman, professor of Religion and New Testament at UNC said, "He certainly existed, as virtually every competent scholar of antiquity, Christian or non-Christian, agrees." [Forged: Writing in the Name of God (Harper One, 2011) 256]

He also said, "Whether we like it or not, Jesus certainly existed." (2013-03-20, "Did Jesus Exist?" Huffingtonpost.com).

Craig Evans, New Testament professor at Asbury, said, "No serious historian of any religious or non-religious stripe doubts that Jesus of Nazareth really lived in the first century and was executed under the authority of Pontius Pilate." [Jesus, The Final Days eds. Evans and Wright (Westminster, 2009), 3.]

Richard Burridge, Bible Exegesis professor at King's College, said, "There are those that argue that Jesus is a figment of the church's imagination, that there never was a Jesus at all. I have to say that I do not know any respectable critical scholar who says that anymore." [Jesus, Now and Then, (Wm. B. Eerdmans, 2004),34]

Far from merely existing, though, Jesus also lived, walked into the Garden of Gethsemane, was tried before Pontius Pilate, was crucified, buried in the tomb of a well-known counselor named Joseph of Arimathea, and rose again the third day in triumph over death and the grave. That last fact alone explains the rise of a religion whose sale's pitch was "deny yourself, take up your cross and follow me" (Matthew 16:24), "whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it" (Matthew 16:25) and "be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life" (Revelation 2:10).

The early followers of Christ left the safety of a respectable, well-established religion for the turmoil of a despised upstart that was regarded as blasphemous. Christianity did not put wealth in their pockets or fine clothes on their back; it caused them to lose everything and despair even of life. Christianity did not give them power; it made them the targets of the powerful. Christianity did not give them the license to indulge the desires of their flesh; it taught them to "deny ungodliness and worldly lusts."

In short, they had no motive at all to become Christians, save one: Jesus rose from the dead.

Having, I hope, not bored you too badly with history, may I speak very personally as I draw this column to a conclusion? The main reason I feel only pity for the anonymous internet scoffers who will doubtless be enjoying cheap chuckles on this day is that they live very tiny lives and have no idea what they are missing.

I have seen God answer such very specific prayers, things that I spoke to no one of, things with no possible answer save divine intervention, that I will never doubt the reality of the risen Christ. I have experienced, in the darkest of times, times that would crush most people, the "peace that passes understanding" (Philippians 4:7). I have been by the bedside of dying saints who suddenly lifted up their hands toward heaven, gasped, had the most glorious smile spread over their face, and then peacefully drifted into the presence of God. I have seen the outcasts of society, life-long drunks and users, have their lives radically transformed forever simply by kneeling at an altar and saying, "Lord Jesus, I am sorry for my sin, and I believe you rose from the dead, please save me."

Giggle all you like. Enjoy your 280 character carnival. You have chosen a tiny life, and I have chosen a glorious one. I, for one, do not regret my choice.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

Thierry Sollerot/Wikimedia

Alexander Skarsgard

HOLLYWOOD — Meryl Streep is the epitome of the modern-day movie star. That was evident from the way so many people at the Oscars focused on her. She's had 21 Oscar nominations and three wins. In the early days of television, movie stars didn't do TV, but Meryl will not pass up a good role. She'll play Alexander Skarsgard's mother in season two of HBO's "Big Little Lies," which was conceived as a one-time, seven-episode series. The success of the show and the two Emmy wins, for Nicole Kidman and Alexander Skarsgard, prompted a second season, with seven episodes.

Skarsgard is on fire. His Netflix film "Mute," with Paul Rudd and Justin Theroux, recently became available for streaming. His next Netflix film, "Hold the Dark," with Riley Keough (Elvis Presley's granddaughter), becomes available June 1. Also in the works are the thriller "The Hummingbird Project," with Jesse Eisenberg and Salma Hayek, which began filming in Quebec in November for theatrical release; "The Aftermath," with Keira Knightly, is awaiting distribution; and the comedy "Flarsky," with Seth Rogan and Charlize Theron, is set for a February 2019 release.

Justin Theroux, who recently split from wife Jennifer Aniston also is busy. His film "The Spy Who Dumped Me," produced and directed by Ron Howard with partner Brian Glazier, stars Theroux with Mila Kunis and SNL's Kate McKinnon, due Aug. 3. He's currently making "On the Basis of Sex," a biographical drama about Ruth Bader Ginsburg, with Felicity Jones (as Ginsburg), Armie Hammer, Kathy Bates and Sam Waterston, also opening Aug. 3. Meanwhile, his soon-to-be ex, Jennifer Aniston, is producing and starring in a new TV series with Reese Witherspoon. "Three Billboards" best-actress Oscar winner Frances McDormand is represented in the Wes Anderson animated film "Isle of Dogs," which opened March 23. You won't see her, but you can't mistake that voice.

Guillermo Del Toro, a double-Oscar winner for best director and best picture for "The Shape of Water," hasn't announced his next project, but he's one of the producers of the sequel to his 2013 hit "Pacific Rim," which starred Charlie Hunnam and was produced, directed and co-written by Del Toro (at a cost of $190 million with a $411 million gross). The sequel, "Pacific Rim Uprising," stars "Star Wars: The Force Awakens" and "The Last Jedi" alum John Boyega (who also is one of the producers) and Scott Eastwood, son of Clint Eastwood. It opened March 23 and is expected to bring in a bigger box office than the original, thanks to Boyega's "star" power and Del Toro's Oscars.

Del Toro is more concerned now with the shape of the box office than "The Shape of Water!"

THE BEST DINNER ROLLS

INGREDIENTS

- 4 -5 cups all purpose flour
  - 2 tbsp rapid rise, instant yeast
  - 1/3 cup granulated sugar
  - 1 tsp salt
  - 1 1/2 cups warm milk , 110 degrees
  - 5 tbsp butter, softened
  - 1 egg , room temperature
  - 2 tbsp melted butter
- Instructions

Combine 3 cups of flour, yeast, sugar, salt, warm milk, butter, and egg in the bowl of a stand mixer.

Attach the dough hook and turn the mixer on to the lowest speed and mix until flour is incorporated, scraping down the sides of the bowl as necessary.

Increase speed to medium and beat for 2 minutes.

Add 1/2 cup flour and blend with the dough hook until incorporated. And another 1/2 cup flour and repeat, mixing at medium speed for another 2 minutes until a ball of dough is formed.

Add additional flour as necessary. The dough should be slightly sticky and soft and pulling away from the edge of the bowl.

Transfer the dough to a lightly greased bowl and cover with a towel or plastic wrap. Let rise for 30 minutes at room temperature.

Remove the towel or plastic wrap and deflate the dough by punching down lightly.

Pinch off pieces of the dough and form 24 rolls. You can weigh them to keep the rolls close to the same size. Mine were about 2 ounces each but this will vary depending on how much flour you added.

Transfer the rolls to a lightly greased quarter baking sheet or 9 x 13 baking dish. Cover with a towel or plastic wrap and let rise for an additional 30 minutes at room temperature.

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Bake the rolls for 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown and cooked through. If the rolls are getting too brown, just tent the rolls with foil.

Remove rolls and brush hot rolls with the melted butter. Serve immediately or store cooled rolls in a plastic bag for up to 3 days.
