Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
 (Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

"Over the Counter"

by Bill Marcotte, Proprietor

Again, in recognition of the Fourth of July, I thought I would reprise my list of things to do on that day, that I wrote in July of 1999. There seemed to be a lot of people who really enjoyed that article. It was fun writing it, and I think my list of things to do would not change if I wrote it again... so here you go:

1. Take the day off.
2. Spend the morning with a cup of coffee on the deck or in the kitchen... wherever. Just enjoy the quiet.
3. If you live near the water take out the canoe.
4. If you don't then try the bike path. Go for a walk.
5. Find a parade or celebration. March along with the band.
6. Have a bar-b-que... or a picnic.
7. Surround yourself with friends and family.
8. Toast marshmallows as the sun goes down.
9. Fireworks... you have to find fireworks! (Johnson's Pond?)
10. Listen to Kate Smith sing God Bless America. (Best presentation of that... Hill Farm Camps and it's hourly!)
11. Celebrate independence... yours and the countries.
12. Say goodnight to the ones you love, and sleep well.

To all of you, have a safe and happy Fourth of July from all of us at Crystal!

Gone Fishing!
You might not think of seafood as seasonal. If you go to the supermarket, many types of fish are available year-round. But not all seafood is created equal. If you care about fresh seafood, sustainable fisheries, protecting our oceans and eating fish that is healthier for you and your family, it pays to know what fish are in season. Here are some great tips about selecting fish from the Center for Food Safety, www.centerforfoodsafety.org.

Five Tips to Choosing Sustainable Seafood:
1. Choose local seafood if possible, and always choose domestic over imported.
2. Choose wild.
3. If it's farmed, choose seafood from the U.S., especially in low- or no-output, recirculating systems.
4. Favor fish caught by hook and line, handline, troll (not to be confused with "trawl" fishing, which can be very destructive), jig or speargun.
5. Avoid fish that are high in mercury, PCBs or farmed fish that are given antibiotics.

Best Fish to Eat in Summer:
East Coast
Mahi Mahi (troll, pole)
Shellfish (mussels, oysters, clams) (farmed)
Snapper (preferably Yellowtail)
Stone Crab
Striped Bass (aka Rockfish) (hook & line, farmed)
Swordfish (harpoon, troll, pole)
Yellowfin Tuna (troll, pole)
West Coast
Abalone (farmed)
Albacore Tuna (troll, pole)
Dungeness Crab
King Salmon (Alaska) (pole, troll)
Oregon Pink Shrimp
Pacific Cod (hook & line, longline & trap)
Pacific Halibut
Rainbow Trout (farmed)

Sablefish (aka Black Cod or Butterfish) (Alaska wild)
Salmon (Alaska wild)
Sardines (Pacific) (U.S. wild-caught)
Shellfish (mussels, oysters, clams) (farmed)
Striped Bass (aka Rockfish) (hook & line or farmed)
White Seabass (hook & line)

Much of the fish available today in the United States is imported, and frequently from places where health and environmental standards are weak or non-existent. Worldwide, regulation of the fishing industry is poorly enforced, and less than 2 percent of seafood imports to the U.S. are inspected for contamination.

Shipping fish around the world has a negative impact on the climate, but it can have an even greater impact on our oceans. With nearly 85 percent of the world's fisheries overfished, our seafood choices are more important than ever. Decades of overfishing have driven many fish populations to levels so low that recovery is a long-term proposition.

Farm raised or wild-caught?
Aquaculture, the farming of fish and seafood, has resulted in a far-reaching variety of environmental consequences, including the escape of farmed fish from their containment that threatens native wild fish populations; the spread of deadly diseases and parasites; and the pollution of our oceans from the inputs and outputs of fish farming. Though presented by the industry as a "solution" to over-fishing, the overwhelming evidence is that aquaculture is not relieving any pressures on wild fisheries.

Studies also have found farmed fish to be less healthful than their wild counterparts. Fish farms frequently use antibiotics to control disease in their crowded pens, and PCBs accumulate in farmed fish at a higher rate than wild fish. PCBs can cause significant health concerns for both humans and the environment, and are associated with increased risk of cancer, disrupting the endocrine system, and contributing to developmental and reproductive problems.

Eating seasonally — whether it's fruits, vegetables or fish — is a healthier choice for both our plates and our planet. Use the tips above to go fishing this summer in your grocer's seafood department and try this wonderful recipe for wild Alaska salmon.

- HERB-ROASTED WILD ALASKA SALMON
- 1 (2- to 2 1/2-pound) skinless wild Alaska salmon fillet
 - 1 teaspoon coarse sea salt
 - 1 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
 - 1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper
 - 1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
 - 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
 - 1/2 teaspoon lemon zest
 - 4 minced whole green onions, green tops and white parts
 - 1/2 cup minced fresh dill
 - 1/2 cup minced fresh parsley
 - 1/4 cup dry white wine, chicken or vegetable stock
 - Lemon wedges

1. Heat oven to 425 F.
2. Place the salmon in a ceramic glass or stainless-steel roasting dish and season with salt, black and cayenne pepper. Whisk the olive oil and lemon juice together and drizzle over the salmon. Let sit at room temperature for 15 minutes.
3. In a small bowl, stir together the lemon zest, scallions, dill and parsley. Scatter the herbs over the salmon, turning it so that both sides are coated. Pour the wine or broth around the fish fillet in the roasting dish.
4. Roast the salmon for 10 to 12 minutes, until firm and almost cooked in the center. Cover the dish tightly with aluminum foil and allow to rest for 10 minutes. Cut the salmon crosswise into serving pieces, and serve hot with lemon wedges. Serves 6.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Can it really be that Sesame Street is suing The Muppets? Has the world gone crazy? Sesame Street is suing STX films because of "The Happy Time Murders," which stars Melissa McCarthy, Maya Rudolph and Joel McHale and was directed by Muppets owner Brian Henson, son of Jim Henson (creator of The Muppets). The film follows the murders of 1980s Muppet Show characters being bumped off one by one. STX says, "We loved the idea of working closely with Brian Henson and the Jim Henson Company to tell the story of the active lives of Henson puppets when they're not performing in front of children!" (WHAT?!) They further added, "While we're disappointed Sesame Street doesn't share in the fun, we're confident in our legal position."

Natalie Dormer

Need further proof that the world's gone mad? Roseanne Barr's big mouth has put hundreds of people out of work because of her unnecessary remarks that caused ABC to cancel "Roseanne." Mario Batali's charges of sexual misconduct got him axed from "The Chew," which has been canceled in turn. Batali also was removed from his many eateries in NYC, Los Angeles, Chicago and Boston, including Babbo, Del Posto, Eataly, Esca, Lupa and Osteria Mozza, and all his products have been removed from their shelves. We're talking a small fortune. Now his three restaurants in Las Vegas (two in The Venetian Hotel and one in The Palazzo Hotel) are being closed July 27. This means hundreds of more people have lost their jobs because of celebrity misconduct.

Producers Craig Zadan and Neil Meron, who gave us "The Sound of Music Live" (2013), "Peter Pan Live" (2014), "The Wiz Live" (2015), "Hair-spray Live" (2016) and "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" (2018), are preparing three shows for 2019,

"A Few Good Men Live," "Bye, Bye Birdie Live" and the 1968 avant-garde groundbreaking musical "Hair" (Live). The film version of "Hair" (1979) failed because the nude scene, which caused the Broadway show to be raided several times, was omitted. Is TV ready for a nude scene?"

"Game of Thrones" star Natalie Dormer will produce and star in a mini-series as Oscar-winner Vivian Leigh, who won for "Gone with the Wind" (1939) and "A Streetcar Named Desire" (1951). Each episode revolves around her films and marriage to legendary actor Laurence Olivier. Dormer soon will be seen in "Patient Zero," with "Doctor Who" star Matt Smith, and in "The Professor and the Madman," with Mel Gibson and Sean Penn.

Finally, Disney is disappointed in the early grosses for "Solo," which proves even if you're in "Star Wars," you may not be able to fly "Solo!"

Cookie Baking Tips

—To prevent cookies from becoming hard and tough, avoid adding more flour than necessary to the cookie dough or batter. Also, avoid overmixing once the flour is added.

—For even baking, be sure to shape cookies to roughly the same thickness.

—If you have a problem with your cookies being too brown on the bottom, avoid dark-colored cookie sheets. Instead, use heavy-gauge metal cookie sheets with a dull finish (aluminum is ideal).

—To avoid burning your cookies, check cookies at the minimum baking time suggested in the recipe, and then watch them closely during their last few minutes in the oven. Also, after baking be sure to remove small cookies from cookie sheet to wire rack right away because they'll continue to bake on the hot sheet.

—Don't place cookies on top of each other when cooling — this will cause them to become soggy and lose their shape.

—Do your cookies turn hard the next day? Placing a slice of bread in the cookie jar can soften cookies; change the slice every other day. A bread slice also will also keep soft cookies soft, just as it softens hardened brown sugar.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On July 7, 1797, for the first time in U.S. history, the House of Representatives votes to impeach a federal officer. Sen. William Blount of Tennessee was charged with "a high misdemeanor" for entering into a conspiracy with British officers to enlist frontiersmen and Cherokee Indians to aid the British.
- On July 3, 1863, on the third day of the Battle of Gettysburg, Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee's last attempt at breaking the Union line ends in disastrous failure, bringing the most decisive battle of the American Civil War to an end. The tally: 23,000 killed, wounded or missing Union soldiers. The Confederates suffered some 25,000 casualties.
- On July 4, 1919, challenger Jack Dempsey defeats heavyweight champion Jess Willard in searing 110-degree heat in Toledo, Ohio, to win the heavyweight championship of the world. "The Manassa Mauler" bested Willard in 10 minutes.
- On July 6, 1933, Major League Baseball's first All-Star Game takes place at Chicago's Comiskey Park. The event was designed to bolster the sport and improve its reputation during the darkest days of the Great Depression.
- On July 8, 1950, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the hero of the war against Japan, is appointed head of the United Nations Command by President Harry Truman. Truman fired MacArthur nine months later after he defied the president and threatened to escalate hostilities with China.
- On July 5, 1975, although seemingly past his prime, Arthur Ashe defeats a heavily favored Jimmy Connors to become the first black man ever to win Wimbledon, the most coveted championship in tennis.
- On July 2, 1992, the 1 millionth Corvette, a white LT1 roadster with a red interior and a black roof — the same colors as the original 1953 model — rolls off the assembly line in Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Health And Well-Being

Toward Pain-Free Gardening

(NAPSA)—You can lessen the aches and pains that can come from growing a beautiful garden if you heed the advice of gardening expert and author Melinda Myers:

- Smart Gardening
- Vertical Gardening—Garden up. Grow plants on a blank wall, fence or post. Height makes gardening easier and creates visual interest.
- Choose Your Tools Wisely—Look for ergonomic grips, long handles and ratcheted tools to keep your posture upright, give you more power and make the grip easier.
- Leverage Heavy Loads—Split up large loads into smaller increments. Use everyday items such as a wagon or winter sled to help you move supplies around.
- Take Breaks—Work five-minute breaks into your gardening schedule to lower your likelihood of injury. Try easy back bends from the waist and don't work for more than 20 to 30 minutes straight. Stay attentive to weather and flexibility: Do additional stretches or warm-ups if you feel stiff or cold.
- Keep Tools Sharp—File trowels, shears and shovels. Dull tools mean more strain.

After Gardening
 If you follow all these tips and still wind up with back pain or you already have joint or low back pain, here are a few tips to alleviate acute pain:

- Heat and/or ice treatments
- Exercise, stretching techniques
- Visit a health care provider, such as a physical therapist or chiropractor, if after four weeks the pain has not lessened.
- Try over-the-counter medications such as Omron's 100 percent drug-free, nonprescription, electrotherapy pain relief unit. It can begin managing lower back pain, muscle and joint pain in about 15 minutes.

"As an avid gardener with two knee replacements, I'm always in search of alternative tactics to combat joint pain," said Myers. "Electrotherapy treatment lets me garden without needing to stop due to the joint pain that often comes with kneeling, reaching and lifting."

Electrotherapy Treatment
 The unit uses Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulation (TENS) technology to deliver gentle, massagelike pulses for on-the-spot pain relief. Electrotherapy is commonly used by physical therapists to treat muscle and joint pain.

"Electrotherapy has proven effective in physical therapy for more than 30 years," said Dr. Jeffery Mannheimer, a physical therapist on the forefront of electrotherapy research. "The effect of such therapy is immediate, repeatable and drug-free, making it an alternative choice for chronic and acute pain relief."

The unit is the first over-the-counter TENS product available nationally at major retail stores, including CVS, Walgreens, Rite Aid and other retailers in the pain products area, as well as online retailers such as Amazon.com, Drugstore.com, Walgreens.com and store.omronhealthcare.com.

The Great Garden Makeover Sweepstakes
 To further help people reach their lifestyle goals, including enjoying gardening more, the company created the Great Garden Makeover Sweepstakes. Visit www.omronpainrelief.com/sweeps before June 22 and enter for a chance to win $5,000 toward your dream garden, plus a one-hour free garden consultation with Myers. Additional prize packs, which will be given away weekly, include a pain relief unit, replacement pads and "Melinda's Garden Moments" DVD.

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting
 By Terry and Kim Kovel

Shell-Shaped Watch Holder

Shell-shaped decorative objects were very popular during the 19th century. There were trinket boxes covered in tiny shells, counter bells made with several mother-of-pearl shells put together into a container, or nautilus shells used as part of cleverly shaped lamps that held a special light bulb. Some large conch shells were kept whole as decorations, often with the addition of a cameo carved into

Q. My mother gave me a small box, 6 1/2 by 3 3/4 by 1 1/4 inches, with five small dolls inside. Each doll is 3 1/2 inches tall. It says on the top of the box "Best Maid Quintuplets," "No. 63077" and "Made in Japan." Is this of any value?

A. The Dionne quintuplets, Yvonne, Annette, Cecile, Emilie and Marie, were born in Canada on May 28, 1934. They were the first quintuplets to survive infancy. When they were four months old, they became wards of the Canadian government and were put under the guardianship of Dr. Dafoe, the doctor who delivered them. The girls lived in the Dafoe nursery, where they became a major tourist attraction. They returned to live with their family in 1943. Thousands of special dolls and souvenirs were made picturing the quintuplets at different ages. Annette and Cecile are still alive. The value of your dolls is about $20.

CURRENT PRICES
 Calendar, 1941, Bensing Bros. and Denney, pin-up girl, bathing beauty, brunette in black swimsuit, cardboard litho, Earl Moran, 10 x 5 inches, $15.

 Eye exam chart, wooden plaque, two-sided, black metal frame, E.B. Meyrowitz Surgical Instruments Co., 1935, 8 x 6 inches, $375.

Great Grilling

The Ins And Outs Of Safe Outdoor Cooking

(NAPSA)—Your next barbecue may be better if you follow these 10 tips from the experts at the United States Department of Agriculture on keeping food safe when cooking outside:

1. When shopping, buy meat and poultry last. Choose packages that feel cold and are not torn. Separate raw meat and poultry from other food in your shopping cart to guard against cross-contamination. Plan to go directly home from the grocery store.
2. At home, freeze or refrigerate meat and poultry immediately. Freeze poultry and ground meat that won't be used in a day or two; freeze other meat within four or five days.
3. Completely thaw meat and poultry before grilling so it cooks evenly. Use the refrigerator for slow, safe thawing or thaw sealed packages in cold water. You can microwave defrost if the food will be placed immediately on the grill.
4. Keep meat and poultry cold until you're ready to put it on the grill. If you're carrying food to another location, keep it in an insulated cooler with sufficient ice or ice packs so it stays at 40° F or below. Keep the cooler out of the direct sun and avoid opening the lid too often.
5. Start with clean hands—wash them for at least 20 seconds with warm, soapy water—and a clean grill and utensils.
6. Be sure the grill is hot enough to safely cook your food.
7. Remember, meat and poultry cooked on a grill often brown very fast on the outside. Use a thermometer to be sure the food has reached a safe minimum internal temperature—poultry: 165° F; ground meats: 160° F; beef, pork, lamb and veal, steaks, chops and roasts: 145° F—and allow to rest at least three minutes before carving or consuming.

Grill It Safe. Keep hot food hot and cold food cold.

8. Keep hot food hot. After cooking meat and poultry on the grill, keep it hot until served—at 140° F or warmer. Refrigerate perishable food within two hours (one hour if the temperature is 90° F or above).
9. When taking food off the grill, use a clean platter. Don't put cooked food on the same platter that held raw meat or poultry. Any harmful bacteria present in the raw meat juices could contaminate safely cooked food.
10. Refrigerate any leftovers promptly in shallow containers. Discard any food left out more than two hours (one hour if temperatures are above 90° F). Bacteria can grow rapidly between 40° and 140° F.

Safety Around The Home

How To Keep The People And Things You Care For Safe At Home

(NAPSA)—From kids and pets, to your home or business, there is a lot you want to protect. There are many things you need to consider when wanting to keep your loved ones safe and your valuables secure. To help, here are some top tips:

First and foremost, security has come a long way from the days of alarm systems with monthly monitoring fees from a security company, or the dependency on your neighbors to respond when they hear the alarm. With today's smart home and Internet of things technology, it is economical, easy and very effective to install an enterprise-level security system to keep a constant eye on what matters most to you.

If you are seeking an easy way to have a watchful eye on your home when you are away, you can install a smart home security camera system for a relatively small investment, compared to the security systems of old. A good example is the NETGEAR Arlo security camera systems, which can take a lot of the worrying out of your life. "Install" is a bit of a misleading term in that Arlo cameras are 100 percent wire-free; just snap the cameras onto the magnetic mount for easy placement. Without the need for power or a hardwire to your Internet connection, you can strategically place the cameras inside and outside, with no concern for how they would perform in adverse weather conditions because they are weatherproof rated. In minutes, you'll be set up to monitor your valuables from the palm of your hand anywhere in the world. You can even share camera access or specific videos with friends and family.

These cameras also come with rechargeable batteries and have an optional solar panel accessory that is worry free. And, with the two-way audio, you can even greet FedEx and let the delivery person know where to place your latest Amazon purchases.

Simplicity is the name of the game here with these new technologies. The free app is designed so you can access video, receive alerts and get a live view of your video feed. It is available for iOS

A smart home security system can help you have peace of mind wherever you are.

(Apple), Android, Apple TV and Web browser with no hidden charges and allows you to check in with a live video feed at any time. With the motion-activated alerts, you can respond to emergencies immediately—100-decibel siren included—and also have a record for any potential follow-up with your local police department.

The Arlo camera system can protect in three ways:

1. At Home: Whether you're on the couch or at the office, it will alert you when someone's coming. From housekeepers and babysitters to repairmen, mail delivery and gardeners, you can keep tabs on all the activity around your house.

2. Business Security: See what your workers are up to when you're not there or check to ensure the cleaners locked up properly after closing.

3. Pet Monitoring: See what happens when you're away and take whatever steps are needed to keep pets (and neighbors) smiling. Geofencing is available.

Additionally, NETGEAR has created an initiative called Arlo Cares, to partner with communities to provide options when it comes to their security. Arlo Cares works with public safety professionals as well as nonprofit organizations to demonstrate how easy it can be for community members, working together, to promote a safer and more secure environment for their friends, family and fellow neighbors.

There are also plenty more tips you can follow to ensure the security of your property.

Something that may not always be common sense in this day of connected networks is: Don't post your travel plans on social media. We all love to share our travel experiences with friends and family and our social channels make it so easy to do so; however, be warned if your accounts are public. You could be broadcasting to the world that no one is home.

Also, the old standby still holds: If you'll be away for any extended time, stop mail and newspaper deliveries, and ask a neighbor to remove any flyers that might be placed on your doorstep.

It is always a good idea to keep shrubs and bushes trimmed and to use outdoor lighting to eliminate places where a potential prowler could hide. There are even plenty of motion-activated lights that can put more light on a subject, so to speak. And remember those timers; these are still effective ways to turn lights and televisions on and off when you are not home. It gives the impression of activity to any passersby.

You should also be wary of anyone offering repairs or contract work door-to-door. Ask to see his or her operating license and call the company. They may just be snooping to see if someone is home during the day, or if they do get contracted, they may have an open invitation to evaluate the contents of your home and accessibility options.

Many of us have very busy lives and the sense of community is often a remote one, but it is still important to get to know your neighbors. You can also leave spare keys with someone you trust, and don't place them under a doormat or planter or other obvious hiding place. Lock exterior doors at night and every time you leave the house, even if it's just for a few minutes. Lock gates, garage doors and shed doors after every use. Keep outdoor lights on in the evening—whether or not someone is home. Secure sliding glass doors with a dowel or pin.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

The Garden Bug
Summer storms
Tender, young plants are very vulnerable to damage from heavy rain, strong winds and hailstorms. Monitor local weather reports daily throughout the growing season. Keep plenty of buckets, plastic jugs or pots on hand to place over each young plant for the duration of the storm, placing a brick or a heavy rock on top to secure it. Remove promptly when danger is past.

FLASHBACK
 POP, ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BARBER

1. Who wrote and released "I Saw Linda Yesterday"?
2. Who released "Try a Little Tenderness" in 1966?
3. What group released "The Way You Do the Things You Do"?
4. Who released "Pieces of April"?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "He couldn't swim the raging river, 'Cause the river was too wide, He couldn't reach Little White Dove, Waiting on the other side."

Answers

1. Dickey Lee, in 1963. Most of Lee's fame came in later years when he moved over to the country charts.
2. Otis Redding. The song was written in 1932 and was first released by one of the Big Bands as a peppy dance tune.
3. The Temptations, in 1964. It was their first charting single, going to No. 1 on the CashBox R&B chart. The song was written by Smokey Robinson.
4. Three Dog Night, in 1972. It was written by Dave Loggins, cousin of Kenny Loggins.
5. "Running Bear," by Johnny Preston in 1959. The song tells of two Indian lovers who couldn't be together because their tribes were at war. They're determined to be together, and drown when they meet in the middle of the raging river that separates them.

Thanksgiving Novena to ST. JUDE

O Holy St. Jude Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ. Faithful intercessor of all who invoke this special patronage in time of need. To you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg you, to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and three Glory Be's. Publication must be promised. St Jude pray for us and all who invoke your aid. Amen. This novena has never been known to fail. It helped me. Thank you St. Jude for answering my prayers.

Open-Shop Electrical Contractors, Your Time is Now!

For the past several years IBEW Local 99 has been actively recruiting, testing and welcoming into our Local: Apprentices, Journeymen Wiremen, Tele-com Techs and Contractors.

That effort has been an amazing success. We now have a database of many unrepresented hard working men and women who will be coming in the Union. Many of these people currently work in parts of the industry that the IBEW has historically not been as prevalent in, such as Residential and Light commercial.

We are now looking to expand our recruitment of high quality and ethical open shop contractors that specialize in that type of work.

Discover the value IBEW can have for your company:

- You pay nothing to the Union to sign with us!
- Immediate access to indentured apprentices!
- 1-1000 qualified Men and Women available with a single phone call!
- IBEW quickly becoming the main source of manpower in the Northeast!
- Flexible rates for non-traditional work!
- Your partner in protecting the industry!
- The safest and most productive workforce in the industry!
- The undisputed best training facility and staff in the industry!
- Complete flexibility in Staffing!
- Access to General Contractors and Bidding Opportunities!
- Free Benefit Management!
- Contractor Training and Support!

We are looking for only the best in manpower and contractors. If you are a great contractor, we should be talking to you now. There are many very unsatisfied craftspeople looking for a better life who are available right now and ready to move to your company!

Dr. Keith

Was Son Right to Ignore His Doctor's Advice?

DEAR DR. ROACH: My son is 40 years old. After a recent stress test, he ended up with five stents in his arteries, and also was diagnosed with diabetes. His doctor ordered him not to go back to work for three or four weeks, but he went back after three days. He told the doctor that he would be more stressed if he stayed home. His job is mostly sitting down. Since he didn't follow the advice, how will this affect his health? — V.B.

ANSWER: We don't normally have people stay home for long periods of time after placement of stents, so I was surprised to hear that he was "ordered" (I almost never "order," only recommend, more or less strongly) to stay home.

My experience is that after receiving life-changing diagnoses, such as diabetes or coronary artery disease, it's best to keep some habits, such as work, the same and change others. For your son, I am sure he will be recommended a proper diet for diabetes and exercise appropriate for a person with a new diagnosis of heart disease.

DEAR DR. ROACH: I've suffered from essential tremor for 16 years. I take 500 mg of primidone and 40 mg of propranolol twice daily. I've gradually increased the dose over the years, and the combination works quite well. What is the highest dose of these medications that I can take? Also, are there any new drugs on the market that have been proven to help? — S.S.

ANSWER: Primidone, a medication indicated for seizures, often is used off-label for essential tremor. The normal dose for essential tremor is 250-500 mg at night, but doses up to 750 mg sometimes are used. For seizures, the highest recommended dose is 2,000 mg, so although yours is at the high end of normal for essential tremor ("essential," by the way, simply means we don't know what is causing it; it isn't essential for anything), you still are at a dose that's well below the safe limit. I suspect that because you have been on it for so long, your body is used to this dose. The usual starting dose is 25 mg.

Propranolol is used for many conditions, including high blood pressure and preventing migraines, but its use in essential tremor also is off-label, meaning that the Food and Drug Administration has not approved the drug for use for this condition. "Off-label" doesn't necessarily mean your prescription is wrong or dangerous, only that it hasn't been approved by the FDA. In your case, the combination of primidone and propranolol frequently is used and recommended in the medical literature. For essential tremor, experts have recommended doses up to 320 mg per day, but the dose can be limited by slow heart rate or low blood pressure.

If you are doing well, there is no reason to change. Other medications frequently used for essential tremor include gabapentin and topiramate. There also are surgical treatments, deep brain stimulation, gamma knife radiation and ultrasound for resistant cases.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual letters, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu. To view and order health pamphlets, visit www.rbmanall.com, or write to Good Health, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Before you adventurous Arians charge right into those new projects, take a little time to learn where you'll be going so you can avoid getting lost before you get there.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your time is devoted to career demands through much of the week. But Venus, who rules your sign, might be planning how (and with whom) you'll spend your weekend.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Don't be put off by the surprising turn in the way your project is developing. You've invested enough time in it to know how to make all the necessary adjustments.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The work week goes smoothly for the most part. But a weekend visit to a place in your past could hold surprises for your future, especially where romance is involved.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) A sudden attack of shyness for the usually loquacious Lion could be a sign that deep down you're not sure enough about what (or whom) you had planned to talk up in public.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Deal with that job-related problem on-site — that is, at the workplace. Avoid taking it home, where it can spoil those important personal plans you've made.

Chewy Chocolate Chip Oatmeal-Raisin Cookies

If you thought the words "delicious" and "low-fat" could never be used to describe one cookie, think again. This one's chewy, sweet and chock-full of chocolate bits, yet it still packs only 2 grams of fat per serving.

- Nonstick cooking spray
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) light corn-oil spread (56 to 60 percent fat)
- 3/4 cup packed dark brown sugar
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 large egg whites
- 1 large egg
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 cup quick-cooking oats
- 1 cup low-fat semisweet-chocolate pieces
- 1/2 cup dark seedless raisins
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

1. Heat oven to 375 F. Spray 2 large cookie sheets with nonstick cooking spray.
2. In large bowl, with mixer at low speed, beat corn-oil spread, brown sugar and sugar until combined. Increase speed to high; beat until light and fluffy.
3. Add egg whites, egg and vanilla extract; beat until smooth.
4. With spoon, stir in flour, oats, chocolate pieces, raisins, baking soda and salt until combined.
5. Drop dough by level tablespoons, about 2 inches apart, on cookie sheets. Place cookie sheets on 2 oven racks. Bake cookies 10 to 12 minutes until golden, rotating cookie sheets between upper and lower racks halfway through baking time. With pancake turner, remove cookies to wire racks to cool.
6. Repeat until all batter is used. Store cookies in tightly covered containers.

• Each serving: About 90 calories, 2g total fat (1g saturated), 4mg cholesterol, 65mg sodium, 16g carbohydrate, 1g protein.

Q. Have you heard whether "Champions" or "Timeless" has been renewed by NBC? — Tyler W., via email

A. As of this writing, NBC has yet to decide the fate of these two shows, which is kind of unusual in this industry, to take this long. Perhaps the top brass don't want to be quite so hasty, especially with "Timeless." If you remember from last year, they canceled the show, and then, amid fan backlash, in an almost unprecedented move, they uncanceled it. If you watch the show, then you know it has made great strides in season two, with wonderful chemistry between the actors, a riveting main storyline, and even-more-interesting side storylines. I especially loved learning Agent Christopher's (played by Sakina Jaffrey) backstory of how she became the woman she is today.

Sakina Jaffrey

and Maritza survive without each other (we saw them being ushered off to separate prisons at the end of last season)?

Q. I just burned through the new season of "13 Reasons Why," and I have to believe there will be another season. Am I right? — Vincent R., Conyers, Ga.

A. There will indeed, Vincent. Hot on the heels of a successful second season, Netflix has confirmed that the teen drama will be back for a 13-episode third season in 2019. However, Katherine Langford, who played Hannah, will not be back for season three, but creator Brian Yorkey will return as showrunner, and his plans for the series includes creating a "story ... about young people ... and how to heal from the things that have hurt them ... to make the world that they want it to be, not just the world they are inheriting ... and above all, how to take care of each other."

Q. When will "Orange Is the New Black" be back? I'm getting antsy over here! — Linda R., via Twitter

A. The sixth season of Netflix's hit prison dramedy will drop July 27, and the tagline for this season is: "Bye-bye, Litchfield — it's a whole new world!" I'm interested to see what will come of our favorite ladies in orange, especially now that a lot of them have been separated because of the prison fire. What will happen to Piper, Suzanne, Red, Alex, Taystee, Nicky, Black Cindy, Frieda, Blanca and Gloria now that they are in a standoff with CERT officers? What fallout will there be after the accidental death of Piscatella by a newbie officer? How will Flaca

HOLY SPIRIT, You who solve all problems. You light all roads so that I can obtain my goals. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life, you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you even and in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. Say for three days. After 3 days the favor requested will be granted even if it appears difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after favor is granted without mentioning favor. Thank you Holy Spirit.

Prayer to St. Jude
Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

New DVDs Reviewed in This Column Will be Released the Week of June 18, 2018

Pacific Rim: Uprising (PG-13) — It's the next generation's turn to throw giant robots at otherworldly monsters in the sequel to Guillermo del Toro's inventive 2013 original. This is no shiny new penny, though: The Jaegers (human-controlled giant robot-type vehicles) are still battling the Kaijus (also giant alien-controlled monsters that threaten the existence of all life on Earth). John Boyega stars as Jake Pentecost, son of Stacker Pentecost, from the original. A jaded former pilot turned fringe criminal, he is pressed into serving as a trainer and bringing along a ragtag recruit: the scrappy hacker Amara (Cailee Spaeny). As new threats emerge, it's down to Jake, Amara and Jake's former co-pilot Nate Lambert (Scott Eastwood) to stop the re-emergent threat of the Kaiju. Charlie Day reprises as Dr. Geiszler.

est dungeon, as a threat to the Roman Empire. He awaits death, but what is on his mind is his life — Paul began his life persecuting Christians before his own conversion. The streets of Rome are a bloodbath, with faith flagging in even the staunchest. Luke (Jim Caviezel, in another impassioned biblical performance) risks life and limb to visit Paul in order to tell his story. The message: God forgives, and His grace abounds. Joanne Whalley and John Lynch also appear as Priscilla and Aquilla, companions to Paul during his ministry.

Scene from "Paul, Apostle of Christ"

Unsane (R) — It's a new job in a new city for Sawyer Valentini (Claire Foy), whose previous life involved a troubling stalker named David (Joshua Leonard). She's doing all the right things to recover, including joining a local support group. But, she is coerced into a 24-hour commitment to the psych ward for evaluation, which turns into a twisted and trapped nightmare. An orderly is revealed as her former stalker, and as the body count rises, reality becomes skewed. Director Steven Soderbergh is known for innovation, and this is no exception: The film was shot in relative secret and entirely on an iPhone 7 Plus.

Paul, Apostle of Christ (PG-13) — A detailing of the final days of the apostle Paul (James Faulkner), imprisoned in Roman Emperor Nero's dark-

Midnight Sun (PG-13) — Bella Thorne, once a Disney teen princess, stars as Katie, a girl with a rare disease that precludes her being exposed to sunlight. (Full disclosure: She is not a vampire; this is a real disease that's hastily and shoddily portrayed.) She's been kept company for these many years (17) by her dad (Rob Riggle), her bestie (Quinn Shephard) and the view through her window of hunky Charlie (Patrick Schwarzenegger — yes, he's Arnold's son). The two connect one night and begin a summer romance. But how long can she keep her secret and her health? The biggest question, though, is why this was a theatrical release and not a TV movie of the week.
