This means For Sale By Owner.

Do you really think you are saving money?

In the current market you probably are not.

offer by the amount of a commission. As the owner, you are getting no representation, no advice on the best scenario and you're not being represented. That is not where you want to be. Let the professionals walk you through the process.

Also do you have the buyers preapproved? Can they purchase a home? Do they have a home to sell? There are a lot of variables that go in to a purchase.

A lot of the homes are selling with multiple offers, which means over asking price 95% percent of the time. When a buyer sees for sale by owner, the first thing they think is they can reduce their
