MOVING IS NO WALK IN THE PARK!

Tell my clients all the time moving is not an easy process. Now it is time to pack and get ready for the big day. Start in one room and complete that room.

Label your boxes where this room is going in your new home. Label each box with what is in it. That will make it even easier so when you go to put everything away you know the contents. This way you are not ripping open boxes looking for certain items.

A good example is kitchen -1, kitchen-2 and so on. Keep a list of how many boxes for each room. Then when you move you will know how many boxes for each room, what's in the boxes and that you aren't missing any boxes.

This will help and just maybe make the move easier.
