As we celebrate Independence Day, we are once again reminded that freedom is not free. Just as America fought for independence in 1776, American troops continue to defend freedom around the world today. July Fourth is a day to honor the men and women who have sacrificed so much to protect our liberty. It's a day to proudly celebrate our great country and the ideals it represents.
Happy Birthday, America!

Welcome back Dr. Sicher!

Dr. Alexa Lynn Sicher, DMD is a Kutztown native. She shared her passion for dentistry at our office while working as an assistant in the summers during High school. She graduated from Kutztown High School, and at Kutztown University of Pennsylvania she earned a BS in Biology and minored in Biochemistry with the goal of pursuing her childhood dream of becoming a dentist. She attended University of Pittsburgh School of Dental Medicine where she received her Doctorate of Dental Medicine degree. Due to her outstanding academic and clinical performance, she achieved the honor of being inducted into Omicron Kappa Upsilon National Dental Honor Society. She was also the recipient of the Northeastern Society of Periodontists Award for the graduating class of 2018.

Dr. Sicher completed a dental mission trip to Dominican Republic with Bright Island Outreach and Delta Sigma Delta, the professional dental fraternity of which she is a member. Her hobbies include traveling, yoga, gardening, cooking, and hiking with her German Shepherd Dog, Esther. Dr. Sicher looks forward to treating our patient's needs.

Guys Can Enjoy Cooking Indoors, Too.

The culinary arts sometimes do not necessarily come easily for men. While guys often look forward to grilling season, cooking indoors lacks the appeal of an open fire and friends and family munching on flame-broiled delights. But cooking inside can be just as fun and rewarding as standing over the grill outdoors. Such is the case with the following recipe for "Pasta With Shrimp and Bacon" from Tucker Shaw's "Gentlemen, Start Your Ovens" (Chronicle Books).

PASTA W/SHRIMP & BACON
Serves 4
1 lb. medium shrimp, uncooked
1/2 lb. slab bacon, diced, or 4 slices bacon, snipped into pieces with scissors
2 tablespoons olive oil, plus more for drizzling
1/2 lb. dried linguine or spaghetti
1/4 C white wine (use a decent white, an Italian Pinot Grigio, one you will drink with dinner)
2 garlic cloves, smashed and diced
1/2 C grated Parmesan cheese
Salt
A few red pepper flakes, finely crushed (optional)
A couple handfuls arugula leaves (about 2 to 3 oz.), chopped
Zest and juice of 1 lemon

Fill your largest pot with water and set it on high. Throw in a handful of salt, more than you think you need. Cover it and bring it to a boil. This could take 20 minutes, so get this going before you pour yourself a drink. Pour the drink and prepare the shrimp: Peel and devein the shrimp by slicing straight down the back with your paring knife and scraping out that black intestine. (Note: You don't have to do this because it won't kill you to eat it, but most people do not like the veins.) Set them aside in a small bowl with a few cubes of ice on top. Put the bacon in a large saute pan over medium-high heat. Drizzle it with a little olive oil and saute it until most of the fat has rendered and the bacon becomes crispy. Remove from the heat until your water boils and you put your linguine on. Once the linguine is cooking (it should take about 10 to 12 minutes, but check the package for directions), return the saute pan to medium-high heat and add the 2 tablespoons olive oil, the wine, garlic, and red pepper flakes. Add the shrimp in a single layer. Saute for 2 minutes, then turn the shrimp and saute for 2 minutes more. Reduce the heat to low. Lay the arugula over the top of the shrimp. Drain the pasta, then add to the pan, covering the arugula. Mix thoroughly, coating all the pasta and adding more olive oil if necessary. Add the lemon zest and juice and mix. Add the Parmesan. Remove from the heat and serve immediately, with one last drizzle of olive oil (at this point, use the good stuff if you have it). Suggestion: If they look good at the store, throw in a handful of grape or cherry tomatoes alongside the shrimp while they're sauteing. You could also throw in some basil instead of that arugula, or maybe some olives that you've sliced in half. Maybe some anchovy fillets or zucchini shavings.
