FLASHBACK
POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MIKE

- How did the 1976 hit "Moonlight Feels Right" finally get airplay?
- Which singer-songwriter had a hit with "Shake You Down"?
- "Got to Get You into My Life" appeared on which Beatles album?
- Ry Cooder is best known for which instrument?
- Name the song that contains this lyric: "After many tears fall from your eyes, A thousand times you ask yourself why the one guy you love has departed, You're left alone and broken-hearted."

- Answers:
- The band Starbuck personally delivered copies of the record to 400 radio stations. One finally played it months later, thereby launching the song up the charts.
  - Gregory Abbott, in 1986. The song did well around the globe.
  - "Revolver," in 1966 in the U.K. Once again Paul McCartney was the major songwriter, but the song was credited to Lennon-McCartney. The song didn't appear in the U.S. as a single until 1976, six years after the Beatles broke up.
  - The slide guitar. Consider: "Feelin' Bad Blues."
  - "That's the Way Love Is," first by the Isley Brothers in 1967 and then Marvin Gaye in 1969. It was Gaye's version that became the major hit, likely because producers took the up-tempo original version and slowed it down.

IBEW LOCAL 99

Open-Shop Electrical Contractors, Your Time is Now!

For the past several years IBEW Local 99 has been actively recruiting, testing and welcoming into our Local: Apprentices, Journeymen Wiremen, Tele-com Techs and Contractors.

That effort has been an amazing success. We now have a database of many unrepresented hard working men and women who will be coming in the Union. Many of these people currently work in parts of the industry that the IBEW has historically not been as prevalent in, such as Residential and Light commercial.

We are now looking to expand our recruitment of high quality and ethical open shop contractors that specialize in that type of work.

Discover the value IBEW can have for your company:

- You pay nothing to the Union to sign with us!
- Immediate access to indentured apprentices!
- 1-1000 qualified Men and Women available with a single phone call!
- IBEW quickly becoming the main source of manpower in the Northeast!
- Flexible rates for non-traditional work!
- Your partner in protecting the industry!
- The safest and most productive workforce in the industry!
- The undisputed best training facility and staff in the industry!
- Complete flexibility in Staffing!
- Access to General Contractors and Bidding Opportunities!
- Free Benefit Management!
- Contractor Training and Support!

We are looking for only the best in manpower and contractors. If you are a great contractor, we should be talking to you now. There are many very unsatisfied craftspeople looking for a better life who are available right now and ready to move to your company!

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

License for Indoor Cats Is a Scam, Reader Says

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: I disagree with what you wrote about buying a license and tags for cats that stay indoors. Requiring a license for indoor cats is such a government scam. It's just another dirty local tax to burden the people with — like the little fees on our phone bills! I love my country, but these hidden taxes aren't right. — Tim in Lancaster, Ohio

DEAR TIM: I know how frustrating it can be to pay additional fees for many things, especially when prices are rising for products like gasoline. But I also stand by my original article. Even indoor cats need routine vaccinations and, if mandated, license tags. Even the best pet owner in the world can be impacted by unforeseen events. Say a natural disaster hits, like a tornado or a mudslide — something with little or no warning. In the chaos, pets can and will escape to a safer place.

For example, during a recent house fire in my community, firefighters rushed in to save the homeowner, who was trapped with her dog in a back bedroom. They were able to get her to safety, unharmed. However, she lost her hold on the dog, who ran into the woods, terrified. It took a few days of searching before it was found and matched back to its owner thanks to his license tags and microchip.

Vaccinating and licensing indoor pets is a comparatively low-cost way to improve pets' chances of staying healthy and being quickly reunited with their owners should they escape. While it's good for citizens to be aware of and question different taxes and fees, this is one fee that is worth the price.

- Sunburn relief: Take two non-steroidal anti-inflammatories right away (aspirin, ibuprofen) and soak a cloth in cold milk. Drape over the burn until it warms to room temperature. Repeat if necessary and apply a light moisturizer.
  - "When purchasing clothes for a loved one in a care facility, look for garments that are comfortable and stylish, but double-check that they do not require any special care, like ironing or dry cleaning. Also, be sure they are labeled clearly with the person's name." — C.G. in Michigan
  - If you want your chocolate chip cookies to really pop, sprinkle lightly with course sea salt before baking. They do not come out tasting salty. Rather, the salt enhances the sweetness and make the whole thing extra delicious.
  - "When you shop for shoes, go in the evening. Feet swell and expand throughout the day, so if you buy shoes in the morning, the fit might not feel too good later in the day." — A.T. in Louisiana
  - "I make my grilled cheese sandwiches with mayonnaise instead of butter. I know it sounds gross, but it is so good. The oil and egg in the mayo flavor and crisp the bread without leaving it too greasy." — S.O. in Alabama
  - To ease the ache of a "brain freeze" after eating or drinking something really cold, simply cup your hands over your mouth and nose. Blow out hot air and it recirculates to warm your palate in seconds. Works like a charm.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Home and work issues vie for your attention through early next week. Rely on your Libran sense of balance to keep you from being overwhelmed by either side.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Creative projects might have to go on standby as you tackle other matters making demands on your time and energy. Things should ease by the middle of next week.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your energies are high, and so are your aspirations. But be careful not to let work dominate the week. It's also important to spend time with family and friends.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) It's a good time to set aside your pride and stop nursing those hurt feelings. Instead, consider restoring relationships you want to have back in your life.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You might be miffed at not being shown more appreciation for your hard work. But don't brood over it. Recognition comes in its own time and in its own way.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) With your inner creative juices starting to boil and bubble, this is a good time to launch a new arts-related project, or go back and restart the one you had set aside.

THE TOWN OF COVENTRY WILL HOLD IT'S ANNUAL FINANCIAL TOWN MEETING ON THE EVENING OF JUNE 12, 2018 AT 7:00 pm IN THE COVENTRY HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM

DOORS OPEN AT 6:00 pm.

PROPOSED PROPERTY TAX RATE INFORMATION

The Town of Coventry proposes to increase its property tax levy to $69,422,104 in the 2018-2019 budget year; the property tax levy this year is $66,948,511. The FY 2018 and FY 2019 tax levies have excluded motor vehicle excise tax for the purpose of determining tax levy growth pursuant to Article 11 of 2017-H5157 Sub A, as amended. THIS IS A PROPOSED INCREASE OF 3.69%.

It has been estimated that the proposed increase in property tax revenues will result in a property tax rate of $21.61 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for residential real estate and tangible personal property and $26.05 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for commercial real estate, as compared to the current property tax rate of $20.98 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for residential real estate and tangible personal property and $25.29 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for commercial real estate. THIS IS A PROPOSED INCREASE OF 3.01%

The preliminary FY 2018-2019 motor vehicle levy includes taxes on motor vehicles at an unchanged rate of $18.75 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, which includes the exemption amount provided by the state's motor vehicle excise tax phase-out legislation up to $2,000.

Car Care Corner

U.S.-Made Parts Can Be Key To Positive Car Repair Experience

(NAPSA)—The next time you have someone work on your car, it may pay to ask the technician why he or she chose a specific brand of replacement parts.

That's because a brand name can be a strong indicator of product quality. It can also provide added assurance that the manufacturer will stand behind the product. It might even increase the likelihood that the part was engineered and manufactured in the U.S.A.

"U.S. manufacturing can be a strong competitive differentiator in the replacement parts industry," explained John Perrin, executive director of product management for the North America Aftermarket business of Tenneco, Inc., which manufactures Monroe shock absorbers, struts and other ride control products. "Many consumers are attracted to U.S.-based manufacturers because of the perceived quality, performance and durability advantages of these parts as compared to products imported from offshore manufacturers."

A vast majority of Monroe ride control products sold in North America are manufactured or assembled in the company's plant in Paragould, Ark. Last year, the massive facility, with adjacent warehousing and strut assembly manufacturing operations, produced nearly 19 million shocks, struts and Monroe Quick-Strut modular strut assemblies.

Why Quality Matters

The choice of one parts brand over another can affect how your vehicle will perform following the repair. In the case of shocks and struts, the differences could include ride quality; handling precision; noise, vibration and harshness (NVH); component durability; and even tire wear.

Quality differences can be even more profound in preassembled modular strut assemblies, which include all the subcomponents—strut, coil spring, upper strut mount, spring seat, isolator, boot kit, and more—needed for a comprehensive strut replacement. While many assemblies might look alike, a single poorly designed or mismatched part could lead to a performance problem or premature failure.

"There's a lot of science in a quality strut assembly," Perrin explained. "You need a coil spring with the proper metallurgy, coil configuration and spring rate for the vehicle. The damper needs to be tuned to the proper ride and handling profile. Every component can either contribute to or detract from the consumer's driving experience."

Given that hundreds of unique strut assembly configurations are required to cover the passenger vehicle population, maintaining U.S.-based engineering and assembly operations helps companies more closely control product quality and performance. For example, each Monroe assembly is both fit- and ride-checked on the corresponding vehicle model prior to introduction.

"That would be very difficult to do if we weren't designing, engineering and manufacturing in the U.S.," Perrin said. "We believe that's an important message for consumers, who deserve to know why a specific brand was chosen for their vehicles."

Hints For Homeowners

When It's Time To Replace Your Water Heater

(NAPSA)—The next time you find you have a too old or already broken water heater, these tools and advice from the U.S. EPA can help.

Water heaters typically last about 10 years. If your water heater is older than that, you could avoid a potentially costly and complicated emergency replacement by taking action now. In many places, utilities offer rebates on ENERGY STAR certified water heaters, up to as much as $600. With or without a rebate, choosing a model that's earned the government's ENERGY STAR label can pay you back in energy bill savings.

Water heaters are the second highest energy user in the home, costing a household of four up to $620 every year to run. Replacing your old, electric water heater with a heat pump water heater could put a significant dent in your energy costs. In fact, a family of four can save up to $3,500 in energy costs over the water heater's lifetime.

Pointers On Heat Pumps

There are some installation considerations to keep in mind with heat pump water heaters, but if you already have an electric water heater, it could be an easy switch.

Will a Heat Pump Water Heater Work in My Home?

In many homes, a heat pump water heater can be installed right where your current water heater sits. Heat pump water heaters need:

- Access To Air: They pull in air from the surroundings to heat water and release cold air, so they need access to plenty of air.
- The water heater location should have a room air temperature greater than 40° F year-round and space that's at least 100 square ft. (10 ft. x 10 ft.) or a smaller space that can be fitted with lowered doors or ducted.

Head Room: Heat pump water heaters are a few inches to a foot taller than conventional electric water heaters and require a certain ceiling height based on the size of the water heater—which is dependent on household size.

The water heater location should have at least a 6-ft.-high ceiling for a household of fewer than six or at least a 7-ft.-high ceiling for a household of six or more.

Water Drainage: Heat pump water heaters require proper drainage, since—like air conditioners—they dehumidify air and produce condensate that must be removed via a nearby floor drain, or another outlet using a small condensate pump.

The heater location should have access to one of the following:

- Floor drain
- Utility sink
- Sump pump
- Existing drain pipe
- Outside (only for locations that are above freezing all year round).

Outdoor DIY Projects To Prolong The Life Of Your Home

(NAPSA)—Here's the inside scoop on the exterior of your home: Although it can take a beating from weather and atmospheric conditions throughout the year, the sooner you address the issue, the less likely it is that the damage will lead to more and larger problems. To help, home-improvement expert Spike Carlsen offers a few do-it-yourself projects that could mean more money in your pocket down the road.

Extend the life of your deck for years.

- Check for loose boards and fasteners. For "popped" nails, pound them back in and then drive a 3-inch galvanized drywall screw in next to it to hold the board firmly in place.
- Gunk that's accumulated in the gaps between deck boards can hold moisture that leads to premature rot. To remove it, take an old handsaw and lightly "saw" through each gap. The blade will push the debris out of the gap so your deck can breathe.
- Take care of leaky or overflowing gutters.
- Leaky or overflowing gutters can create problems ranging from peeling paint to damp basements.
- Use an old plastic spatula as a minishovel to scoop leaves and debris out of the gutter. If it's too wide, trim one edge.
- Once clean, place a garden hose in the "high end" of the gutter, turn on the water and check for leaks. If there's a leak at a seam, clean the joint and apply permanently waterproof silicone caulk. If there's an actual hole in the gutter, replace it rather than patch it.

Weatherize with silicone caulk and save.

- Air can enter or exit a house through cracks and openings in many places, and leaks can lead to higher energy bills, water damage and mold growth. The upside is that a homeowner can save 10 percent or more on energy bills by air sealing, according to the U.S. Department of Energy.
- Not all caulk provides energy savings over time, though. For long-lasting energy savings, choose 100 percent silicone, not acrylic caulk, which can shrink and crack over time, leaving gaps for air and water to seep through. You can use GE Silicone II* Window & Door or Paintable Silicone to seal around windows and doors, as well as in the attic and basement.

HINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Do-It-Yourself Tips On Silencing Squeaky Floors

(NAPSA)—The next time you are looking for a way to give a noisy floor the “silent treatment”—there’s good news. With a little bit of effort and the right equipment, eliminating squeaks can be the type of home-repair project that responds to the do-it-yourself approach.

Experts say most squeaks are often caused when the subfloor rubs on the top surface of the floor joist and/or on the shank of regular nails.

Begin by locating the squeaks. Once they are located and marked with painters’ blue masking tape, find your joists and the direction in which they run.

Next, check to see if the squeaks you marked are in the same area as the floor joists. If they are, you are ready to begin attacking them directly. Here’s where floor hardware designed specifically for the task can make all the difference.

Fortunately, there are repair kits created to eliminate floor squeaks whether they’re found under carpeting, in hardwood or softwood floors, or in stairs.

In the past, getting rid of squeaks usually required getting direct access to the underneath floor to get at the joist. Not anymore. When the squeak is under a carpeted floor, there is an innovative repair kit—called Squeeeek No More—that contains a plastic molded alignment and depth control fixture, 50 specially scored 3-inch by ½-inch diameter screws, a customized driver bit to regulate the depth at which to drive the screw, and a joist-finding screw to locate the joist from above.

In addition to eliminating unwanted squeaks, it also offers the added convenience of not having to crawl around under the floor to get the job done.

Experts say most squeaks are often caused when the subfloor rubs on the top surface of the floor joist and/or on the shank of regular nails.

When the squeak is in a hardwood floor, a different product designed specifically for that kind of project may help. Called Counter Snap, it was created to help repair squeaky hardwood floors and stairs. Each kit includes 30 screws, the Counter Snap fixture, a No. 2 recess square-head driver and instructions.

Another product, called Squeak-Ender, pulls the subfloor securely to the joist to help fix squeaks between the bottom side of the subfloor and the top of the floor joist. The bracket slips over the bolt and slips around the joist and the nut is tightened.

Hints For Homeowners

Decks Can Be Beautiful And Sustainable

(NAPSA)—For some homeowners, a deck is an extension of what makes a house a home. It can be a place to retreat to after a long, work-filled week as well as a place to spend time with family and friends.

According to a recent assessment, redwood may be considered one of the most environmentally responsible building materials available.

to produce than composites or plastics.

In addition, when lumber is milled into decking and other products, the bark, sawdust and scrapings are collected and used to produce clean energy. Sawmills are able to use this biomass energy to power their operations and add excess electricity to the state's power grid, taking redwood's energy efficiency to a level that manufactured materials never reach.

With redwood, you can be environmentally conscientious without sacrificing quality or elegance. Plastics and composites rely on chemical resins and fossil fuels that release carbon and increase emissions.

Trees, however, take carbon out of the air and store it in wood fiber. It's estimated that a redwood deck can store more than a half ton of carbon, which keeps the carbon safely out of the air, helps reduce emissions and helps to lower a homeowner's carbon footprint.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — As the song says, "Everything Old Is New Again," and that's what happens when studios keep remaking the properties they own. "Catch 22" (1970) will now be a Hulu miniseries produced/directed by and starring George Clooney (with his partner Grant Heslov), with "Friday Night Lights" Kyle Chandler and "House" star Hugh Laurie.

Keanu Reeves and Alex Winter are reteaming for the threequel "Bill & Ted Face the Music." "Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure" (1989) made $40 million and their "Bogus Journey" (1991) earned $38 million. Winter has only appeared in "The Borrowers" (1997) and an episode of "Bones" (2007) since then because he has concentrated on directing and producing.

"A Quiet Place," nearing $300 million, will have a sequel, most likely with John Krasinski and Emily Blunt. Now that Krasinski is hot as a producer/director, his old project with Aaron Sorkin, based on Shawn Levy's book "The Castle on Sunset," about the famed Chateau Marmont Hotel, has been revived and is in the works.

Among other planned sequels are: "Sherlock Holmes 3," with Robert Downey Jr., Jude Law and Rachel McAdams returning for a December 2020 opening; "Journey 3: From the Earth to the Moon," the threequel to "Journey to the Center of the Earth 2" (2012), again with Dwayne Johnson and Josh Hutcherson; "Men In Black 4," without Will Smith and Tommy Lee Jones, but probably with Chris Hemsworth; "Beverly Hills Cop 4," with Eddie Murphy; "Rush Hour 4"; "Get Smart 2"; "Jump Street 3," with Channing Tatum and Jonah Hill; and a "Pacific Rim" threequel are just some of the 179 planned sequels. Also in the works are "The Chronicles of Narnia: The Silver Chair"; and "Oz, The Great & Powerful 2," which continues the story of Oz and Glinda, now married with a daughter, Olivia, who doesn't know she's been cursed by an unknown witch (want to bet it's The Wicked Witch of the West?!).

Hugh Grant, who won a London Film Critics Award as best supporting actor for "Paddington 2" (which raked in $226 million), is returning to TV in a three-part BBC miniseries, "A Very English Scandal," with Ben Whishaw.

Amy Poehler is producing, directing and starring in Netflix's "Wine Country," with SNL ladies Tina Fey, Rachel Dratch, Ana Gasteyer and Maya Rudolph. She's also got two shows for NBC: "Abby's," a "Cheers"-like series, with Neil Flynn (just off nine years in "The Middle") and Natalie Morales; and as host of an unscripted NBC competition series, "Making It," with Nick Offerman. If you're over 30, you can't help but hear the song "Deja Vu" play in your head while watching rebooted movies and TV shows!

In colonial times, native stone without mortaring

Strawberries — The Perfect Summer Fruit

Strawberries have been considered a tasty and nutritious treat for hundreds of years. Nutritional experts believe that strawberries are as close as you can get to a perfect fruit. They're low in calories (27 in 100g) and fat-free, but packed with nutrients, including vitamins and antioxidants that bring numerous health benefits. Eating just five strawberries gives you more vitamin C than an orange. The vitamin content in strawberries drops quickly, so you need to eat them as soon as you can after they've been picked.

N.C. Strawberry Growers

The strawberry got its name from the common practice of growing berries under straw to protect them from winter cold and late spring frosts. A member of the rose family, the strawberry sometimes gives off a rose-like aroma. Many speculate about how the luscious fruit was discovered. It is known that the strawberry goes as far back as the Romans, and perhaps even the Greeks.

The strawberry plant was originally grown in Northern Europe, but wild species also are found in Russia, Chile and North America. At one time, wild strawberries grew everywhere from Canada to the Carolinas and westward beyond the Appalachian Mountains.

Before modern refrigeration, a day of "strawberrering" meant a long day of picking, followed by gorging on delicious strawberry treats — pies, tarts, shortcake and all the ripe strawberries the family could consume. Berries that were not eaten were preserved as jam, jelly, sauce, strawberry vinegar and strawberry tonic, a medicinal drink. The remaining berries were dried on flat rocks for several days. These dried berries would be used throughout the fall and winter in breads, cakes, puddings and porridge.

The first American species of strawberry was cultivated in about 1835. Today, the strawberry is the leading small fruit crop in the U.S. It is farmed from Florida to Alaska, with the largest strawberry growing centers located in California and Florida.

When picking or buying packages of strawberries, look for ripe, shiny and brilliantly colored berries without any soft or brown patches. Never buy strawberries that are green or hard, or that look dry, dull or wrinkled. When buying berries packed in a basket, check the bottom to see if there is a juice stain. This means that the strawberries at the bottom are crushed.

Always dispose of any berries that have signs of mildew or are rotten, as they'll contaminate the rest. Refrigerating strawberries ruins the flavor, and the strawberry aroma is easily picked up by other foods in the refrigerator. Store the berries in a cool place. Strawberries should be lightly rinsed, not washed, before serving, and eaten as soon as possible.

This recipe for Strawberry Flower Cups is an easy way to serve fresh berries as a dessert or to use as a beautiful decoration. The strawberries are cut to resemble flower petals then stuffed with sweetened cream cheese. It's a cool, delicious way to showcase these beautiful berries!

STRAWBERRY FLOWER CUPS

- 32 fresh, whole strawberries, large
- 12 ounces cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon almond extract
- 2 tablespoons semisweet or milk chocolate, grated

- Lightly rinse the strawberries and gently place them in a colander to drain. Cut a thin slice from the stem end of each strawberry to create a base so that the berries will stand upright on the flattened end. Place the berries, cut side down, on a cutting board. Carefully cut each berry into 4 wedges, but do not cut through the bottom. Use your finger to gently press down in the center of the berry so that the wedges fan out just slightly, taking care not to break the berries apart. Set the berries aside.
- Using a small mixing bowl, beat together the cream cheese, confectioners' sugar and almond extract until light and fluffy. Gently fold in half of the grated chocolate. Use a teaspoon, a plastic sandwich bag with a small hole cut into the end or a decorating bag with decorative tip to fill the berries with the cream-cheese mixture. Sprinkle the remaining grated chocolate over each berry. Cover and chill until ready to serve. Makes about 32 filled strawberries.
